TAX ANTICIPATION NOTES

We carry a good list of short term County and Municipal notes at all times available for banks and investors.

These notes run from sixty days to a year, are payable in New York and carry legal opinion. Income from these notes is totally exempt from the Federal Income Tax and they make a very attractive short term investment in comparison with commercial paper.

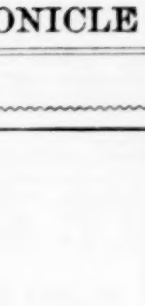
Sketch of Pole in West St., N. Y., in 1887, carrying 25 Cross Arms and 250 Wires.

Do you remember this?

IF YOUR memory goes back to the nineties, you may retain a picture of great numbers of telephone wires strung high on poles in the streets of large cities.

These wires multiplied to such an extent that construction and maintenance were increasingly difficult. It became desirable to put the wires underground. But nobody knew how to do it. The first experiments were failures. The voice faded out. Difficult technical problems had to be overcome. But science gradually triumphed and today the Bell System has $524,000,000 invested in underground conduits and cables that contain 30,000,000 miles of wire.

The total wire mileage of the Bell System is 45,000,000, interconnecting over 16,700,000 telephones and carrying 50,000,000 messages daily.



This nation-wide plant and its widespread service underlie Bell System securities.

The dividend rate of the stock of A. T. & T.—parent company of the Bell System—is 9%. This investment stock can be bought in the open market to yield a good return. Write for booklet, "Some Financial Facts."

Lord's Court Building

New York City

LORD'S COURT-EXCHANGE PLACE CORPORATION

First Mortgage 5½% Sinking Fund Gold Loan

Dated June 1, 1926 Due December 1, 1942

Semi-annual interest (June 1 and December 1) payable at the principal office of The Trustee in New York City, without deduction of any Federal income tax not in excess of two per cent. Denominations of $1,000 and $500. Refund of Pennsylvania, Connecticut, California and Kansas tax not to exceed four mills, Michigan five mills exemption tax, Maryland four and one-half mills tax, Kentucky and District of Columbia five mills tax, Virginia five and one-half mills tax and Massachusetts income tax not to exceed six per cent., to resident holders upon proper and timely application.

Location: The Lord's Court Building occupies the southwest corner of Exchange Place and William Street, New York City, in the heart of the financial district, one of the most important and desirable sections of the metropolitan area. The building is diagonally opposite the National City Bank, directly opposite the Farmers Loan & Trust Company, and adjacent to the Corn Exchange Bank.

Building: The Lord's Court Building, consisting of 20 stories and a basement, is of limestone, brick, steel and fireproof construction, and has been maintained in excellent condition. It is served by nine high-speed elevators and has its own power and light plant.

Earnings: The building contains approximately 200,000 square feet of net rentable area and has been practically entirely rented for a period of years. The earnings of the Lord's Court Building for the year ended December 31, 1925, after giving effect to the new managerial charge contracted for, are reported by certified public accountants as follows:

Gross Earnings	$512,913.09
Operating Expenses, Maintenance, Insurance and Taxes	222,513.79
Balance	$290,399.30
Maximum Annual Interest Charges on this loan	$137,390.00

Security: This loan will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on the land and building owned in fee. The plot extends approximately 70.4 feet on William Street and 107 feet on Exchange Place, being an irregular plot containing a total ground area of approximately 14,554 square feet. The total independently appraised value of the property is $4,483,000. The land alone is appraised at $2,183,000, over 87% of the amount of the loan. Based upon these appraisals, this loan represents less than a 56 per cent. mortgage, and these certificates, in the opinion of counsel, are legal for the investment of trust funds under the Laws of the State of New York. Title insurance for the full amount of this loan and adequate fire, liability and rent insurance will be carried, payable to the Trustee.

The operation of a quarterly sinking fund, beginning September 1, 1926, through purchase in the open market or by redemption, will reduce this loan to less than $1,900,000 by maturity.

This loan is offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of counsel.

Houston Lighting & Power Company

(HOUSTON, TEXAS)

First Lien and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A, 5%

Due March 1, 1953

Price 99½ and Interest

Dated March 1, 1923. Interest payable semi-annually March 1 and September 1 in New York without deduction for Federal Income Taxes now or hereafter deductible at the source, not in excess of 2%. Coupon bonds, in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, the $1,000 denomination interchangeable with fully registered bonds in denominations of $1,000 and authorized multiples. Redeemable as a whole or in part upon four weeks' published notice on or before March 1, 1928, at 105 and accrued interest and at 1% less for each five-year period thereafter to and including March 1, 1948 thereafter until and including March 1, 1950, at 100½ and accrued interest; and thereafter at the principal amount and accrued interest. Pennsylvania four mill tax refundable.

For detailed information regarding these bonds, attention is directed to a letter of Mr. Edwin B. Parker, President of the Company, from which the following is summarized:

The Company: Houston Lighting & Power Company supplies Houston, Texas, and 26 adjacent communities with electric power and light. The population of the territory served, which is estimated to exceed 220,000, has increased more than 350% since 1900. Houston is the centre of a territory rich in natural resources. It is one of the largest cotton markets in the world and one of the largest ports in the South.

Security: Series A Bonds, in the opinion of counsel, are secured equally with Series B and Series C Bonds by a direct mortgage on all the present physical property and franchises of the Company, subject to $4,503,000 underlying first mortgage (closed) bonds, of which $2,100,000 are deposited with the Trustee, thus causing these Bonds to share in their security.

Earnings: Gross earnings for the twelve months ended March 31, 1926, were $4,102,459. During the same period, net earnings amounted to $1,790,643 as compared with interest on bonds and other interest and deductions for the above period of $581,473, and with annual interest charges on bonds which will be outstanding in the hands of the public upon completion of this financing of $550,150. Since 1920 gross earnings increased 158% and net earnings 213%. During the period 1920 to 1925 net earnings for each calendar year have been largely in excess of bond interest requirements, the average annual net earnings amounting to $977,443, as compared with average bond interest paid or accrued of $246,443.

Supervision: The operations of the Houston Lighting & Power Company are supervised (under the direction and control of its board of directors) by the Electric Bond and Share Company, whose associated companies, located in different sections of the country, have successfully operated public utilities for many years.

If the remaining $150,000 of authorized Notes are issued hereafter, this Sinking Fund is to be proportionately increased.

United Artist Theatre Circuit, Inc.

7% Convertible Preferred Stock

Each share of Preferred Stock will carry as a bonus one share of Common Stock, both represented in the first instance by Allotment Certificates.

Transfer Agent:
The Equitable Trust Company of New York

Registrar:
Central Union Trust Company of New York

The following information is contained in a letter to J. & W. Seligman & Co. from Joseph M. Schenck, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, dated May 25, 1926:

Circuit of Theatres

United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., has been organized under the laws of Maryland by Joseph M. Schenck, Sidney Grauman, Lee Shubert, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks to construct or otherwise acquire, directly or through subsidiaries, motion picture theatres and interests therein in important cities of the United States.

The present financing, supplemented by real estate mortgages, leasing and other local arrangements, should be sufficient to complete the circuit as contemplated.

Contract with United Artists Corporation

The new Corporation will enter into a contract with United Artists Corporation (of Delaware), to run for 10 years, whereby:

(a) The theatres of the new Circuit have a preferential right to exhibit important United Artists pictures by way of "pre-release" or "first" runs before they are shown in other motion picture theatres in the same localities.

(b) United Artists pictures will, except in unusual cases, be exhibited in the threatres of the new Circuit on a percentage basis, i. e., box office receipts will be first applied to the cost of operating the theatres, including depreciation and an investment return to provide for 7% dividends on the Preferred Stock as its proceeds are employed in new theatres, and net profits thereafter will be divided in agreed percentages between United Artists Corporation (in full payment for the pictures) and the new Corporation (for its own profit).

United Artists Corporation has contracts pursuant to which it now is, or in the course of the next theatrical season will be, "distributing" to theatres throughout the world new motion pictures featuring:

Mary Pickford	Douglas Fairbanks
Norma Talmadge	Rudolph Valentino
Gloria Swanson	John Barrymore
Charles Chaplin	Buster Keaton

as well as motion pictures produced by well-established independent producers including Joseph M. Schenck. All of these artists or their producers, except Charles Chaplin, have already approved the ten-year contract above mentioned in so far as it affects their individual contracts with United Artists Corporation.

United Artists Corporation was organized in 1919 as a co-operative enterprise. Its contracts with its artist-and-producer-stockholders require them to deliver pictures to it at stated intervals.

Management and Policy

The management of the Circuit will be under Sidney Grauman, manager of the Egyptian Theatre at Hollywood, California.

Throughout the Circuit Mr. Grauman expects to give each picture a novel presentation and artistic surroundings, such as have led to an unparalleled record of picture runs in his Hollywood theatre (8 pictures only in 3½ years) and have made for him his great reputation on the Pacific Coast.

So far as practicable, he expects to run each picture (a) simultaneously in all the threatres of the Circuit, (b) for a run of four weeks, (c) "continuously" during the day and (d) with a box-office price of $1 top.

Messrs. J. & W. Seligman & Co. will be represented on the Board of Directors.

Estimated Earnings

Mr. Schenck estimates that the first full year's operations of the completed Circuit will show $2,000,000 earned on the Common Stock, equivalent to $4 per share. This estimate would indicate Preferred dividends earned not merely about 8 times over but considerably more times over, due to the fact that they rank ahead of the "picture's share" as well as the "theatre's share" of profits divided on a percentage basis.

The new Corporation proposes shortly to lease, or otherwise take over, certain existing theatres. Earnings from this source and from temporary employment of cash should be ample to cover Preferred dividend requirements pending completion of the Circuit.

Capitalization

	Authorized	To be Presently Outstanding
7% Convertible Preferred Stock (Par $100)	$4,000,000	$4,000,000
Common Stock (no par value)	600,000 shs.	500,000 shs.

The Preferred Stock is preferred as to dividends at the rate of 7% per annum and as to assets on dissolution or liquidation at $105 per share and accrued dividends. It is callable as a whole or in part on any dividend date on 60 days' notice at $105 per share and accrued dividends. It is non-voting with certain limited exceptions provided in the charter. Cumulative dividends from June 15, 1926, are payable quarterly on September 15, December 15, March 15 and June 15.

Convertibility

The Preferred Stock is convertible at any time at par into Common Stock at $40 per share, i. e., each share of Preferred Stock is exchangeable at the holder's option for 2½ shares of Common Stock; protection against dilution of the conversion privilege is provided in the charter.

In case any Preferred Stock is called, the right to convert extends up to 10 days prior to the redemption date.

Sinking Fund

Beginning September 1, 1930, the new Corporation must apply 20% of its annual net earnings after Preferred dividend requirements to the purchase or retirement of Preferred Stock, but there is to be credited on this sinking fund the par amount of all Preferred Stock converted into Common Stock.

Junior Capital

The organizers of the new Corporation have agreed to pay into its treasury $1,000,000 of cash to be represented by Common Stock and surplus.

We offer this Stock for delivery on or about June 15, 1926, in the form of J. & W. Seligman & Co. Allotment Certificates or interim receipts when, as and if the Stock is issued and accepted by us subject to the approval of our counsel, Messrs. Cravath, Henderson & de Gersdorff. Allotment Certificates will be dated June 15, 1926, and will entitle the holder to receive quarterly payments equal to dividends at the rate of 7% per annum on the Preferred Stock when such dividends are received by J. & W. Seligman & Co. On June 15, 1927, holders of Allotment Certificates will be entitled to surrender them and receive certificates for the Preferred and Common Stocks.

Note: In addition there will be outstanding not owned by Interstate Power Company, $9,427,700 funded debt of subsidiary companies and $1,929,200 par value of preferred stock of subsidiary companies.

Salient features as summarized by Mr. H. L. Clarke, President of the Company:

BUSINESS: Interstate Power Company (of Delaware), directly or through its subsidiary and controlled companies, furnishes electric light and power to 316 cities and communities located in the states of Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska and to one each in Oklahoma and Illinois, and in addition supplies gas to six cities and steam heat to one, and also operates a street railway and bus service in Dubuque and adjacent territory. The total population of the territory served by the system is approximately 420,000 and the customers total over 66,000. The combined annual electric output is about 84,000,000 K. W. H. Over 88% of the net earnings of the system is derived from the sale of electric light and power.

The subsidiary and controlled companies comprise the Interstate Power Company of Wisconsin, which is controlled through ownership of all outstanding stock and bonds; the Dubuque Electric Company, controlled through ownership of all outstanding common stock and approximately 12% of the preferred stock; the Tri-State Utilities Company, controlled through ownership of all outstanding common stock, and the Minnesota Electric Distributing Company, controlled through ownership of substantially all of its common stock.

PROPERTY: Practically all the properties of the Interstate Power Company system, with the exception of those of the Minnesota Electric Distributing Company and Tri-State Utilities Company, control of which companies was recently acquired, have been physically connected, and it is proposed that ultimately practically the whole system will be interconnected so as to permit a more efficient operation of the steam plants and a more complete utilization of electric energy generated by the hydro-electric plants. The Company and its subsidiary and controlled companies, including those recently acquired, own 23 steam electric generating plants, 14 hydro-electric generating plants, six gas plants and one steam heating plant; as well as the street railway and bus system in Dubuque. The combined properties have 184 substations and 3,908 miles of transmission lines and a complete system of distributing lines.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The proceeds of this issue will be used to reimburse the treasury of the Company for expenditures heretofore made for additions and improvements to physical properties and for other corporate purposes.

SECURITY: The First Mortgage Bonds are secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct first mortgage on all of the real estate, plants, transmission lines and other fixed properties and franchises owned by the Company (located in Minnesota and Iowa) and by the pledge of all first mortgage bonds and the entire outstanding stock of Interstate Power Company of Wisconsin, which owns the Wisconsin properties.

The properties which thus constitute the security for the First Mortgage Bonds have a value of approximately $18,700,000, based upon appraisals by Day & Zimmermann, Inc., Engineers, as of July 1, 1924 and January 1, 1925, plus subsequent additions and improvements aggregating approximately $3,700,000. The foregoing does not include the properties owned or controlled by Dubuque Electric Company, Tri-State Utilities Company and Minnesota Electric Distributing Company.

EARNINGS: For the twelve months ended December 31, 1925, the net earnings available for interest, depreciation and Federal taxes amounted to $1,811,770, or OVER TWICE the annual interest requirements of the Company's total funded debt, including this issue.

MAINTENANCE and RENEWAL and REPLACEMENT FUNDS: The mortgage provides for a Maintenance Fund and Renewal and Replacement Fund amounting to 8% and 5% respectively of the gross operating earnings.

MANAGEMENT: The Company has the benefit of the management of the Utilities Power & Light Corporation, through that corporation's ownership of its common stock.

We offer these bonds if, as and when issued and received by us and subject to approval of our counsel. All legal details in connection with the issuance of these bonds will be passed upon by Messrs. Rushmore, Bisbee and Stern, New York City, for the Bankers, and by Messrs. Matthews & Koegel, Chicago, for the Company. The books and accounts have been audited by Messrs. F. W. Lafrentz & Co. and Arthur Young & Co., Certified Public Accountants, and the properties have been examined by Day & Zimmermann, Inc., Engineers.

The Austrian Minister of Finance has approved the making of this loan by the Province of Styria.

Province of Styria: The Province of Styria is an autonomous state of the Austrian Republic. Its area of 6,329 square miles is one and one-quarter times that of Connecticut. The population is slightly under 1,000,000 inhabitants.

Styria is the chief mining and metal working Province of Austria. Its forest resources are the richest in the Republic. Principal industries are the manufacture of iron and steel, electrical machinery, lumber, furniture, pulp and paper. About one-half the population is engaged in commerce and industry and one-half in agriculture and forestry. Transportation facilities afford direct access to the Austrian and foreign markets. Graz, the capital of Styria, is the most important commercial and industrial city of southern Austria.

Security: These bonds will be the direct general obligation of the Province of Styria and in addition will be specifically secured by:

(1) a first charge on the revenues derived from the real estate taxes.

(2) a first charge on the share of the Province in Federal taxes, and

(3) in case the above mentioned taxes shall be less than four times the service charges of this loan, as further security, a first charge on such other revenues and taxes as shall be required to produce an amount equal to four times the total annual interest and amortization charges on these bonds.

(4) a first lien on real estate, shares, and securities owned by the Province having an aggregate estimated value of over twice the amount of the loan.

Pledged Revenues: The revenues of the Province of Styria derived from the real estate taxes and the provincial share of Federal taxes which are pledged to the security of this loan, have been as follows:

	Real Estate taxes	Provincial share of Federal Taxes	Total
1923	$289,464	$*804,896	$1,094,360
1925	809,885	1,378,958	2,188,843

The average of the total pledged taxes has for the last three years amounted to over 5 times the maximum interest charges of this loan and to over 4 times the annual average interest and sinking fund payment.

Finances: The Province has no external debt other than this loan. Its total internal funded and floating debt amounts to less than $775,000.

The estimated value of agricultural and industrial properties in Styria is in excess of $450,000,000 as compared with the total debt, inclusive of this loan, of $5,775,000.

Revenues have exceeded expenditures in each of the past three years.

Purpose of Issue: The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be used by the Province mainly for the following purposes:

(1) the developing of hydro-electric properties in which the Province has a substantial interest.
(2) for extension and improvement of provincial railways.
(3) for secured loans for the development of the dairy industry and the improvement of agriculture.
(4) for secured loans to municipalities for productive purposes.

Austria: The Republic of Austria has an area of 32,424 square miles and a population of over 6,500,000. Its political independence and territorial integrity are guaranteed by a protocol signed in 1922 by Great Britain, France, Italy and Czecho-Slovakia. The Austrian currency was the first in Europe to be stabilized and placed on a gold basis, after the war. The national budget for 1925 shows a surplus of revenues over all expenditures including capital investments.

The currency of Austria is the schilling with a gold parity of $.14071 United States gold. In making all conversions in this advertisement from Austrian schillings to U. S. dollars this rate of exchange has been used.

THE CHASE NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, Trustee

To be guaranteed as to principal, sinking fund and interest by S. S. Kresge

Mr. S. S. Kresge, Treasurer of The Kresge Foundation, has summarized his letter and other information furnished to the Bankers in relation to these Notes, as follows:

History

The Kresge Foundation was formed in 1924 under the laws of Michigan, as a trustee corporation, for charitable, educational and philanthropic purposes. Since that time I have donated to the Foundation real estate, leaseholds and securities valued at approximately $2,000,000. I am presently donating to the Foundation 500,000 shares of common stock of the S. S. Kresge Company, having a present market value of approximately $22,500,000. The Foundation is purchasing the land, leaseholds and buildings occupied by the L. S. Plaut & Company department store in Newark, N. J., and also the land and buildings occupied by The Palais Royal, Inc., department store in Washington, D. C. This purchase is being financed through a loan from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for $5,500,000 for twenty years at an average interest rate of 5¼%, secured by a first mortgage on the Newark property, and by the issue of $8,000,000 Ten-Year Collateral Trust 6% Gold Notes to be purchased by the Bankers.

Security

The Ten-Year Collateral Trust 6% Gold Notes will be the direct obligation of The Kresge Foundation, and will be secured by the pledge of 500,000 shares of the common stock of the S. S. Kresge Company, having a present market value of approximately $22,500,000. The Foundation, upon the completion of this financing, will have other assets, including equities in real estate and investments, amounting to over $9,000,000, carried at cost in respect to real estate holdings and at market for securities.

Earnings

The income of The Kresge Foundation from dividends on securities and rentals from improved real estate, for the ten-year period ending June 1, 1936, after deducting interest payable on mortgage indebtedness, should average $1,132,000 per annum. This income includes cash dividends on the common stock of the S. S. Kresge Company at the current rate. Dividends now being paid on this common stock are at the rate of $1.20 per share. Earnings of the S. S. Kresge Company for 1925, however, were at the rate of $3.17 per share, equivalent to $1,586,000 on the shares to be owned by the Foundation.

All of the Foundation's properties will be leased for long periods to responsible tenants and in most instances will be on terms which will provide an increased return each year.

Guaranty

The Ten-Year Collateral Trust 6% Gold Notes will bear my guaranty, by endorsement, of the payment of the principal, sinking fund and interest. After giving effect to my donation of 500,000 shares of S. S. Kresge Company common stock to The Kresge Foundation, my personal unpledged holdings in the S. S. Kresge Company will presently be not less than 1,000,000 shares of such common stock, having a current market value of approximately $45,000,000.

Legal proceedings—Messrs. Beekman, Bogue, Clark & Griscom, of New York, for the Bankers, and Messrs. Goodenough, Voorhies, Long & Ryan, of Detroit, for the Foundation. Auditors—Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co.

We offer these Notes "when, as, and if issued and received by us" and subject to the approval of counsel. Pending the issue of definitive Notes by the Foundation there will be issued temporary Notes or interim receipts exchangeable for temporary or definitive Notes when issued.

Debentures in $500 denomination will carry corresponding warrants for ten shares.

The following information has been furnished by Mr. A. E. Dickinson, President of the Company:

Business and Properties Indiana Limestone Company has been organized under the laws of the State of Indiana to acquire certain of the properties of 24 of the leading companies engaged in the business of quarrying and/or milling Indiana Limestone.

The plants and quarries are all located in the Indiana Limestone district in and around Bedford and Bloomington, Indiana. In this district is found the chief known deposit of limestone in the United States used for building construction. Approximately 38% of all building stone produced in the United States is Indiana Limestone, and about 75% of all limestone produced for building stone in this country is quarried in the Bedford-Bloomington district.

Security This issue of Debentures will be a direct and general obligation of Indiana Limestone Company and will be issued under an indenture to The Guardian Trust Co., Cleveland, Ohio, as Trustee. The fixed assets about to be acquired by the Company, including quarry lands, mill and farm lands, buildings, equipment, etc., have been appraised by Coats & Buchard Company, Engineers and Appraisers, as of March 25, 1926, as to the quarry lands at $30,000,000, based on their estimate of the stone which may be recovered in marketable shapes and sizes, and as to the other fixed assets at $9,301,957, or a total of $39,301,957. After allowance for the $15,000,000 Fifteen-Year First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds to be presently outstanding, there is left an equity of $24,301,957, or $4,860 for each $1,000 Debenture.

Earnings The consolidated net earnings of the companies, properties and assets of which are to be acquired, available for interest, after adjustment for salaries now to be eliminated, but before depreciation, depletion and Federal Taxes, as certified by Messrs. Ernst & Ernst, have averaged $3,504,747 annually for the three years ended December 31, 1925, which is equivalent to 2.8 times the combined annual interest requirements on the First Mortgage Bonds and Debentures to be presently outstanding and 2.26 times combined maximum annual interest charges and minimum fixed Sinking Funds on both issues. For the year ended December 31, 1925, such earnings were $3,108,016, or 2.48 times combined interest and Sinking Fund charges.

After deducting interest and minimum fixed Sinking Fund charges on First Mortgage Bonds, annual average net earnings for the three-year period ended December 31, 1925, were $2,404,747, or 6.87 times maximum annual interest requirements on the Debentures, or 5.34 times combined maximum interest and fixed Sinking Fund charges thereon. Such net earnings for the year ended December 31, 1925, were $2,008,016, or 5.73 times such interest requirements and 4.46 times such combined interest and Sinking Fund requirements.

Sinking Fund The indenture under which these Debentures are to be issued will provide for fixed Sinking Fund payments, and additional Sinking Fund payments based on earnings, which, calculated at the present rate, should retire approximately 80% of these Debentures by maturity.

Management The active management of the Company will be in the hands of Mr. A. E. Dickinson, President and General Manager of The Consolidated Stone Company, as President and Mr. C. W. Walters, President of Indiana Quarries Company and President of The Cleveland Stone Co., as Chairman of the Executive Committee, together with various other officials of the present operating companies.

These Debentures are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of counsel. It is expected that temporary Debentures or interim receipts will be available for delivery on or about June 8, 1926.

A RENEWED VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

In the cabinet form of government, in operation in many of the leading nations of the world, the prime minister, as the head of the government, continues in office only as long as he retains the confidence of a majority in the popular branch of the parliament.

and BY A STILL GREATER MAJORITY

Year after year the department stores of Chicago have placed the preponderance of their advertising in The Chicago Daily News — and in the first four months of 1926 they have placed a still greater proportion in The Chicago Daily News.

This is, and should be, of particular significance to other advertisers at this time. It is a renewed vote of confidence and by a still greater majority from that group of advertisers who are the shrewdest appraisers of every factor that enters into the cost—and the returns—of newspaper advertising in Chicago.

The Financial Situation.

The improvement in tone in the securities markets which was observable the latter part of last week has been more evident during the current week, prices becoming almost buoyant during Thursday and Friday. Bond prices have remained approximately constant, but the investment demand has readily absorbed all new issues. There was a fairly large volume of small and medium-sized issues, though none of outstanding importance, perhaps the most conspicuous being an issue of $25,000,000 Province of Ontario one and two-year 4% notes, offered on Thursday on a 4.20% and 4.40% basis by a syndicate headed by the First National Bank of New York and the Bank of Montreal. The stock market became increasingly active as the week sped on, both industrial and railroad averages being higher, and advancing to levels considerably above those of last week. The Dow-Jones railroad average reached its recent high on Jan. 7 at 113.12, thereafter falling to 102.41 on March 30 and recently advancing to about 110. The industrial average reached its high on Feb. 11 at 162.31, fell to 135.20 on March 30 and has recently advanced to above 142.

In the meantime the evidence accumulates that if we are experiencing a business depression, it is by no means serious. Car loadings for the week ended May 15 were 1,030,162, an amount in excess of 1,000,000 cars for the first time this year. The Irving Fisher index of wholesale prices registered 152.9 for the week ended May 21, the third week of consecutive advance, comparing with a recent low of 150.2 for the week ended April 30. Brokers' loans have shown a large falling off, the Federal Reserve figure for May 19 being $2,408,695,000, a drop of $71,588,000 from the week previous and of $732,430,000 from the high point reached on Jan. 6, when the loans stood at $3,141,125,000. This is a contraction of more than 23%. Obviously, this has served in no small measure to remove the speculative excesses. Certainly the investment markets give evidence of a far healthier tone than three months ago.

There is renewed interest in foreign bonds which have been distributed in this market, caused, perhaps, primarily by settlement of the British general strike and the various suggestions that have been made recently that the French fiscal position may be improved in the near future. Attention, however, has been centred on foreign issues by a circular recently issued by Lee, Higginson & Co., in which they listed seventeen issues which were distributed in this market during the years 1921 to 1925, inclusive, and which have advanced in prices above the issue prices from 4 to 22¼ points. The circular calls attention to the fact that in 1920 and 1921 the Pennsylvania Railroad 6½s were selling at 99½, New York Telephone 6s at 97, and United States Rubber 7½s at 98¼. It points out that to-day the opportunity to buy bonds at low prices is largely confined to foreign issues. Perhaps the most noteworthy point is that this well-known and conservative house is willing to go on record to the effect that "in a few years prices at which recently placed foreign issues are now selling may seem ridiculously low." The contention is advanced that countries which have been slow in recovering from after-war depression may soon be able to borrow advantageously in their own markets. However, we wish to repeat what we said last week, that before there can be complete confidence in foreign issues there must be a turning away from war and from military preparations. Uprisings and revolutions are still too numerous and resort to force, to settle things, too frequent. There must be stability of Government as well as of the monetary unit. Whether a few years hence present prices of foreign issues will appear "ridiculously low" will depend alone upon how the foreign countries conduct themselves in the particular mentioned. If they are going to play with fire the investor will give their securities a wide berth, and this will be reflected in their market price.

The movement to place Marshal Pilsudski at the head of the Polish Government has continued, but has met with rather serious opposition and difficulties. As early as May 21 a special representative in Warsaw of the New York "Times" said in a wireless message that, "upon the result of a straw vote now being taken by the Polish Government among the Deputies and Senators will depend whether or not Marshal Pilsudski becomes the next President of Poland. In response to the urgent appeal of his followers to accept the highest office in the Republic, the Marshal declared to-day that he would permit his name to be presented to the National Assembly, which is now definitely sheduled to meet in Warsaw on May 29, if his candidacy is assured of an overwhelming majority." The Marshal was reported to have said to Macieji, Acting President of the Polish Republic, that "I don't care to be elected President unless it is proved beyond a doubt that the great mass of the Polish people are behind me." The "Times" representative said also that the Acting President told him that "I desire also to emphasize the fact that Poland's amicable relations with the world in general, and the United States in particular, remain unaltered by recent events. The Constitution of the Polish Republic has been upheld and the Polish people will fulfill their obligations within and beyond their frontiers." The correspondent added that "Marshal Pilsudski's health, it is understood, has been considerably improved, his nerves having been tranquillized by a normal amount of sleep. In Government circles there is entertained no doubt whatever as to the successful outcome of the election, provided that Pilsudski is a candidate. It is also believed that the suggested constitutional provision empowering the newly elected President to dissolve Parliament will be passed without difficulty."

The Paris representative of the New York "Herald Tribune," who had been in Warsaw, told quite a different story in a cable dispatch, also under date of May 21. He sent his message via Berlin because he asserted that the censorship in Warsaw was severe and still in force in spite of claims to the contrary. He declared that it was impossible to cable the truth about the political situation direct from Warsaw. According to his message, "Marshal Pilsudski, contrary to the highly censored dispatches which have emerged from Warsaw, is figuratively a prisoner in the hands of a small clique of Polish officers who managed to maneuver him into the disastrous adventure which threatens ruin to Poland." Continuing his account, he said: "I am sending this message over German telegraph wires because I found that it was utterly impossible even to approach the truth of Poland's tragic situation through the censorship which the so-called Pilsudski Government erected in an effort to hide the chaos which has followed last week's slaughter in the streets of the capital and the surrender of the Wojciechowski Government. The official announcement that the censorship has ceased is wholly untrue. The inspired information available to observers in Warsaw likewise is far from the truth. Poland at this moment is convulsed in a spasm of civil strife, which, although not marked by further military conflict at present, is not only dangerous to the very existence of Poland but to the general peace of Europe. There is no optimism anywhere among either Poles or foreign observers watching the wheel of fate revolve in Warsaw and in other sections of this country. There is nothing but deep pessimism, and it appears that the only thing which again will unite the Polish nation is the removal from the scene of Pilsudski and the coterie of army officers who are momentarily dominating the situation, although without a program except a desire to clothe their sanguinary experiment, which is still making the streets of the capital conspicuous by the funerals of those dying in hospitals, in the garments of legality."

Definite announcement was made in an Associated Press dispatch on May 22 from Warsaw, that "a National Assembly has been convoked for May 31, in Warsaw, to elect a successor to President Wojciechowski, who resigned after the Pilsudski military coup. Marshal Pilsudski has definitely agreed to be a candidate for the Presidency. His friends are reported to have assured him that a straw vote canvass showed 70% of the Senators and Deputies in favor of his election. A proclamation issued by Acting President Rataj says he chose Warsaw for the meeting because to foreign countries it will indicate Poland's return to normalcy. M. Rataj told newspaper men that he himself would not under any circumstances accept the Presidency, even if chosen by the Assembly. The 'Polska Zbronjna,' a newspaper close to Marshal Pilsudski, announces that he will be a candidate for the Polish Presidency, saying the Marshal yielded to the pressure of public opinion, though public office was distasteful to him. It predicts 'an era of justice' if he is elected." It was claimed, however, in a special Warsaw dispatch to the New York "Evening Post," also on May 22, that "the Government set up by the coup d'etat of Marshal Pilsudski has failed to get the necessary number of votes of Senators for the convening of the National Assembly on May 31 for the election of a President. So far Pilsudski has failed to reach an agreement with the Right parties, whose stronghold is Posen, for the holding of the Assembly in Warsaw." According to an Associated Press cablegram from Warsaw on May 23, "Pilsudski, although his candidacy for the Presidential office has been announced semi-officially by the Polish Telegraph Agency and his immediate entourage, has not declared officially himself a candidate. Thus, it is pointed out, he has left the door open for some opposition candidate in the event this is deemed advisable in the interests of the pacification of Poland."

That the political situation in Poland was susceptible of serious developments was admitted in an Associated Press dispatch from Warsaw under date of May 24. It was stated that, "either Parliament, under pressure of public opinion, will immediately after the election of a President by the National Assembly convene to arm the new Executive with special powers of a dictatorial nature and then dissolve, or the country will be confronted by a new grave situation, including the possibility of an illegal dictatorship. This is taken to be the significance of a declaration made public by the interim Cabinet, headed by Premier Bartel, to-day." It was further stated that, "while designated as a trifle vague, the Government's pronouncement is taken as indicating the following as its program: First, the election of a President next Monday. Second, enactment of special emergency legislation. Third, dissolution of Parliament, leaving the President to govern Poland for a year without co-operation of the Diet and Senate. Fourth, new elections unless it is deemed advisable to extend the President's dictatorial powers from year to year."

According to the same dispatch, "after guaranteeing tranquil, fair elections, the Government statement says: 'Public opinion urgently demands dissolution of Parliament. Changes in the Constitution are necessary, especially upon lines empowering the President to dissolve Parliament. Such changes are to be voted either by the present or future Parliament. Irrespective of the action of Parliament, it is essential that a number of State decrees be issued, indicating the most striking legislative and administrative defects. As it is impossible to pass such resolutions in the Diet as constituted at present, it is indispensable to invest the President in the interim between the two Parliaments with special powers to clean up the administrative apparatus, promulgate a new electoral law, unify the courts and recognize civil and military bodies.' The declaration announces that these reforms are to become active within a year." The Warsaw correspondent of the Associated Press cabled on May 25 that "Marshal Pilsudski, leader of the coup d'etat which overthrew the Witos Government and now a candidate for the Polish Presidency, would like to have all the Presidential candidates gather at his home before the election Monday for a brotherly conference. The Marshal, however, is fastidious about the character of the men who are to participate in this gathering and demands that they serve notice to the country that if elected they will enter office without any strings attached to them." It was explained that "this was the burden of a personal declaration this morning by Pilsudski in connection his own candidacy, the declaration, one of the Marshal's characteristic utterances, demands of all Presidential candidates an unequivocal pledge that they will make no pre-election agreement with any of the factions of the Diet, any financial corporation or group or any other private interest."

Later the same day he received American newspaper correspondents, but according to the Associated Press representative, did not give them much important information. The correspondent reported, however, that "Marshal Pilsudski, in his first joint interview with American newspapermen to-day, declared that he would demand that Parliament revise more than 200 laws and unify the whole code of Polish law to untangle the endless Governmental red tape and wipe out the bureaucracy which hampered the nation's development. Poland's foreign policy and the general principles of domestic administration, he added, would undergo no change."

In the same dispatch it was indicated that conditions were still unsettled. The correspondent said that "clashes between the Right and Left parties, with bloodshed in some cases, is reported from various provinces in connection with political meetings preparatory to the National Assembly, which is to meet next week to elect a President of the Republic. Despite the demand of the War Minister of the interim Cabinet set up after Marshal Pilsudski succeeded in overthrowing the Government of President Wojciechowski—that the civilians give up the arms furnished to volunteers during the revolution —more than 3,000 rifles still are in the hands of civilians, causing the Government anxiety. It is reported from Lemberg that street rioting followed outdoor meetings to-day of the Socialists and National Democrats, the police having to use their clubs to restore order."

That Marshal Pilsudski is experiencing considerable political opposition has been disclosed in Warsaw cable advices for several days. The New York "Times" representative cabled Wednesday evening that "opposition to Marshal Pilsudski's program for the creation of a legalized autocracy by the concentration of power in the President of the Republic, which office he himself expects to fill, is growing fast among the very parties which are his strongest political supporters. Liberal and Socialist members of the Polish Parliament object to giving Pilsudski as executive the carte blanche he demands without being informed of the character of the reforms, financial and otherwise, he or his nominees mean to carry out. Hitherto, the Bartel Cabinet has limited its pronouncements to outlining the dictatorial prerogatives it proposes to grant the new President without explaining how he intends to apply these powers." The correspondent added that "the attitude of Witos [the recently deposed Premier] and other Right factions opposed to Pilsudski is still undefined."

Still other difficulties which Marshal Pilsudski is said to have encountered in his efforts to establish a new Government were outlined in part as follows in a special Warsaw dispatch to the New York "Evening Post" on May 27: "Marshal Pilsudski's efforts and the efforts of the temporary Government to establish the legality of a dictatorship by postponing the elections and putting in a President with dictatorial powers for a year have run against serious difficulties. In the first place, it now looks as if there is no candidate capable of winning the election in the National Assembly and the Pilsudski group is working to create a popular demand for a referendum on the question of the Presidency so a President can be elected by popular vote. That proposition, however, presents a second difficulty, for a referendum is not provided for in the Polish Constitution and it would mean that the National Assembly would have to vote a law making such a referendum legal."

The confused political situation in Poland was further demonstrated by the following excerpt from a special Warsaw dispatch to the New York "Evening Post" last evening: "Ignace Jan Paderewski may run against Marshal Pilsudski in what promises to be the most momentous election of modern Poland. The Right parties have not yet picked their candidate but have changed their minds about withdrawing from the National Assembly and will put up a contestant. At present they are hesitating between General Josef Haller, leader of the anti-Pilsudski military forces in Posen, President of the Senate M. Trompczynski, and Paderewski. It is recognized that to beat Pilsudski another popular figure will be necessary and Paderewski, at present, is favored. The opposition to the Marshal, for tactful reasons, will not announce its candidate until on the eve of the National Assembly."

Abd-el-Krim, chief of the Riffian forces in French Morocco, has capitulated. The announcement was made in Fez and in Paris on Wednesday, May 26. Commenting upon the announcement, the Paris representative of the New York "Times" said in a dispatch that evening that "Abd-el-Krim has capitulated and has placed himself and his family under French protection. Thus end the dreams of empire of this hardy fighter and shrewd intriguer, who, after being a clerk under the Spanish, successfully defied Spain for six years and challenged France, but failed because he never realized when he had reached the limit of success. News of his surrender was announced in the lobbies of the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon by Premier Briand's two foremost lieutenants, Charles Danielou and Pierre Laval, and coming as it has on the eve of the reassembly of Parliament it has greatly strengthened the Government's position. A month ago a debate on Morocco would have been dangerous, possibly fatal. To-morrow the Government will announce a peace with victory and honor. More than military success has brought about this final capitulation of the Riffian leader. Throughout the winter the political work of General de Chambrun among caids of various tribes and the attitude of conciliation of Governor Jules Steeg began undermining their resistance. Of this effort to try to obtain a political instead of a military settlement there has been considerable criticism in Paris, and the decision of Premer Briand and Governor Steeg to hold the Oudja conference encountered considerable opposition."

The New York "Herald Tribune" representative in the French capital added that "the surrender of Abd-el-Krim, who this afternoon placed himself, his family and his effects under the protection of France, marks the final stage of the Moroccan war, which the Franco-Spanish forces have been waging against the Riff chieftain for more than a year. Every objective of the allied arms has been attained, according to reports reaching Paris from Morocco, and while desultory fighting may go on until the few tribes which threaten to continue the struggle submit and accept disarmament, peace in north Africa is assured with the elimination of the rebel leadership. France and Spain will continue their co-operation until Morocco is completely pacified, although the problem of the reorganization of the Riff is one largely up to Spain. A simple police operation, to be followed by administrative organization, is the description given the situation now, as with the surrender of Abd-el-Krim all question of an autonomous Riff dies. The only point at issue concerns the valuable mining concessions, which the Riff chieftain, in the heyday of his power, granted to certain British and German firms and which have played a subtle but important role throughout the war. Certain rights within the Spanish zone will be granted to France, according to the terms of an agreement reached by Louis Malvy, who is in Madrid as a special representative of the French Government, and the privileges of exploitation allowed the other countries by Abd-el-Krim will be canceled automatically."

Word came from Fez Thursday afternoon (May 27) that "Abd-el-Krim, the surrendered Riffian chief, arrived at 5.15 o'clock this morning at Ize Marouene, north of Targuist. He was presented with his suite to the Commanding General of the Moroccan division. Later Krim was conducted to Bou Red, taking the military road toward Taza, where he is expected to arrive to-morrow." According to an Associated Press dispatch from Paris the same evening, "Abd-el-Krim, who had announced his surrender, has arrived inside the French lines and immediately will be escorted to Taza. Announcement to this effect was made by Premier Briand after a Cabinet meeting to-day. M. Painleve announced that the French were exchanging notes with the Spanish on the disposition to be made of Abd-el-Krim."

The arrival of the former Riff chieftain within French lines was described in part as follows by a special correspondent of the New York "Times," in a dispatch from Fez under date of May 27: "Mantled in a brown burnous against the cold African mountain dawn and mounted on a white horse, Abd-el-Krim rode into the French lines this morning. His face showed no emotion. Mussulman and fatalist, he accepted his surrender without anger, without self-pity. It was the will of Allah. Two French officers accompanied him. They were sent on horseback yesterday through the enemy country to Snada to meet and escort him. All day they had ridden through the savage, mountainous country and all night they rode back. Dawn had come and the sun had risen, but up there in the interminable chains of summits which make the Riff it was as cold as an October morning. The men who waited had built great wood fires to keep themselves warm. The French camp stood perched on the Plateau Tizem Imazouene, from which one sees a barren gorge far below. It was nearly 5 o'clock when the outlook man gave the signal that someone was approaching out of the Riff country. There was a cloud of dust coming from the north and up dashed some Spahis and a mounted rifleman with two officers, and in their midst the Riffian leader and Sherif Hamedou Ouedzani, Chief of Snada tribe, through whom Abd-el-Krim's final submission was obtained. The French soldiers stood at attention. In full General Boichut's order was obeyed. Abd-el-Krim was received as a gallant enemy should be received by his vanquishers."

The cable advices early in the week indicated that the French and Spanish forces in Morocco were steadily and rather rapidly getting the upper hand of Abd-el-Krim, the Riffian chieftain. In an Associated Press dispatch from Fez, French Morocco, on May 21, it was stated that "the Franco-Spanish steel and iron ring is closing in around Abd-el-Krim. Targuist and Temansit, the Riffian Emir's strongholds, now are within the range of the allied guns. The fortnight's offensive since the breaking up of the peace negotiations with the Riffians has been conducted along the lines of African warfare, where one rifleman hiding behind rocks is worth fifteen in the open field. It has brought a gain to the Franco-Spanish troops, according to official announcements, of about 400 square miles in territory, making the Riffians' domain smaller than it ever has been since the Romans attempted to subdue them in 40 A. D." According to a special wireless message from Paris to the New York "Times" on the same date, "Abd-el-Krim has fled into territory of the Beni Bou Frah tribes, which lies directly to the south of Penos de Velz de la Gouera—an island about 40 kilometres west of Alhucemas Bay. Although the Riffians are doggedly fighting the French and Spaniards advancing on Targuist and the Oued Ghis Valley, and are preparing a second line of defense on the Djebel Hamman chain west of Ghis, they are seriously disheartened by the precipitate flight of their leader."

The very next day a special cable dispatch from Tangier to the New York "Times" stated that "rumors from French and Spanish sources to-night assert that Abd-el-Krim has been captured. Confirmation of these rumors is entirely lacking, however. Reports go so far as to say he has been taken by his own followers, who have turned against him following the recent reverses. A proclamation virtually conceding his defeat and releasing those of his followers who wish to discontinue the war against the French and Spanish has been issued by Abd-el-Krim during the past few days at Miawaia el Ali, near Targuist."

Still a day later (May 23) announcement was made in an Associated Press cable message direct from Fez that "Targuist and all the adjacent territory was occupied by the French without a struggle, thanks to the submission of a large portion of the Beni Ourigahel, Abd-el-Krim's tribe, and the Beni Bechir, Beni Amret, Beni Mesdouia and other smaller tribes inhabiting the region. Abd-el-Krim, foreseeing the big defection of the tribes in the region as they began negotiating with the French command, fled to the northwestward with his family and such belongings as he could transport, and his exact whereabouts is not known."

What appeared to be complete surrender on the part of the Riffian leader was announced in a special Paris cable message to the New York "Times" on May 24. It was reported that "Abd-el-Krim has asked for peace again. But this time he is not thinking of asking for terms. He has thrown himself and his people on the mercy and generosity of France." According to the dispatch also, "his petition was sent to Governor Steeg at the hands of a Frenchman, Dr. Parent, who entered the Riff with a commission to study the condition of the prisoners and who has returned there and may possibly, says 'The Matin' correspondent at Fez, bring Abd-el-Krim back with him, unless he escapes into the neutral zone of Tangier so as to avoid falling into French and Spanish hands." In a special Paris cable message to the New York "Herald Tribune," likewise on May 24, it was said that "Abd-el-Krim, through the medium of a French emissary, has made formal request of Jules Steeg, Resident-General of Morocco, for a cessation of hostilities, and the Council of Ministers will meet to-morrow to draw up peace terms to be offered the hard-pressed Riff chieftain." It was added that "this was announced to-night by the Foreign Office and Paris is confident that the long drawn out, useless struggle in North Africa will be brought to a speedy close as a result of the brilliant victories of the French forces which culminated yesterday in the capture of Targuist."

The French Cabinet was disposed to be altogether skeptical regarding the offer, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Paris on the evening of May 25. It was stated that "Abd-el-Krim's letter brought out of the Riff by a member of the French medical mission, makes no change in the Moroccan situation, in the view of the French Cabinet. After a Cabinet meeting this morning it was stated that the letter contained nothing definite and offered no guaranty nor proof of authority. Premier Briand on coming from the Cabinet council said the letter was evidently a maneuver by the Riffian chief to gain time in which to fortify his position and continue his resistance against the advancing French and Spanish troops. Minister Painleve declared that all was over with Krim, who had fled and was now seeking refuge. 'He no longer represents anything,' the Minister said. Both the Premier and the War Minister informed the Cabinet that the submission of the tribes was proceeding rapidly and that termination of the operations could be looked for at an early date. This impression, they said, was confirmed by the latest act of Krim, who was believed to be fleeing to the north. The Ministers held that the letter could not modify the military operations, owing to its vagueness."

In defining the position of the Cabinet, the Paris representative of the New York "Herald Tribune" said in a dispatch on May 25 that "France's answer to Abd-el-Krim's plea for cessation of hostilities in North Africa will be a continuation of the vigorous offensive until the Riff chieftain surrenders unconditionally and personally submits to the mercy of the French and Spanish forces. This is the response which will be made to the rebel leader by Resident-General Steeg, acting under instructions sent to-day following a meeting here of the Council of Ministers. Under no conditions will the allies enter negotiations, as it is felt now, in the words of Premier Briand, that 'Abd-el-Krim no longer represents anything,' and any parley would simply serve to give him time to prepare for new combats. Meantime the daily surrender of new tribesmen is tending to end the war, and reports from Morocco indicate complete success of the allied arms almost without bloodshed, making peace a matter of days."

The firm position taken by the French Cabinet apparently had the desired effect, perhaps even sooner than had been anticipated. In an Associated Press dispatch from Paris on the evening of May 26 it was stated that "the long colonial warfare in Morocco, which Spain has carried on for several years, apparently has come to a close with the surrender to-day of the rebel chieftain, Abd-el-Krim. Deserted by even his closest tribal followers, the Riffian leader has placed himself, his family and property under the protection of France. The war with Krim has been one of the most costly colonial struggles in history. Intrenched in his mountain fastnesses, Krim's hardy warriors defied picked troops of France and Spain and caused the hasty summoning of no less a military personage than Marshal Petain of France. Upon him fell the task of devising a method of stamping out Krim's insurrection and freeing Morocco from hostile bands." Through a subsequent Associated Press message direct from Fez, French Morocco, the same evening, it became known that "it was officially announced this afternoon that Abd-el-Krim, the Riffian chief, was coming into the French lines this evening. Krim will be taken to Taza, where the instructions of the French Resident-General, Jules Steeg, are awaited. Krim, it is announced, puts himself, his family and his property under the protection of France. Prior to notifying the French of his surrender, Abd-el-Krim returned all the French, Spanish and native prisoners who had been held in the Riff. Abd-el-Krim caused all the French prisoners in the Riff to be taken to Targuist this morning for liberation. A communique issued before the announcement of Krim's surrender of all the French prisoners indicated that the French troops were carrying out their operations according to plan."

Premier Briand of France denies that he will resign soon, as published in a Paris newspaper on Tuesday. According to a special Paris cable dispatch to "The Sun" that afternoon, "for some time past Premier Briand, who has felt increasingly fatigued, has been contemplating the pleasures of country life free of office, and more than once of late his friends have had to use all their influence to dissuade him from resigning, pointing out to him that the situation of the franc and of Morocco called for his presence at the head of affairs." It was added that "now that the exchange tension has eased and peace is imminent in Syria and Morocco, M. Briand, it is believed, will seek the favorable occasion for retiring at a moment when he is able to favorably contrast the present situation of the country, with the budget adopted and monetary collapse averted, with that which he was called on to face when he first took office last year." When pressed after the Cabinet meeting the next day for a statement regarding the rumor, the Premier was quoted as saying impatiently: "Deny it. Deny it all you want. We will never resign, never." The correspondent added that "far from planning its resignation, the Cabinet this morning got busy framing its campaign in the Chamber. As already indicated, M. Briand is mostly concerned about the immediate passage of the new electoral law, returning to the old system of district representation, which will abolish the present semi-proportional system."

The Premier and his Cabinet apparently were in trouble for a time on Thursday, but subsequently won out. The Paris correspondent of the Associated Press cabled that afternoon (May 27) that "the Briand Government to-day was given a vote of confidence by the Chamber of Deputies, 320 to 209. The Briand Cabinet thus survived the first onslaught of the Socialists, Communists and part of the radicals, who had determined to provoke immediate debates on France's finances and foreign debts. The Government put the question of confidence squarely on the demand that these matters be postponed until after discussion of the electoral reform law bills. The Briand Cabinet was saved by the Nationalist opposition, which, after some hesitation, finally decided not to vote aainst the Ministry. France will never compromise 'even the smallest portion of her independence' in order to remedy her financial situation, Premier Briand told the Chamber of Deputies at its reopening this afternoon. The Premier's words were taken to mean that the Government would not consider the institution of a 'Dawes plan' for France, or the cession of French colonies in payment of France's debts."

The embarassing position of Premier Briand was further outlined as follows in a subsequent special cable dispatch to the New York "Times" Thursday evening: "Within two hours, on the first day of the reassembling of Parliament, Premier Briand was both victorious and beaten. His victory was a paradox. He belongs to the 'Left' and his Cabinet is formed from the 'Left.' Yet 209 Deputies of the 'Left' voted against him and he was saved from defeat only because one hundred and more members of the 'Right,' who form the usual Opposition, voted with the Centre and with the Government. Then, two hours later and on a different issue, those hundred Deputies of the Right switched their votes against the Government and it was beaten, though this time it had wisely avoided making the vote one of confidence. Its dignity was affected, but it could still continue in office. The result of this curious voting has been that in its financial policy and in its efforts to secure the application of an expert plan for the stabilization of the franc and the betterment of the Treasury position, the Government will have to depend on the 'Right,' while in general matters it still remains exposed to the danger of defeat from a combination of the extreme 'Right' and the extreme 'Left.'"

The Preliminary Disarmament Commission of the League of Nations adjourned on May 26 "until autumn to permit two technical subcommissions to prepare their reports." According to a United Press dispatch from Geneva that afternoon, "the Commission has been in session for ten days, preparing for the projected League of Nations Disarmament Conference. The two subcommissions will prepare reports on seven questions submitted as a basis for the agenda of the eventual conference. No definite date for the autumn meeting was set. At adjournment Viscount Cecil of England urged the subcommissions to take all time necessary, saying their work constitutes the basis of the greatest revolution the world ever has undertaken, namely, disarmament."

Apparently Hungary threw a bombshell into the gathering on the very last day. In an Associated Press cablegram from Geneva the same afternoon it was asserted that "feverish reinforcing of armaments by most of the European countries which contain the germs of new wars was alleged to-day by Hungary in a memorandum presented to the Preparatory Disarmament Commission. Hungary also complained with bitterness that, practically disarmed herself, she is surrounded by a group of allied countries possessing vastly superior military forces. By this memorandum Hungary has placed herself at the side of Germany, although Count von Bernstorff already has protested that the Germans have been disarmed while their neighbors are permitted powerful military forces. The Hungarian memorandum caused a sensation chiefly because of its strictures against the Little Entente. It declared that if the egotistical aims of certain countries continue to hold up the speedy restriction of armaments, the Commission might just as well abandon its disarmament project before it developed into a plain fiasco and seek some other basis for the maintenance of world peace. The memorandum further demanded the abrogation of treaty regulations whereby Hungary's army was restricted to 35,000 men, a force that the Hungarians consider insufficient to protect them. Heavily armed neighbor nations should be obliged to reduce their military forces to lower level, the Hungarian statement said, so that there will not be any wide difference in power between the conquerors and the vanquished. Hungary insisted that armament reduction must be general to be effective and issued a warning that if some reduction failed to materialize Europe and the League of Nations would be gravely endangered. 'If this disarmament, the hope of the masses of the people throughout the world, is not fulfilled the whole fragile institution created by the treaties of peace which were concluded at Paris will tumble to the ground,' the memorandum stated. Representatives of the Little Entente immediately protested the tone of the Hungarian document. They declared it was virtually a petition for the revision of the treaty of Trianon, which, they contended, had no place in the deliberations of the Disarmament Commission. The Serbian spokesman denied that the Serbian army was a menace to Hungary in any way, but was purely a defensive force. Moreover, he declared, Serbia has negotiated a treaty of non-aggression with Hungary."

Before adjournment the Commission adopted the report of the drafting committee. The New York "Herald Tribune" representative at Geneva cabled that, "on the whole, the program embodies the American and British view that the peace strength of each nation, rather than its potential war strength, is the only practical basis on which the question of world disarmament can be taken up. This thesis is opposed by Joseph Paul Boncour, chief of the French delegation, but one important concession to the French doctrine has been made, by which the Council of the League of Nations will be asked to consider what steps shall be taken to strengthen Article XVI of the covenant for determining the aggressor and the action in the event of war or a threat of war."

Commenting upon the possible results of the preliminary gathering, a special representative of the New York "Times" said in a wireless message on May 26: "Despite the fact that the work of the Commission to date has been restricted to a classification and clarification of the entangled mass of conflicting opinions and desires, the members of the Commission this evening appeared contented with the result of their labors. Even though all stress the fact that this is only the beginning of the work and though nothing was done which was not anticipated everybody is happy to have started work on the delicate question of disarmament. Nobody really went so far as to express optimistic hopes regarding the outcome of the final conference, but most of the diplomats ventured to express the belief that some good result would come from the conference. Lord Cecil appeared to be the most cheerful, and to the newspaper men this evening declared that the work of disarmament had really begun. Time would be needed to study all the details and the final conference could not be called before the end of next year. Hugh Gibson, of the United States, said that the first meeting of the Commission had been of undoubted value. There was a great educative work to do throughout the world before any agreement on reduction or limitation of armaments was made, he said. The first meeting of the Commission had started this essential educative work. It had helped tremendously in educating the persons participating in it and the work of the subcommittees would help the world to understand the difficulties connected with the work of disarmament and pave the way for an intelligent consideration of the problems in all countries, the American representative said. Mr. Gibson stressed the loyalty of Washington to the conference, and, on the subject of naval disarmament, reiterated the American policy of doing nothing that would embarrass the conference or hamper its chances of success."

Official announcement was made in London on May 21 that both the owners and the coal miners had rejected the proposals of Prime Minister Baldwin for a settlement of the strike of the latter which has been on since last summer. The New York "Herald Tribune" representative in London said that "the mine owners dispersed to the country, while the miners' delegates also returned to their districts in the absence of any reply to their resolution of yesterday from Prime Minister Baldwin, who himself this evening left London for Chequers. Before his departure the Prime Minister conferred with Sir Arthur, and the reply of the Government to the owners and miners may be forwarded to-morrow. The terms of the owners' statement, however, show that Mr. Baldwin, if he plans effective intervention in the dispute, will have to resort to some form of compulsion to enforce his proposals or draft a wholly new formula for a settlement. The owners not only reiterate their demand for an extension of the working day to eight hours and a 10% cut in wages, but sharply score the Government's program for controlling the industry." The correspondent added that "the next phase of the dispute promises to take the form of a behind-the-scenes struggle in the Cabinet between those who are believed to be ready to take sharp action to coerce the mine owners and the section of the Ministry which prefers to let the coal tie-up run its course."

Announcement was made in a special London dispatch to the New York "Times" the next evening that "Prime Minister Baldwin replied to-night to the rejection by the coal owners and coal miners of his proposals for the settlement of the extremely serious British coal dispute. Chiding the owners for their unyielding stand, Mr. Baldwin told them that in their allegation regarding the importing of an element of coercion into the machinery of negotiation the Owners' Association appeared to show an inadequate appreciation of the nature of the Government proposals and of the gravity of the present coal situation. To the miners Mr. Baldwin pointed out that so long as they maintained their present attitude no useful purpose would be served by his meeting them; that he was prepared to meet them when he was informed that they were in a position to submit suggestions of the kind required, and that the Government could not hold its offer of a subsidy open beyond this month."

Outlining the situation still further, the "Times" correspondent said: "Despite this answer from Mr. Baldwin, the coal deadlock is unchanged and will undoubtedly remain so until after the Whitsuntide holidays. To-morrow and Monday all Britain, including those arrayed against each other in the coal strike, gives itself up to the holiday, and when once a Briton gets on a holiday, nothing short of an earthquake or a World War can get him back to work again. But next Tuesday will usher in a week of grave significance in the coal crisis. Both the owners and miners have adopted an apparently uncompromising stand and to break it down will require every bit of the conciliatory ability possessed by Mr. Baldwin and his colleagues in the Government. The belief is widespread here that the coal dispute will resolve itself into another wearisome trial of strength between the two sides."

As to the respective attitudes of the two sides to the controversy and the ability of the miners to hold out, the correspondent said in part: "The coal owners seem quite willing to keep up their unbending attitude, confident that the miners will eventually be compelled to accept big wage cuts or, if not that, longer hours with a smaller wage reduction. The miners, on the other hand, embittered by the stand of their antagonists, are nerving themselves to fight so long as they can get food for those dependent upon them. Meanwhile the miners are receiving substantial financial help. Added to the £250,000 donated by the Soviet Russian Miners' Union, they have also received a total of more than £20,000 from British as well as foreign sympathizers, including unions in Austria, Poland and Czechoslovakia. These sums, added to other sources open to the striking miners, may keep them going for weeks yet."

Referring to the effect of the coal miners' strike on other industries, the London representative of the Associated Press said in a dispatch on May 21 that "the stoppage of work in the mines is already affecting other industries seriously. The railways to-day announced further cuts in train service owing to a shortage of coal. With the rejection of the Baldwin plan by both sides, the promise of a Government subsidy of £3,000,000 naturally will drop, and without a new Government move a long suspension of work is indicated. The Miners' Federation is appealing to all the railway unions to help the miners by refusing to handle coal."

The effect of the strike on British industry was further outlined in part as follows in a special wireless message from London to the New York "Evening Post" last evening: "The creeping paralysis which is spreading over British industry as a result of the coal strike is beginning to take on a serious aspect. To-day marks the end of the fourth week of the strike and the coal supplies are beginning to dwindle. It is reported that the steel industry can continue only for two weeks at the most and that the blast furnaces will have to shut down shortly. The number of unemployed men, which before the strike had fallen below the million mark, is now more than 1,612,000 and will rise at an increasing rate. One of the big railroads announced it is closing its workshops Friday to Tuesday of each week, thus throwing many thousands of men out of employment, and this example is likely to be followed by others. By order of the Ministry of Mines the rations of household coal, which hitherto had been a hundredweight weekly, have been reduced by half—less than at any time under the War Restrictions Act—and this coal ration is obtainable only by permit from the local authorities. The industrial ration, which is half normal, is being strictly enforced on stores, offices and even schools. And not only on coal, but gas and electricity as well. The big stores are especially hard hit, as they are dependent on artificial lighting all day. The railroad services, which have been curtailed 50% throughout the country, will soon suffer a further reduction, and the Southern Railway announces a cancellation of all Sunday expresses."

Attention was called in a special London cablegram to the New York "Times" on May 23 to still another feature of the situation. It was stated that "three members of the General Council of the Trades Union Congress declared to-day that they were misled when they agreed to call off the general strike. In a statement to the Miners' Federation they assert that the terms of Sir Herbert Samuels's proposal for a settlement of the coal mining dispute were accepted by them in good faith on the definite assurance that they would be accepted by the Government as a basis for negotiations, and that it was on such an understanding that the general strike was called off. Replying to their challenge to disprove this statement, Sir Herbert Samuels declared that to the best of his recollection the three members concerned were not present at the conferences which he had with the members of the General Council. He repeatedly made it plain at these conferences, he continued, that he was not acting in any way on behalf of the Government. He agreed, however, that there was an honorable understanding between the members of the Trades Union Congress and himself that he would use his best endeavors to obtain the Government's adoption of his proposals." The New York "Herald Tribune" representative in the British capital cabled, also on May 23, that, "with the two sides in the coal tie-up temporarily deadlocked, interest here was centred to-day in the prospects of legislative action looking toward curbing the powers of the trade unions in this country. Lord Birkenhead's speech to Oxford University Conservatives last night is regarded by such opposite extremes as 'The Morning Post' and 'The Daily Herald' as foreshadowing a move in this direction."

It was pointed out in a special London cable dispatch to the New York "Times" on May 24 that "neither the mine owners nor the mining unions have yet made any move to end the deadlocked coal dispute. It is possible, however, that the miners' executive may meet soon to consider Premier Stanley Baldwin's intimation subsidy offer, which will remain open only to the end of this month." It was further stated that "J. H. Thomas, General Secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, against whom 'Emperor' Cook, Secretary of the Miners' Federation, directed the bitterest criticism in his attack last Sunday on the conduct of the strike by the Trades Union Congress, stated to-day that he would make no answer at present. 'I have been subjected to abuse before,' he said."

Judging from London cable dispatches received during the last few days the Liberal Party in Great Britain is split worse than ever. In a special cablegram to the New York "Times" on May 25 the situation in part was set forth as follows: "The serious differences which have arisen between David Lloyd George, on the one hand, and Lord Oxford and Asquith and other Liberal leaders, on the other, over the policy pursued by the Liberal Party during the strike were illuminated by the publication to-night of the correspondence which has passed between the two ex-Premiers regarding the matter. Lord Oxford and Asquith on May 20 addressed to Mr. Lloyd George a letter sharply criticizing his course of action during the strike, including the publication in America of the now notorious article on the subject of the industrial conflict and the Government's responsibility for it. Mr. Lloyd George replied at length defending his own conduct and deprecating that of some of his fellow leaders as inconsistent with Liberal principles, claiming that his American articles have been garbled on reproduction in this country and asking in effect what all the trouble is about."

Commenting upon the same situation in considerable detail, the London representative of the New York "Evening Post" said in a wireless dispatch on the evening of May 26 that "the death of the Liberal Party is foreshadowed by publication of the correspondence between Lord Oxford and David Lloyd George growing out of their differences during the general strike. Lord Oxford's letter is a frank reproof of Mr. Lloyd George's refusal to attend the meeting of the Liberal leaders May 10 to discuss the party's attitude in the crisis and his frequent newspaper articles appearing in the United States. Mr. Lloyd George's reply is a desperate effort to save himself and throw on Lord Oxford and Lord Grey the blame for the party dissensions over the strike. But behind the bickering over what took place in the strike is a genuine revolt against Mr. Lloyd George's leadership of the party in the House of Commons, partly over his radical land scheme, which is virtually nationalization, and, finally, over the very nature of his position. Possessed of the only substantial funds available to the party, Mr. Lloyd George has refused to open the war chest except to his own followers. The efforts of Lord Oxford to raise money and free the party from Mr. Lloyd George's control have been fruitless. Lord Oxford's letter, consequently, is construed as a final effort either to tame the 'little Welshman' or drive him from the party. There is little doubt in Liberal circles that he will not be tamed and speculation is centring on the reception he will get if he goes over to Labor. He will, it is expected, be welcomed because of his campaign funds, which are estimated generously at $5,000,000. He will be welcomed as the best orator in the House of Commons. But, so far as his record and views are concerned, he will be acceptable only to the right wing Labor leaders. If Mr. Lloyd George joins the Labor Party, the most probable result will be that he will wreck that, too. England then might have four parties instead of three—Conservative, Liberal, Radical-Liberal and Socialist—with the latter finally unfettered to develop its revolutionary tendencies."

In an effort to forecast the probable outcome, the London correspondent of the New York "Times" said in a wireless message on the evening of May 27: "David Lloyd George returned to London this afternoon to consult his supporters regarding his controversy with Lord Oxford and Asquith. Lord Oxford, who has been on holiday in Yorkshire, is also coming back to London immediately. With the return of the two principal figures in the dispute, which has split the Liberal Party from top to bottom, it is likely that the next few days will see the issue decided one way or another."

No change has been noted in official bank rates at leading European centres from 7½% in Austria; 7% in Berlin, Belgium and Italy; 6% in Paris; 5½% in Denmark and Norway; 5% in London and Madrid; 4½% in Sweden, and 3½% in Holland and Switzerland. In London open market discount rates were steady and finished at 4 5-16@4⅜% for both short bills and three months' bills, against 4 5-16% last week. Money on call at the British centre ruled strong, and advanced to 4⅜%, but closed at 3¼%, against 3⅞% a week ago. In Paris and Switzerland the open market discount rates continue to be quoted at 5¼% and 2¼, unchanged.

The Bank of England continues to add to its gold stock, showing another increase of £102,204 in its latest weekly statement. Note circulation, moreover, was again reduced (£404,000), so that the reserve of gold and notes in the banking department rose £506,000, while the proportion of reserve to liabilities moved up to a new high record for the current year of 22.86%, which compares with 22.46% last week. The lowest ratio for 1926 was 15.86% for the week of Jan. 7. At this time in 1925 the ratio was 23% and a year earlier 18½%. Public deposits expanded £1,368,000, while other deposits fell off £1,294,000. The Bank's temporary loans to the Government declined £3,175,000, but loans on other securities increased £2,752,000. Gold holdings amount to £149,007,391, which compares with £156,690,279 in 1925 and £128,184,802 a year earlier (before the transfer to the Bank of England of the £27,000,000 gold formerly held by the Redemption Account of the Currency Note issue). Reserve totals £28,176,000, as against £28,257,669 last year and £22,202,887 in 1924. Note circulation aggregates £140,581,000, in comparison with £148,182,610 at this time a year ago and £125,731,915 a year earlier, while loans total £71,816,000, against £75,041,509 and £73,302,269 one and two years ago, respectively. No change has been made in the official discount rate of the Bank of England, which remains at 5%. Clearings through the London banks for the week totaled £642,319,000, comparing with £741,969,000 last week and £725,710,000 a year ago. We append herewith comparisons of the different items of the Bank of England return for a series of years:

a Includes, beginning with April 29 1925, £27,000,000 gold coin and bullion previously held as security for currency note issues and which was transferred to the Bank of England on the British Government's decision to return to gold standard.

b Beginning with the statement for April 29 1925, includes £27,000,000 of Bank of England notes issued in return for the same amount of gold coin and bullion held up to that time in redemption account of currency note issue.

According to the weekly statement of the Bank of France a further large expansion of 77,495,000 francs occurred in note circulation during the week. The total outstanding is, therefore, brought up to 52,735,000,275 francs, contrasting with 42,702,859,315 francs reached on May 28 1925, and with only 39,556,279,150 francs the total amount outstanding May 30 1924. The gold item continues to show small gains, the increase this week being 17,475 francs. Total gold holdings now aggregate 5,548,485,525 francs, compared with 5,546,562,706 francs for the same time in 1925 and with 5,542,870,337 francs the year previous. The State borrowed 800,000,000 francs from the Bank of France. Advances to the State now stand at 35,900,000,000 francs, against 23,850,000,000 francs a year ago and 22,700,000 francs two years ago. It is pointed out that the increase of 800,000,000 francs in Bank of France's advances to the State is due to cash payments for treasury bonds which matured May 20, out of a total demand of 3,160,000,000 francs. More than 1,000,000,000 francs were reinvested in defense bonds before maturity and the balance has been allowed to remain with the treasury on deposit. The Government points out that it still has a margin of 2,600,000,000 francs within the limit of legal maximum loans from the Bank of France. Trade advances in the Bank of France weekly return show a reduction of 117,948,000 francs. On the other hand silver was expanded 941,000 francs, bills discounted gained 40,622,000 francs, treasury deposits were increased 15,797,000 francs and general deposits rose 427,545,000 francs. Comparison of the various items in this week's return with the figures of last week and the corresponding dates in both 1925 and 1924 are as follows:

The Imperial Bank of Germany in its statement as of May 22 reported another decrease in note circulation, this time of 120,162,000 marks, thus bringing the total outstanding down to 3,663,041,000 marks. There were, however, increases in other maturing obligations and other liabilities—44,259,000 marks and 7,140,000 marks, respectively, while the Bank's assets were reduced substantially. Holdings of bills of exchange and checks fell 73,725,000 marks, and advances 1,553,000 marks. A decline of 28,208,000 marks was also noted in other assets. Increases occurred of 24,296,000 marks in reserve in foreign currencies, 4,692,000 marks in silver and other coins and 5,515,000 marks in notes on other banks. Gold and bullion holdings rose 220,000 marks and now aggregate 1,491,861,000 marks, in comparison with 1,015,292,000 marks a year ago.

A small gain in gold reserve and some decrease in rediscounting were shown in the weekly statements of the Federal Reserve banks that were issued at the close of business on Thursday, as well as an increase in open market dealings for the banks as a group. At New York there was a decrease in bill buying in the open market amounting to $8,960,000. The local institution, furthermore, reported a gain in gold of $47,000,000, mainly achieved through its operations with the Gold Settlement Fund. Rediscounting of bills secured by Government obligations at the New York Reserve Bank declined $21,600,000, but rediscounts of other bills increased $10,800,000. The net result of the week's operations, therefore, was a falling off in total bills discounted of $10,800,000. Total bills and securities (earning assets) declined $21,500,000, although deposits expanded $9,100,000. For the System as a whole gold holdings increased $1,400,000. Rediscounting of Government secured paper was reduced $27,100,000. In other bills there was a gain of $11,200,000, so that total bills discounted for the week declined $15,900,000. Holdings of bills bought in the open market rose $12,300,000. Total bills and securities fell $7,100,000 and deposits decreased $37,500,000. Federal Reserve notes in actual circulation expanded $7,500,000 nationally and $10,000,000 locally. Member bank reserve accounts shrank $41,400,000 for the banks as a group, but increased $9,300,000 at New York. As to the ratio of reserve, expansion in gold stocks was responsible for moderate advances. The ratio of the New York institution advanced 2.5%, to 83.4%, while that of the combined System moved up 0.6%, to 76.0%.

An increase in surplus of more than $19,000,000 proved to be the most noteworthy feature of last Saturday's statement of New York Clearing House banks and trust companies. The loan item was reduced $36,425,000, while net demand deposits expanded $19,539,000, to $4,395,534,000. This last is exclusive of Government deposits to the amount of $27,969,000. Time deposits, on the other hand, declined $15,722,000, to $565,977,000. Other lesser changes included a drop in cash in own vaults of members of the Federal Reserve Bank of $369,000, to $46,448,000, which, however, does not count as reserve; and increases of $274,000 and $1,240,000 in the reserves of State banks and trust companies in own vaults and in other depositories, respectively. Member banks added to their reserves in the Federal institution $19,821,000, thereby explaining the large gain in surplus reserve, which in exact figures reached $19,264,450, and carried excess reserves up to $56,683,260, or the largest sum held for this account in quite some time. The above figures for surplus reserves are on the basis of legal reserves of 13% against demand deposits for member banks of the Federal Reserve System, but do not include $46,448,000 cash in vault held by these member banks on Saturday last.

The rates for call money were a little higher early in the week, on what was supposed to be largely preparation for the June 1 disbursements. As the week progressed, however, the tendency was toward greater ease. On Thursday, notwithstanding the triple holiday was so close at hand, the only quotation for call loans was 3¾% in the regular market. In the so-called outside market it was claimed that demand accommodations could be arranged at 3½%. Yesterday, however, being Friday, and the last day on which accommodations could be arranged prior to June 1, loans were called to the extent of $30,000,000 and call loans advanced from 3¾% at the opening to 4½% in the afternoon. Recessions are expected again after the 1st of the month. Time money was dull and unchanged at 4% bid and 4¼ offered. The downward trend of the local money market until yesterday was regarded as significant, in view of the greater activity of the stock market, the larger offerings of bonds in the aggregate and the fact that the car loadings reported this week were considerably in excess of 1,000,000 cars. Brokers' loans for the week ended May 19 showed a decrease of about $80,000,000. In banking circles it is expected that the United States Treasury will issue about $150,000,000 one-year certificates of indebtedness on or about June 15 to meet two issues of certificates maturing on that date. The earlier estimates indicated that the amount would be from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000, but according to later Washington advices, neither of these amounts will be necessary, as the Government surplus will be in excess of $250,000,000. With the political situation in Europe somewhat less disturbed there has been more discussion of foreign financing in this country. The advance of $2 a ton by the United States Steel Corporation in its price for bars has caused considerable comment. Generally speaking, steel shipments appear to have been larger, but new business smaller, except, perhaps, in certain products. Cool weather for the crops still prevails in some sections. The business of the country as a whole is quite satisfactory.

Dealing with specific rates for money, call loans covered a range of 3½@4½%, as compared with 3¾@4½% last week. Monday and Tuesday a flat rate of 4% was named, this being the high, the low and renewal quotation on both days. Renewals continued to be negotiated at 4% on Wednesday, but before the close there was a decline to 3½%; the high was still 4%. Increased ease developed on Thursday, when all loans on call were made at 3¾%. On Friday a temporary flurry carried the call rate up to 4½%; the renewal basis, however, remained at 3¾%, and this was the low.

For fixed date maturities the undertone was steady, but rates have not been changed from 4@4¼% for all periods from sixty days to six months, the same as the previous week. Trading was narrow and the market a dull, lifeless affair. No large individual loans were reported.

Commercial paper was in demand, but as offerings continue restricted, the volume of business transacted was of moderate proportions. Country banks were the principal buyers, and rates were not changed from 3¾@4% for four to six months' choice names, with 4½% required for names not so well known. New England mill paper and the shorter choice names are still being dealt in at 3¾%.

Banks' and bankers' acceptances were firmer and open market quotations were advanced ¼ of 1% on all maturities. Most of the business passing was furnished by interior institutions, but the market was inactive and the supply of offerings small. For call loans against bankers' acceptances, the posted rate of the American Acceptance Council was reduced to 3¼% early in the week, but yesterday was put back to 3½%. The Acceptance Council makes the discount rate on prime bankers' acceptances eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve banks 3¼% bid and 3⅛% asked for bills running 30 days, 3⅜% bid and 3¼% asked for 60 days, 3½% bid and 3⅜% asked for 90 and 120 days, 3⅝% bid and 3½% asked for 150 days, and 3¾% bid and 3⅝% asked for 180 days. Open market quotations are as follows:

Sterling exchange moved narrowly this week, with the range of prices less than ⅜ of a cent, and trading usually quiet and featureless. Attention for the moment shifted to the Continental division by reason of the unexpected but welcome ending of hostilities in Morocco; hence British currency was somewhat neglected, although values were very firm practically throughout. Dulness, moreover, was intensified as a result of observance of Whit Monday so that in the early part of the week business was at a virtual standstill. With the resumption of regular dealings on Tuesday, a small accumulation of bills caused temporary weakness and there was a decline from 4 86 1-16 for demand to 4 86 1-32. When these surplus offerings had been disposed of, the market steadied and an advance took place to 4 86 9-32. As a matter of fact, the strength displayed by sterling was an occasion of surprise to those who had evidently been expecting a slump in quotations to follow the slowing down that has attended the recent tying-up of British industries. Whether or not the still unsettled coal strike will have any seriously adverse effect upon sterling exchange values remains an open question, and depends largely upon the duration of the strife. British interests are represented as looking forward confidently to a greater expansion in trade than at any time since the ending of the World War just as soon as this incubus is removed. Possibly the fact that the Bank of England continues to absorb considerable quantities of the weekly consignments of South African gold may have a good deal to do with the prevailing strength in sterling at a time of more or less acute unsettlement owing to disturbed labor conditions. Toward the close of the week increased activity developed and prices went to the highest point of the week, partly in sympathy with the encouragement felt in Europe over the cessation of the long drawn out and expensive Riffian military campaign.

As to the day-to-day rates, sterling exchange on Saturday last was a shade easier with demand at 4 86 1-16 (one rate), cable transfers at 4 86 7-16 and sixty days at 4 82 13-16; the market was quiet and featureless. On Monday trading was practically at a standstill owing to the Whitsuntide holiday celebrations abroad; nevertheless, rates were steady, at 4 86 1-16@4 86 5-32 for demand, 4 86 7-16 @4 86 17-32 for cable transfers and 4 82 13-16@ 4 82 29-32 for sixty days. With the resumption of normal business activities on Tuesday, a small accumulation of offerings sent prices down a trifle and demand ranged at 4 86 1-32@4 86 3-32, cable transfers at 4 86 13-32@4 86 15-32 and sixty days at 4 82 25-32@4 82 27-32. Wednesday's market was inactive, but firm, and there was a small advance to 4 86⅛@4 86¼ for demand, to 4 86½@4 86⅝ for cable transfers and to 4 82⅞@4 83 for sixty days. Dulness characterized dealings on Thursday and the range was practically unchanged at 4 86 3-16@4 86¼ for demand, 4 86 9-16@4 86⅝ for cable transfers and 4 82 15-16@4 83 for sixty days. Friday the undertone was a trifle firmer; hence demand sold up to 4 86 3-16@4 86 9-32, cable transfers to 4 86 9-16 @4 86 21-32 and sixty days to 4 82 15-16@4 83 1-32. The close was at 4 83 for sixty days, 4 86¼ for demand and 4 86⅝ for cable transfers. Commercial sight bills finished at 4 86⅛, sixty days at 4 82½, ninety days at 4 81, documents for payment (sixty days) at 4 82¾, and seven-day grain bills at 4 85. Cotton and grain for payment closed at 4 86⅛.

No gold was reported as engaged either for export or import, this week. The Bank of England continues to add to its gold stock, reporting an additional purchase of £78,000 in bullion bars.

Movements in Continental exchange during the fore part of the week were somewhat colorless,and trading, owing to intervention of the Whitsuntide celebrations at the principal European centres, was of unusually small volume. The holiday interval, however, was utilized by certain speculative interests to launch a small boom in French francs, in the hope that shorts would be compelled to rush to cover, and the rate was forced up from 3.26 to 3.40. In some quarters it was claimed that the rise was being engineered to influence the French parliament favorably regarding the French Debt Settlement with the United States while still others hinted at important revelations soon to be made incidental to the stabilizing of the franc and restoration of the gold basis in France. Curiously enough, news of the surrender of Abd-el-Krim had only a temporary effect on French francs, which after advancing to 3.40, dropped back to as low as 3.16½, then rallied to 3.29½. Belgian francs, generally speaking, followed the French unit and see-sawed from 3.30 to 3.19, then back to 3.21, only to touch 3.04 late in the week. Italian lire also moved somewhat erratically, opening at 3.88, but falling back by degrees until 3.70 was reached. Trading was quite active, with fewer indications of official support, although traders asserted that the Government was still engaged in buying lire abroad. No changes occurred in either German or Austrian currencies. Greek exchange opened at 1.27½, but subsequently rose to 1.33½, and hovered alternatively above and below that figure on buying based on rumors that the Washington authorities might take favorable action with regard to allowing Greece the balance of the old war loan. In the minor central European group there is nothing of importance to report. Trading was dull, but the trend of prices was slightly higher. Rumanian lei moved up a point or two, to 0.40¼, and Polish zloties recovered 50 points, to 9.50. One of the chief topics of discussion during the week, however, was the immediate future of the French franc. Checking of the recent spectacular decline is regarded as of itself an important achievement, although according to official pronouncement it was brought about rather as a result of natural reaction and short covering, than governmental support. Statements made by Finance Minister Peret to the effect that the Bank of France and the joint stock banks had reached an agreement whereby the franc would receive support sufficient for its recovery, also that the French authorities were soon to announce a detailed program of financial reform, were received with interest, if not without skepticism.

At the close violent up and down movements occurred in French francs and it was reported that speculative interests who had sold for end of May delivery were endeavoring to cover by buying spot. Others, wishing to extend their short commitments, offered futures in round amounts and thereby established the broadest differential between spot and futures recorded since 1924. As spot offerings, however, were ample, the quotation was weak, except when the Government was putting out supporting orders. For a while thirty-day francs were quoted at 12 points below cable rates and ninety-day bills as much as 24 points under. At the opening of the week the spread was only about 2½ and 7½, respectively. Some talk was heard as to whether the heavy selling indicated making of new short commitments, but this was not generally credited, as the excessive spread rendered such operations unprofitable.

The London check rate on Paris closed at 152.03, compared with 154.50 last week. In New York sight bills on the French centre finished at 3.22, against 3.24½; cable transfers at 3.23, against 3.25½; commercial sight bills at 3.21, against 3.23½, and commercial sixty days at 3.11½, against 3.19 a week ago. Closing rates on Antwerp francs were 3.07 for checks and 3.08 for cable transfers, in comparison with 3.26 and 3.27 a week earlier. Reichsmarks finished unchanged at 23.81 (one rate) for both checks and cable transfers. In Austrian schillings there has been no change from 14⅛, the level long prevailing. Lire finished at 3.74½ for bankers' sight bills and at 3.75½ for cable transfers. This compares with 3.85¼ and 3.86¼ a week earlier. Exchange on Czechoslovakia closed at 2.96⅜ (unchanged); on Bucharest at 0.40¼, against 0.37¾, and on Finland at 2.52¼ (unchanged). Polish zloties finished at 9.50, against 9.00 the previous week. Greek drachmae closed at 1.29¼ for checks and at 1.29¾ for cable transfers. Last week the close was 1.27½ and 1.28.

In the former neutral exchanges, so-called, the feature of an otherwise quiet week, was news of the surrender of the rebel Riffian chieftain with the consequent belief that warfare in Morocco had ended. The announcement was the signal for a sharp upward spurt in Spanish pesetas which shot up to 15.24, a new high on the present movement, and a gain for the week of 66 points. Some doubt is expressed, however, as to whether it will be possible to maintain this level, since even with Spain's spring requirements covered and the improvement that would naturally follow restoration of peace, Spain's internal finances are regarded as somewhat precarious and it would not be surprising if the peseta should lose part of its sensational gain. Good buying was noted, but mainly of speculative origin. Guilders were firm and slightly higher, and the same is true of Swiss francs, though without specific activity to account therefor. The Scandinavians were steady, but not essentially changed; even the erratic Norwegian krone moved within a radius of only 9 points, though closing strong at 21.77½.

Bankers' sight on Amsterdam finished at 40.18, against 40.17¾; cable transfers at 40.20, against 40.19¾; commercial sight bills at 40.10, against 40.09¾, and commercial sixty days at 39.74, against 39.73¾ last week. Final quotations on Swiss francs were 19.36 for bankers' sight bills and 19.37 for cable transfers, in comparison with 19.34¼ and 19.35¼ a week ago. Copenhagen checks closed at 26.28 and cable transfers at 26.32, against 26.22½ and 26.26½. Checks on Sweden finished at 26.73 and cable transfers at 26.78, against 26.73½ and 26.77½, while checks on Norway closed at 21.74½ and cable transfers at 21.78½, against 21.62½ and 21.66½ the previous week. Spanish pesetas closed strong at 15.13 for checks and at 15.15 for cable remittances. Last week the close was 14.51 and 14.53.

With regard to South American quotations the undertone was firm, with Brazilian milreis sharply higher on improvement in the outlook and successful placing of the new Brazilian loan. The close, after a new high of 15.23 had been reached, was at 15.05 for checks and at 15.10 for cable transfers, as against 14.75 and 14.80 last week. Argentine pesos finished lower at 40.07 for checks and at 40.12 for cable transfers, in comparison with 40.16 and 40.21 the preceding week, Chilean exchange was steady, but finished at 12.05 (unchanged), while Peru was easier at 3.64, against 3.65 a week earlier.

Far Eastern exchange was generally quiet at close to the levels of a week ago. Hong Kong finished at 55.35@55.55, against 55.35@55.45; Shanghai, 72@72 1-16, against 72@72¼; Yokohama, 47@47 3-16, against 47⅛@47 3-16; Manila, 49½@49⅝ (unchanged); Singapore, 56⅜@56⅞, against 56¼@56⅞; Bombay, 36 7-16@36⅝, against 36⅜@36½, and Calcutta, 36 7-16@36⅝, against 36⅜@36½.

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 522 of the Tariff Act of 1922, the Federal Reserve Bank is now certifying daily to the Secretary of the Treasury the buying rate for cable transfers in the different countries of the world. We give below a record for the week just past:

The New York Clearing House banks, in their operations with interior banking institutions, have gained $4,673,640 net in cash as a result of the currency movements for the week ended May 27. Their receipts from the interior have aggregated $7,001,240, while the shipments have reached $2,327,600, as per the following table:

As the Sub-Treasury was taken over by the Federal Reserve Bank on Dec. 6 1920, it is no longer possible to show the effect of Government operations on the Clearing House institutions. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York was creditor at the Clearing House each day as follows:

Note.—The foregoing heavy credits reflect the huge mass of checks which come to the New York Reserve Bank from all parts of the country in the operation of the Federal Reserve System's par collection scheme. These large credit balances, however, reflect only a part of the Reserve Bank's operations with the Clearing House institutions, as only the items payable in New York City are represented in the daily balances. The large volume of checks on institutions located outside of New York are not accounted for in arriving at these balances, as such checks do not pass through the Clearing House but are deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank for collection for the account of the local Clearing House banks.

Federal Law and State Rights—The Prohibition Order.

In a speech at Williamsburg, Va., on May 15, President Coolidge again elaborated the views regarding the rights of the States and the dangers of Federal encroachment to which he has several times given forcible expression, and in particular warned the country against the evils of bureaucracy. "No method of procedure has ever been devised," he declared, "by which liberty could be divorced from local self-government. No plan of centralization has ever been adopted which did not result in bureaucracy, tyranny, inflexibility, reaction and decline. Of all forms of government, those administered by bureaus are about the least satisfactory to an enlightened and progressive people. Being irresponsible they become autocratic, and being autocratic they resist all development. Unless bureaucracy is constantly resisted it breaks down representative government and overwhelms democracy. It is the one element in our institutions that sets up the pretense of having authority over everybody and being responsible to nobody."

With this emphatic utterance fresh in mind, it is not difficult to understand the surprise, amounting in some quarters to amazement, with which the country learned on May 21 that the President, exactly one week before his speech at Williamsburg, had issued an executive order providing that "any State, county or municipal officer may be appointed, at a nominal rate of compensation, as prohibition officers of the Treasury Department to enforce the provisions of the National Prohibition Act and Acts supplemental thereto in States and Territories, except in those States having constitutional or statutory provision against State officers holding office under the Federal Government." The order was in form an amendment of an executive order issued by President Grant on Jan. 17 1873, forbidding holders of Federal offices, except in certain specified cases, to accept or hold at the same time any State or municipal office, on the ground that "the holding of two such offices by the same person is incompatible with a due and faithful discharge of the duties of either office," that "it frequently gives rise to great inconvenience, and often results in detriment to the public service," and that it is "not in harmony with the genius of the Government."

The outburst of protest and resentment with which the order of May 8 has been greeted has put the Administration in the uncomfortable position of having to defend itself against criticism based upon constitutional as well as political grounds, and of seeming to ignore on the one hand the very principles which Mr. Coolidge had lately been expounding on the other. The suggestion of the order appears to have originated with Lincoln C. Andrews, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement, who desired to use it in "cleaning up" California. The order was approved by Secretary Mellon apparently as a routine matter, and by Mr. Coolidge in the same way, but although dated May 8 it was not made public until May 21, during which interval Mr. Coolidge delivered the Williamsburg speech from which we have quoted. The authority for the order appears to have been found in Section 2 of the Eighteenth Amendment, which provides that "the Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation." The interpretation of this section which is attributed to Mr. Andrews is somewhat startling. "This is not the time," he was quoted as saying on May 22, "to talk about States' rights so far as prohibition is concerned. When the people wrote the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution they decided that the Federal Government should have the police power, making jurisdiction concurrent between the Federal and State Governments. I must lean on the States and communities to carry their burdens in the enforcement of the prohibition law."

While the desire to insure a more effective enforcement of the prohibitory laws was declared to be the special purpose of the order, the question of prohibition as a national policy is subordinate to the larger questions of the constitutionality of the order and its political expediency. The opinion of Attorney-General Sargent, made public only on May 24, upholding the validity of the order, is not entirely convincing. Mr. Sargent, who would appear not to have been consulted until after the storm broke, could find no grounds upon which to uphold the order except the provision of the Eighteenth Amendment which has just been cited, and the fact that "there does not appear to be any Federal law, constitutional or statutory, incapacitating a citizen from holding a Federal and State office at the same time." Neither argument is conclusive. The jurisdiction which the Eighteenth Amendment confers upon the States, concurrently with the Federal Government, seems more likely to have been intended to meet the case of States, like Kansas or Maine, which had already engrafted prohibition upon their own State Constitutions, and which might naturally wish to co-operate with the Federal Government in enforcing the new national policy, notwithstanding the admitted constitutional principle that no State is required to enforce a Federal statute. The basis of that principle is in the nature of the Federal system, and the validity of the principle, unquestioned by the courts, was recognized by implication in the executive order of 1873. It seems very doubtful whether a fair reading of the language of the Eighteenth Amendment discloses any clear intention to override that principle, and to authorize the President, through an executive order, to call upon the States and their municipal subdivisions to do what they had never, since the formation of the Government, been regarded as under any obligation to do.

If there be one doctrine more than any other that the courts have clearly enunciated, it is that the Federal Government is supreme in its own sphere, that the States are supreme in theirs, and that each enforces its own laws. The most, apparently, that can be said for Section 2 of the Eighteenth Amendment is that the jurisdiction which it confers upon the States is permissive, not mandatory. The States are to "have concurrent power," but they are not compelled. They may co-operate with the Federal Government if they choose to do so, but there is no obligation in the matter. Moreover, the order of May 8 expressly exempts from its operation those States whose Constitutions forbid a State officer to hold a Federal office. Is it seriously to be contended that a right which has hitherto been regarded as inhering in the nature of the Federal system may be overridden by an executive order wherever a State Constitution has not intervened to define and enforce it? It is surely a novel doctrine that a State, by putting something into its Constitution or statutes, can thereby acquire a right or protection under the Federal Constitution that it did not enjoy before. Concurrent jurisdiction, it may further be pointed out, is reciprocal; it confers authority upon both parties. Are we to understand that the Governor of a State, if he is dissatisfied with the way in which Federal officers are enforcing the national prohibitory laws, may by executive order draft Federal officers into the State service, "at a nominal rate of compensation," to enforce the laws as he thinks they should be enforced?

Whatever the constitutional aspects of the question, however, the political effect of the order can hardly fail to prove embarassing to the Administration. Mr. Coolidge's personal popularity may be as great as ever, but the Republican Party has lately received some rude shocks. Three Republican Senators—McKinley of Illinois, Pepper of Pennsylvania and Stanfield of Oregon—have within a few weeks been overwhelmingly defeated for renomination at the State primaries, and the renomination of Senator Cummins of Iowa is reported to be endangered by the opposition of former Senator Brookhart, insurgent Republican, who was recently unseated by the Senate because of irregularities in the election. If these incidents represent the attitude of Republican voters in other States, the Republican majority in the Senate is in danger of substantial reduction, and what may happen to the Senate may equally well happen to the House, the entire membership of which is to be re-elected. The New York "Times" points out editorially that not a single Republican in the Senate rose to the defense of Mr. Coolidge's order, that the only Senator who defended it on legal and constitutional grounds was Senator Walsh of Montana, a Democrat, and that the Republicans allowed the resolution calling for an investigation of the order by the Judiciary Committee of the Senate to pass without protest or even a record of the vote. The situation is not improved by Mr. Coolidge's reported surprise at the hosile reception which his action has met with, or by the intimation that the order was signed and issued as a matter of routine. The President of the United States is supposed to know the purport of documents which he signs, and his signature makes him responsible for their principles as well as for the procedure which they embody. It is much to be feared that in this, as in some other matters, Mr. Coolidge has been badly advised. It was not good policy for the President to set his party by the ears over a matter in regard to which deep feeling is developing in the country, or to take a step which seems to cut squarely athwart his commendable declarations against Federal usurpation and the growth of bureaucracy. Such action only creates confusion where what the country needs is clear and constructive leadership.

Mass Production and High Wages.

According to a small book, recently published, "The Secret of High Wages," by Bertram Austin and W. Francis Lloyd (Dodd, Mead & Co.), the main reason for industrial unemployment in England is antiquated methods in manufacture, a belief that "profits can only be increased by cutting down wages or raising prices to the consumer." The authors, young English engineers, visited this country late last year for study and observation of the wage question and, we are told, "toured the most important cities of Eastern America, inspected twenty-four manufacturing plants and other commercial organizations, and in addition had opportunities of discussing industrial policies and methods of manufacture with many leaders in American life." The result of their observations these authors embodied in nine "fundamental principles of management." One of these is stated as follows: "D. The productive capacity per capita of labor can be increased without limit, depending upon the progress made in time and trouble-saving appliances."

Now, it is not for the purpose of combating any of the principles of this book, for there is a measure of truth in all of them, that we undertake a short comment thereon, but to call attention to the fatal weakness of ascribing general prosperity in any country to a set of broad principles said to be established by a sudy of localized manufacture. We may at once admit the contention that wages in particular lines of manufacture can be increased by enlarging production and sale through mass production. And it is especially true of certain products and plants. It is also true, as the familiar history of Henry Ford proves, that increases of wages may accompany lowering of price to the consumer, and that in some degree the workman affected has better living conditions and more money and leisure to spend, the results of which flow into the general prosperity of industry and business. But it is taking a part for the whole when American business progress and prowess, in contrast with English depression and unemployment, is attributed to the increase of per capita production by new machinery, a saving of waste, efficient management, or all of them put together. If generalization is to be followed it must cover the whole field of effort.

Low price, high wage, through increased mass production, is not possible of application to all industries. We cannot couple them together as principles of wide extension. Their truth lies in specialized application. And the indefinite increase of per capita production is not possible of general adoption for the reason that a limit exists as to consumption and use of many of the essentials of life in a given time and place. Just here is where the continual use of the career of Henry Ford is misleading. Granting all that may be said of the benefits of the automobile to life and business, its production has increased faster than the legitimate consuming power of the people, as proved by its fourteen-billion-dollar annual bill of costs. No such ratio is possible to plows or sewing machines. Among a more frugal people, in a country of more limited territory, the increasing, frenzied use of the automobile is forbidden by conditions and the indefinite increase of per capita production, if possible would defeat its own ends. Why do theorists advocate the limitation of acreage in agriculture in order to enhance price?

If we take industry as a whole and double the whole product, as against the whole of population, we can, of course, increase the whole of wage, as measured in terms of production value. (But if we are to enter the factor of the whole of profit it must affect the whole of wage.) But we do no such thing anywhere, any time. In no industry or plant can we escape the necessity of profit in order that we may carry on and thus produce. We cannot deny that capital, as a base of production, is part of the equation. Capital must be paid for just as surely as labor. And who is to set the ratio of hire for capital and hire for labor unless it be the employer? Any contention that labor can set the wage price of capital is an assumption without a reason; it would utterly, in the end, destroy capital. It is equally wrong to contend that capital can set the wage price of labor, without reference to the wants and needs of labor, for that ultimately would destroy both capital and labor. The only solution that can ever come to this problem is in a fair mutual consideration of a single purpose, the good of both, with the admission that the employer and owner must have the right to set the labor wage, that there be an owner-employer and capital continue to exist, for without privately owned capital there can be no independent labor; in fact, no labor, as we know it, save in communism and socialism. If these things are true, then, when machinery increases production it may decrease price and increase wage, only when, in the face of competition, the industry, through its owners, shall set the profit on capital and the price of wage. And no universal law can apply, and none does apply, as propounded in the principle we have quoted.

Wants are far from being needs. In the automobile, since Henry Ford is always set forth as an example, want and need are combined, luxury and necessity. And want as an element of demand, it will hardly be disputed, has increased faster than need. But there are other mechanical agencies of life that minister alone to need, and to which the indefinite extension of mass production with its alleged benefits of low price high wage do not apply and cannot be made to apply. Here is the insuperable difficulty to this principle, it is too general, it does not equally apply to all industries and plants. Consequently, regardless of the influence of production, management, and the saving of waste, reason is compelled to fall back on the ancient law of "supply and demand" as the regulator of price, profit and wage, each in its time and place, and each of the three, in any given time and place, mutually acting and reacting on the other. As said, mass production may contribute to low price high wage, but to say that per capita production is capable of indefinite extension by means of machinery and thus capable of application to the whole of industry is a fallacy we will do well to forget. And in the United States, in the building trades at least, there is no marked desire to increase the per capita production, rather the reverse. Here the so-called human equation of the humane seems to work the other way. And it is not to be forgotten that utterances by some union labor leaders indicate that an arbitrary demand will be made for part of the profits of machine-made mass production without waiting for a corresponding per capita increase through more skillful and efficient work. It is uselcss to talk of infallible principles in these discussions when we take manufacture alone. It plays its part in a nation's prosperity, but only one part in the whole.

There are many elements bound up in the general prosperity of a people. It cannot be argued that if mining and manufacture in England be brought to the high state of efficiency now prevailing in the United States that the people will be equally prosperous in general; or that they will be equally prosperous in kind. General prosperity is indigenous as well as acquired. On the other hand, there are elements in the English prospectus that are not found in our own outlook. In the past England has been near to a free trade country; the United States has clung to a protective tariff policy. If we try to apply this principle of increasing productive capacity, without limit, by "time and trouble-saving appliances," can we predicate the same results under these two opposed policies? Can we say that the same inventive genius exists in any two peoples to spur them on to an equal per capita production? Can mass production exist equally in two countries regardless of raw materials? Can mass production be indulged in intensively and extensively without relation to foreign markets? Do not floods that meet obstacles backward flow?

There is a certain fascination about formulas. And there is a constant per capita increase. But as an evidence of mass production, unfortunately, they do not bring "general prosperity." Is it proper, then, to confront the formula we have been discussing with the fact that the World War bore more heavily and disastrously upon European countries than upon ours; was in economics and industry more destructive; and that a ten-year backward look upon per capita power and mass production is over entirely different conditions? No. There is a limit to per capita increase, regardless of machinery and manufacture and mass production. We seem to live now in the United States as if there is no limit, and also no limit to our boasted prosperity. If we disregard the natural limit which frugality and thrift and constancy of work and reasonableness of joy, put upon life, we are living in a fool's paradise of prosperity, and the day must some time come, as it did to King Midas in the fable, when we have "prosperity," but nothing to eat and wear.

Large Consumption of Copper—Shipments for Domestic and Export Account First Four Months of 1926 in Excess of Output.

There is ample evidence that the demand for copper is being well maintained. Enormous supplies are being absorbed by manufacturers at home and abroad, current market prices are abnormally low, the policy of producers is to distribute the metal freely for both immediate and future deliveries, and the ultimate consumer is using the utmost possible tonnage. These facts are worthy of more than ordinary consideration.

Present low market values are overwhelmingly in favor of the rapid growth of consumption. Consumers have been reaping unusual benefits accruing from extra keen selling competition, but in the meantime producers of the raw material have felt the effect of this procedure in reduced income. To-day the mood appears to be undergoing a change, and it is quite conceivable that the formation of the Copper Export Trading Co., covering about 90% of the world's production, may prove the forerunner of better times for copper. Export trade in copper has been greatly dominated by heavy speculative operations and extensive hedge sales executed on the London Metal Exchange. Sooner or later the time must come when this country will have a more decided influence in the various copper markets of the world, an influence powerful enough to overcome the "weak spots" in the situation which have developed during post-war years.

Our overseas trade furnishes one of the most important outlets for surplus production. It has been established on a very heavy scale for many years, and there is every reason to believe that it will remain permanently at a very high level. The great foreign demand acts as a safety valve to the American situation. One of the favorable indications recently noted was the substantial increase in the exports of copper. Deliveries for foreign shipment during the last two months totaled 176,414,000 pounds, against 146,010,000 pounds for the two previous months, an increase of 30,404,000 pounds. The improvement in export demand has been an important contribution in building up a stronger technical position.

During the first four months of 1926 United States output of refined copper amounted to 925,224,000 pounds. Total deliveries on domestic account and for exports in the same months, were 926,100,000 pounds, or 876,000 pounds more than the total production of refined copper. These figures emphasize the strong underlying factors in the copper situation. A reduction of 5,124,000 pounds in surplus stocks of refined copper was recorded last month. On May 1 the total quantity of marketable copper in primary hands was only 145,288,000 pounds, not quite enough for three weeks' requirements.

As economic recovery in Europe progresses foreign demand should expand further. New channels of consumption are opening up, and prospects are apparently excellent for an ultimate and continuous demand which will eclipse anything hitherto achieved. Values, however, continue depressed. The average price of electrolytic copper in New York for the first four months of this year was 13.96 cents, against an average price for the corresponding months last year of 14.23 cents. The average price for the last 20 years was 17.11 cents. The industry has suffered for a long time by reason of subnormal market prices.

The exhibit of the Anaconda Copper Mining Co. for the year 1925, despite depressed copper conditions, is a record of great and splendid achievement. Total net income of the company last year amounted to $17,540,532, or equal to $5 84 a share on 3,000,000 shares outstanding. This compares with net income in 1924 of $6,719,215, or $2 23 a share earned in that year. The Anaconda enterprise comprises a group of mines, reduction works, refineries, manufacturing plants, sawmills, coal mines, timber lands, etc., producing miscellaneous products. Its reserves of copper, zinc, lead, coal, silver, gold and lumber are so vast as almost to stagger the imagination. But attention deserves especially to be directed to the expanding activity of the American Brass Co., the gigantic manufacturing unit in the organization. A new high mark was established last year by a total output of fabricated products amounting to 653,268,973 pounds, against 519,749,665 pounds for the year 1924. The output in 1925 was more than threefold that in 1921.

During the last three years the American Brass Co.'s output amounted to a total of 1,678,537,472 pounds of manufactured products, compared with 1,031,237,014 pounds for the three previous years, an increase of more than 62%. The growth of the brass company has more than kept pace with the development of the brass industry, and indicates the great expansion which has taken place in copper consumption. The American Brass Co. is the largest consumer of copper in the world, and has seven superb plants in this country and Canada. The following figures show the extent of operations carried on at its different mills in five-year periods since 1901 by the output of fabricated products, in pounds.

1911-1915	1,464,575,324
1916-1920	2,337,738,255
1921-1925	2,304,595,767
Total 25 years	8,039,401,425

This record will undoubtedly be surpassed in the coming years. In the nine years ending Dec. 31 1920, before the merger with the Anaconda, the net earnings were $40,074,912, and dividends paid during the same period were $21,975,000. In 1916 net earnings amounted to $10,991,669.

The copper market is quiet at present, with electrolytic quoted at 13.80c., 13.87½c. delivered Connecticut.

World production of copper by the principal countries of the world for the first quarter of 1926 is estimated at 781,596,000 pounds, compared with 777,288,000 pounds for the first quarter of 1925, an increase of 4,308,000 pounds.

Labor's Share of Profits—Views of President Green of American Federation of Labor.

[From the "Wall Street Journal" of May 27 1926.]

President Green, of the American Federation of Labor, has been liberally quoted in the newspapers on his willingness, speaking for labor, to share to the fullest extent in the rewards of increased production. Mr. Green is broad-minded. He does not care how the increased production is achieved, so long as labor gets the lion's share.

Labor is more productive than it was twenty years ago, to say nothing of ten years ago, wherever the machine makes it so. It is more productive where it is unrestrained by the union as, for instance, in the United States Steel plants where promotion goes by merit, or on the Detroit Toledo & Ironton Railroad controlled by Henry Ford, where the railroad unions are ignored and better than union wages are paid.

But is the bricklayer laying the 2,000 bricks a day which would be easily within his capacity? The union holds him down to something near a fourth of that possible product. Management with intelligence, to some extent, offsets this; by simplifying and co-ordinating it contrives to erect great buildings at a profit. What share has the bricklayer in that profit? The building industry, at least, is efficient not because of union labor but in spite of it.

Our coal miners, thanks to much wider and more accessible seams of coal, show a better individual output than the British miners. They have modern machinery to help them and that machinery is kept up to date. But what encouragement has been given to the output of coal by the labor unions? When a worker is compelled to keep up with the pace of a machine in a factory, and that machine is efficient, he can point to a larger individual output, although, thanks to the machine, his work is appreciably lighter.

Mr. Green is naturally willing to share in the rewards he has done nothing to earn. Great Britain has been passing through the Valley of the Shadow of Death and has at last succeeded in knocking a little sense into the leaders of union labor. What is the matter with Great Britain to-day? The "union stroke," and nothing else. Her coal miners are putting out three-sevenths of the coal per capita they produced in 1913, and 25% less than they produced five years ago. Her bricklayers are laying barely 400 bricks a day. She is losing her export trade because of the labor cost of production. And there, even as in America, the factories which are not unionized are getting all the work they can handle and paying better than union wages.

Wisely invested capital, intelligent invention, elimination of lost motion, utilization of waste, efficient management have increased American industrial production enormously. Will Mr. Green give us chapter and verse for even a very few instances of a voluntary increase in production by labor itself? As Ebenezer Eliot, the English peasant-poet of a century ago, said:

> What is a Communist? One who has yearnings
> For an equal division of unequal earnings;
> Sluggard or scoundrel or both, he is willing
> To fork out his penny and pocket your shilling.

The Federal Trade Commission on Our National Wealth.

The Federal Trade Commission, in response to a Senate resolution on Tuesday of this week (May 25) issued a report on "National Wealth and Income," which estimates the national wealth in 1922 at 353 billion dollars and the national income in 1923 at 70 billion dollars. The increase in national wealth from 1912 to 1922, as measured in dollars, is reckoned in the report at about 72%, but it is stated that, if allowance is made for changes in the purchasing power of the dollar, the real increase was nearer 16%, as compared with about 15% increase in population.

For the year 1922 the report estimates that the national wealth consisted of 122 billions of land values, exclusive of improvements, or 35% of the total; 108 billions is the estimate for improvements on the land, and 123 billions for movable goods of all kinds. Of the total real estate value of 230 billions, about 43 billions is tax-exempt, and belongs chiefly to the Government—Federal, State and local. The report estimates the amount of wealth, according to various uses; wealth in agriculture, for example, comprised about 18% of the total, in manufacturing and mining about 14% and in railroads and other public utilities about 12%. The largest share is said to be in dwellings and other goods used for personal necessities and enjoyment—reckoned at over one-fourth of the total.

The distribution of leath among individuals is estimated on the basis of 43,000 probate records in 24 typical counties for 1912 to 1922, supplemented by an estimate of the average value of unprobated estates. On this basis about 1% of the number of decedents owned about 59% of the estimated wealth, and 13% of the number of decedents owned over 90%. The concentration of wealth, however, diminished slightly in the later years of the period covered. In counties having a city of more than 50,000 population the average estate was larger and the concentration of wealth greater than in other counties.

As to ownership of natural resources, the report estimates that for 1922 six companies controlled about one-third of the developed water power, eight companies three-fourths of the unmined anthracite, 30 companies over a third of the immediate reserves of bituminous coal, two companies over one-half of the iron ore reserves, four companies nearly one-half of the copper reserves, and 30 companies about one-eighth of the petroleum reserves.

In the estimates of agricultural wealth attention is called to the agricultural depression and the recent marked decline in farm land prices, but acreage tilled and quantities of crops produced are considered, as well as money values.

The wealth of corporations is developed in the report on the basis of special statistics obtained from the Treasury Department, for which the book values show an aggregate amount of 102 billion dollars in 1922. Manufacturing corporations had the largest amount, estimated at nearly 34 billion dollars, among which the producers of various metals and metal products were the most important. The railroad corporations had a greater amount of wealth than any other single industry and much the largest average amount per company.

The report states that the ownership of corporations, as shown by the number of shareholders, is generally widely distributed. Returns from 4,367 corporations, with a combined capital stock of more than nine billion dollars and an aggregate of 1,074,851 holdings of common stock, give an average holding of common stock of $6,969 and of preferred of $5,211. Excluding corporations, trustees, brokers and all foreign holders, over 90% of the common stock was in the hands of individuals; corporations had only 1.1%.

The wealth of non-profit institutions, religious, benevolent and educational, is estimated in the report at 14.5 billion dollars. The largest share, 7.6 billion dollars, is attributed to educational institutions, about equally divided between public and private institutions. The estimate for religious organizations is given as 3.3 billions, of which amount about 86% is for churches, parsonages and other real estate.

The discussion of national income consists of two main parts—first, an estimate of the total national income by branches of economic activity, and second, a special analysis of the income reported under the Federal income tax law. The amount of income reported by the Treasury in its Statistics of Income for 1923 was 31 billion dollars, based on the returns of those persons required to make reports. The total amount so reported was considerably less than one-half of the estimated total income of the entire population. The population receiving or participating in the enjoyment of this income was about one-sixth of the total of the country. Three-fourths of this amount of income was reported by persons with less than $10,000 income, and less than 4% by persons with an income over $100,000.

The income reported in the income tax returns is classified into several groups, such as (1) wages and salaries, (2) business and partnership profits, (3) rents, royalties, interest and dividends, and (4) profits from the sale of real estate, stocks and bonds, etc. Of these wages and salaries are the most important for the grand total of income reported, and generally constitute the bulk of income for persons having less than $10,000 a year.

The basis used for estimating the total income of the country is the total value of goods and services produced in the various branches of business as shown by Census reports and other statistics. Additional data necessary for such an analysis were obtained directly by the Commission. The total amount thus ascertained is divided between the amounts going as wages and salaries and the amounts going as interest, dividends, business profits and other returns to capital and enterprise.

The total national income is estimated in the report for the years 1918 to 1923. The amount for 1923 is given as about 70 billion dollars, as already noted; the lowest amount was about 53 billion dollars in 1921, and the highest amount was about 75 billion dollars in 1920. These marked variations are partly due to the marked fluctuations in prices, showing changes in the value of the dollar. If dollars of more nearly equal purchasing power are taken (using a cost-of-living index with 1923 as a basis) the report states that the 70-billion-dollar income in 1923 should be compared with a 51-billion-dollar income in 1921 and 61 billion dollars in 1920. While there was an increase in national income between 1918 and 1923, on either basis of comparison, of nearly 10 billion dollars, or about 15%, there was also an increase in population of about 7%, which affects the net increase in the income per capita.

Of the estimated income in 1923 of 70 billion dollars, about 42% is attributed to manufacturing, mining and construction industries, nearly 14% to agriculture and about 12% to merchandising.

The division of the total national income between labor and capital, before deducting any taxes payable by either of them, is given as 55% in wages and salaries and 45% in profits, rent and interest, for 1923. Labor's proportion was lowest in 1918, and capital's proportion was lowest in 1921. These proportions are also shown for different branches of industry, and varied very widely. Thus in agriculture, the share going as wages is quite small, because most of the work is done by the farmer and his family, but the share of wages and salaries in the railroad business was nearly 70% in 1923, and in the construction industry it was over 90%.

The amounts which labor and capital have to pay in taxes are not generally ascertainable in a form which enables a separate estimate for each of them, but taxes directly paid by incorporated business enterprises (not including the taxes payable by the bondholders, etc.) are estimated at 6.3% of the total income for the year 1923.

The report also analyzes the amount of corporation income as disclosed by the income tax returns from 1917 to 1923, which ranged from over 10 billion dollars profit in 1917 to only a little more than a billion dollars in 1921. The rate of return of such corporation income, on the "fair value" of the outstanding corporation capital stock as computed by the Treasury, was 7.9% in 1922, but varied widely among the various branches of business.

Indications of Business Activity

THE STATE OF TRADE—COMMERCIAL EPITOME.

Friday Night, May 28 1926.

A cold, backward spring has continued to leave its mark on American trade. The nights, even throughout the South, have been abnormally cold, although the days, curiously enough, have been much warmer than they were recently, with 100 to 103 degrees recorded in some parts of the cotton States. In the far Northwest, however, there have been complaints of dry weather, although within a day or two there have been welcome rains. But the temperatures there have naturally been too low. There has been only a moderate wholesale and jobbing trade. In familiar parlance, there is a disposition to keep close to shore. The regrettable fact is that a great deal of trade has been irretrievably lost by the abnormally cold, wet spring. The great textile industries have been among the chief sufferers. And the tendency among the cotton mills has been to reduce working time. There has been a somewhat better trade in woolen and worsteds for fall delivery, but business for near delivery has to all appearances shown no improvement. Raw silk has been very quiet. The wheat market has advanced for the week, although the other day May wheat dropped 9 cents on a sudden, owing to larger shipments to Chicago for delivery on the current month. At times there has been a fair business for export, but latterly it has fallen off. Europe, however, has bought some new wheat. May at one time advanced sharply. Some export business has been done in rye and that grain is some 3 cents per bushel higher than a week ago. There are intimations of some foreign demand for oats, but it does not appear to have yet crystallized in any business of importance. Corn has declined with better weather on the whole for the crop. It is getting a promising start. Cotton has advanced somewhat because of drought in the Atlantic States, which offset more favorable weather in Texas and the Southwest generally. There is no doubt that the cotton crop is a couple of weeks late. And some of the private crop reports of late have put the condition 5 to 8% lower than a year ago. There is apparently some slight decrease in the cotton acreage, but as 48,000,000 acres were planted last year, a decrease this season of 2 to 2½% will still leave it something to marvel at. Coffee has changed very little in price during the past week and does not appear to have developed any really new features. Brazil has met the demand readily enough. In refined sugar there is some increase of business, but raw has latterly weakened somewhat, although it is higher than recently. There is little doubt that Cuban interests are inclined to hold their supplies more firmly. The Cuban producers seem to be in a stronger financial position than was the case at one time. Rubber has declined with increasing stocks. There are intimations that British interests may endeavor to bring the Stevenson plan of restriction into operation again this summer. If they do it will simply tend to stimulate production in other parts of the world. That is the invariable sequel to manipulation of prices to a higher level.

Pig iron has recently declined and there is a movement to raise the duty on foreign iron. Steel prices have in some cases been advanced, but in the East trade is slow, the West doing the bulk of the trade at the present time. Whether the advance will hold or not, remains to be seen. There is a falling off in the output of automobiles after the high record established in April. Coal prices have shown a downward tendency owing to big supplies and the lack of any urgent demand, although there has been some business with England. Silk mills are doing less business. Wool has been dull and more or less depressed. Warmer weather in Texas promises to help business in that direction. There is a fair retail trade in this country, everything considered, although it is not what it would be if temperatures were higher. There is no disposition among jobbers to buy on any extended scale. They purchase simply to supply present needs. Spring and summer goods have been sold by wholesalers at tempting prices, stocks having accumulated owing to inclement weather conditions. Farmers are helped by the fact that hogs are at the highest prices since 1922. The lumber industry makes the best showing of any time this year. There have been about an equal number of declines and advances in the list of merchandise prices. Some increase in failures recently is ascribable, no doubt, to the slowness of the turn-over due to bad weather. But taking the country as a whole, conditions are believed to be sound.

Stocks on the Stock Exchange have been advancing despite the imminence of three holidays, which would ordinarily have the effect of reducing transactions and causing liquidation. But to-day there was an excellent business at rising prices. And money, which was easier earlier in the week, advanced to-day to 4½% on call. Bonds have been active and strong, investors also showing an indifference to the approaching holidays. The first 67 railroads to report show a net operating income in April some $8,600,000 larger than in April 1925. London to-day was admittedly more or less unsettled, so much hingeing on the coal question and May 31 being the day on which the British Government's offer of the subsidy expires. It is regrettable that the coal strike is disturbing British trade and causes a rationing of coal suplies. It is felt plainly in Lancashire. British interests are buying bituminous coal in this country to some extent, latterly taking about 100,000 tons. Naturally, if the strike continues the British buying of coal in the United States will increase.

There will be a three-day holiday beginning to-night, including Saturday, Sunday and Monday, on the Stock, Cotton, Curb, Rubber, Sugar, Coffee and Chicago Live Stock exchanges. All the other Chicago markets will be open to-morrow, but closed on Monday. The Liverpool Cotton Exchange will be closed to-morrow and open on Monday. The New Orleans Cotton Exchange will be open Saturday and Monday.

Boston wired that there was a likelihood of increased curtailment among the cotton yarn mills. Mill activity is slightly reduced from that of a month ago and more talk of curtailment is heard. Many New Bedford, Mass., mills will plan, it is said, drastic curtailment of production during the summer months. At Manchester, N. H., the Amoskeag Manufacturing Co. closed all departments of the mills there to-night for the Memorial Day holidays, reopening Tuesday morning. It is said that 11,500 now are on the payrolls. A committee of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association will confer with Herbert Hoover next Tuesday in regard to plans for stabilization of textile industry through organization of a proposed textile institute. The Southern Yarn Spinners' Association said there are no accumulations of stocks of yarns, either in the hands of spinners, consumers or dealers. It is reported that consumers' stocks are lower than they have been for years, and dealers have virtually no stocks at all. Charlotte, N. C., reported that curtailment is increasing among carded yarn spinners, who do not believe that trade will improve within the next few weeks, unless there is some unforeseen developments. Several mills, however, have received orders recently to take care of production for from four to eight weeks ahead.

Department store sales in the local Federal Reserve district during April were slightly smaller than a year previous for the first time since August 1924. April sales of chain stores increased 19% over last year, a somewhat larger gain than was reported in March, due to heavier sales of groceries and tobacco. The Seth Thomas Clock Co. of Thomaston, Conn., makers of the world's largest clock on the Colgate building in Jersey City, has cut down its factory working time force about 10% and is operating the plant on reduced schedule—45 hours a week—owing to dulness of trade.

London advices state that the miners' strike is making itself felt in many industries. Drastic curtailment is expected shortly in Lancashire. Lancashire mills are already closed. Bolton will cut working time in half next week. Some further heavy cuts will be made in railway services because of coal shortage. The registered unemployed in Great Britain as of May 17 were 1,612,700, compared with 1,576,000 in the previous week. The lack of high grade machinery and the results of the trade union practices in industry are making it impossible for manufacturers in England to meet either home or foreign competition, according to John B. Strain, Secretary of the Industrial Association of Utica.

Sunday, May 23, was the coldest weather for that date since 1871. It was 49 at 10 p. m. and the highest was 62. It was 14 degrees below the average for 46 years past and 26 degrees below the average for the same date last year. On the 24th inst. the thermometer here was down to 45 degrees, again the lowest in half a century. The nights were in the 40's and 50's, too, all over the South, though later maximum temperatures were 100 to 102 in Texas and Arkansas. In London the temperature rose on the 26th inst. to 75 degrees. They called it hot there, and the newspapers made it a news feature. On the 25th inst. it was 51 to 70 here, 48 to 68 in Chicago, 52 to 70 in Detroit, 46 to 58 in Milwaukee, 48 to 62 in Cleveland, 42 to 56 at Montreal and 60 to 84 at St. Paul. Friday it was 62 degrees here at 3 p. m. and for the most part clear, though threatening at times. It promises to be fair and warmer on Saturday.

United States Department of Commerce Reports Early May Business Ahead of 1925.

Reports for the early weeks of May indicate, says the Department of Commerce, increases in business activity as compared with the same weeks of 1925. Larger production of bituminous coal and beehive coke, larger awards for building construction, greater receipts of wheat and cotton, and a larger distribution of merchandise, as measured by carloadings, were reported during this period compared with the corresponding week of 1925. Debits to individual bank accounts, indicative of the dollar volume of trade, were also running larger during the early weeks of May than a year ago. Wholesale prices continued to average lower than a year ago but the early weeks of May recorded an advance over the previous month. Business failures were running smaller in number than a year ago.

Federal Reserve Board Finds that Business Activity Declined in April—General Price Level also Lower than in March.

A slight seasonal decline in the activity of industry and trade in April, as compared with March, and a further reduction in the general price level is shown by the Federal Reserve Board in its summary of business and financial conditions issued on May 26. Commercial demand for bank credit continued large, however, and wholesale trade, sales of mail order houses and freight car loadings for April and the first two weeks of May were larger than in the corresponding periods of last year. The volume of security loans, after a rapid decline since the turn of the year, remained at a constant level. The other points in the Reserve Board's summary are outlined in the following:

Conditions in general were not regarded as discouraging. Production in basic industries decreased but 1% in April, slight increases in production of lumber and pig iron being offset by declines in output in other industries. Particularly large recessions were shown in the production of steel ingots and in textile mill activity.

Automobile production continued in large volume. Factory employment and payrolls declined slightly in April, particularly in the food, tobacco textile and boot and shoe industries. The value of building contracts awarded during April was smaller than in March and practically the same as in April of last year.

Awards for the first two weeks of May, however, showed increases, as compared with the same weeks in 1925.

Reports by the Department of Agriculture indicate that up to the first of May 68% of Spring plowing and 56% of sowing and planting were completed, compared with about 83% and 66% last year. On the basis of the condition of Winter wheat on May 1, a yield of 549,000,000 bushels is forecast, compared with a final yield of 598,000,000 bushels in 1925.

Car Loadings Were High.

The volume of wholesale trade in April was seasonably smaller than in March for all lines except meats. Compared with a year ago, sales of groceries, meats and drugs were larger in April, while sales of dry goods, shoes and hardware were smaller.

Department store sales increased less than usual and were somewhat smaller than a year ago.

Sales of mail order houses were slightly smaller than in March, but continued to be larger than in the corresponding month of 1925.

There was some decrease in the stocks of merchandise held by wholesale firms during the month, and inventories of department stores showed less than the usual seasonal increase.

Although they were larger than a year ago, weekly freight car loadings decreased in the early part of April, but later increased, and the volume of shipments for the month of April as a whole and for the first two weeks in May was larger than in the corresponding periods of any previous year.

Wholesale commodity prices declined slightly from March to April. Increases in the farm products and food groups, which had been declining for several months, were more than offset by decreases in other groups. The greatest declines were in the prices of clothing materials. In the first three weeks of May the prices of wheat, cattle, sheep, cotton goods, pig iron, bricks and rubber declined, while those of hogs, raw silk and crude petroleum increased.

Loans Below the 1925 Peak.

Commercial demand for bank credit at member banks in leading cities continued in large volume between the middle of April and the middle of May. Liquidation of security loans, which had been rapid since the beginning of the year, did not continue after the middle of April, and the volume of those loans remained fairly constant at a level about $450,000,000 below the peak at the end of 1925.

There was some addition to the banks' investments, and the total of their loans and investments was about $1,000,000,000 larger than at the same period of last year.

Withdrawals of funds from New York were reflected in an increase between the middle of April and the middle of May in borrowings by member banks from the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, while borrowings at most of the other reserve banks declined.

Open-market holdings of the Reserve banks remained fairly constant during the period and there was little change in the total volume of Reserve bank credit outstanding.

Money rates late in April reached the lowest level for a year, but in May conditions in the money market became somewhat firmer.

Wholesale Trade in New York Federal Reserve District Smaller in April This Year Than Last.

The June 1 report on business conditions by the Federal Reserve Agent at New York will say that "April wholesale trade in this district averaged nearly 11% smaller than a year previous, the largest decrease reported since the summer of 1924. This decrease was due partly to smaller sales of textiles and partly to the slow spring trade in clothing due to cold weather. Sales of diamonds, machine tools, stationery and groceries continued larger than last year, and paper and drug sales showed the largest year-to-year increase for any month in more than a year. Stocks of jewelry and diamonds and cotton goods remained smaller than a year ago, while stocks of groceries and shoes showed the largest reductions in more than a year. Silk stocks remained far heavier than last year, and hardware stocks continued slightly larger. Collections in most lines compared less favorably than in March with those of a year ago. Accounts outstanding at the end of April averaged slightly smaller than last year, due largely to the dull business of recent months in the women's clothing trade." The following shows the percentage change from the previous month and from last year:

Retail Trade in New York Federal Reserve District Somewhat Less Than in April Last Year.

It appears from the June 1 monthly review of the Federal Reserve Agent at New York that "Department store sales in this district during April were slightly smaller than a year previous for the first time since August 1924. This decrease may be partly accounted for by the earlier Easter this year and unseasonably cold weather. Apparel store sales also showed a slight decrease compared with last year. This bank's index of department store sales in which allowance is made for seasonal variations, price changes and the date of Easter, as well as year-to-year growth, declined to 89% of normal, compared with 95% in March and 93% a year ago. Average stocks of merchandise for April and for the first four months of this year have been larger relative to those of a year ago than sales, and consequently the rate of turnover, both for department and apparel stores, has been smaller than last year. Collections on regular charge accounts showed about the same increase over last year as in March, but outstanding accounts declined to approximately the level of a year ago. Installment accounts were larger than last year in all reporting cities except Buffalo." The changes at the different cities and in the different districts are set out in the following:

Increase in Chain Store Sales in New York Federal Reserve District in April.

According to the June 1 monthly review of credit and business conditions by the Federal Reserve Agent at New York, "April sales of chain stores increased 19% over last year, a somewhat larger gain than was reported in March, due to heavier sales of groceries and tobacco. All other lines showed smaller increases than in March, and shoe sales declined below the level of a year previous. Sales per store in tobacco chains were closer to those of a year previous than in any month since 1924, and an unusually large increase was reported in grocery chains, but in ten-cent-store chains, sales per store were smaller than a year previous for the first time in nearly two years." Business Conditions in the Boston Federal Reserve District.

According to the monthly review of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, to be issued June 1, there has been a recession in business activity in New England. It follows a period of eight or nine months of relatively high activity—a period of so-called "prosperity," not only for workers, but for employers. The Index of Business Activity in New England for April was 101.9% of its average during 1922-1923, compared with 105.3 in March. The April index was the lowest since last June. The recession is not confined to a few industries, but was felt, it is stated, in April by two-thirds of the more important industries in this district. In fact, some of the larger ones, such as shoes, jewelry, and cotton and woolen textiles, were affected more than the average. The statement continues as follows:

The number of workers employed in representative Massachusetts factories declined 2½% in a single month, which is the largest monthly decline, with one exception, in nearly two years. Furthermore, employees remaining at work were, on the average, on shorter schedules, only 60% being on full time in April, as compared with over 70% in March. Average weekly earnings of workers naturally declined accordingly. Some of the decline in activity is unquestionably of a seasonal nature, but this factor does not account for more than a minor portion of the recession. Notwithstanding the dulness in many lines, the building industry of this district continues to be exceptionally active. Contracts awarded for new construction during April were the largest on record for that month, increasing sharply over those awarded in either the previous month or the corresponding month a year ago. Contracts awarded during the first two weeks of May continued greater than a year ago. An unusually large proportion of the contracts was for industrial buildings, although residential construction continues to represent approximately one-half of the total. Commodity prices have not declined as rapidly since the middle of April as they did in February and March. Retail trade in this district has improved during recent weeks. Easter trade was poor, but since the weather has improved sales each week of representative department stores have been larger than in the corresponding week a year ago. Money rates strengthened slightly during the first two weeks of May, following a decline which started early this year. Total loans of member banks in Boston and other large New England centres have declined almost without interruption since the first of the year, although the ratio of total loans to net demand deposits is high.

Business Conditions in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District.

As summarized by the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, the general rate of business activity in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District has slackened further during the past few weeks; a development largely seasonal in nature, but also attributable to continued price weakness in many of the commodity markets. Sales of retail and wholesale merchants in the district were smaller in April than in March and in most cases were also less than in 1925. Physical distribution of goods, however, as measured by freight car loadings, continues to be well ahead of last year. Debits which furnish a measure of the dollar volume of business, advanced nearly 5% over the daily rate in March and were 10.7% above the April 1925 figure. Reports of factory employment and pay-rolls indicate that productive cativity in the States of the district, although somewhat less than during February and March is still ahead of the rate prevailing last year at this time. The following is also taken from the monthly summary of the Philadelphia Reserve Bank:

The real estate market in Philadelphia and other cities of the district is less active than it was last year, and the volume of construction this spring, though large, is substantially smaller than in 1925. Manufacturers of building materials, particularly bricks, paint and plumbing supplies, report good demand at steady prices, while lumber dealers reppnt a number of price declines.

Output of anthracite and bituminous coal continues large, although the market for the latter variety and for steam sizes of hard coal is reported as being quiet. Buying of iron and steel products has slackened lately, but production of pig iron and steel ingots continues at a rate above that of last year. The unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation on April 30 were 12% smaller than they were a month earlier, and about the same a amount less than on April 30 1925.

Conditions in the textile industries of the district have become still more unsatisfactory during the past few weeks. Operations in textile mills of the district declined nearly 9% from March to April and employment declined over 4%, while our preliminary figures indicate a further recession during May. Much the same conditions are reported by manufacturers of cotton, wool and silk goods; price weakness in the raw material and finished goods markets, slackened buying and curtailment of operations. Porr business is also reported in the carpet and rug industry and in seamless hosiery as well, but continued good demand is reported for full-fashioned hosiery.

Some improvement has occurred in the hide market, but the leather market is quiet and business in shoes compares unfavorably with that of last year. Sales of mechanical rubber goods have been retarded by the late spring and prices of these products and of crude rubber have fallen further. Tires are now selling fairly well, although many factories have reduced operations.

Generally speaking, the agricultural outlool in the district is fairly satisfactory. The late spring, it is true, has delayed planting and retarded the growth of crops, but the present condition of fruit and most truck crops in the district is excellent and livestock also is reported in good condition. The downward trend in prices of agricultural products is less pronounced and quotations for many products have recently adfvanced.

City Conditions.—The accompanying table, we omit the table , showing changes in business indicators in 13 cities, indicates that conditions are far from uniform throughout the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District. In most of the cities of the district, sales of electric power, debits, factory employment and wage payments declined from March to April. The value of building permits, however, in most cases shows large increases, although in Philadelphia a decrease of 22% occurred.

Comparisons of April activity with that of the previous year also show striking variations between cities. In Philadelphia, Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport and Wilmington factory activity is considerably greater this year, while in Johnstown, Scranton and Trenton large declines have occurred. Building activity and retail trade in most of the cities was less in April 1926 than in the same month last year. Debits, however, were greater in all the cities but Lancaster and Wilkes-Barre.

Retail Tiade.

Compared with the volume of business in the month ended April 20, trading at retail in the Philadelphia Reserve district has improved but slightly during the past four weeks. Most of the reports received by this bank show that prices in general continue unchanged.

Sales of all reporting firms in April were 4.7% smaller than in March and 5.6 below those in April 1925. Gains over March sales were shown by credit and women's apparel stores, whereas decreases occurred in shoe and men's apparel stores. Compared with a year ago, sales at department, shoe and apparel stores were smaller, credit stores alone showing a slight increase. Supplies on April 30 were somewhat lower than those on the corresponding date last month and a year before. Stock turnover in the first four months of 1926 was 1.07% as compared with 1.06% for the same period last year.

Business in Kansas City Federal Reserve District Regaining Its Momentum.

The usual seasonal activity in industry and trade in the Tenth District, the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City will say in its June 1 report, was checked in early April by abnormally cold weather for that time of the year, but rising temperatures late in the month caused a rebound and at the opening of May much of the lost momentum had been recovered. Although it was evident some lines were lagging, the volume of business as whole was heavy and closely paralleled the levels of a year ago. We make further excerpts as follows:

The amount of money checked out of banks by customers in cities of this district, covering transactions of every nature and kind, was smaller by 1.9% during a five week period ending May 5 than the reported for the preceding five-week period ending March 31, but it was larger by 3.4% than that reported for the corresponding five weeks last year, ending May 6.

A marked improvement in the agricultural situation in this district was shown by the May 1 crop reports of the United States and state departments of agriculture. All reports were in agreement that farm work was one to three weeks behind schedule time for the season, but conditions were favorable for a better-than-average year of farm production—with a winter wheat forecast for the district of 270,892,000 bushels as against 150,185,000 bushels harvested last year. All classes of live stock were in good to excellent condition, and good crops of calves, lambs and pigs were reported. Summer pastures were filling up with cattle from the Southwest range country, and, due to an unusually fine winter and early spring pasturage, some Texas grass-fat cattle were shipped direct to the markets and sold for slaughter.

In food production lines, the April output of flour fell below that for but was larger than in April last year. The slaughter of meat animals of all classes was in smaller numbers than in the previous month or a year ago because of a reduction in the market supply of live stock.

In mineral production, the output of crude oil was maintained at a high daily average during April, in spite of the periods of cold weather, but gross production fell slightly below that for the preceding month and a year ago. Development operations increased perceptibly and the daily new production from completed wells was the largest since September, 1924. The open season for motoring brought a larger demand for gasoline, and there was also a good demand for kerosene, enabling refiners to effect material reductions in their stocks. The position of the zinc and lead industry was less favorable than for several months, due to declines in ore prices, and there was some curtailment of mining operations. Activity in metal mining in Colorado continued to show an increase over last year. Coal mining was at a high percentage of full time activity and production was 29.6% larger than in April, 1925.

Trade reports reflected the unfavorable influence of the backward season. Distribution of merchandise by wholesalers in all branches, except that of groceries, was in smaller volume in April than in March and also smaller than in April a year ago. Conservative buying of stocks by retailers continued. In retail lines April sales at reporting department stores exceeded those for March by 2.4%, but fell below sales in April 1925 by 1.8%. Distribution of farm implements was much larger than last year, and reports indicated farmers were buying more implements, farm machinery and equipment than for several seasons past.

Building activity slackened in April, as evidenced by a decrease in the number and value of permits issued in 18 reporting cities, although the value of building contracts awarded in April was larger than in the previous month or a year ago. Sales of lumber and materials declined during the month as all lines were affected unfavorably by the weather conditions, as well as by the slackening in the building program.

Industrial Employment Conditions in the Chicago Federal Reserve District.

The "Monthly Business Conditions Report" of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, which will be issued June 1, will say, among other things:

Industrial employment in the Seventh District receded slightly during the period March 15 to April 15, factories with an aggregate employment of about 385,000 workers reporting a curtailment of 0.7%. The metals and metal products group, after a continuous expansion since last July, reduced its forces 0.5%. Substantial reductions were made in the textiles, food and leather groups, in which many losses of a seasonal nature were shown by particular industries, as for example both men s and women s clothing manufacture. Counteracting the losses, however, were the further gains reported for the "vehicles" group and for a majority of the building materials. Stone, clay and cement products added to their employment, but lumber and most wood products showed some decline. Chemical products recorded a definite gain in employment, the first since last November, but no corresponding increase in payrolls. Total payrolls for all of the operating industries were practically the same as a month earlier, the decline amounting to on.y 0.1%.

An increasing demand for labor in construction work and outdoor employment generally, has absorbed a large number of unemployed men, and the improvement was noticeable at the State free employment offices where the ratio of applicants to positions available fell off considerably, from 143% to 129% in Illinois, and from 123% to 117% in Indiana.

Merchandising Conditions.

Wholesale Trade.—April returns from reporting dealers in this district indicate a smaller volume of goods sold at wholesale than in the preceding month. By commodity groups all shoe firms, the majority of drug and dry goods dealers, and about half the hardware and grocery firms showed declines from March. In dry goods and drugs, March-April decreases have been noted in each of the six years since the reporting service was begun (1921); declines this year were more pronounced than in 1924 and 1925.

With few exceptions, hardware, dry goods, and shoe firms registered declines from April 1925 increasing the discrepancies between the two years apparent during the firts quarter; in groceries, on the other hand, the gain of 8.8%, reflecting individual gains at 28 stores and declines at 12, largely offsets earlier declines; drug firms advanced their cumulative increase to 3.1% over last year.

Inventory trends varied, the majority of grocery and drug dealers reducing their stocks during April, shoe firms showing a larger volume of goods on hand, and the two other groups about evenly divided between increases and decreases. In comparison with April 30 1925 the declines for hardware and dry goods were practically the same as at the end of March, but less for shoes; drug stocks showed a somewhat smaller increase than the first-quarter average; the slight gain in groceries was the first thus far in 1926.

Collections for all groups except dry goods exceeded the March receipts, but dropped below April 1925 for two-thirds of the stores. For 49 firms accounts on the books April 30 were heavier than at the close of March and for 33 lower; comparisons with a year ago show a 15% decline for shoe firms, over 8% for hardware and dry goods, and gains of 2 and 8%, respectively, for groceries and drugs.

Department Store Trade.—The aggregate value of goods sold during April by reporting department stores in this district equaled the March volume of trade, increases by four-fifths of the firms offsetting declines by the others, especially in two of the large cities. For the first time in 14 months total sales fell below the corresponding month of the preceding year; increases at 36 stores and declines at 53 resulted in a net decrease of 2% which reduced the cumulative gain for the year to 6.4%.

April collections for the majority of stores exceeded the March receipts, although accounts on the books had advanced 2.2% by April 30. Fifty-eight firms averaged a gain in collections of 11.9% over a year ago; their ratio of 41% to accounts outstanding at the beginning of the month compares with 42.9% last year.

The net reduction of 1.7% from March 31 inventories reflected additions during April at 28 stores and declines at 33, and reversed the upward trend followed for two months. About half the stores were carrying heavier stocks than on April 30 1925; for 45 firms sales during the month represented 30.4% of average stocks, or two points below the corresponding 1925 ratio.

Retail Shoe Trade.—April reports from retail shoe dealers in this district indicate continued expansion in sales, increase over March at 39 stores and decreases at eight resulting in a net gain of 8% for the group. Eighteen firms furnishing both sales and accounts receivable data averaged an increase of 20.3% in the former, and 14.3% in the latter, reducing the ratio of outstandings to sales from 85.6% at the end of March to 81.3% by April 30. Collections received by 17 firms exceeded the previous months' volume by 4.6%. In stocks the reduction of 5.8% from March 31 for 36 stores reflects increases and declines evenly distributed.

April Decrease in New York Factory Earnings Declared to be Seasonal.

Average weekly earnings of New York State factory workers in April fell 20 cents below the maximum of $29.05, which was reached in January says the New York State Department of Labor. This was largely it is stated because of seasonal part time in the clothing trades. The decrease was concentrated in the two clothing centers, New York City and Rochester. If the figures for the State exclusive of New York City are taken earnings show a gain of 20 cents from March to April. The persistent upward movement of earnings through a month of recession is held to be one of the important developments of this year. In 1925, there was a general loss in earnings along with the reduction in employment. The statement was issued on May 26 by Industrial Commissioner James A. Hamilton. It is based on reports from over 1,600 firms who employ close to 40% of all the factory workers of the State. These firms were chosen to represent localities as well as industries. The summary is as follows:

Wage Rates Tending Upward.

Wage rate changes were more frequent in April. There is usually an increase in the number of wage adjustments with the spring, so that this is not significant in itself. A comparison shows, however, that more wage rate increases were reported in the first four months of this year than in a similar period for any year since 1923, though the increases at present do not in any way approach the general movement for higher rates in that year. Decreases have been almost completely absent this year in contrast to the first four months of 1925 when over 11,000 workers were affected by the wage scale reductions reported to us. Our figures cover only a small part of the changes which have taken place and can only be used to indicate roughly the general tendency.

Earnings in April averaged $1.20 more than a year ago. It was chiefly the textile mills, shoe and fur shops which showed no improvement over 1925.

Outside of the reduction of over $2 in the average pay of clothing operatives, there were few large losses in earnings in the State from March to April. Biscuit and candy factories were paying less even with the reduction in employment but the slowing up was partly seasonal. The most important decline was the loss of one dollar in the earnings of silk mill operatives. This was almost the only case of a change in working time as well as a reduction in force. The average in the knitting mills was a little lower, but there was an advance for all other textile manufactures.

Practically all the metal workers shared in the increase for this group of industries. The April average was $31.58. The only exceptions were in the cutlery, tool and stamped ware factories, railroad repair shops and ship yards. Building supply industries were busier and earnings rose in all except the brick yards where the increase in employment was particularly large. Furniture factories were a little quicter. Other losses of the month included leather and rubber goods, and petroleum refining which moved contrary to the usual seasonal tendency.

Men's Earnings Gain More Than Women's Over Year.

Weekly earnings of men and women averaged $32 75 and $18 30, respectively, in April. This is an increase of $1 80 for the men since April 1925. Women's earnings have risen 80 cents during the same period. Men have benefited more by the year-to-year gain than women, largely because of the increase in metal and clothing manufactures. The former group of industries also exerted a steadying influence on men's earnings in April. There were losses in furniture, leather, textile, clothing and some food products, however. Women felt the further slowing up in electrical equipment, but outside of this and the usual part-time in the clothing trades, there were not many changes during the month.

The average for New York City dropped 90 cents to $28 80 in April because of the seasonal dulness in clothing and reductions in some food products. The decline in Rochester was smaller as earnings were reduced from $29 20 to $28 60. Gains in the other cities varied from 10 cents for Buffalo, where the workers averaged $31 30, to 60 cents for the Syracuse district, which reported higher pay for almost all its factory employees. Extensive layoffs of lower-paid workers in the Albany-Schenectady-Troy district forced the average up to $29 50 in April. Binghamton gained as many of its industries were busier. Earnings here were 35 cents higher than in the Utica district, where the workers averaged $24 30.

Loading of Railroads Revenue Freight 2d Week of April Exceeds One Million Cars—Earliest of Any Year on Record.

For the first time for any one week so far this year, loading of revenue freight exceeded one million cars during the week ended on May 15, according to reports filed by the carriers with the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association. The total for the week was 1,030,162 cars. This is the earliest period in any year on record that one million cars of revenue freight have been loaded during any one week. The nearest approach to this figure was for the week of May 22, 1923, when 1,015,532 cars were loaded with revenue freight. In 1924, the million mark was not reached until August while last year it was July. The total for the week of May 15 this year was an increase of 33,635 cars above the preceding week with increases being reported in the loading of all commodities with the exceptions of live stock and coke. Compared with the corresponding week last year, the total for the week of May 15 was an increase of 44,283 cars while it also was an increase of 116,961 cars above the corresponding week in 1924. Further details are supplied as follows:

Ore loading for the week of May 15 totaled 54,499 cars, an increase of 15,877 cars over the preceding week but 9,110 cars under the corresponding week in 1925 and 884 cars below the same week in 1924.

Miscellaneous freight loading totaled 386,307 cars, an increase of 8,092 cars above the week before and 27,648 cars above the same week in 1925. It also was an increase of 62,012 cars above the same week in 1924.

Loading of grain and grain products amounted to 39,736 cars, an increase of 3,367 cars above the week before and an increase of 4,205 cars over the same week in 1925. It also was an increase of 2,571 cars above the same week in 1924. In the western districts alone, grain and grain products loading totaled 21,802 cars, an increase of 606 cars over the corresponding week last year.

Loading of merchandise and less than carload lot freight for the week amounted to 267,883 cars, an increase of 2,016 cars over the week before and 8,438 cars above the same week in 1925. Compared with the corresponding period in 1924, it also was an increase of 20,549 cars.

Coal loading totaled 167,673 cars, an increase of 5,220 cars over the week before and 10,941 cars above the same week in 1925. Compared with the same week in 1924, it also was an increase of 32,023 cars.

Live stock loading for the week amounted to 26,457 cars, a decrease of 2,506 cars under the week before but 38 cars over the same week in 1925. It was, however, a decrease of 3,567 cars below the same week in 1924. In the western districts alone, 19,813 cars were loaded with live stock during the week, 36 cars below the same week last year.

Forest products loading totaled 75,799 cars, 1,683 cars above the week before but nine cars below the same week in 1925. It was, however, an increase of 1,518 cars compared with the same week in 1924.

Coke loading totaled 11,808 cars, a decrease of 114 cars under the preceding week but 2,132 cars above the corresponding week in 1925. Compared with the same week in 1924, it was an increase of 2,739 cars.

Compared with the preceding week this year, all districts showed increases in the total loading of all commodities except the Southern while all except the Northwestern showed increases over the corresponding week in 1925. All districts, however, showed increases over the same period in 1924 except the Centralwestern and Southwestern.

Loading of revenue freight this year compared with the two previous years follows:

Dun's Report of Failures in April.

With the single exception of the short month of February, fewer insolvencies occurred among commercial firms in the United States during April than in any preceding month this year, according to the records of R. G. Dun & Co. The number of such failures last month—1,957—compares with 1,984 in March, with 1,801 in February, and with 2,296 in January. Little change is shown in comparison with the 1,939 defaults of April 1925, but in that month of 1924 the total was only 1,707. When allowance is made, however, for the steady increase in number of firms in business, the present showing is relatively satisfactory. Several large insolvencies last month swelled the aggregate liabilities to a point above the amounts for any previous month since February 1925, with the sole exception of January of the present year. The April indebtedness of $38,487,321 contrasts with $30,622,547 in March, $34,176,348 in February and $43,661,444 in January. In April last year the liabilities were $37,188,622. During the four elapsed months of the current year there have been 8,038 failures in the United States, which compares with 7,908 defaults for the corresponding period of 1925. The liabilities this year, on the other hand, have totaled $146,943,660, a material reduction from the $165,670,402 of the same four months of last year.

Monthly and quarterly reports of business failures, showing number and liabilities, are contrasted below for the periods mentioned:

When the statistics of April failures by branches of business are examined, it is seen that the number of defaults is smaller than in the corresponding month of last year in six of the fifteen separate manufacturing classifications, while in one—chemicals and drugs—no changes appear. The lines in which fewer failures occurred are iron, foundries and nails; machinery and tools; paints and oils; leather, shoes and harness; tobacco and cigars, and glass, earthenware and brick. Decreased liabilities are reported for seven branches among manufacturers, namely, machinery and tools; clothing and millinery; hats, gloves and furs; paints and oils; printing and engraving; leather, shoes and harness, and glass, earthenware and brick. For all manufacturing classificiations, defaults for April this year number 494, against 430 a year ago, and the indebtedness is $16,733,792, compared with $13,097,046.

In the trading division eight of the fifteen separate lines of business show a smaller number of failures than for April 1925, these being tobacco and cigars; clothing and furnishings; shoes, rubbers and trunks; hardware, stoves and tools; paints and oils; jewelry and clocks; hats, furs and gloves, and miscellaneous. The liabilities decreased in nine of the fifteen branches; namely, groceries, meat and fish; clothing and furnishings; shoes, rubbers and trunks; furniture and crockery; hardware, stoves and tools; paints and oils; jewelry and clocks; hats, furs and gloves, and miscellaneous. The trading defaults for April this year number 1,378 and involve $19,093,768, against 1,427 a year ago, with an indebtedness of $21,535,911.

"Overbuilding Bug-a-Boo Seems Dead," Says G. L. Miller—Conditions in Building Industry Considered Satisfactory—Conservatism Urged.

"Building has progressed on a stable course and it is reasonable to expect that construction activities this year will almost reach, if not exceed, the record-breaking volume of 1925," according to G. L. Miller, President of G. L. Miller & Co., Inc., investment bond house specializing in building construction financing.

Mr. Miller said that the "overbuilding bug-a-boo seems to have died a natural death" as insurance companies and certain other interests, who some months ago declared themselves somewhat skeptical as to the building outlook and urged a curb on construction loans, are now "demonstrating their faith and confidence in the present situation by appropriating large amounts for new buildings in New York City, and elsewhere throughout the country." His statement follows:

The major reaction in construction, long predicted in certain quarters has failed to materialize. On the other hand, building has progressed on a stable course and it is now reasonable to expect that construction activities this year will amost reach, if not exceed, the record-breaking volume of 1925.

Building figures to date show a considerable lead over last year and the volume of work continues very heavy, although some gradual falling off seems likely to occur this summer in the volume of new construction. Little reduction in current activities, however, can be expected, owing to the enormous amounts of building commitments to date.

Whether construction activities will continue at a high rate throughout the last half of the year will undoubtedly depend upon many conditions. It is reasonable, however, to anticipate that the fall months will sho w another spurt in building permits, which would mean that the recession during the summer would be of minor importance and have little effect upon the total volume of 1926.

In New York, where building has been particularly active this year, there was a gain of $220,000,000 in contracts during the first four months of the year over the same period in 1925. Despite this acceleration, however, building is progressing at a high rate and hundreds of new projects are still being planned and pushed into work.

Insurance companies and certain other interests, who some months ago declared themselves as somewhat skeptical as to the building outlook and urged a curb on construction loans, seem to have reversed their attitude. They are now demonstrating their faith and confidence in the present situation by appropriating large amounts for new building in New York City and elsewhere throughout the country.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., in the last sixty days, according to published figures, appropriated for bond and mortgage loans $37,889,556. Of that amount $31,152,300 was city loans for both business and housing projects.

The New York Title & Mortgage Corp. during the last four months announced mortgage loans aggregating $52,657,937; the majority of the loans being made on apartment houses situated in New York City.

During April the Prudential Insurance Co. of America announced loans amounting to $16,188,131, of which $10,257,644 was on dwelling and apartment houses. $1,594,100 was on city property other than dwellings and apartment houses.

At its last meeting the Lawyers' Mortgage Co. accepted mortgages aggregating $16,677,450 distributed through the New York district.

If the financing being done by the insurance companies and banking interests is to be taken as a criterion of present conditions, there would seem to be little doubt that conditions are considered fundamentally satisfactory in the building industry, and that the overbuilding bug-a-boo has died a natural death.

With this mental attitude existing, and with building proceeding at its present pace, now is the time, however, when the situation calls for the utmost caution on the part of the various lending institutions. The danger of overbuilding in certain communities is possible, and the policy of the lending institutions must not be other than one of critical conservatism, with the investors' safety paramount in their minds.

Careful survey of the building situation to date, and the policy being carried out in making mortgage loans by the leading investment houses, seems to justify the belief there is nothing in the present situation that would cause over-anxiety or jeopardize the interest of investors in real estate mortgage bonds issued by these reputable institutions.

Increases in Wages a Threatening Feature in Building Industry.

Serious reaction threatens the entire construction industry if the building trades continue to insist on new increases in wage rates this year, A. W. Dickson, Executive Secretary of the National Association of Building Trades Employers, declares in an article in the June issue of the Miller "Builder-Economist," published by G. L. Miller & Co., Inc. Mr. Dickson says there is "no reason from an economic or business standpoint to increase wage rates at this time," and it wil be impossible for the contractors "to absorb the advances of this year as has been done during the past two or three years, consequently the added burden will be passed along to the building public." "By the close of the year," he warns, "thousands of building mechanics throughout the country are going to be faced with a situation of unemployment because of their short-sighted policy of continually demanding higher and higher rates." Mr. Dickson's article follows:

Recent wage increases granted to approximately 100 building crafts in 20 widely scattered cities throughout the country have already reflected in higher construction costs. The Alberthaw Index of building cost has been fixed at 199 as of April 1, an increase of 4 points over March 1. This increase is a minimum and will no doubt go higher when field costs begin to show the actual effect of the higher rates.

Practically all authorities are agreed that the action of the building trades in making demands for increases this year will bring about a serious reaction in the entire construction industry. It will be impossible to absorb the advances of this year as has been done during the past two or three years, consequently the added burden will be passed along to the building public.

That there was no reason from an economic or business standpoint to increase wage rates at this time is a well understood fact. According to the United States Department of Labor, the average union wage rate on Jan. 1 this year would buy 37.1% more of living on the 1913 standard than it would in 1913. Commodity prices are on the downward trend, as indicated in the last report of the Department of Labor, which shows the price index to be 151.5 on April 1. This is a drop of 3½ points in a single month and represents the lowest point to which the index has fallen in 18 months. With commodity prices falling and wage rates increasing the "real earnings" of workers in the building trades are constantly mounting. Consequently, there can be no justification of advances made on the grounds of economic necessity.

Higher construction costs are being resented by the building public, and each day brings reports of projects being abandoned. The public is of the firm opinion that costs were already too high, and when the announcement was made that the general trend was upward, owing to increased labor rates, the reaction followed.

There is every reason to believe that if the labor leaders who insisted on boosting wage rates this year had had their fingers on the public pulse, they would have learned that owners were in no mood to stand for any additional price advance. Early in the year, every indication pointed to another season of intensive activity in the construction industry. It is true that building permits for the first quarter showed a decided increase over the same period of last year. These operations were undertaken, however, under old wage rates, before increases began to be reflected in higher costs.

By the close of the year thousands of building mechanes throughout the country are going to be faced with a situation of unemployment because of their shortsighted policy of continually demanding higher and higher rates.

Lumber Sales and Shipments Highest in Two Years

Reports received May 27 by the National Lumber Manufacturers Association from 408 of the larger softwood and 162 of the chief hardwood mills of the country reveal that the week ended May 22 was the climax week of the lumber industry for the year. It also overtopped any week in May 1925, May being the seasonal peak month of the lumber year. Construction authorities are at loss to explain the big bulge in lumber orders and shipments, in view of the decline in building permits, except on the theory that there is a large volume of construction in the smaller communities and in the rural districts wehre building permits are not required. Both the hardwood and softwood mills shared in the general expansion of business, declares the National Lumber Manufacturers Association in its weekly summary, from which we quote further as follows:

The unfilled orders of 236 Southern Pine and West Coast mills at the end of last week amounted to 701,444,386 ft., as against 741,963,204 ft. for 235 mills. the previous week. The 127 identical Southern Pine mills in the group showed unfilled orders of 269,561,030 ft. last week, as against 288,703,800 ft. for the week before. For the 109 West Coast mills the unfilled orders were 431,883,356 ft., as against 453,259,404 ft. for 108 mills a week earlier.

Altogether the 395 comparably reporting softwood mills had shipments 107% and orders 99% of actual production. For the Southern Pine mills these percentages were respectively 125 and 99; and for the West Coast mills 116 and 113.

Of the reporting mills, the 355 with an established normal production for the week of 235,990,958 ft., gave actual production 104%, shipments 118% and orders 107% thereof.

The following table compares the national softwood lumber movement as reflected by the reporting mills of eight regional associations for the three weeks indicated:

	Past Week.	Corresponding Week 1925.	Preceding Week 1926 (Revised).
Mills	395	387	382
Production	288,051,827	257,200,920	282,939,202
Shipments	309,216,517	251,327,725	261,908,184
Orders (new business)	284,788,565	262,810,359	280,552,495

The following revised figures compare the softwood lumber movement of the same eight regional associations for the first 20 weeks of 1926 with the same period of 1925:

	Production.	Shipments.	Orders.
1926	4,989,597,440	5,228,646,069	5,220,699,665
1925	4,915,406,067	5,026,740,743	4,901,326,093

The Southern Cypress Manufacturers Association of New Orleans, (omitted from above tables because only recently reporting) for the week ended May 19, reported from 13 mills a production of 4,753,439 feet, shipments 4,580,000 and orders 3,460,000. In comparison with the previous week, when two more mills reported, this Association showed nominal decreases in all three items.

West Coast Movement.

The West Coast Lumbermen's Association wires from Seattle that new business for the 109 mills reporting for the week ended May 22 was 13% above production, and shipments were 16% above production. Of all new business taken during the week 51% was for future water delivery, amounting to 65,548,601 feet, of which 45,341,595 feet was for domestic cargo delivery, and 20,207,006 feet export. New business by rail amounted to 58,758,300 feet, or 45% of the week's new business. Fifty per cent. of the week's shipments moved by water, amounting to 67,344,083 feet, of which 42,067,370 feet moved coastwise and intercoastal, and 25,276,713 feet export. Rail shipments totaled 60,858,999 feet, or 46% of the week's shipments, and local deliveries 5,471,751 feet. Unshipped domestic cargo orders totaled 134,244,695 feet, foreign 141,051,386 feet and rail trade 158,587,275 feet.

Labor.

Few changes were noted in the employment situation in either camp or sawmill crews, according to the Four L Employment Service. Nearly all logging camps and all sawmills in the Grays Harbor district are operating. East of the Cascades woods work is holding at the same level, which is below the level of May, 1925. No additional shifts have been put on at pine sawmills or planning departments.

Southern Pine Reports.

The Southern Pine Association reports from New Orleans that for 127 mills, shipments were 25.49% above production and orders 1.05% below production and 21.15% below shipments. New business taken during the week amounted to 71,363,580 feet, shipments 90,506,350 feet and production 72,121,885 feet. The normal production of these mills is 80,126,874 feet. Of the 120 mills reporting running time, 87 operated full time, 19 of the latter overtime. Three mills were shut down, and the rest operated from three to five and one-half days.

The Western Pine Manufacturers Association of Portland, Oregon, with five more mills reporting, showed considerable increases in production and shipments, and a substantial increase in new business.

The California White and Sugar Pine Manufacturers Association of San Francisco, Calif., with three more mills reporting, showed a noticeable increase in production, shipments about the same, and new business somewhat in advance of that reported the previous week.

The California Redwood Association of San Francisco, Calif., reported an important increase in production and shipments, and a heavy decrease in new business.

The North Carolina Pine Association of Norfolk, Va., with 12 more mills reporting, showed big increases in all three factors.

The Northern Pine Manufacturers Association of Minneapolis, Minn., with two more mills reporting, showed some increase in production and shipments, and new business well in advance of that reported the week earlier.

The Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers Association of Oshkosh, Wis. (in its softwood production), with one more mill reporting, showed production and shipments about the same, while new business fell off to some extent.

Hardwood Reports.

The hardwood mills of the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers Association reported from 20 mills, production as 4,505,000 feet, shipments, 2,662,000, and orders, 4,806,000.

The Hardwood Manufacturers Institute of Memphis, Tenn., reported from 142 units, production as 20,679,871 feet, shipments, 20,950,737, and orders, 22,804,097. The normal production of these units is 24,324,000 feet.

For the past 20 weeks all hardwood mills reporting to the National Lumber Manufacturers Association gave production, 561,449,723 feet, shipments, 535,744,813, and orders, 543,210,968.

West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

One hundred and eight mills reporting to West Coast Lumbermen's Association for the week ending May 15 manufactured 114,627,416 feet of lumber, sold 120,564,138 feet and shipped 107,175,233. New business was almost 14% above production. Shipments were around 6½% below production.

Wool Prospects in the Northwest—Clip Large, Prices Unsatisfactory.

The Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, Minn., in its issue of the "Review" of May 15 1926 outlines the wool situation as follows:

Central and eastern parts of our district are concerned with present agricultural and live stock conditions mainly as they affect the future, but the more western country is now in the midst of, or preparing for, a harvest more typically its own. This is the season of lambing and of the calf crop, with the shearing of sheep impending. Reports from bankers in the ranch and large-farm districts of Montana and the western Dakotas are unanimous in saying that the winter could scarcely have been more favorable for both cattle and sheep. Seldom have the forces of nature colluded so advantageously. Grazing was excellent and the spring found many surplus supplies of feed on hand. Those who gambled on an open winter got by with it. In southwestern North Dakota and the adjoining South Dakota territory there was a greater fall of snow than was general elsewhere; a banker writes: "On some ranches sheep and cattle had to be fed about 60 days from stacks, but in the majority of cases there was very little hay fed, grazing being sufficient." Not far away, in eastern Montana, the winter was dry and mild. "This city," says one correspondent, "did not have enough cold weather to enable us to put up ice for the summer and we will have to ship it in, something that has never happened here before." In some places in this section the range as late as the first week in May was nearly barren of food; there have since been local rains which have improved the situation. In other sections, with a few exceptions, ranges and pastures are in a satisfactory condition. From a region farther west: "We have had some complaints about dry weather, but I find that the stockman and farmer usually holler before they are hurt. For the past two or three days we have had a number of good showers."

With conditions the best in years, the calf crop is good and the lamb crop excellent. Our inquiry concerned the latter more particularly. December weather was favorable for breeding sheep, spring weather could not have been more advantageous, losses have been almost non-existent, and the lambs are strong, large and active. Results from lambing have been really abnormal, ranging from 90 to more than 100%. "What few losses have been sustained through dry ewes were more than made up by the number of twins" (Belle Fourche, S. D.). "Many of the sheepmen are reporting an unusual number of twins and a in a great many instances triplets" (Dickinson, N. D.). Contracting by feeders for fall delivery has been negligible, a prime reason being that many feeders lost money last season. The Montana National Bank bulletin (Billings) gives as a probable reason the very large prospective crop of native lambs in the East, but, as the big factor, the severe losses suffered by many feeders on last year's purchases. Prices that are being paid, as reported by a few bankers, are 10 and 10½ cents.

The coming wool clip will be large. Fleeces will be of good weight, the quality at least up to the average, with a uniform and strong staple. Comparatively little wool has been contracted for. A few early contracts were made at 37 and 38 cents a pound, but since then 35 cents seems to be the highest figure. Thirty-three cents is a price frequently mentioned, and some offers have been made for as low as 30 cents. On May 3 the famous Jericho clip of Utah, amounting to approximately 800,000 pounds, was sold to a St. Louis house at 34½ cents. These prices are not satisfactory to many growers. "Most growers feel that they are entitled to 40 cents on the present world conditions, and I believe the wools produced in Montana are worth that price," a Helena banker writes. A western South Dakota banker says: "My prediction is that when the wools are ready to be delivered and sold the quotations will be from 35 to 38 cents." "Last year," writes a North Dakota banker, "as high as 45 cents was paid, and as high as 47 cents offered for wool in this part of the country. This year the growers want 40 cents and I believe it's a reasonable price. Propaganda has been put out from Boston for the purpose of lowering the market price of wool. Buyers were on hand in the sheep country 30 days ago, expecting to contract wool at 6 to 10 cents below last year's quotations, but the growers were not inclined to accept a figure so far below market price. Bankers, so far as I am informed, have no desire to force contracting in advance or the selling of wool below a reasonable price, considering the quality of the clean, light-shrinking wools of this section. Personally, I have advised no dealing or contracting until the wool is shorn and ready for market. Efforts have been put forth by the co-operative associations to arrange for credit on their clips and if a reasonable price is not paid by regular dealers, to consign to the National Wool Growers, a co-operative association of Boston. I understand that the Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Paul will advance 21 cents a pound to the wool pools of North Dakota and other points in its territory. The Intermediate Credit Bank of Omaha will do likewise for the South Dakota pools. As usual, however, I believe in taking cash and letting the credit go whenever a reasonable price is offered."

"It looks as though we were going to have a somewhat slow and draggy wool market this season," writes a Montana banker, "unless growers should consent to accept prices which do not seem justified by present conditions. This will probably result in a very considerable amount of the Northwestern clip being consigned. . . . Following the winding up of the affairs of the National Wool Warehouse & Storage Co. of Chicago in 1924, the growers, mainly of Montana and Wyoming, organized a new selling agency known as the National Wool Exchange, taking the better part of the old organization and moving headquarters to Boston. It has a paid-in capital stock and has been put on foot, not as a charity, but as a business institution, owned by the growers for the marketing of their wool. It had consignments last year totaling over 6,500,000 pounds, which were entirely sold out, and to the complete satisfaction, I think, of practically all the consignors. Its by-laws prohibit making any advances whatever upon consignments, but it has an arrangement with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank by which it can secure advances to consignors up to 60% of estimated market value, at a low rate of interest, this being done through co-operative wool marketing associations in the States that wish to use these facilities."

Uncertainties in style tendencies, the labor situation in England, and the persisting habit of hand-to-mouth buying by retail merchants are the influences which have been stenciling a question mark across the sheep ranches of the Northwest. At the bottom of the whole question of the wool price is the goods market, which has undoubtedly been depressed. Woolens and worsteds are 5 to 18% lower in price than a year ago and manufacturers have been very conservative in their purchases of raw material. Conditions are beginning to show slight signs of improvement, however, in the opinion of a trustworthy agency: "Buyers continue to order in hand-to-mouth fashion, but are displaying more interest in the fall fabric offerings. Since by far the largest portion of these requirements is yet to be provided for, at least a moderate expansion is being anticipated to develop late in May or early in June. In that event manufacturing demand for wool also should become more active."

Wool growers continue to be in a strong position as compared with producers of other farm and ranch commodities. All in all, our Western correspondents are optimistic. Liquidation last fall and winter of loans secured by grass-fed cattle was everything that could have been asked for. "Our cattle paper is in better shape than it has been for a number of years, and I believe this holds true with the majority of banks in Montana." "Practically all of our cattle paper has worked itself into a satisfactory condition. Many loans that the bank would have preferred to carry over were cut down materially or extinguished." Appended to another statement concerning satisfactory liquidation is the observation: "The cattleman, however, is not making much of a profit yet. There is not enough free range as in the old days. Between the land investment, cost of producing feed, and the labor that is so high and necessary, it does not leave him much margin." As for the general outlook, we get such expressions as this: "It has not been better here for several years (central Montana); things are about as favorable as they could possibly be and everybody is feeling very optimistic."

Catastrophy threatened in the four spring wheat States as an unbroken drought continued into early May and high winds caused soil blowing, particularly in the eastern and southern parts of our district. At times the sun was obscured by dirt clouds and motorists were occasionally obliged to use headlights at noonday. Business was affected by the menace of crop disaster, marketing of grain was halted, and wholesalers began to receive cancelations of orders. Rain came in the second week of the month at a critical time and with remarkable swiftness the tension was relieved. An assembled business club sang the Doxology. Farmers were jubilant. The normal course of business has been resumed. Some re-seeding has been necessitated, the season has been delayed, subsoil moisture is deficient in many places, and more rain is an early requirement.

United States Department of Agriculture Proposes Improvement of Grain Stocks Report.

The weekly report of commercial stocks of grain will be improved by the collection of stocks from additional markets on a comparable basis according to a plan which has been submitted to the grain exchanges by the Secretary of Agriculture. The plan will assure the collection of more complete figures on the visible supply and make the report fill the gap between the Department's estimate of stocks in country mills and elevators and the Bureau of Census estimates of stocks of wheat in merchant mills. Several markets that have recently become important in the storing of grain will be added. There will be no duplication, but a more complete record of grain stocks in the various positions in the market.

The plan will present a visible supply report which will show stocks of grain in public elevators and warehouses, in private elevators and warehouses engaged in handling grain in inter-State commerce, stocks afloat in lakes, rivers, canals and at seaboard ports, Canadian grain in bond in United States ports and markets, and American grain in bond in Canadian ports and markets.

Activity in the Cotton Spinning Industry for April 1926.

The Department of Commerce announced on May 21 that, according to preliminary figures compiled by the Bureau of the Census, 37,725,744 cotton spinning spindles were in place in the United States on April 30 1926, of which 32,893,042 were operated at some time during the month, compared with 33,233,382 for March, 33,028,966 for February, 32,803,156 for January, 33,000,874 for December, 32,892,324 for November and 33,409,936 for April 1925. The aggregate number of active spindle hours reported for the month was 8,347,811,947. During April the normal time of operation was 25 2-3 days (allowance being made for the observance of Patriot's Day in some localities), compared with 27 for March, 23 2-3 for February, 25½ for January, 25 for December and 24½ for November. Based on an activity of 8.78 hours per day the average number of spindles operated during April was 37,043,763, or at 98.2% capacity on a single-shift basis. This percentage compares with 102.1 for March, 102.8 for February, 98.7 for January, 99.5 for December, 96 for November and 100.2 for April 1925. The average number of active spindle hours per spindle in place for the month was 221. The total number of cotton spinning spindles in place, the number active, the number of active spindle hours and the average spindle hours per spindle in place, by States, are shown in the following statement:

Automobile Price Changes and New Models.

The Rickenbacker Motor Car Co. has reduced prices on the six-cylinder line $100 to $200, making the brougham $1,795, reduced $100; five-passenger sedan, $1,995, reduced $100, and five-passenger coupe sedan, $1,495, reduced $200. The Nash Motors Co. has announced that the "Ajax Six" will henceforth be known as the Nash Light Six. No changes have been made in this model and the price remains the same, also.

The newest addition to the Diana line is announced by the Moon Motor Car Co. as a roadster, to be known as the "Palm Beach Special." It is an advanced type of open car, blue body with red striping, red wire wheels, burnished brass radiator shell, cowl and tail lights, and other metal work of brass.

Automobile Production at a New High Peak in April.

Production of motor vehicles in the United States and Canada in April established a new high record for any month, according to figures issued by the Department of Commerce on May 27. The Department announces April production of motor vehicles as 402,574 passenger cars and 53,268 trucks, of which 382,631 passenger cars and 50,272 trucks were made in the United States, and 19,943 passenger cars and 2,996 trucks were produced in Canada. The total of 455,842 cars and trucks, compares with 454,029 in October 1925, the previous high mark. The record was accomplished as the result of increased production of trucks, for passenger output totaled only 402,574 cars, against 408,017 in October. The April passenger car figures, however, were the second highest in history. Canadian output of passenger cars, moreover, reached record figures at 19,943, surpassing the best previous total of 18,351 made in May last year. The increased output took place in the face of a lowering of import duties on passenger cars which some feared would restrict sales of Canadian automobiles.

The table below is based on figures received from 172 manufacturers for recent months, 65 making passenger cars and 124 making trucks (17 making both passenger cars and trucks) and presents a slight revision in the totals previously shown, due to the receipt of corrections in the original reports; no revisions were necessary prior to January 1925. Data for earlier months include 75 additional manufacturers now out of business, while April data for 15 small firms, mostly truck manufacturers, were not received in time for inclusion in this report. Figures on truck production also include fire apparatus, street sweepers and buses.

Automobile Trade in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District Larger During April.

April sales of 15 automobile distributers in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District, based on returns to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, were substantially larger than in the previous month, the improvement being chiefly of a seasonal nature. Wholesale business was 39% larger in number of cars and 36% greater in value, the largest gains occurring in sales of lower priced cars. Retail sales also were greater in April, although the increase was only about a third as large as in the wholesale volume. Medium priced and high priced cars showed relatively greater improvement than the lower priced cars. Used cars also sold in greater numbers than in March. It is interesting that retail sales on deferred payment increased 33% as compared with only 14% gain in total retail business. The stocks of new cars accumulated during the past two months naturally were greatly reduced.

Output of Electric Power in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District Declines.

Electric central stations in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District reported substantial declines in the output of electric power in April as compared with March. Sales of electricity were also reported in smaller volume than in the preceding month. These losses, however, were partially, and in some cases entirely, attributable to the fewer days in April. In fact April sales of electric power to industries showed an actual increase of 2.9%, which indicates a gain of more than 6% in the average daily consumption by industrial plants. As compared with the previous year, production and sales in April 1926 show large increases, indeed much larger gains than that reported for generator capacity of reporting stations. Sales to industrial plants were nearly 21% greater than in April 1925.

Additional Crude Oil and Gasoline Price Changes.

Some further advances were made in crude oil and gasoline prices during the week just closed, bringing the greater number of distributors in line with the price levels established a week ago. In the crude oil market, it was learned that the Joseph Seep Crude Oil Purchasing Agency had advanced the price of Corning crude oil 10c. a barrel to $2 55 on May 22. Reports from Chicago on May 24 stated that Smackover fuel oil was quoted at $1 15 to $1 20 a barrel in the refinery market, off 3c. on the minimum price. Fuel oil of 18-22 gravity was $1 28 to $1 33, off 2c. a barrel on bottom price. These price levels, however, were advanced by two cents on May 26, when Smackover furl oil was quoted in the Chicago refinery market at $1 20 to $1 22 a barrel. But on that date the Louisiana Oil & Refining Co. reduced Urania, La., crude oil 15c. a barrel, making the price $1 15. Overproduction coupled with the fact that Urania crude yields a low grade gas oil and lubricating, was the reason given for the cut.

Gasoline prices also showed an upward trend in line with the price increases announced last week. The Standard Oil Co. of New York on May 24 advanced the price of gasoline 1c. a gallon throughout its territory, bringing the service station price to 24c. and the tank wagon price to 21c. On the same day, the Standard Oil of Kentucky advanced gasoline and kerosene 1c. a gallon throughout its territory. From Pittsburgh it was reported that the Gulf Oil Co. had followed the advance of 1c. a gallon in gasoline announced by the Standard Oil Co. of New York. The Sinclair and Texas companies were also reported to have followed the Socony advance, as did the Tide Water Oil Co.

The Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey advanced the export price of gasoline in cases ½c. a gallon to 29.40c. on May 24, which was immediately followed by a similar advance in price announced by the Tide Water Oil Co.

On May 25 the Continental Oil at Denver, Colo., advanced the tank wagon price of gasoline 1c. a gallon at Albuquerque and other New Mexico points. The prices at service stations will not be advanced, the price being 28½c. a gallon or 2c. above tank wagon price. In the East, on the same day, the Sinclair Refining Co., a subsidiary of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corp., advanced the price of gasoline in tank car lots ½c. a gallon to 14½c. at New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic Coast terminals.

The Atlantic Refining Co. on May 25 announced an advance of 1c. a gallon in the price of gasoline, effective May 26. This change makes the wholesale price of Pennsylvania and Delaware 20c. a gallon and the service station price 23c. a gallon. The Sinclair Refining Co. immediately advanced prices to meet the new schedule of the Atlantic Co.

Decreased Crude Oil Production Reported.

The advance summary of crude oil statistics released by the American Petroleum Institute on May 26 shows a decrease of 11,700 barrels per day in the estimated daily average crude oil output for the week ended May 22 when the production fell off to 1,987,300 barrels as compared with 1,999,000 barrels for the preceding week. The daily average production east of California was 1,388,300 barrels, as compared with 1,394,500 barrels, a decrease of 6,200 barrels. The following are estimates of daily average gross production by districts for the weeks indicated:

Steel Bookings Exceed Those for April—Some Price Changes—Pig Iron Market Dull.

An advance of $2 a ton in the Steel Corporation's price for steel bars, effective May 26, centres attention on that section of the market following a brief interval in which sales were commonly made at 1.90c. Pittsburgh, instead of 2c., which had ruled for about nine months, declares the "Iron Age" in its weekly summary of events in the market, issued May 27.

At the 1.90c. price enough business has come in this month to make bars more active than other finished lines. The Steel Corporation now quotes 2c. Pittsburgh and 2.10c. Chicago on 100-ton lots, while smaller quantities take 2.10c. Pittsburgh and 2.20c. Chicago, continues this trade journal, adding further details as follows:

The coming fortnight is likely to show to what extent other makers of bars will follow the Steel Corporation's action, and how far the 1.90c. price has brought new business to their books.

Improvement upon the April rate of new bookings in finished steel products is still reported, the Steel Corporation in the past week running some 7,000 tons a day ahead of the corresponding period of last month.

Mill operations in the Pittsburgh and Youngstown districts show further slight reductions, with the steel ingot percentage at 70 to 75. The Chicago district holds close to 90%, as for several weeks. With the Steel Corporation at 88% this week, the entire industry is under 80%.

Automobile makers are showing interest in steel for delivery after July 1. One Detroit company turning out 3,000 cars a day is inquiring for sheets, cold-rolled strip and other forms for third quarter, and parts manufacturers in Cleveland territory are placing steel for the second half.

Steel pipe holds its place as a leader in volume of new buying, the larger sizes showing well in forward bookings. The Magnolia Pipe Line Co. is inquiring for 180 miles of 8-in. pipe and the Roxana Petroleum Co. order, 200 miles of 8-in., has gone to Youngstown.

Announcement is still awaited of the tin plate price for the second half. The continuance of the present basis is expected. Shipments thus far have been notably large.

At Cleveland the Interlake Steamship Co. has placed two freighters for which 10,000 tons of plates go to the Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet & Tube companies.

Railroad car builders in the Pittsburgh district are coming to the end of their orders and there is some reduction in working forces. At Chicago the only inquiry is that of the Chicago & Northwestern for 500 stock car bodies. The International Rys. of South America bought 200 cars. In locomotives the week's total was 48.

Awards of more than 46,000 tons of fabricated steel make the past week the best of the month and the third largest of the year. Dock improvements at Buffalo will take 3,500 tons of sheet steel piling.

Bookings of tanks and other plate work in April, amounting to 32,700 tons, or 48% of capacity, were the largest since June.

Among indices of the large volume of 1926 steel business are the bookings of steel furniture and shelving. Department of Commerce figures show that the first four months ran well ahead of last year. April sales of steel castings were 86,000 tons, the largest since November and exceeding every month of 1925 except January and December.

With little activity, the pig iron market is yielding, concessions being reported in southern Ohio and in districts in which Buffalo and eastern Pennsylvania furnaces come in competition.

Importers of German steel were thrown into confusion by the Treasury order for countervailing duties equal to the bonuses given by the Raw Steel Syndicate. These range from $3 57 to $5 95 on most of the finished forms named in the Treasury circular. Pig iron is included in the order, but it is not certain that the German coal syndicate's bonus on coke used in making export pig iron is now in force.

Germany sent 75,000 tons of pig iron to this country last year, but only 30,000 tons of finished steel, while Belgium is credited with 150,000 tons of the steel imported here in 1925. Since Jan. 1 German steel has been coming in at the rate of 45,000 tons a year.

Fearing loss on existing contracts with American buyers some importers of German steel are asking that exports to this country be exempted from the bonus arrangement of the Raw Steel Syndicate.

British iron and steel markets are paralyzed by the coal strike, wholesale closing down is imminent, the proposed formation of an international raw steel syndicate at Brussels was halted through absence of British representation and Continental mills are slow in quoting on British business.

Another Japanese rail order placed in the United States covers 1,200 tons of girder rails for Tokio.

The finished steel composite price at 2.403. per pound for the second week compares with 2.460c. one year ago. Pig iron, on the other hand, though falling this week from $20 29 to $20 04 per ton, is more than 3% above $19 42, the "Iron Age" composite price of a year ago. The composite price table this week stands as follows:

New tonnage booked in May by steel makers was moderately greater than April. But shipments kept well beyond the incoming volume so that further curtailment of operations is in sight unless a more decided pick-up appears soon, observes the "Iron Trade Review" on May 26. This situation arises because a considerable portion of the present favorable operations of 80 to 85% is due to spread-out deliveries on business entered some weeks ago which is not being replaced, continues the "Review," in summarizing market conditions. It then goes on to say:

Spotty elements of the market remain marked both as to territory and product. A sustained gain in new business in the Chicago territory stands out against the difficulty of other districts to hold their own. One general fact may be emphasized. That is that new business at this time is substantially ahead of the corresponding period in 1925, ranging from 25 to over 60%, the latter representing the Steel Corporation's gain.

Tin plate production and shipments in the first half promise to reach a new high record.

Another big week has developed in building steel with 51,000 tons awarded, the second largest week of the present year. A proposed elevated motor roadway in New York plans for which are now before the Board of Estimate, will require about 50,000 tons.

Plate work continues active, especially in the West, where 20,000 tons have been directed to Chicago mills in the week. Independent mills have divided 10,000 tons for two Lake ore freighters.

An offsetting duty ordered assessed by the Treasury Department on importations of German pig iron and rolled products, where export bounties are paid to manufacturers under an agreement with the German raw steel syndicate, amount to an additional duty which will be determined later. Recently a similar countervailing duty was laid on pig iron from India, and this has had the effect of greatly reducing imports.

Imports of 112,225 tons of iron and steel in April, including 55,000 tons of pig iron, are the largest since January 1923. Exports of 194,449 tons also are the largest since January 1924.

The "Iron Trade Review's" composite price this week is $38. This compares with $38 14 last week and $38 34 the week previous.

Rogers Brown & Crocker Bros., Inc., in reporting on the iron market say:

Actual tonnage of pig iron booked shows little improvement over the previous week. The volume of inquiry however, continues to grow and should soon result in increased orders. The advance of $2 per ton in the price of bars and the steady increase in the tonnage of iron and steel products exported should have a favorable influence on the general market.

The only price change in pig iron noted for the week is a reduction of $1 per ton in the Buffalo district. It is believed that this move was brought about by furnaces located further West making prices that were on a competitive basis in Buffalo's home market. The new Buffalo prices which should now control their home territory, are about in balance with Eastern Pennsylvania furnaces in the usual territory where their competition meets.

There is little change in market conditions in the Central West. Buyers generally show an increased interest in third quarter business.

Ferro alloys and coke remain inactive.

Steel Foundry Operations in Third Federal Reserve District Increase During April.

Owing mainly to a large increase in tonnage at one foundry, according to the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, the volume of unfilled orders at the end of April in the Philadelphia Reserve District exceeded that of March 31 by 45% and was 68% greater than that of April 30 1925. Production and shipments, which were considerably above those of a year ago, were smaller than in March. Stocks of pig iron and scrap also declined, but supplies of coke on May 1 were heavier than on April 1 by nearly 12% and greater by 14.4% than on the corresponding date last year.

Iron Foundry Operations in Third Federal Reserve District Larger in April.

In April, says the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, the volume of unfilled orders of the iron foundries in the Third Federal Reserve Disrict registered a slight gain over that in March but was nearly 23% below the tonnage of a year ago. Shipments also exceeded those in March by about 2% and were 10% greater than in April 1925. Compared with the same period last year, production in April was larger, but was considerably below the March volume. Stocks of scrap at the close of April showed a large increase over those on the corresponding date of last month and of 1925.

Structural Steel Sales, Bookings and Shipments Below A Year Ago.

The Department of Commerce finds that sales of fabricated structural steel during April were at 71% of capacity, based on total bookings of 183,134 tons reported by fabricators with a capacity of 258,280 tons per month, as against March bookings of 68% of capacity and 76% a year ago. Shipments of fabricated structural steel in April represented 80% of the capacity of firms reporting this item, as against 81% in March and 76% a year ago.

The following table lists the statistics reported by 204 identical firms (including data in earlier months for 20 additional firms now out of business) with a present capacity of 272,975 tons per month, comparing with 269,720 in 1925, 261,805 in 1924, 254,010 in 1923 and 254,750 in 1922. For comparative purposes, the percentage figures are used to obtain a computed total for the United States, based on a capacity of 285,000 tons per month in 1923, 293,000 in 1924 and 305,000 in 1925 and 1926.

Fabricated Steel Plate—Bookings Diminishing.

The Department of Commerce reports bookings of fabricated steel plate, based on reports received from 36 firms, as 48% of capacity in April, compared with 44% in March and 33% in April 1925. Commercial Steel Castings—Bookings and Production Both Declining.

The Department of Commerce announces April bookings of steel castings as 65% of shop capacity as against 80% in March and 59% a year ago, based on reports from principal manufacturers, having a present monthly capacity of 131,300 tons, and representing over four-fifths of the commercial castings capacity of the United States, of which 59,200 tons is usually devoted to railroad specialties and 72,100 tons to miscellaneous castings. The production of steel castings was 80% of capacity in April as against 83% in March. The following table based on reports from 107 firms presents bookings of steel castings for each of the past sixteen months and production for the past four months, with the percentage which these bookings and production bear to the capacity of the reporting firms:

Bituminous Coal Prices Show Usual Seasonal Decline—Anthracite Markets Report Slackening Sales—Coke Weak.

The bituminous coal markets of the United States are running true to seasonal form, declares the May 27 "Coal Age," adding that that means that a good volume of tonnage is moving every day, but that the spot markets lack those elements of surprise and suspense which make for feverish trading. Even the British strike—for the time being, at least—has lost its power to jar the soft coal business on this side of the waters out of its unemotional routine, observes the "Coal Age," which adds further data from which we quote:

The preponderance of non-union tonnage entering into the channels of commerce, however, is reflected in further declines in average spot prices. The "Coal Age" index of spot bituminous prices on May 24 stood at 157. The corresponding price was $1 89. The week previous the figures were 159 and $1 63, respectively. Sharp declines in quotations on low volatile coals for New England, a weaker market at Pittsburgh and an easier tone to certain sizes of Kentucky and West Virginia coals were the underlying causes of the lower figures.

In the Middle West there has been a greater steadiness in prices. This has been achieved at the cost of drastic curtailment in production. Seaboard markets other than Boston also have shown more price stability, but the menace of distress coal still lurks in the background. An unbalanced demand as between sizes is a handicap under which almost every producing field in the country labors at the present time.

Lake loadings at the lower ports showed a slight drop during the week ended May 23. The total tonnage dumped as cargo fuel was 993,444 tons. In addition, the vessels took on 40,300 tons for bunker purposes. For the season to date the total dumpings were 3,824,362 net tons, as compared with 4,161,821 tons a year ago. Most of this coal is coming from West Virginia and Kentucky.

Sales resistance in anthracite territory is increasing. There is little doubt that the consumers welcomed the return of hard coal at the close of the strike. But with winter behind them, the householders, in many cases, are willing to let somebody else carry the load of stocking. There are many retailers who feel that there are definite limits to what they can do. As a result premium coal is moving with difficulty and buyers are more discriminating in their choice of sizes.

The Connellsville coke trade weakens with the passing weeks. Spot prices on furnace coke are easier and little spot foundry coke moves at more than the minimum quotations on that grade. Production, too, is declining. Byproduct output, which reached its peak for the year in January, also is diminishing. The estimated production last month was 3,602,000 net tons, as compared with 3,777,000 tons in March.

Bituminous Coal Output Increases a Trifle as that of Anthracite and Coke Declines.

The usual weekly statistics issued by the United States Bureau of Mines shows an increase in the output of bituminous coal of about 2.8% during the week ended May 15. During the same period the production of anthracite declined by about 81,000 tons and of coke 8,000 tons, as shown in the report, portions of which we append:

Production of soft coal turned slightly upward during the week ended May 15. Total output, including lignite and coal coked at the mines, is estimated at 9,289,000 net tons, an increase of 2.8% over the preceding week and the largest in any week since April 17.

ANTHRACITE.

Production of anthracite during the week ended May 15, with due allowance for coal sold locally and that consumed at the mines, is estimated at 1,904,000 net tons. Compared with output in the preceding week, this is a decrease of 81,000 tons, or 4%. Daily loadings by the nine principal carriers indicate that the loss was apparently due to the observance, during the week, of religious holidays.

Production of Soft Coal in April.

The table below, presented for the first time by the U. S. Bureau of Mines, shows estimates of soft coal production, by States, in April. Total production during the month amounted to 40,079,000 net tons, a decrease of 6,058,000 tons from that in March. Since there were 27 full working days in March, and approximately 25.7 in April, in the soft coal fields, the average daily output, shown by States, forms a better basis of comparison. The daily rate for the country in April was less by 149,000 tons, or 8.7%, than in March. This was in continuation of the decline which normally begins in January, adds the Bureau, giving further details as follows:

The detailed figures in the table show that the decrease in rate was widespread. In the northern Appalachian field the average loss was 8% and in the eastern interior region, consisting of Illinois, Indiana and western Kentucky, 14%. Some States west of the Mississippi maintained a higher rate in April than in March.

The last three columns show the total amount of soft coal produced in each State during the first four months of the present year. Similar data, given for corresponding periods in 1925 and 1924, make possible an interesting comparison. It should be remembered, however, that the figures for 1924 only are final.

The total amount of anthracite produced in Pennsylvania in April is estimated at 8,217,000 net tons, as against 8,790,000 tons in March. The average daily rate of output in April, however—329,000 tons as against 326,000 tons in March—indicates an actual upward trend for the month.

Coke Output During April.

The production of by-product coke in April showed a falling off of 175,000 net tons when compared with that in March. This was not solely due to the shorter month, for there was a general slowing down of operations to about 88% of capacity, causing a decrease in the daily rate of output, reports the U. S. Bureau of Mines in its usual summary. The total tonnage for April was 3,602,000, with an average daily production of 120,000 net tons; comparable figures for March were 3,777,000 tons and 122,000 tons, respectively. During April the plants operated at 91% of capacity. Eighty-one plants are now in existence, 75 of them active in April. One new plant began production during the month, says the Bureau, adding:

The production of coke pig iron for April, as published in the "Iron Age," was 3,450,122 gross tons, and the daily average was 115,004 tons; March was accredited with a total of 3,441,986 tons and 111,032 tons per day.

Beehive coke continues its downward trend, with an estimated production of 981,000 net tons in April. This was 177,000 tons, or 15% lower than in March, which in turn had an output that was 17% less than that of February.

The production from all the coke plants was 4,583,000 tons, 79% from the by-product ovens and 21% from beehive ovens.

Current Events and Discussions

The Week with the Federal Reserve Banks.

The consolidated statement of condition of the Federal Reserve banks on May 26, made public by the Federal Reserve Board, and which deals with the results for the twelve Federal Reserve banks combined, shows comparatively little change in total holdings of bills and securities, declines of $15,900,000 in holdings of discounted bills and of $3,600,000 in Government securities being partly offset by an increase of $12,300,000 in holdings of acceptances purchased in open market. Member bank reserve deposits declined $41,400,000, Federal Reserve note circulation increased $7,600,000, and cash reserves declined $1,500,000. After noting these facts, the Federal Reserve Board proceeds as follows:

Discount holdings of the New York bank declined $10,800,000, of Cleveland $9,500,000, and of Chicago $4,300,000. The Philadelphia bank reports an increase of $5,700,000 and Atlanta an increase of $3,000,000 in holdings of discounted bills, while the remaining banks show smaller changes for the week.

Open-market acceptance holdings of the New York bank were $9,000,000 lower than a week ago, while the Chicago bank shows an increase of $6,500,000, Cleveland of $5,400,000 and Boston of $4,400,000. The System's holdings of United States bonds declined $5,400,000, and of Treasury certificates $600,000, while holdings of Treasury notes increased $2,400,000.

The principal changes in Federal Reserve note circulation during the week comprise increases of $9,900,000 and $4,100,000, respectively, reported by the New York and Cleveland Reserve banks.

The statement in full, in comparison with the preceding week and with the corresponding date last year will be found on subsequent pages—namely, pages 3051 and 3052. A summary of changes in the principal assets and liabilities of the Reserve banks during the week and the year ending May 26 1926 is as follows:

The Member Banks of the Federal Reserve System—Reports for Preceding Week—Brokers' Loans in New York City.

It is not possible for the Federal Reserve Board to issue the weekly returns of the member banks as promptly as the returns of the Federal Reserve banks themselves. Both cover the week ending with Wednesday's business, and the returns of the Federal Reserve banks are always given out after the close of business the next day (Thursday). The statement of the member banks, however, including as it does, over 700 separate institutions, cannot be tabulated until several days later. Prior to the statement for the week ending May 19, it was the practice to have them ready on Thursday of the following week and to give them out concurrently with the report of the Reserve banks for the new week. The Reserve authorities have now succeeded in expediting the time of the appearance of the figures, and they are made public the following week on Mondays instead of on Thursdays. Under this arrangement the report for the week ending May 19 was given out after the close of business on Monday of the present week.

The Reserve Board's weekly condition statement of 703 reporting member banks in leading cities as of May 19 shows an increase of $29,000,000 in investments, and decreases of $66,000,000 in loans and discounts, $59,000,000 in net demand deposits and $27,000,000 in Government deposits. Member banks in New York City reported an increase of $6,000,000 in investments and reductions of $2,000,000 in loans and discounts and of $17,000,000 in net demand deposits. As already noted, the figures for these member banks are always a week behind those for the Reserve banks themselves. Loans on stocks and bonds, including obligations of the U. S. Government, declined $13,000,000, an increase of $21,000,000 in the New York district being more than offset by reductions of $12,000,000 in the Philadelphia district, $11,000,000 in the Boston district and $8,000,000 each in the Cleveland and Chicago districts. All other loans and discounts declined $53,000,000, of which $29,000,000 was in the New York district. Total loans to brokers and dealers, secured by stocks and bonds, made by reporting member banks in New York City declined $72,000,000, loans for account of out-of-town banks being $93,000,000 less than a week ago, while loans for their own account and for the account of others increased $6,000,000 and $15,000,000, respectively. Holdings of U. S. securities were $10,000,000 and of other bonds, stocks and securities $19,000,000 larger than a week ago. Further comment regarding the changes shown by these member banks is as follows:

Net demand deposits were $59,000,000 below last week's figures, declines of $33,000,000 in the New York district, $13,000,000 in the Philadelphia district and $8,000,000 each in the Atlanta and Chicago districts being partly offset by an increase of $11,000,000 in the Kansas City district.

Borrowings from the Federal Reserve banks aggregated $288,000,000 or $15,000,000 above the total reported a week ago, the principal changes including increases of $11,000,000 each in the Boston and New York districts, and a reduction of $12,000,000 by banks in the Cleveland district.

On a subsequent page—that is, on page 3052—we give the figures in full contained in this latest weekly return of the member banks of the Reserve System. In the following is furnished a summary of the changes in the principal items as compared with a week ago and with last year:

Summary of Conditions in World's Markets According to Cablegrams and Other Reports to the Department of Commerce.

The Department of Commerce at Washington releases for publication to-day (May 29) the following summary of conditons abroad, based on advices by cable and other means of communication:

BELGIUM.

The pessimism caused by recent inflation has been considerably relieved bu quietness in the political situation. The financial situation is aggravated by the necessity of taking care of the short-term exterior debt contracted during the period when the exchange was stable at 4½ cents to the franc. The industrial situation, however, is apparently less depressed as a result of unfavorable financial conditions than had been thought in Belgium. Dulness undoubtedly exists but unemployment is lower than last year.

FRANCE.

The statement of the Bank of France for May 20 shows little effect of the Government debt maturities of that date amounting to over three billion francs. Advances to the State increased by only 250,000,000 francs, reaching 35,100,000,000 francs, as comapred with a maximum of 36,250,000,000 francs on April 1. Note circulation of the Bank of France showed the relatively slight increase of 14,000,000 francs, reaching 52,657,000,000 francs, somewhat under the maximum of 53,181,000,000 francs registered two weeks ago.

GERMANY.

Foreign trade figures for April show that imports, excluding precious metals, amounted to 723,000,000 marks, and exports to 779,000,000 marks. This leaves an export surplus of 56,000,000 marks, as compared with the March surplus of 278,000,000 marks. In spite of this decline, the foreign trade situation is generally regarded in Germany as encouraging when it is recalled that in April 1925 an unfavorable balance of nearly 337,000,000 marks existed. During the past month a noticeable increase in imports of foodstuffs, together with a decline in exports of manufactured goods, tended to cut down the value of the favorable balance in March.

AUSTRIA.

Exports from Austria are unfavorably affected by exchange fluctuations in other European countries. Unemployment has decreased by more than one-third since its peak of 231,000 at the middle of February. Financial conditions are favorable. Government revenues are well maintained and fiscal operations, excluding expenditures on account of capital, resulted in a small surplus for the month of March. The money market is easy. Wholesale prices continue to decline. Unfilled orders of the cotton spinners and of the iron and steel producers show a continued decline.

ITALY.

The Italian Government has created a new exchange market at the Treasury with the aid of the banks for the purpose of strengthening hte control of all exchange transactions. The banks of issue have decided to limit loans and discounts to their present total, and to refuse new transactions until further notice. It is reported in Italy that the lira is again to be held relatively stable, but at a lower level than before the recent break.

SPAIN.

Further Government statistics of 1925 foreign trade recently issued show that the United States occupied first place in the import trade of Spain with a value of 432,000,000 pesetas, constituting 19% of total Spanish imports. Imports from Great Britain amounted to 289,000,000 pesetas,, from France 280,000,000 pesetas, and from Germany 180,000,000 pesetas.. In the export trade the United States occupied third place, taking 164,000,000 pesetas worth of Spanish products, approximately 10% of the total. Exports to England amounted to 360,000,000 pesteas, to France 256,000,000 pesetas and to Germany 104,000,000 pesetas.

SWEDEN.

Moderate industrial activity continues to characterize the Swedish economic and financial situation. The lumber, wood pulp, and certain implement industries have been adversely affected temporarily. Deposits of commercial banks decreased slightly during April as compared with March but loans and discounts increased markedly. There was a marked decrease in the foreign exchange holdings of the commercial banks due to the heavy liquidation of securities and the delay in the lumber and pulp shipping season, the latter caused by ice. It is estimated in Sweden that the import surplus for April will total 25,000,000 crowns; about 5,000,000 crowns less than that of the preceding month.

DENMARK.

The scarcity of capital, due largely to heavy losses incurred during the deflation period, is the outstanding feature of the Danish financial situation. The tightness of money becomes increasingly apparent. Notwithstanding the withdrawal of foreign speculative capital, the present exchange rate has been maintained without excessive inroads on foreign exchange reserves of the National Bank. During the first quarter of 1926 the excess of imports over exports totaled 36 million crowns, as against 57 million crowns during the corresponding quarter of 1925. Exports of agricultural products reached a record mark during the last week of April.

NORWAY.

The labor conflict and the exchange problem are of outstanding importance in Norway. The Bank of Issue has stated that it does not wish to commit itself to any stabilization of the crown, that an upward movement brought about by natural causes can not be prevented, and that it is not advisable to attempt to prevent it.

POLAND.

A considerable slowing down in the operations of the textile industry in the Lodz district has been evident since the end of April, after the seasonal revival which began in March had apparently exhausted itself. The export of textile goods from Lodz also showed a sharp decline from 3,800,000 zlotys in March to 1,780,000 zlotys in April. The local textile market became practically paralized by the depreciation of the zloty. The foreign trade balance continues favorable but declined in March to about 20,000,000 against an average of 75,000,000 zlotys per month for the first two months of the year.

RUMANIA.

A table of the international balance of payments of Rumania for the last four years published recently in the Bucharest press reports favorable balances varying between one and three billion lei for 1922-1924, but an unfavorable balance for 1925 of 5,800,000 lei. The chief factor in this overturn was stated in the report to have been the decrease of new foreign capital investments and of foreign credit on the one hand, and increases in the interest and amortization charges on both public and private debts on the other hand, resulting in a deficit item on capital investments of 5,600,000 lei. A deficit of over 1,000,000,000 lei, due to an excess of imports over exports, was very nearly counter-balanced by invisible payments, such as the expenditures of foreigners in Rumania.

YUGOSLAVIA.

A comparison of imports for the last quarter of 1925 with those of the previous year shows a large decline in purchases from Italy, which fell from first to third place in rank, while Austria and Czechoslovakia assumed first and second places, respectively. A loss of nearly 50% in England's share was about balanced by the gains of France and Germany. The share of the United States increased slightly.

GREECE.

Business conditions in general are improved, although money is still scarce and interest rates are very high. By means of recent increases in taxation a new nominal balance has been obtained for the 1926-27 budget; but the general financial outlook remains rather pessimistic. As a result of the increase in the forced loan tax, prices of Greek monopoly articles have been increased from 25 to 33 1-3%, and the cost of living continues to rise. The Greek telephone concession has been awarded to an Antwerp telephone and electrical concern, and the formal ratification was published on May 12.

PALESTINE.

The season has furnished almost ideal conditions for both winter and summer crops, the success of which is now believed assured. Even winter cereals in the Acre Plain, which had suffered from too much rain, have been saved by the recent fine weather. Tobacco is also well advanced and transplanting has been begun in the northern district. Prices are falling in nearly all foodstuff lines. New port regulations, governing shipping in Palestine ports, have now been published.

EGYPT.

The tourist season in Egypt this year has been one of the most successful since the war. An entire pier in the port of Alexandria has now been reserved for the exclusive use of steamers of American lines.

JAPAN.

There has been some improvement in business and financial conditions in Japan. The continued advance in Japanese exchange has stimulated the import market and an increased volume of new general business is apparent. A marked increase in permanent construction is evident in the Tokyo district. The financial outlook is somewhat more optimistic. The decline in the stock market has been halted and the money market is somewhat easier. Preliminary totals of foreign trade for the second ten days of May indicate an increase in both exports and imports over the preceding period.

DUTCH EAST INDIES.

The general inactivity which prevailed in March business of the Netherlands East Indies continued in April. Import trade was practically unchanged and export markets were quiet, except for sugar, which showed considerable improvement.

The Java cotton goods market was still heavily overstocked in April. Sales of petroleum products were reported as excellent in April. Automotive sales were well maintained, but demand for tires was somewhat light. Rubber experienced a dull month, with prices declining. The sugar market strengthened, with considerable interest manifested in the 1927 crop.

BRITISH MALAYA.

British Malayan business was only fair in April, with a declining tendency. Rubber prices continued the decline which has characterized the current year and fell to the lowest level since April a year ago. As a result of this tendency the value of the country's total foreign trade was lower than it has been for eleven months. Tin prices also fell in April, the average for the month being the lowest since August 1925.

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Seasonal slowness in Philippine April trade was aggravated by unusually dry weather. Business was only fair, but the month was about on the level of April 1925. In general export markets were weak.

All grades of abaca (manila hemp) were quiet, though conditions in the trade improved slightly at the close of the month. United States grades opened with stronger prices, but the tendency is again downward. United Kingdom grades collapsed with the British strike. The sugar milling season is almost closed, with local estimates of the output placed at 373,000 metric tons, or 25% under that of last year. Import markets were quiet, except for sales of automobiles and tires which continued excellent. The textile trade continues dull, with little promise of improvement.

ARGENTINA.

The export movement of all cereals has increased due to the settlement of the local railway labor troubles. Corn prices are very low, and the grain exchanges have requested the abolition of the export duty on corn. Packing house exports have been reduced due to the fall of the French and Belgian francs and the Italian lire. Imports are declining, but collections are somewhat improved.

BRAZIL.

Coffee institute elections were planned for the 21st, but were postponed. Coffee is weaker. On Monday Santos 4s were 26.50 milreis and on Saturday 26 milreis. July deliveries were 26.375 on Monday and 25.85 on Saturday. Rio spot 7s fell from 27.235 to 26.283. A further 10% reduction on all tubes and tires, pneumatic and solid, by all companies has been adopted.

PERU.

The general slowness which has existed in the Peruvian market for some time past continued in the week ended May 22. Exchange was at the same low level of 3.63 reached on May 15, and with few transactions recorded. Collections are difficult and many important documents remain unaccepted.

URUGUAY.

There is an excellent Uruguayan farm and dairy exposition in progress. Good crowds are attending daily. The exhibits of the American manufacturers include electric refrigerators, farm lighting plants, pumps, windmills and agricultural equipment.

London Banks Add to Bullion Reserves—Midland Bank's Purchase in Market and Resales to Bank of England Thought Significant.

The London Bureau of the "Wall Street Journal," in the issue of the latter for May 27, points out that the Midland Bank, which several weeks ago appeared as a buyer in the gold market, taking a substantial portion of the arrivals from South Africa, has lately resold some of its new holdings to the Bank of England. Probably this action, it stated, was by way of special consideration to the bank in the recent strike emergency and did not denote any sudden change of policy. In its monthly returns since last December the Midland has added the words "gold bullion" to the item "cash holdings." It may of course be holding bullion on behalf of a customer and may not be the actual owner. Even if this is the case, it is a new departure. The account then goes on to say:

Several theories are advanced to explain the action of the Midland. It is known that Mr. McKenna's predecessor, Sir E. Holden, was in favor of joint stock banks having gold reserves of their own, independent of the Bank of England. It is possible that Mr. McKenna may have chosen to adopt this doctrine. It is also well known from Mr. McKenna's speeches that he is inclined to favor a "little inflation" to help trade. A gold reserve in his own bank would permit his bank to give extra assistance to his customers in time of need.

On the other hand, since Britain's return to a gold standard it has been the generally accepted policy among the banks to assist the Bank of England in every way to build up its gold reserves. This is particularly important in order that the Bank of England may accumulate sufficient cover to allow amalgamation of the Treasury and Bank of England note issues at the earliest possible moment.

An explanation of the Midland Bank's move which would agree with this general policy, is that it bought gold at the instigation of the Bank of England. Those who hold this view say that not only the Midland but others of the "big five" are parties to such a policy. On this view the purchases would be made in order to retain in London some of the South African gold lots instead of letting them all go to the Continent and India, as has mostly happened during the last few months.

Some color is lent to this view when it is remembered that the Bank of England buys gold only at the fixed price of £3-17-9, so that other British buyers are not competing with the Bank of England by outbidding the Continent and India for gold.

It is understood that the purchases by the Midland were made a little above the Mint price, so that the Bank of England would not have got the gold in any case.

If one or more of the joint stock banks adopts the policy of creating its own gold reserves, it would, according to this view, really be as effective a backing to the note issue as if it lay in the vaults of the Bank of England. In event of a crisis it would always be available for the Bank of England. Moreover, a joint stock bank holding gold among its cash would hardly alter its usual ratio of cash to deposits. The gold would simply displace other forms of cash.

On the whole, it would appear that the creation of gold reserves by joint stock banks would make little alteration in general credit conditions and that the fears of the discount market of a contraction of credit are unwarranted.

Downward Trend of Money Rates in Europe.

During recent months there has occurred a definite downward trend of money rates in many European countries and a convergence of the trend of American and Continental rates, says Dr. Henry A. E. Chandler, Economist of the National Bank of Commerce in New York, in the June issue of the "Commerce Monthly." We have reached the point where in a number of European countries for the first time interest rates more or less reflect the money and the capital situation and give some indication of the future trend of rates. In discussing the trend of money rates, he says:

One of the most significant aspects of recent European developments has been the trend of interest rates. As a result of the war the relationship between Europe and America, with respect to the supply of capital and the level of interest rates, was reversed. This change was due partly to the extraordinary capital shortgage in Europe incident to the war and post-war developments and partly to changes in America's capital and money situation arising from the change from a debtor to a creditor position and from the extraordinary inflow of gold into this country.

The shortage in Europe necessarily tended to make interest rates much higher in Europe than in America. The interest rate structure was further complicated by the injection of extraordinary non-commercial factors, particularly the instability of the currencies. Interest rates rose to very high levels, in some countries reaching at times fantastic levels. In many countries the rates reflected not so much the relation between the demand and supply of capital as the uncertainty as to the value of the currency. So long as conditions of marked uncertainty existed it was impossible to attract any considerable amount of capital from foreign countries.

As stabilization programs were adopted in one country after another, however, capital began to flow in. Nevertheless, the shortage was still so acute in these countries that unusually high interest rates continued to prevail for some time. Moreover, the continued existence of a considerable degree of uncertainty in some principal countries even after stabilization contributed to the maintenance of interest rates at high levels. This combination of capital shortage and of uncertainty existed in such varying degrees simultaneously in different countries that until recently it has been impossible to discern any clear trend of European money rates.

Notwithstanding the very recent development of acute conditions in several countries, the movement in the direction of the restoration of sound financial and economic conditions, has for Europe as a whole continuously progressed during the last several years. This progress has in many countries served to remove a considerable part of the factor of uncertainty and we have reached the point where the predominant influence in the trend of interest rates in several European countries is the factor of demand and supply. For the first time, therefore, interest rates more or less reflect the money and capital situation and give some indication of the future trend of rates.

For purposes of determining what may be termed the trend of European rates it is necessary to classify countries according to the position which the currency has attained with respect to stability and to future parity. In three countries, namely, France, Italy and Belgium, the currencies have not been placed in a fixed relation with gold nor has a definite parity been decided upon. In two other countries, namely, Norway and Denmark, the currencies have been approaching parity but as yet final stabilization has not been attained.

In seven countries either the currency has returned to the old parity or the new parity has been finally determined and the currency has been stabilized at this parity. These are Holland, Switzerland, Sweden, Germany, Finland, Austria and Hungary. In Czechoslovakia the currency is also stabilized.

The trend of money rates in the first group cannot be looked upon as indicative of the normal trend of rates because important factors incident to the instability of the currency in these countries or to efforts to attain or maintain stability exercise pronounced influence.

Again, in the case of the two countries in the second group, namely, Denmark and Norway, the problem is complicated by adjustments incident to the appreciation of these currencies. As indicated later, however, in Denmark the trend of the bank rate has recently been donwward and in Norway up to rise in the bank rate in January the recent trend had been downward. In the nations comprising the third group, however, we find conditions which permit of generalizations as to the trend of money rates as controlled more or less by commercial considerations.

In practically all of the countries enumerated above with the exception of the three in the first group, a definite downward trend of money rates has occurred during the period discussed.

Of interest in connection with this general downward trend of Continental rates is the recent trend of rates in the two principal money centres of the world, namely, New York and London. During this period of declining rates on the Continent the general trend of London rates as well as that of New York has been upward.

The question of most interest in this connection is in what measure the upward trend of the American and British rates reflects the movement of funds from New York and London to the Continent and thus reflects progress in the direction of the restoration of the equilibrium of the forces of demand and supply operating between the Continent and the American and British money centres. This similarity in the general trend of New York and London rates against the trend of Continental rates has not resulted from a close similarity of fund movements. There is no doubt that one of the main factors in the general upward trend of American rates in the latter part of 1924 and throughout 1925 was the large credits extended to Great Britain and to the Continent. While in the latter part of 1925 there was some return flow from London to the United States, the net result of the movement for the two years was an increase in the amount of American money lent to the British market.

The significance of the trend of the British rates is somewhat complicated by unusual conditions incident to the return to the gold standard. It is not clear just how far in the general upward trend of British rates the movement of British funds to the Continent has been a factor. There appears to be no doubt that during this period the British have extended large credits in one form or another to the Continent. But this extension of credit has in part been made possible by, and the effect of it has in a measure been offset by, the flow of funds from New York to London.

The unmistakable fact in the situation, however, is the convergence of the trend of American and British rates and the general trend of Continental rates. So far as Central European rates are concerned this convergence is due, however, not so much to the upward trend of the American and British rates as to the downward trend of Continental rates.

The explanation of this readjustment, however, is not to be found entirely in the flow of funds from America and London to the Continent. As with the passing of time more and more reliable data concerning the trend of savings in various European countries are becoming available, the evidence of a gradual recuperation of the saving capacity of European appears. While the data are still too incomplete to permit of any estimate of the rate at which savings are growing for the Continent as a whole, it is clear that in a number of countries substantial progress in this respect is taking place.

While in some countries there still exists a considerable shortage of working capital and it seems probable that demand for American funds will continue, the peak of demand at least for short-term money appears to have been passed. This, of course, does not mean than an important demand for American funds, especially long-time funds, will not continue for a considerable period. The shortage of capital in Europe is still large. While there exists an amount of equipment in important branches of industry in some countries, considerably in excess of present needs, in other branches and in agriculture, in municipal plant and in housing, large shortages still exist. Notwithstanding improvement in Europe and specifically the increase in current capital savings it will be some time before the savings in several countries will take care of current capital needs—not to mention capital required to make good existing shortages and to pay interest upon newly acquired indebtedness. It seems probable, therefore, that for some time interest rates in parts of the Continent will remain somewhat higher than in the United States. However, it is not to be expected that in the countries where the currencies have become stabilized we shall in the future see anything like the wide divergence of rates from American rates that has up to recently existed.

Canada May Take More Gold.

One of the incidental effects of the award of a $25,000,000 Ontario note issue to a New York banking syndicate, said the New York "Times" on Thursday, was an appreciation in Canadian exchange, which placed bankers here on the lookout for a resumption of gold shipments from this country to the Dominion. As against a premium of 1-16 of 1% on Tuesday, the Canadian dollar was quoted on Wednesday at a premium of ⅛ of 1%. The gold shipping point is calculated at 11-64 of 1% premium, though exports of the metal have been made at a shade under that figure. The resumption of gold shipments to Canada would not be surprising, it is stated, for the transfer of $25,000,000 of funds from this market comes at a time when Canadian commodity exports are heavy, with lake navigation in full swing. Heavy shipments of gold were made from this country to Canada last month, but the exchange rate had since dropped to a level which made such transactions no longer profitable.

Italy's Proposals for Control of Capital and Labor.

Benito Mussolini, Premier and Dictator of Italy, has taken still another radical step in controlling the situation in his country. It has to do with both Labor and Capital. In an Associated Press dispatch from Rome on May 18 this latest development was reported in part as follows:

Fascism's system for the solution of class war, which is intended to sound the death knell of the strike and lockout, and which Premier Mussolini considers one of the most important of his Government's contributions to modern statecraft, was approved today by the Cabinet after nearly a year of intense study.

The basic principle of the tremendously complicated system is the right and power of the Government to control directly through the new Ministry of Corporations and the elaborate machinery of subsidiary organizations the entire productive life of the nation.

"The instruments of capital and labor, both manual and intellectual," the Cabinet's decision avers, "are no longer opposed to the State and its essential organs, but are inserted vitally into the State organism."

The document explaining the new system, which is to be applied to the industrial problem, contains about 15,000 words. Its general outline may be summed up as follows:

First—Anti-Fascist labor employers, unions and organizations will be deprived of their powers.

Second—Thirteen national associations, supplanting the old unions, including all classes of workers and employers, will be created.

Third—Three national confederations will be created for liaison purposes.

Fourth—An undetermined number of corporations are to be created as instruments of control by the Ministry of Corporations over the association of confederations.

Fifth—State and public service workers will be handled in special types of associations.

Sixth—All labor disputes must be submitted to compulsory arbitration.

Seventh—Special courts for the settlement of labor disputes will be created, with an entirely new labor code added to other legal codes, providing for penalties, appeals, methods of handling jurors, qualifications of jurors and other matters.

Eighth—While setting up new machinery for its purposes, the Government reserves the absolute right to step in at any time for any purpose "for the protection of national interests."

Explaining that system, spokesmen of the Government pointed out that Fascism considered the nation's productivity an essential part of its patrimony; hence control over productivity should be exercised by the Government alone. A liberal trade union system creating a state within a state was intolerable, it was held.

The next day, on May 19, Premier Mussolini issued a proclamation relative to his plan for dealing with Capital and Labor. Summarizing the proclamation the Associated Press correspondent in Rome said: "The Democratic-Liberal State has been destroyed, and in its place rises the Fascist State, declares Premier Mussolini in a proclamation to the Fascisti of Italy today, upon the adoption by the Cabinet of the new system of relationship between capital and labor."

The document stated that the corporative organization of the state now is an accomplished fact. The Democratic-Liberal State, weak and agnostic, is no more; in its place rises the Fascist State. For the first time in the history of the world, a constructive revolution like ours realizes peacefully, in the field of production and work, incorporation of all the economic and intellectual forces of the nation to direct them today a common purpose. For the first time, a powerful system of great associations is created in which all positions are on the same plane of equality; all recognized and guaranteed in their legitimate and conciliable interests by the sovereign state. Today, finally, the people, working in their various activities and categories, dedicate themselves in the Fascist state consciously and vigorously to their real destiny. The proof is decisive. Our faith is firm. We are certain the system will resist the hard test of experience. Vivified by your spirit, presided over by your discipline, the nation, compact around the Fascist symbol, will constitute an indivisible block of political, economic and moral energy. Black Shirts, raise your flags and celebrate with act, will and fidelity this day, which is one of the most glorious of our revolution.

Germany Proposes New Payment Plan—Would Substitute 16 Billion Marks in Industrial Bonds for Dawes Scheme.

According to a special copyrighted cablegram from London appearing in the New York "Times" yesterday morning (May 28) and dated May 27 Herr Schacht, President of the German Reichsbank, arrived in London from Berlin on May 27 and had an interview with the Governor of the Bank of England. The Times account then goes on to say:

His visit is officially described as "a normal one" which will last two or three days. It is reported, however, that Herr Schacht while here will discuss immediate revision of the Dawes plan, which is being sought by the German Government and concerning which there has been an exchange of views with the French Government.

The German case for revision is based on a belief that it will be practically impossible to make the full payments which begin with the fourth year of application of the Dawes plan. Already it is said that the Transfer Committee set up under the plan is meeting with difficulties in connection with the exchanges.

The German Government desires to see the Dawes plan, with its duration of more than a generation, give way to a new arrangement, which, by giving immediate satisfaction to the Allies would release Germany from the control of the Agent General for reparations and put a speedy end to the occupation of the Rhineland by the allied forces.

The new plan is for replacement of the Dawes scheme by arrangements based on the marketing of 16,000,000,000 gold marks' worth of railway and industrial bonds which have already been marked as security for German payments under the Dawes plan. These bonds are redeemable in thirty-six years and normally could be placed, it is believed, in Berlin at 70% of their full value.

Germany argues that the Allies would gain by accepting, instead of the yearly Dawes payments, these bonds in one block or even several sections.

The attitude of France is said to be not unfavorable. It is recognized, however, that the last word in the matter lies with London and New York, as the bonds could be liquidated only with the assistance of Lombard and Wall Streets.

Steps have been taken to discover the views of American and British financiers on the subject. It is understood that their views are unfavorable to immediate revision of the Dawes plan, but if the general strike had not intervened, there would have been negotiations in London bearing directly on the question.

Montagu Norman, head of the Bank of England, and Benjamin Strong, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank at New York, are, it is understood, being kept fully informed by Herr Schacht of Germany's course in the matter.

Agreement for Funding of Jugoslavian War Indebtedness to United States.

Along with his statement before the House Ways and Means Committee on May 20 regarding the arrangements for the funding of the French war indebtedness to the United States, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon also at the same time told of the agreement which had been entered into for the settlement of Jugoslavia's debt to the United States. The agreement in the latter case was reached at Washington on May 1. The negotiations for the adjustment of the Jugoslavian debt were brought under way in January between the members of the World War Foreign Debt Commission and the Jugoslavian Commission, headed by Dr. Milan Stoyadinovitch, Minister of Finance for Jugoslavia, but were temporarily halted on Feb. 17 when Dr. Stoyadinovitch was compelled to return home to take charge of his budget in Parliament. It was stated at that time that the other members of the delegation would remain here to complete the negotiations. The negotiations were renewed on April 26 and the signing of the agrement at Washington on May 1 was made known in the following announcement by the World War Foreign Debt Commission:

The American Commission has reached an agreement with Dr. George Diouritch, Commissioner of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, for the settlement of the indebtedness of his Government to the United States. The amount to be funded has been calculated on the same basis as in the other debt settlements at 4½% interest to Dec. 15 1922, and at 3% interest thereafter until June 15 1925, as of which date the debt is funded.

The total to be funded after a cash payment to adjust the amount to round the figures is $62,850,000. Of this amount $51,037,886 39 represents principal and $11,812,113 61 the accrued interest to the date of the settlement.

The agreement provides for annuities commencing with $200,000 a year for the first five years, increasing $25,000 a year during the succeeding seven years. For the remaining years payments on account of principal increase annually. Commencing with the thirteenth year interest is fixed at one-eighth of 1% for three years; one-half of 1% for the succeeding 14 years; 1% for the following three years; 2% for the next three years, and 3½% during the last 27 years of the period.

The basis of settlement has been the repayment of the principal in full and payment of interest in accordance with the capacity of Jugoslavia to pay. The present value of the payments on a 4¼% basis is $20,236,715, or about 32% of the debt funded.

In his statement on May 20 before the House Ways and Means Committee, Secretary Mellon had the following to say regarding the settlement with the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes:

The amount of the indebtedness to be funded was calculated on the same basis as in the other debt settlements, at 4¼% interest to Dec. 15 1922 and at 3% interest thereafter until June 15 1925, as of which date the debt is funded. The total to be funded, after allowing for a cash payment of $7,112 39 to adjust the amount to round figures, is $62,850,000. Of this amount $51,037,886 39 represents principal and $11,812,113 61 the accrued interest to the date of settlement. A schedule of annuities is attached.

Under the agreement Jugoslavia is to pay an annuity of $200,000 a year for the first five years, increasing $25,000 a year for the succeeding seven years. For the remaining 50 years payments on account of principal increase annually. Commencing with the thirteenth year interest is fixed at one-eighth of 1% for three years; one-half of 1% for the next 14 years; 1% for the next three years; 2% for the next three years, and 3½% for the last 27 years of the debt-funding period.

The total payments to be received under the settlement are $95,177,635. The present value of the payments on a 4½% basis is $20,236,000, or about 32% of the debt funded. On a 3% basis the present value is $30,286,000, or about 59% of the principal amount of the $51,000,000 Jugoslav debt.

The settlement is made on the basis of Jugoslavia's capacity to pay. Although the country received considerable additions of territory as a result of the war, it is relatively poor and its standard of living is much the lowest of any of our debtors. It is almost totally lacking in natural resources; its agriculture is poorly developed and its industries are negligible. With the exception of 1924, its balance of trade in recent years has been adverse. The country was overrun and devastated several times during the war. The work of reconstruction has been carried on but slowly, the cost being met chiefly from German reparations. Railroad facilities already inadequate, have been only temporarily restored. In an agricultural country without natural resources and lacking capital, increase in wealth must necessarily be slow. The commission feels that the settlement arrived at is fair and just to both countries.

Ecuador Monetary Crisis Over—Closed Bank Reopens.

From the New York "Journal of Commerce" of May 15 we take the following:

The American Manufacturers' Foreign Credit Insurance Exchange announces that the Legation of Ecuador at Washington has received a cable from Quito to the effect that the Banco Comercial y Agricola of Guayaquil, one of the four institutions closed by Government decree some weeks ago, and the only one that remained closed, was now open.

Advices received by the Department of Commerce and the Consulate-General of Ecuador in New York City as late as May 8 indicated that the difficulties between the bank and the Government had been straightened out, and that the bank would reopen on May 10 or in the week of May 10. There are many checks issued by the Banco Commercial y Agricola or its depositors in payment for American merchandise, which have not been honored by their New York correspondents while the bank remained closed. Most of the interested banks had arranged to be advised promptly of the reopening of the Banco Comercial y Agricola, and the failure to be apprised of the reopening was causing some concern in New York.

The Banco Comercial y Agricola is, according to official advices, now transacting business as usual.

A reference to the monetary crisis appeared in our issue of April 17, page 2130.

Denial of Reports Regarding Depreciation of Russian Chervonetz.

The following letter from the Russian Information Bureau is self-explanatory:

RUSSIAN INFORMATION BUREAU.

Washington, D. C., May 18 1926.

Editor, Commercial and Financial Chronicle, New York City.

Dear Sir: I am compelled to trespass on your attention again, this time in regard to the article on Soviet currency in your issue of May 15, page 2734, reprinted from "Le Temps Russe," Paris, of April 14.

This article states:

1. That while the gold value of the chervonetz has not dropped abroad, it has fallen at home. The depreciation is not yet noticed abroad because only speculators are interested.

2. That the silver currency is disappearing from circulation in the Soviet Union.

3. That "the Soviet printing press is working day and night and literally inundates the country with" diluted paper chervonetz money.

There are other points, but it is sufficient to discuss these.

1. Soviet currency is quoted officially on the exchanges of Esthonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Italy, Turkey, Persia, China and Mongolia. In its issue of April 27 the "Financial Gazette" (Moscow) gives a summary of the situation on these exchanges during March. In these countries the only drop below parity was a fractional temporary drop from 26.40 lat to 26.20 lat on the Riga, Latvia, exchange, during the first few days of March. From March 4 on the chervonetz resumed its regular quotation of 26.40-26.75 lat, purchase and sale.

As a sample of the summaries, I quote that of the Italian exchanges: "In view of the present stability of the lira fluctuations of the chervonetz on the Italian exchanges (during March) were extremely small and did not exceed the fluctuations of the pound sterling or the United States dollar. Thus in Rome, the lowest quotation was 127.53 lira, the highest 128.17 lira, of the dollar, respectively, 24.83 lira and 24.91 lira. The arbitrage of these quotations into gold gives 9 rubles 98 copecks to 10 rubles 2 copecks in chervonetz. Other stock exchanges did not differ from Rome, save that quotations were somewhat higher."

I do not see how the chervonetz could be at parity on these foreign exchanges and materially below parity at home. It would not seem possible. I inclose the domestic quotations of chervontzi on the Moscow Stock Exchange during the last half of March as given in the printed statement of the Issue Department of the State Bank. They show no drop.

2. The volume of silver currency in circulation in the Soviet Union has steadily increased since Oct. 1 last, at the beginning of the present fiscal year. The figures, as we have received them from time to time from the Commissariat for Finances, are as follows:

	Silver Currency in Rubles.
Oct. 1	136,114,000
Jan. 1	141,947,800
April 1	144,202,300

3. During recent months, instead of "printing presses working night and day," note issue has steadily declined. Chervonetz issues are made by the State Bank. These issues outstanding, according to reports of the Issue Department of the State Bank periodically received by us, are as follows:

	Chervontzi (1 Ch.=10 Rubles)
Oct. 1	75,664,026
Jan. 1	78,136,357
Feb. 1	75,992,262
Mar. 1	75,891,932
April 1	72,408,824
May 1	73,463,079

On May 1 the Issue Department reported assets of gold in coin and bars, platinum and foreign currency of 22,695,149 chervontzi.

Treasury bills in circulation showed a similar decline. According to the Treasury reports of the periods they were: Jan. 1, 387,737,300 rubles; April 1, 355,766,200 rubles. So much for point 3.

The "Temps" article also states that the purchasing power of the chervonetz has dropped 50%. I have as yet no immediate data on this. While there was probably some rise of prices during the recent months of financial stringency (due to overcalculation in the grain export campaign), a 50% drop in the purchasing power of the chervonetz seems ridiculous.

A story similar to the "Le Temps Russe" article was recently reprinted in the New York "World" from a Berlin source. How do such stories originate? For some time Russian emigres of a certain class have done a thriving business in Western European capitals vending bogus Soviet documents and bogus translations from Soviet publications. My guess would be that the "Le Temps Russe" story and the Berlin story had some such synthetic origin. One of these fabricating gentlemen was exposed and arrested by the Berlin police a few months ago.

Very truly yours,
HAROLD KELLOCK, Stastical Director.

A. Fineberg, representative in this city of the State Bank of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, has also furnished us the following statement giving the amount of currency in circulation on the 1st of each month since the beginning of 1926. It will be observed that it shows a substantial reduction during this period in (1) the volume of State Bank notes in circulation, having a gold coverage, and (2) in the amount of Treasury notes in circulation, while (3) the amount of silver coins in circulation has been gradually rising.

Increase in Russian Iron Ore Production and in Beet Sugar Output.

Iron ore production in the Soviet Union for the first half of the current fiscal year, Oct. 1 to April 1, in the three principal producing regions, was 1,474,700 metric tons, as compared with 787,000 tons for the same period last year, according to a bulletin received by the Russian Information Bureau. The increase was 87%. The regional output was as follows: Krivoi Rog, 1,017,500 tons; Ural, 421,500 tons; Central Region, 35,700 tons. During the same period, according to statistics of the Supreme Economic Council, the value of the output of the metal industry of the Soviet Union was $187,202,500, an increase of 64% over the same period of last year.

Beet sugar production in the Soviet Union during the operating season of 1925 was 960,650 tons, as compared with 491,400 tons in 1924 and 1,513,000 tons as the four-year prewar average, according to a bulletin received by the Russian Information Bureau. During the year 118 factories were in operation, including 15 co-operative factories. During the present year it is planned to spend $26,000,000 on re-equipment and extensions in the industry. With the increasing production imports of sugar ceased during the latter part of last year.

Economic Plan of Russian Soviet Union for Current Fiscal Year Calls for Drastic Cuts.

Details of the drastic cuts in the export-import plan of the Soviet Government for the current fiscal year ending Sept. 30 next, made necessary by disappointments in the internal grain purchasing situation, have been received by the Russian Information Bureau here. The reports received include the full text of recent speeches by Rykov, Chairman of the Council of Commissars, and Djerzinsky, Chairman of the Supreme Economic Council. The Bureau's statement says:

The foreign trade program for the year, fixed last summer at $1,089,137,000, has been cut to $723,575,000, a reduction of about one-third. Under the revised program the turnover for this year will be 12% greater than that of the year 1924-25. Exports will be $370,800,000 and imports $352,775,000, giving a safe favorable margin. Imports have been cut all along the line save in the case of industrial machinery, where the outlay of $48,110,000 in the original plan has been increased to $55,290,000.

The original economic plan adopted for the fiscal year contemplated an increase of 49% in industrial production over last year. This has been cut to 39%. Instead of $500,000,000, as originally planned, $412,000,000 will be spent on new factories and equipment in the principal industries.

In explaining the situation, Rykov, as translated by the Russian Information Bureau, says:

"We made a number of miscalculations and mistakes in our grain purchases. As a result we planned to live on what proved to be beyond our means. Hence it has been necessary to economize, to cut down our program, to make both ends meet. None the less, in spite of the sharp reductions, our progress shows an advance that could not be matched by any other country in Europe.

"There is no scarcity of grain for internal consumption. On the other hand, the lack of industrial goods is felt everywhere. This is our most serious embarrassment, and it has contributed to upset the agricultural market. Though the output of our industries increased 63% last year over the previous year, it could not keep up with the increased purchasing power of the population. Fortunately we have large reserves in unused plants and equipment. This year these reserves will be fully brought to service. Hereafter the increase of industrial production must be effected through new construction and equipment."

Foreign Trade Figures of Russian Soviet Union for Six Months to April 1.

The foreign trade turnover of the Soviet Union for the first six months of the Soviet fiscal year, Oct. 1 to April 1, was $352,675,000, as compared with $238,973,000 for the same period last year, an increase of 48%, according to preliminary customs figures received by the Russian Information Bureau, and made public May 22. Exports were $158,730,000, and imports $194,302,000, giving a passive balance of $35,572,000. Exports for March, the last month of the period, showed a big advance, 70% over January and 33% over February, and giving a favorable trade balance for the month of $212,000. Exports of wheat for March were $4,138,000, nearly triple the figure for February, and marked gains were shown in other foodstuffs, furs and manganese ore.

'No Peasants in America"—Court Refuses to Incorporate Body Using Class Name in Title.

From the New York "Times" of April 29 we take the following:

Supreme Court Justice William B. Carswell in Brooklyn denied yesterday an application for a certificate of incorporation for an organization to be known as the Colonial Association of Russian Workers and Peasants of America, on the ground that no part of the population of the United States is classified as peasantry. "Such a distinction is foreign to our soil," Justice Carswell said.

According to the petition, the organization was to "concern itself with the political welfare of workers and farmers in the United States who emigrated from Russia."

Concerning it, Justice Carswell said, "these petitioners swear they are citizens of the United States, but the title of their proposed organization shows that the spirit of American institutions has left them untouched. They need education in Americanism."

Offering of Province of Styria, Republic of Austria, Bonds.

The issue was quickly subscribed for. $1,000,000 of bonds were withdrawn for sale simultaneously in Austria and Switzerland. The bonds are dated Feb. 1 1926 and due Feb. 1 1946. Interest payable February 1 and August 1. Non-redeemable except for sinking fund prior to Feb. 1 1931. Redeemable as a whole or in part on 30 days' notice at the option of the Province on Feb. 1 1931, or any interest date thereafter prior to Feb. 1 1932 at 102½; thereafter at ½% less each year to and including Aug. 1 1935; thereafter at 100; in every case together with accrued interest to the date of redemption. Principal and interest payable in time of war or peace, irrespective of the nationality or residence of the holder, at the office of International Acceptance Securities & Trust Co., trustee, in New York City in United States gold coin of or equal to the standard of weight and fineness existing Feb. 1 1926, without deduction for any Austrian taxes, present or outure. Coupon bonds in denoms. of $1,000, $500 and $100. Denoms. of $1,000 registerable as to principal. The Austrian Minister of Finance is said to have approved the making of this loan by the Province of Styria.

The bankers offering the bonds in their circular say the following has been summarized from the loan contract, official documents, and other sources.

General.—The Province of Styria, an autonomous state of the Austrian Republic, has an area of 6,329 square miles, one and one quarter times that of Connecticut. The population, slightly under one million inhabitants of almost pure Germanic stock, possesses an industrial skill and technique which are the growth of generations of experience.

Forests comprise about fifty per cent of the area of the Province; eight per cent is either unproductive or city property, the balance consisting of cultivated soil, meadows, pastures, gardens and vineyards. Forestry and agriculture are important and occupy about one half the population. Small and medium sized properties predominate throughout the Province. Styrian forest resources are the richest in Austria and form the basis for an extensive lumber, furniture, pulp and paper industry.

Styria is the chief mining and metal working Province of Austria. Practically every product known to the iron and steel industry is produced in Styria. The iron mines have been known for the purity of their ore since the days when "Nordic Iron" was first introduced to the markets of the Roman Empire. Ore reserves are estimated to be ample for centuries to come.

Styria is possessed of excellent hydro-electric resources. Their development during the past five years has been rapid and, although the comprehensive program for the Province is as yet only in the first stages of completion, it already comprises one sixth the total Austrian water power development.

Transportation facilities are good and afford direct access to the principal Austrian and foreign markets. Graz, the second largest city of Austria, is the capital of Styria and the commercial and industrial center of Southern Austria.

Security.—These bonds will be the direct general obligation of the Province of Styria and in addition will be specifically secured by:

(1) a first charge on the revenues derived from the real estate taxes.

(2) a first charge on the share of the Province in federal taxes and

(3) in case the above mentioned taxes shall be less than four times the service charges of this loan, as further security, a first charge on such other revenues and taxes as shall be required to produce an amount equal to four times the total annual interest and amortization charges on these bonds.

(4) a first lien on real estate, shares, and securities owned by the Province having an aggregate estimated value of over twice the amount of the loan.

Pledged Revenues.—The revenues of the Province of Styria derived from the real estate taxes and the provincial share of Federal taxes, which are pledged to the payment of principal, interest and sinking fund of this loan have been as follows:

1925	809,885	1,378,958	2,188,843

The total of the taxes pledged to the security of this loan, in 1925 was equal to over 6 times the maximum interest charges and to approximately 5 times the annual average interest and sinking fund payments.

The average of the total pledged taxes for the last three years has amounted to over 5 times the maximum interest charges of this loan and to over 4 times the annual average interest and sinking fund payments.

The principal revenues of the Province are the real estate taxes and the provincial share in Federal revenues. The real estate taxes are the basic taxes of the provinces of the Republic of Austria and are similar to real estate taxes in the United States taking the same precedence over mortgages and all other liens.

The provincial share of Federal taxes represents a percentage allocated to the provinces in certain taxes collected by the Federal Government. The principal taxes thus shared, and the percentage of each allocated to the provinces, are 25% of the income, trade and corporation taxes, 15% of the stamp and beverage taxes, 40% of the transfer tax and 20% of the sales tax.

Finances.—The Province has no external debt other than this loan. Its total internal funded and floating debt amounts to less than $775,000. Revenues and expenditures for the past three years have been as follows:

	Revenues.	Expenditures.	Surplus.
1923	$4,108,022	$3,741,894	$366,128
1924	5,747,875	5,405,217	342,658
1925	5,589,671	5,349,571	240,100

The estimated value of agricultural and industrial properties in Styria is in excess of $450,000,000 as compared with the total debt, inclusive of this loan, $5,775,000.

The finances of the Austrian provinces, in accordance with the law of July 30 1925, are audited by the Federal Audit Office. This measure insures a careful check of provincial finances.

Purpose of Issue.—The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be used by the Province mainly for the following purposes:

(1) the developing of hydro-electric properties in which the Province has a substantial interest.

(2) for extension and improvement of provincial railways.

(3) for secured loans for the development of the dairy industry and the improvement of agriculture.

(4) for secured loans to municipalities for productive purposes.

Sinking Fund and Redemption.—The entire issue is to be retired by maturity through the operation of a sinking fund commencing Aug. 1 1926.

Sinking fund moneys will be applied semi-annually to the redemption of bonds drawn by lot at par. The Province may surrender bonds purchased in the open market at their principal amount in lieu of sinking fund payments.

The Trust indenture will provide that bonds of this issue are non-redeemable except for sinking fund prior to Feb. 1 1931. On that date or any interest date thereafter prior to Feb. 1 1932 at the option of the Province and upon 30 days published notice bonds may be called for payment in whole or in part at 102½ and accrued interest; thereafter at ½% less each year to and including Aug. 1 1935; thereafter to maturity at 100.

The Economic Recovery of Austria.—The economic progress of Austria in the past three years has exceeded all expectation. The budget has been balanced, a national bank of issue organized, the currency stabilized, and production in both agriculture and industry is expanding

Less than one-fifth of the League of Nations loan of $125,000,000 was used for meeting national expenditures during the years 1923 and 1924 as against a possible estimated requirement of $100,000,000. The surplus of revenues over expenditures in 1925, after providing $11,000,000 for capital investments, amounted to $5,000,000.

The Austrian currency, stabilized in 1922, has remained practically without fluctuation since that date. The Austrian National Bank, which has the sole right of note issue in Austria and is independent of governmental treasury requirements, has demonstrated its ability to maintain a proper reserve of gold and foreign exchange against its note circulation and other liabilities. The present reserve ratio is approximately 63%. The discount rate has been steadily reduced during the past eighteen months, a period during which reserve ratios have risen almost continuously.

Offering of $1,000,000 Farm Loan Bonds of North Carolina Land Bank.

An offering of $1,000,000 of 5% Farm Loan Bonds of the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank of Durham was made this week by Dillon, Read & Co., and the Old Colony Corporation. The bonds are dated March 1 1926, and redeemable as a whole or in part by lot on March 1 1936, or on any interest date thereafter at 100 and interest until maturity, March 1 1956. The offering price was 103 and accrued interest to net about 4.60% to optional date and 5% thereafter to redemption or maturity. The bonds like others of the same class are exempt from Federal, State, Municipal and Local taxation, under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act and are the direct obligation of the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank of Durham. They are secured by pledge of an equal face amount of first mortgages on farm lands and improvements in the best agricultural section of North Carolina and Virginia, upon valuations determined by appraisers appointed with the approval of the Federal Farm Loan Board at Washington, or by deposit of United States Government securities.

Southgate Jones is President of the bank, and from his letter to the bankers we make the following excerpts:

The North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank was chartered in July, 1922 to operate in the States of North Carolina and Virginia. The territory which it now serves consists of 87 of the leading agricultural counties of these two States.

The outstanding loans made by the bank to May 8 1926 have been on a basis of 30.3% of the total value of the farms mortgaged as determined by appraisers appointed with the approval of the Federal Farm Loan Board.

The Federal Farm Loan Board receives monthly reports of the condition of the bank which is examined at least twice a year by Government examiners who are subject to the same requirements, responsibilities and penalties as are applicable to national bank examiners. Notwithstanding this strict supervision the bank enjoys the advantages of private ownership and management.

The paid-in capital stock of $600,000 par value as of April 30 1926 provides additional protection. The capital stock carries with it the double liability of stockholders as in the case of national bank stocks.

Below are given essential statistics of outstanding loans as of May 8 1926:

Total amount loaned	$10,614,100 00
Acreage covered by loans	440,296 acres

Defeat of Haugen Bill and Other Farm Relief Bills in House.

The defeat in the House on May 21 of the Haugen farm relief bill cleared the House legislative calendar of all farm proposals, as the two other bills—the Tincher credit plan and the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing bill—were withdrawn during the discussion that day of the Haugen bill. The defeat of the Haugen bill, by a vote of 212 in opposition to 167 in its favor, was noted in our issue of a week ago, page 2898. The Associated Press advices in their account of the House proceedings on May 21 said:

After the adverse vote on the Haugen bill, Representative Tilson, the Republican leader, announced that the next move was up to the Agriculture Committee.

Representative Aswell of Louisiana, ranking Democrat on the Committee and co-author of the Curtis-Aswell proposal, said he would attempt to obtain a favorable report on a compromise measure containing the principal provisions of his and the Tincher bill. He had such an amalgamated bill ready for presentation to-day, but the parliamentary situation prevented its consideration. He predicted that the two measures combined would command sufficient strength to pass.

The vote on the Haugen bill, which embraces the relief plan of farm organizations from the corn belt and was not in accord with recommendations of Secretary Jardine, came after a series of motions that tied the House in a parliamentary knot and kept it in an uproar.

Chairman Madden of the Appropriations Committee moved to recommit the bill to the Agriculture Committee, and after a long wrangle over whether this motion was in order Representative Mapes, Republican, Michigan, presiding, was sustained in his ruling that it was proper.

At first on a standing vote the House, 197 to 176, ordered the bill recommitted. A vote by tellers then was demanded, and by a narrower margin, 171 to 166, the House voted again to recommit, members filing up the centre aisle to indicate their vote.

The parliamentary way finally was cleared for a roll call vote on the question, and then, as they went on record, enough members switched to make the result 182 to 200 against referring the bill back to committee. A roll call on final passage was then ordered.

After defeat of the Haugen bill, Mr. Aswell attempted to bring up his proposal as a substitute, but Speaker Longworth ruled it out of order in view of the previous withdrawal of this measure and the Tincher proposal.

The Haugen bill called for a subsidy by the Government in the form of a revolving fund of $175,000,000 with a view to stabilizing the prices of farm products. In reporting its defeat the New York "Times" dispatch from Washington, May 21 said in part:

The plan of the Farm Blocs to apply the principle of subsidy with a view to stimulating agriculture was rejected largely because of the knowledge that if it reached the White House it would be vetoed by President Coolidge.

The Haugen bill was fought tooth and nail by Administration leaders, who privately expressed the opinion tonight that to-day's action puts a quietus on farm relief legislation at least for another year.

The defeat of the Haugen bill, the measure backed by the corn belt, was accomplished by a combination of 121 Republicans joining with 89 Democrats and 2 Socialists. Of the 167 who voted for the bill there were 98 Republicans, 66 Democrats and 3 Farmer-Labor members. There were 55 absentees. One member voted "present."

While all party alignments were knocked helter-skelter on the roll-call, the prediction was made by Democratic leaders that failure of the Haugen bill would lead to Republican defeat at the polls in November.

Farm Blocs Hold Council To-day.

Although the bill provided that $75,000,000 of the total appropriation of $175,000,000 should be allotted to stabilize cotton prices, less than thirty Democrats from the cotton producing States voted for the measure.

Just what course the Farm Bloc in the House will follow in view of to-day's rout has not been definitely decided. Its spokesmen insist that there is still time before adjournment to effect a compromise on a bill that would draw a sufficient number of votes to assure victory.

The fight for the farmer may be renewed in the Senate. A conference of the Farm Blocs in the two houses will be held to-morrow to take stock of the situation and to determine just what should be done.

In the meantime word has been passed around by Republicans who profess to speak for the Administration that if the farm bloc brings another bill into the House it must be devoid of the subsidy provision rejected to-day or it will meet a like fate.

Oldfield Predicts Farm Revolt.

Immediately following to-day's vote Representative Oldfield of Arkansas, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, issued a statement in which he declared that the Republican Party could not escape responsibility for the defeat of the measure and adding that "President Coolidge does not want and never has wanted the farmers of the country to get the relief or consideration to which they are entitled.

"This was apparent when Chairman Madden of the Appropriations Committee led a fight to recommit the bill in which he had the active support of Majority Leader Tilson, the quiet acquiescence of Speaker Longworth, and the backing of other leaders on the Republican side." Mr. Oldfield continued:

"The threatened political revolt of the farmers will become a reality. It can and will have but one effect—Democratic victory at the polls this Fall."

Two Other Bills Withdrawn.

To-day's vote came as the climax to a three weeks' debate in which two other bills as well as the one sponsored by Representative Gilbert N. Haugen of Iowa were involved.

The Tincher bill, endorsed by the Administration and the Curtis-Aswell bill, which carried out the principles of what is known as the Yoakum co-operative marketing plan, were withdrawn to-day at the height of the discussion over the Haugen bill.

Representative Madden led to-day's fight against the Haugen bill as the spokesman for the Administration forces. In the preliminary skirmishes the farm bloc won, and it was especially cheered when the House, by a vote of 200 to 182, defeated a motion to recommit the Haugen bill to the Committee on Agriculture.

The session was one of the liveliest witnessed in the House since Congress met last December. The temporary victories of the farm bloc were hailed with whoops and catcalls while the rejection of the Haugen bill was greeted by a mighty cheer in which Republicans and Democrats joined.

Farm bloc members were chagrined over the failure of the Haugen bill. Representative Dickinson, Republican of Iowa, declared that his party missed a great opportunity when it failed to adopt the Corn Belt plan. He feared it would result in party defeat in November and that it might lead to the election of a Democratic President in 1928. He said that all through the fight it was the "Haugen bill or nothing" and that was still his position. Mr. Dickinson said that he was still hopeful that a measure approximating the Haugen bill would be passed.

Tincher Charge "Propaganda Poison."

Representative Tincher of Kansas, sponsor of the Administration bill, said:

"The Aswell and Tincher bills are both on the calendar. All this propaganda out of Washington has been used to poison the farmer against the Tincher bill and Secretary of Agriculture Jardine.

Let the matter rest awhile and see if the farmers really want legislation. If they do, we'll give them something—without anything like the Haugen subsidy."

Representative Begg of Ohio, right-hand man of Speaker Longworth, agreed with Mr. Tincher, saying: "The next move is up to the farmers."

Representative Snell of New York, whose entire delegation opposed the Haugen bill, said that another attempt should be made to pass a farm relief bill, but he failed to indicate the kind of measure he favored.

Representative Aswell, Democrat of Louisiana, who fathered the Yoakum plan, made this statement:

"I doubt whether either my bill or the Tincher bill is on the calendar. It would seem to me that their heads have been chopped off, but I will try to get a combination Aswell and Tincher bill through at this session."

Already Senators from agricultural States are active in the Senate. Senators and Representatives from the Middle West are loath to enter the next campaign confessing defeat to the farmers.

A two-hour speech on the subject was made to-day by Senator Gooding of Iowa. Senator McNary of Oregon, joint author of the McNary-Haugen bill, which was defeated in the last Congress, will bring up the question in the Senate next week. Mr. McNary is one of the several Western Senators who are willing to keep Congress in session indefinitely in the hope of passing a farm relief measure.

On May 20 when the reading of the Haugen bill had been concluded in the House, the Tincher credit bill had been offered as a substitute, the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing bill having later in the day been brought forward as a substitute for the Tincher proposal. The Associated Press advices of that day stated:

This placed all three of the farm bills reported by the Agriculture Committee formally before the House.

Meanwhile Representative Aswell, Democrat, of Louisiana, co-author of the Curtis-Aswell bill, announced that he proposed to amend the measure by inserting authorization for a farm loan fund of $140,000,000.

This amount would be in addition to the $10,000,000 already proposed by the bill for administrative purposes. Should the amendment prevail, the bill would be similar in a number of respects to the Tincher proposal, which would authorize a farm loan fund of $100,000,000.

Since consideration of the Haugen measure with its price stabilization features, the Tincher and Aswell camps have been negotiating for a compromise, and it was indicated to-night that the Tincher group would support the Aswell bill if the $140,000,000 proposal was approved.

Before finishing the reading of the Haugen measure to-day, the House adopted an amendment eliminating the provision empowering the President to declare an embargo on the importation of any agricultural product. This was approved without a record vote and without discussion.

Another amendment, offered by Representative Black, Democrat, of New York, designed to permit brewing of 2.75% beer and its sale under such regulations as might be prescribed by the Federal Farm Board which the Haugen bill would create, was rejected on a point of order.

Representative Dowell, Republican, of Iowa, and several others attempted to take Mr. Black off his feet with points of order and it was with difficulty that he presented his proposal.

As the reading of the Haugen bill drew to a close, a half dozen or so amendments were rejected, among them one by Representative Newton, Republican, of Minnesota, to strike out the proposed appropriation of $175,000,000.

The House, however, did adopt one by Representative Jones, Democrat, of Texas, to extend the proposed equalization fee to be levied on basic agricultural commodities to meats or products of these commodities held in cold storage.

The New British Rubber Restrictions.

Resumption of British restrictions on crude rubber exports is likely to cause further conservation of rubber in America, according to the "Index" published by the New York Trust Company. Resumption of restrictions on crude rubber exports from British colonies will begin Aug. 1 if the average price on the London market falls below 42 cents for the quarter beginning May 1. This will undoubtedly place further emphasis on conservation of rubber in America, where 70% of the world's production is consumed. The "Index" continues as follows:

In the first four months of 1926 the United States imported 148,119 tons of crude rubber against 114,561 tons for the same period last year. Consumption during these periods was reported by the Rubber Association of America at 128,955 and 121,035 tons, respectively. During the first four months of 1926, however, manufacturers used 40,439 tons of reclaimed rubber against 25,095 tons for the same period in 1925. Thus, while the consumption of crude rubber increased slightly more than 6%, the use of reclaimed rubber increased more than 61%.

The Rubber Association estimates the crude rubber production for the entire year of 1926 at 575,000 tons, of which 70%, or roughly 400,000 tons, will normally be purchased in America, which last year imported 385,000 tons. This would mean an increase of approximately 4% in America's consumption of crude rubber. However, to care for a further normal increase in the use of rubber in the United States, American manufacturers will use 190,000 tons of reclaimed rubber in 1926 against 129,000 tons in 1925, an increase of more than 45%, according to Rubber Association estimates.

Department of Commerce figures show that American automobile users reduced their consumption of tires almost 25% during the rubber conservation campaign which started last December, despite the fact that there was an increase of nearly 3,000,000 in the number of automobiles in use as compared with the previous year.

Growing Use of Reclaimed Rubber.

This use of reclaimed rubber, together with increased stocks on hand in London and a lack of demand from owners for tire and casing replacements, has served to reduce the price of raw rubber in London. The British Government accordingly has announced a revision of the Stevenson Plan, contingent on price conditions during the three months beginning May 1. Whereas the original restrictions were planned to maintain the price at 15 pence, the new method of output restriction will go into effect should the price fall below 21 pence (42 cents).

The new plan temporarily relieves the larger rubber plantations from all restrictions, provided the established price level is maintained. During this period the percentage of standard production is fixed at 100% of actual capacity to produce. The previous maximum limit of 500 pounds an acre on estates of more than 25 acres is abolished. Furthermore, the maximum limit of standard production on smaller holdings is raised to 500 pounds an acre for mature rubber and 200 pounds an acre for rubber in bearing, but not mature. The larger estates are, therefore, particularly benefited by this ruling.

However, should the price fall below an average of 42 cents on the London market, a restriction to 80% of capacity will be imposed on all plantations for three months beginning Aug. 1. In view of the fact that the British Colonial Office under the original Stevenson Plan set 30 cents as a fair price, this new rate represents a considerable increase in what was formerly considered a reasonable price for rubber.

The large increase in American imports of raw materials as compared with imports of manufactures is due to a considerable extent to the use of rubber in this country. Measured in value, crude rubber is the leading import of the United States. During 1925 this country imported $430,000,000 in crude rubber, against $174,000,000 for 1924. During the first quarter of this year imports were valued at $201,891,102 in raw rubber, or nearly half of the total amount imported in 1925. Price increases were, of course, largely responsible.

Undoubtedly, continued price-fixing restrictions by foreign countries will stimulate efforts to secure American-controlled rubber lands, either on this continent or in the Philippines.

Trading in American Telephone Rights on the New York Stock Exchange in Sixteenths.

There has been so much interest in Wall Street and throughout the country in the new issue of American Telephone & Telegraph stocks, in which rights to subscribe are offered to present holders, says the New York "Times," that the Stock Exchange started yesterday printing the rights quotations in one-sixteenth fractions. Most of the sales of the rights have been at $6 or fractionally above that. This recalls, to the "Times," that even smaller fractions than the sixteenth have been traded in many times on the Stock Exchange. For instance, the Vivaudou rights, traded n last year, at one time sold at one-one hundred and twenty-eighths, while both the du Pont and Pan-American Petroleum rights sold at one-sixty-fourth. The effect of these transactions was to call for some extremely fancy calculations in brokerage offices.

Cincinnati Stock Exchange Seats Rising.

The price of Cincinnati Stock Exchange seats attained a new high record when a Treasury seat sold at $10,000. The seat was purchased by S. F. Stephenson, of Stephenson & Potter, investment dealers, in the Traction Building Cincinnati, O. Three years ago seats on the Cincinnati Stock Exchange brought only $3,900.

The membership of the Cincinnati Stock Exchange has increased from 35 to 46 in the last year and a half. Mr. Stephenson, who paid $10,000 for his seat is the son-in-law of the late Briggs Cunningham, well known Cincinnati banker. The firm of S. F. Stephenson recently was changed to a co-partnership between S. F. Stephenson and John P. Potter, to transact business under the name of Stephenson & Potter. Mr. Potter is from New York City, and was formerly in charge of the Municipal wholesale bond department of the Guaranty Trust Co.

Bankers' Acceptances Made Legal Investments for Life Insurance Companies.

[From the "Acceptance Bulletin" of April 30 1926.]

With the recent signing by Governor Smith of the Kennedy bill, passed by the New York State Legislature, making bank and bankers' acceptances a legal investment for life insurance companies, the potential market for such bills has been materially broadened.

This is a constructive piece of legislation which the American Acceptance Council has been advocating for several years and which finally has been brought to a successful conclusion. Much of the credit for its now being on the statute books is due to Hon. James A. Beha, State Superintendent of Insurance, who gave the measure his wholehearted support, carrying with it the weight of the State Insurance Department. With his characteristic straightforward, constructive attitude, Mr. Beha approached the subject with open-mindedness. In his own thorough way he set about investigating the proposal, seeking expert counsel in both the banking and insurance fields, as well as outside of both. Convinced that the measure was one of meritorious nature, he lost no time in strongly advocating its enactment. And it speedily was enacted.

The bill in brief amends the law covering investments of life insurance companies by which they are now permitted to invest in "any bank and bankers' acceptances and other bills of exchange of the kind and maturity made eligible by law for purchase in the open market by Federal Reserve banks."

This opens up a new avenue for life insurance companies for employment of temporary surplus funds; for bank acceptances essentially are temporary investments, maturing as a rule in 90 days or less, with relatively few extending as long as four to six months. To what extent they will be used as such by the life companies is still to be determined, but no doubt as time goes on they will find an increasingly favored position in that field.

They will not, and it was never intended that they should, displace real estate mortgages or other classes of securities of the type which constitute permanent investments. To the alert mind of the manager of a life insurance company's investment funds many occasions will be presented when he can to the best advantage employ a temporary surplus in this safest and most liquid form of paper—bank and bankers' acceptances.

Advances in Bankers' Acceptance Rates.

Two advances within about a week in the rate on 90-day bills in the acceptance market were declared by bankers on May 26, says the New York "Times," to have been the result of events dating back to the middle of April, which are explained as follows:

When the Federal Reserve Bank of New York reduced its rediscount rate from 4 to 3½%, bill dealers took it as an indication that money was to be "dirt" cheap and lowered the bid and asked rates to levels which are now considered to have been too low. The rediscount rate cut resulted in shifting a large volume of Federal Reserve borrowing to New York and has caused easier conditions in the interior markets rather than here. The banks under these circumstances placed large quantities of acceptances with dealers. The latest advance, which placed 90-day bills on a 3½ to 3⅜% basis, was said to have been intended to restrain further selling of the bills to the dealers and to encourage purchases through the more attractive yield offered.

Conferees on McFadden Branch Banking Bill Said to Have Reached a Deadlock.

The conferees representing the Senate and House on the McFadden National Bank Bill came to a deadlock on May 27 over the question of branch banking and adjourned to meet again next Tuesday, says the Washington correspondent of the New York "Journal of Commerce" in the issue of that paper for May 28. At this session the whole matter was thrown open for discussion, but no conclusions were reached. It is added that if that day's session of the conferees alone was to be considered, it might be thought that it will be impossible to obtain any national bank legislation at this session of Congress, but Representative McFadden, chief sponsor of the bill, believes that he can present something next week to the conference that will meet with approval. It is understood that Deputy Comptroller of the Currency Collins has been asked to assist in arriving at an appropriate substitute for the Hull amendments, but so far as is known either nothing has been perfected or nothing has been presented for general consideration.

There are indications, says the "Journal of Commerce" correspondent, that the Senate amendment proposing indeterminate charters for the Federal Reserve banks will be the subject of considerable opposition on the part of the House conferees and that a move will be made to limit the life of the charters to a specific period. Once the branch banking situation is taken care of this question will come to the fore and joined with the two will be the changes made by the Senate in the House bill applying to interlocking directorates and national and State bank consolidations.

The House on May 25 sent to conference the McFadden National Bank bill under a promise made by Representative McFadden, Chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, that the membership would be given an opportunity to vote on any compromise agreement affecting the so-called Hull amendments. Mr. McFadden, with Edw. J. King of Illinois and Otis Wingo of Arkansas, were named managers on the part of the House. This action, says the New York "Journal of Commerce" correspondent at Washington, came only after considerable debate, during which Mr. Wingo, ranking Democratic member of the Banking Committee, predicted that unless the Senate agreed to the retention of the Hull amendments there would be no general bank legislation at this session of Congress. The correspondent adds:

Mr. Wingo charged the existence of a highly paid lobby intended to bring about unrestricted branch banking. He asserted that there had been much misinformation disseminated on the branch banking question, and that some of the Senators were not particularly familiar with the questions which they had discussed when the bill was before the Senate.

"Talk about misleading the House," he said. "Why, one witness went before the Senate Committee and he knew we had the goods on him, and he admitted he had been paid $45,000 to $50,000 by a little coterie of branch bankers who wanted to destroy independent banking. That shows you how seriously they take the Hull amendments. Do you suppose a little coterie of branch bankers would pay one man $50,000 to come to Washington to gather up data and fight the Hull amendments if they did not think they were vital Do you know Paul Warburg? Do you know W. P. G. Harding? You you know Julius Barnes?

Will Never Surrender.

"Gentlemen, you better wake up. I know the heart of this House as I know the heart of the Senate. They want to preserve independent unit banking in America. You can take me off the conference, if you like, but I state I will never surrender to the Senate on this, and if the Senate conferees insist upon it, that kills the whole question."

Mr. Wingo asserted that the Senate amendment striking out the Hull amendments is contrary to the philosophy of the House checking branch banking. The proponents of this action, he said, made the frank admission that the Senate action was retained and dictated by the branch banking lobby, whose high priced representatives they had in Washington.

"They frankly admit that they want to encourage branch banking," continued Mr. Wingo. "That is the difference between the House and the Senate. I think we can work out an agreement. The Senate was misled."

He declared unhesitatingly that the Senators did not know what they were talking about when they discussed branch banking and he presented two excerpts from speeches made on the subject.

"If we adopt the Hull amendments, we practically state to twenty-six States in the Union that they can do as they please; that they can have State-wide branches if they please; but if we eliminate the Hull amendments, we announce to these twenty-six States that, so far as the Government is concerned, they must confine their branches to the municipalities," one excerpt set forth.

The Bill Dead, Unless——.

"As one conferee I say to you that the bill is dead unless the Senate recedes from its amendment for, by the eternal Gods, I will never authorize the spread of branch banking in America."

Efforts were made to have the House instruct the House conferees to stand out for the adoption of the Hull amendments. Mr. McFadden and Representative Beedy of Maine, with others, urged against this on the ground that the Senate might refuse to enter into a conference when the House managers were instructed not to yield or enter into a compromise. Mr. McFadden stated that the House would be given an opportunity to vote on any restrictions on branch banking other than the Hull amendments. He expressed the belief that when the House voted on the Hull amendments, they did not know what they were voting upon.

The Senate conferees are Senators McLean of Connecticut, Edge of New Jersey, and Glass of Virginia.

Representative Strong Puts His Stabilization Proposals for the Federal Reserve Banks in More Precise Shape.

As a result of the hearings which the House Banking and Currency Committee has been giving to the proposal of James G. Strong for directing the Federal Reserve banks to conduct their operations always with a view to bringing about stability of prices, Mr. Strong has now drafted the phrascology of the amendment to the Federal Reserve Act by which the purpose he has in mind is to be achieved. Here is his letter bringing out that fact:

My dear Sir:—

At the beginning of the hearings before the Banking and Currency Committee of the House of Representatives on my bill, H. R. 7895, I announced that it was my intention to ask the various economists and financiers who appeared before the committee, and others, to suggest phraseology of the amendment to the Federal Reserve Act to carry out the purpose of the legislation proposed, which was, that the Congress should direct its agent, the Federal Reserve Board, and Federal Reserve System, to use all of its powers to the end that, so far as may be, inflation and deflation should be avoided and the stabilization of the general price level thereby secured.

As a result of such request and of my own study, I have worked out the following:

Amend the preamble so that it will read as follows:

"An Act to provide for the establishment of Federal Reserve banks, to furnish an elastic currency, to maintain the gold standard and the value of gold, to avoid inflation and deflation, to provide business and economic stability, to afford means for rediscounting commercial paper, to establish a more effective supervision of banking in the United States, and for other purposes."

Amend Paragraph (d) of Section 14 to read as follows:

"To establish from time to time, subject to review and determination of the Federal Reserve Board, rates of discount to be charged by the Federal Reserve bank for each class of paper."

Then add the following paragraph:

"(d 1) All the powers of the Federal Reserve Board as granted by this Act and of all Federal Reserve banks, committees, commissions, boards, agents and servants under its direction, supervision and control, including the open market operations and other activities, shall be directed to the purpose of preventing inflation and deflation and stabilizing the purchasing power of the dollar, so far as may be; Provided, that such powers shall be used to control the total volume of credit and currency in circulation and use, rather than the uses made of such credit; And provided further, That the Federal Reserve Board shall make a detailed and exhaustive study of all available plans, methods, devices and means known to economic science to bring about the complete stabilization of the dollar in its purchasing power, and shall report to the Congress, in its discretion, the results of such study, and shall recommend to the Congress any legislation in its judgment necessary and proper to permit said Federal Reserve Board to bring about such stabilization."

After Section 28 add the following:

"Section 28½. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the Congress that the primary function of the Federal Reserve System shall be to stabilize the general price level by stabilizing the purchasing power of the dollar, so far as may be possible consistent with sound economic principles."

J. P. Morgan Makes Gift of Beach Property Costing $500,000 to Glen Cove and Locust Valley as a Memorial to His Wife.

Mayor William H. Seaman, of Glen Cove, L. I., announced on May 26 that J. P. Morgan had given that town a sixteen-acre park on the beach of Long Island Sound for the use of residents of Glen Cove and Locust Valley. The gift is a memorial to Mr. Morgan's wife, Mrs. Jane Grew Morgan, who died last August. Glen Cove has had no beach front property except a twenty-foot right of way, although it is on the Sound. Mr. Seaman said he believed the formalities of accepting the gift would be completed the coming Monday and that the park would be opened that day. Mr. Morgan bought for the park the Hall property of six acres, and the Elsinore property of ten. He paid $500,000, it is stated, for the sixteen acres. The owners of the Elsinore property were Harvey S. Ladew and his sister, Mrs. William R. Grace. The Hall property was owned by these two and J. Harvey Ladew.

The new park is on the beach at the foot of Landing Road. It has a front of about 1,700 feet. Mr. Morgan had been negotiating for the property for some time. His letter to Mayor Seaman said:

I have for some time been considering the matter of an appropriate memorial for Mrs. Morgan. I have decided that there could be none more suitable and none which would give more reasonable pleasure and satisfaction to a large number of people than a park with a water front for the use and benefit of my friends and neighbors who inhabit Glen Cove and Locust Valley.

With the intention of establishing such a memorial park I have purchased from the owners of the Hall estate property including a pier and a beach at the foot of Landing Road and also ten acres of the Elsinore property, north of Landing Road, at the corner nearest the Hall property, making sixteen acres in all.

To be Morgan Memorial Park.

As soon as title in the land is transferred to me I will convey the property to trustees, to be held by them as the "Morgan Memorial Park" for the free use of the citizens of Glen Cove and Locust Valley. These trustees will arrange with the city authorities for the use of the park under such terms and conditions as may best secure to the people of the city the benefits of the rest and refreshment to be derived from a site of great beauty and the advantage of a convenient place for bathing in Long Island Sound. It is my hope that you with Mrs. Harold I. Pratt, my two sons and myself, will constitute the board of trustees.

"I presume the city will agree to maintain and police the park and to free the land from taxes during the time the city occupies it as a park."

Among the provisions of the trustees will be one providing that, if the city should at any time desire to relieve itself of the cost of maintaining and policing the park, it will be at liberty to do so by surrendering the park to the trustees, who will have directions as to the disposition of it.

Hoping the plan will meet with the approval of the city, I am yours faithfully,

J. P. MORGAN.

President Coolidge Appoints the Members of the New U. S. Board of Tax Appeals—Names Three Additional Men to Serve With Thirteen Already Holding Places.

President Coolidge on May 26 reappointed thirteen members of the Board of Tax Appeals and named three additional members. Those named were:

For Twelve Years—Jules G. Korner of North Carolina, Charles R. Arundell of Oregon, John J. Marquette of Montana and Logan Morris of Utah.

For Ten Years—Benjamin H. Littleton of Tennessee, William R. Green, Jr., of Iowa, Percy W. Phillips of New York and Charles M. Trammell of Florida.

For Eight Years—William C. Lansdon of Kansas, Charles P. Smith of Massachusetts, Summer L. Trussell of Minnesota and John M. Sternhagen of Illinois.

For Six Years—J. Edgar Murdock of Pennsylvania, William D. Love of Texas, John B. Milliken of Arizona and Ernest H. Van Fossan of Ohio.

All except Milliken, Murdock and Van Fossan are members of the present board. Milliken is now employed in the office of the Solicitor of Internal Revenue. Murdock has been for three and one-half years First Assistant District Attorney of Westmoreland County, Pa. Van Fossan was born at Lisbon, Ohio, and has served as counsel and member of the War Department Claims Board.

The appointments were made under the provisions of the new revenue law which provided for a reorganization of the board, with a different number of members, different lengths of terms and an increase in salaries from $7,500 to $10,000, effective June 1. The 1924 law authorized as many as 28 members but provided that on June 1 1926, the number should be reduced to seven. The 1926 act increased the number but made it necessary to make an entire new set of appointments. The two old members who failed to receive reappointments were A. E. Graupner of California and Albert E. James of New York.

Attitude of Investment Bankers Association of America Regarding Non-Voting Stock.

The Investment Bankers Association has just adopted a report on non-voting common stock, which discusses the subject in a most interesting way. The report was presented by R. A. Wilbur, of The Herrick Co. of Cleveland, Chairman of the Industrial Securities Committee of the Association, at the recent May meeting of the Board of Governors of the Association. The report was adopted by the Board. It contains a number of important recommendations.

"Weighing the arguments for and against the issue of non-voting common stocks," the report says, "your committee is of the opinion: first, that unless some method be devised to prevent abuses of the privilege, major considerations of public welfare require that non-voting common stocks be not issued; second, that if issued under restrictions that will prevent such abuses, issuing houses should fully realize their responsibilities and live up to them; and third, that before causing non-voting common stocks to be issued, issuing houses should give special attention to the legal aspects of control by common voting stocks where a substantial amount of common stock having no voting privilege is also outstanding." The report also says:

"It is important, in the opinion of your committee, to observe that no non-voting common stocks heretofore issued and sold to the public should be condemned simply because they are non-voting. Their position in the market has shown the confidence or lack of confidence, as the case may be, of the investing public, whose verdict must determine their worth. From a practical viewpoint, it is probable that the more fundamental question of confidence in the undertaking and its management, or those who are resonsible for its management, has properly had more effecton the public mind than has the subject of voting control. Further, no one really informed of the various situations believes that in general the machinery of non-voting stocks has been put into operation for any other purpose than that of securing and perpetuating competent management, which every one recognizes as the most important factor in the success of any industrial corporation, nor can any one at this time confidently assert that the non-voting common stock has no proper place in finance."

The report in full is as follows:

Report of Industrial Securities Committee—By R. A. Wilbur, The Herric Co., Cleveland, Chairman.

REPORT OF INDUSTRIAL SECURITIES COMMITTEE.

By R. A. Wilbur, The Herrick Co., Cleveland, Chairman.

Your committee on Industrial Securities begs to present its report on non-voting common stocks.

Much has been said recently as to the advisability of issuing common stock that does not carry with it the right to vote. Those who have followed this discussion must be impressed with the importance of the subject and with the fact that there is much that can be justly said both for and against the practice of issuing non-voting common stock.

In a general way the arguments for and against the practice of issuing non-voting common stocks are as follows:

1. All common stockholders alike are owners of the equity.

For non-voting common stocks; The common stockholders of a corporation are the owners of the business subject to the preference of bonds, notes, preferred stocks and other senior securities. As owners of the business they all should have the same rights and responsibilities unless it is otherwise specifically provided. The issuance of common stocks without the right to vote is a matter of specific provision. No fraud or deception is practiced—the purchaser knows exactly what he is getting.

Against non-voting common stock;s Although it is conceded that the purchaser of a non-voting common stock knows exactly what he is buying and is satisfied, there remains the broader consideration of public policy. Is it not likely that the public good will be better served by prohibiting provisions which deprive some of the common stockholders of the right to vote? Until recently the right to vote has been considered an inalienable privilege and responsibility of common stock ownership. Does not a proper consideration of the public welfare necessitate the continuance of this privilege and responsibility:

2. Centralized control.

For non-voting common stocks; Large corporate undertakings are better managed by small groups whose control is not subject to the votes of a large body of widely scattered stockholders unfamiliar with the business. Permancy of control gives management a secure tenure and enables it to carry out definite policies. It is important for investors to know before they invest what the management is to be and what provisions have been made to continue such management. When the ownership of properties of great size changes hands and a large volume of stock is sold to the public, the question of management and its continuance assumes tremendously increased importance, and it cannot be satisfactorily answered by leaving the solution to a large body of widely scattered stockholders almost wholly unfamiliar with managerial problems. As a matter of fact the control of large corporations is now usually exercised by from 10% to 20% of the voting stock outstanding.

Against non-voting common stocks; Even though the practical control of large corporations is now actually exercised by a small proportion of the voting stock, the issuance of non-voting stock brings the control within still narrower limits and makes it a legal rather than a practical matter. If this is carried to the extent of enabling a select few with a small investment to direct the affairs of large corporations, there would follow the likelihood of indifference, the temptation to take undue risks, and the perpetuation of favored management regardless of ability—all of which would be inimical to efficient operation.

3. Public attitude with respect to non-voting common stocks.

For non-voting common stocks; In the final analysis the investing public rather than the investment banker passes upon the merit of a security and determines its market—including, of course, common stocks with the right to vote. However, in their appraisal of a security, investors obviously are little concerned with the voting privilege. They are much more concerned with the history of the corporation, the character of the management and the probability of successful managers continuing in office, than in their right as holders of common stock to exercise the voting privilege. In view of this indifference, why give to investors a right they do not care for, and a responsibility they will not assume?

Against non-voting common stocks; Even if investors generally are not now interested, as common stockholders in the voting privilege, the public good demands that they become interested and that means be taken to quicken their sense of responsibility in this respect. As financial participation on the part of the public in business undertakings increases, as it should increase, it is highly desirable for investors to be better informed in the principles of investment, and in the operation of business enterprises. The practice of issuing non-voting common stocks tends to retard the spread of investment knowledge and to lessen the incentive to acquire intelligent information as to the conduct of business affairs.

4. Non-voting common stocks should be given a fair trial.

For non-voting common stocks: The criticism of non-voting common stocks is not based upon actual results, but rather on results which it is expected will follow this type of financing. In fairness to the claims of those who advocate such a method of financing, it should be tried out until it can be determined that the consequences are inimical to either sound business practice or to the public good.

Against non-voting common stocks: Conceding the justice of making a trial of this type of financing, the consequences, so far as the public good is concerned, are likely to be so detrimental that further experiments would be extremely unwise.

5. Legislative policy.

For non-voting common stocks: The question of whether certain practices in corporate financing will be detrimental to the public good is one for legislative decision. That decision has been made with reference to non-voting common stocks by many States. These States permit the issuance of common stocks without the voting privilege, and in no States has the distribution of such a security within its limits been prohibited by law. Such legislative enactments and permission should not be taken lightly. In the opinion of legislative bodies, there must have been good and sufficient reasons for the enactment of such laws. The laws were enacted to permit new methods of financing where circumstances make them desirable. The determination of the circumstances is left to those who wish to avail themselves of the right granted. It may be that the unwise exercise of the right will properly lead to some legislative restrictions, but the off-hand condemnation of the practice of issuing non-voting common stocks until experience has shown detrimental results is unwarranted.

Against non-voting common stocks: It is difficult to see how existing laws can be so amended as to prevent the abuse of the general power. Either there must be unlimited power to issue non-voting common stocks in any proportions or there must be no power to issue any non-voting common stocks. The question is one involving the preponderance of the good and evil effects of the one plan over the other; and there is every reason to believe that the effect would be strongly detrimental.

6. Banker control.

For non-voting common stocks: The phrase "banker control" is popularly understood to mean the absolute domination of the affairs of a particular corporation by bankers, by means of the ownership or control of the voting common stock in corporations which have both voting and non-voting common stocks, and by the ownership or control of a sufficiently large amount of stock in corporations which have voting stock only. There probably are fewer instances of "banker control" of corporations than is generally supposed. The banker, though his name may conspicuously appear in the financing, is simply one of a group composed of business men of large affairs and outstanding abilities, who by training and experience are peculiarly qualified to administer properly the important duty of providing for and perpetuating efficient management and otherwise controlling the affairs of the corporation.

Against non-voting common stocks: "Banker control," in the sense of a domination of the affairs of a particular corporation, is more likely than not to be a detrimental factor in the operation of the company's business. Bankers, however skilled they may be in their own profession, lack the peculiar qualities that fit men to direct successfully and control the affairs of business enterprises. The banker, by reason of the training and experience that has made him a success in financial affairs, is very apt to overestimate the importance of a company's past as told by the balance sheet and earnings statement. His vision is that of a man dealing in financial values rather than that of a man who sees the past and future through the market for commodities. More than all this, perhaps, the banker may have a divided interest in directing a business enterprise. As so well stated by Mr. A. A. Berle, Jr., in his article on "Non-voting Stock and 'Bankers' Control'," in the April, 1926 number of the Harvard Law Review: "The investment banking house is invariably in the center of a web of economic interests, to which it renders a real service and from which it derives a real return, but which affords possibilities for profitable transactions not necessarily benefiting the controlled corporations. While the banker's action may be adequately regulated by a high sense of banking ethics which largely prevails among reputable houses, the law can hardly leave investors subject to the doubtful protection of private consciences."

The foregoing summarizes in a very general way the arguments for and against the issuance of non-voting common stocks. They indicate a very decided difference of opinion.

In addition to considering the subject from the point of view of the investor and from the immensely important viewpoint of the public good, something may properly be said concerning the way in which the issuance of non-voting common stocks particularly affects the investment banker as distinguished from other interests concerned.

First of all, domination of a corporate voting stock carries with it responsibilities of the most serious nature. Whenever a house of issue elects to retain the domination of a company's affairs, it must be prepared to accept fully the responsibility that goes with it and to act with the impartial purpose of doing only what may be best for the company and the public. All this probably means the expansion of its activities along business lines for which as an organization it may have no special aptitude nor means of securing satisfactory personnel.

Second, it is by no means certain that the courts will exercise the same measure of control in the case of a majority action of stockholders where all common stock is entitled to vote, as in the case of a majority action of stockholders where only a part of the common stock is entitled to vote. Claims of mismanagement and negligence on the part of controlling directors and officers and perhaps the controlling stockholders might be listened to by the courts with a more attentive ear in the latter case than in the former. New laws, statutes, common law and equity are made to fit new cases so that the legal rights of voting common stocks where non-voting common stocks exist may carry with them obligations, the exact nature of which cannot at the time of issue be determined and which, if it could be known, it would not be good judgment to assume.

Before concluding this report, it is important, in the opinion of your committee, to touch upon one further matter; namely, the position of non-voting common stocks which have heretofore been issued.

Concerning this subject, it is important, in the opinion of your committee, to observe that no non-voting common stocks heretofore issued and sold to the public should be condemned simply because they are non-voting. Their position in the market has shown the confidence or lack of confidence, as the case may be, of the investing public whose verdict must determine their worth. From a practical viewpoint, it is probable that the more fundamental question of confidence in the undertaking and its management or those who are responsible for its management, has properly had more effect on the public mind than has the subject of voting control. Further, no one really informed of the various situations believes that in general the machinery of non-voting stocks has been put into operation for any other purpose than that of securing and perpetuating competent management which every one recognizes as the most important factor in the success of any industrial corporation, nor can any one at this time confidently assert that the non-voting common stock has no proper place in finance.

Weighing the above arguments for and against the issue of non-voting common stocks, your committee is of the opinion: first, that unless some method be devised to prevent abuses of the privilege, major considerations of public welfare require that non-voting common stocks be not issued; second, that if issued under restrictions that will prevent such abuses, issuing houses should fully realize their responsibilities and live up to them; and third, that before causing non-voting common stocks to be issued, issuing houses should give special attention to the legal aspects of control by common voting stocks where a substantial amount of common stock having no voting privilege is also outstanding.

Mellon Interests in Utilities Spread—Growth of Influence in Light, Traction and Power Field.

In a news article in its issue of May 27 the New York "Times" points out that since the beginning of this year the Mellon interests of Pittsburgh have leaped into the public utility and power field with a suddenness that has amazed men in the industry. In fact, the extent of their influence in the field is only beginning to be realized. Nevertheless, ufility operating companies in which they now are represented have book assets in excess of $150,000,000, while power projects in which they are interested involve an outlay of more than $270,000,000. The "Times" account then proceeds as follows:

Two public utility operating companies in which the Mellon interests are strongly represented are the American Light & Traction Co. and the United Light & Power Co. Recently the Aluminum Company of America announced purchase of control in the Duke-Price Power Co., which is developing a large power site in Canada. Latest of its interests to be announced is the Frontier Corporation, which, if present plans are carried out, eventually will transmit electricity from the St. Lawrence River to New York City.

Medium of Influence.

The influence of the Mellon interests in the American Light & Traction Co. and the United Light & Power Co. is through the Koppers Co. of Pittsburgh, an organization that manufactures coke-making machinery. H. B. Rust is President of the Koppers Co., and on the board are R. B. Mellon and R. K. Mellon, the former a brother of Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury.

The presence of Mellon representatives on a company's board is generally accepted as indicating control by those interests, since they never have been known to accept a secondary position in corporations in which they have influence. Mr. Rust is a director of United Light and of American Light & Traction.

The Mellon interests strengthened their position in the United Light & Power Co. through a tour de force executed early last March. At that time Frank T. Hulswit was President of United Light and shared influence on the board with representatives of the Koppers Co. This situation was changed overnight after Mr. Hulswit failed disastrously in a spectacular market operation with United Light stock.

The common stock of United Light shot like a comet through the stock market in the last half of 1925 and the first two months of 1926. It fell heavily to the ground in the general market slump of late February. Mr. Hulswit's position as to market commitments immediately became a subject of widespread conjecture, and early in March public curiosity was satisfied. It was announced first that a banking syndicate had taken most of the floating supply of United Light stock from the market and second that Mr. Hulswit had retired from the Presidency of United Light & Power.

Mr. Hulswit's resignation from the board of United Light was followed by the resignations of other members who had been associated with his interests and whose places were taken by representatives of the Koppers Co. interests. While the banking firm of Otis & Co., which was interested in the affairs of United Light under the Hulswit regime, continues to have representation on the board of United Light, it has given no indication that it is not acting in harmony with the new controlling interests. Thus the Mellons have strong, if indirect, representation in a public utility holding company with book assets in excess of $87,000,000. Book assets of American Light & Traction, in which the Koppers Co. has been represented some time, exceed $64,000,000.

In the United Light transaction the names of the Mellons were not brought into prominence, and in fact the significance of the move did not become immediately clear. The same reticence was observed when the Aluminum Company of America last month purchased a controlling interest in the Duke-Price Power Co. of Canada. Official announcements pointed out that the Aluminum Company of Canada, a subsidiary of the parent organization, would be a consumer of power from the Duke-Price plant, but did not stress the fact that one of the largest of Canadian power installations had passed into new control.

The Aluminum Company of America's interests in the Frontier Corporation are shared with the General Electric Co. and with the Du Pont interests. The Frontier Corporation seeks State and Federal permission to develop a power site on the St. Lawrence River near Ogdensburg, N. Y., which it is planned to connect with transmission lines to New York City.

$238,000,000 Development.

The plans of the Frontier Corporation involve an outlay of $238,000,000. It is regarded as reasonable to presume that its properties would be connected with those of the St. Lawrence River Power Co. and the St. Lawrence Transmission Co., both of which are controlled by the Aluminum Co. Power from the Ogdensburg development would be transmitted southward through New York State through a system of public utilities already assembled through one of the largest utility mergers consummated in the eastern section of the United States and one in which the General Electric Co. is interested. The New York State system also connects with a New England power generating and transmission system extending to the northern border of Massachusetts, controlled corporately by the New York State system.

The Duke-Price Power Co. was organized by the late James B. Duke and the late Sir William Price, Canadian paper and pulp magnate. Its plant on the Saguenay River in Quebec will develop 450,000 horsepower. When $37,000,000 of its bonds were issued last month as a result of the Aluminum Co.'s purchase of control, it was noted that Pittsburgh interests led the syndicate offering the bonds. The company's previous issue had been offered by the National City Co. Power from the Duke-Price plant will be used in large measure for an industrial development which the Aluminum Co. is furthering at Arvida, Quebec.

While the manufacture of aluminum requires large amounts of electric power, it is noted with interest by utility men that the Aluminum Co.'s acquisitions in the power and power-distribution field are greatly in excess of what would be its requirements as a strictly industrial organization. Why the Aluminum Co. should enter the electrical field on such a large scale has never officially been made clear. Its association with the General Electric Co. is also a cause of conjecture among officials of independent companies in the utility field.

Text of Watson-Parker Bill for Adjustment of Railroad Labor Disputes Through Board of Mediation.

We are giving herewith the text of the Watson-Parker bill which provides for the adjustment of railroad labor disputes through a board of mediation, and which became a law with its approval by President Coolidge on May 20. Its signing by the President was indicated in our issue of May 22, page 2005. The text of the newly-enacted measure follows:

It shall be the duty of all carriers, their officers, agents, and employees to exert every reasonable effort to make and maintain agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, and working conditions, and to settle all disputes, whether arising out of the application of such agreements or otherwise, in order to avoid any interruption to commerce or to the operation of any carrier growing out of any dispute between the carrier and the employees thereof.

Second. All disputes between a carrier and its employees shall be considered, and, if possible, decided, with all expedition, in conference between representatives designated and authorized so to confer, respectively, by the carriers and by the employees thereof interested in the dispute.

Third. In case of a dispute between a carrier and its employees, arising out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, it shall be the duty of the designated representative or representatives of such carrier and of such employees, within ten days after the receipt of notice of a desire on the part of either party to confer in respect to such dispute, to specify a time and place at which such conference shall be held: Provided, (1) That the place so specified shall be situated upon the railroad line of the carrier involved unless otherwise mutually agreed upon; and (2) that the time so specified shall allow the designated conferees reasonable opportunity to reach such place of conference, but shall not exceed twenty days from the receipt of such notice: And provided further, That nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to supersede the provisions of any agreement (as to conferences) then in effect between the parties.

Fifth. Disputes concerning changes in rates of pay, rules, or working conditions shall be dealt with as provided in Section 6 and in other provisions of this Act relating thereto.

Boards of Adjustment—Grievances—Interpretation of Agreements.

Sec. 3. First. Boards of adjustment shall be created by agreement between any carrier or group of carriers, or the carriers as a whole, and its or their employees.

The agreement—

(a) Shall be in writing;

(b) Shall state the group or groups of employees covered by such adjustment board;

(c) Shall provide that disputes between an employee or group of employees and a carrier, growing out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, shall be handled in the usual manner up to and including the chief operating officer of the carrier designated to handle such disputes; but, failing to reach an adjustment in this manner, that the dispute shall be referred to the designated adjustment board by the parties, or by either party, with a full statement of the facts and all supporting data bearing upon the dispute;

(d) Shall provide that the parties may be heard either in person, by counsel, or by other representative, as they may respectively elect, and that adjustment boards shall hear and, if possible, decide promptly all disputes referred to them as provided in paragraph (c). Adjustment board shall give due notice of all hearings to the employee or employees and the carrier or carriers involved in the dispute;

(e) Shall stipulate that decisions of adjustment boards shall be final and binding on both parties to the dispute; and it shall be the duty of both to abide by such decisions;

(f) Shall state the number of representatives of the employees and the number of representatives of the carrier or carriers on the adjustment board, which number of representatives, respectively, shall be equal;

(g) Shall provide for the method of selecting members and filling vacancies;

(h) Shall provide for the portion of expenses to be assumed by the respectives parties;

(i) Shall stipulate that a majority of the adjustment board members shall be competent to make an award, unless otherwise mutually agreed;

(j) Shall stipulate that adjustment boards shall meet regularly at such times and places as designated; and

Second. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit an individual carrier and its employees from agreeing upon the settlement of disputes through such machinery of contract and adjustment as they may mutually establish.

Board of Mediation.

Sec. 4. First. There is hereby established, as an independent agency in the executive branch of the Government, a board to be known as the Board of Mediation and to be composed of five members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated by the President at the time of nomination, one at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second year, one at the end of the third year, one at the end of the fourth year, and one at the end of the fifth year, after Jan. 1 1926. The terms of office of all successors shall expire five years after the expiration of the terms for which their predecessors were appointed; but any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. Vacancies in the Board shall not impair the powers nor affect the duties of the Board nor of the remaining members of the Board. A majority of the members in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the Board. Each member of the Board shall receive a salary at the rate of $12,000 per annum, together with necessary traveling expenses and subsistence expenses, or per diem allowance in lieu thereof, subject to the provisions of law applicable thereto, while away from the principal office of the Board on business required by this Act. No person in the employment of or who is pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of employees or any carrier shall enter upon the duties of or continue to be a member of the Board.

A member of the Board may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office, or ineligibility, but for no other cause.

Second. The Board shall annually designate a member to act as chairman. The Board shall maintain its principal office in the District of Columbia, but it may meet at any other place whenever it deems it necessary. The Board may designate one or more of its members to exercise the functions of the Board in mediation proceedings. Each member of the Board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations. The Board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed. The Board shall make an annual report to Congress.

Third. The Board may (1) appoint such experts and assistants to act in a confidential capacity and, subject to the provisions of the civil service laws, such other officers and employees, and (2) in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923 fix the salary of such experts, assistants, officers, and employees, and (3) make such expenditures (including expenditures for rent and personal services at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books, periodicals, and books of reference, and for printing and binding, and including expenditures for salaries and compensation, necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, and other necessary expenses of boards of arbitration, in accordance with the provisions of Section 7) as may be necessary for the execution of the functions vested in the Board, or in the boards of arbitration, and as may be provided for by the Congress from time to time. All expenditures of the Board shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman.

Functions of Board of Mediation.

Sec. 5. First. The parties, or either party, to a dispute between an employee or group of employees and a carrier may invoke the services of the Board of Mediation created by this Act, or the Board of Mediation may proffer its services, in any of the following cases:

(a) A dispute arising out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions not adjusted by the parties in conference and not decided by the appropriate adjustment board;

(b) A dispute which is not settled in conference between the parties, in respect to changes in rates of pay, rules, or working conditions;

(c) Any other dispute not decided in conference between the parties.

In either event the said Board shall promptly put itself in communication with the parties to such controversy, and shall use its best efforts, by mediation, to bring them to agreement. If such efforts to bring about an amicable adjustment through mediation shall be unsuccessful, the said Board shall at once endeavor as its final required action (except as provided in paragraph third of this section and in Section 10 of this Act), to induce the parties to submit their controversy to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Second. In any case in which a controversy arises over the meaning or the application of any agreement reached through mediation under the provisions of this Act, either party to the said agreement, or both, may apply to the Board of Mediation for an interpretation as to the meaning or application of such agreement. The said Board shall, upon receipt of such request notify the parties to the controversy, and after a hearing of both sides give its interpretation within thirty days.

Third. The Board of Mediation shall have the following duties with respect to the arbitration of disputes under Section 7 of this Act:

(a) On failure of the arbitrators named by the parties to agree on the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators within the time set by Section 7 of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation to name such remaining arbitrator or arbitrators. It shall be the duty of the Board in naming such arbitrator or arbitrators to appoint only those whom the Board shall deem wholly disinterested in the controversy to be arbitrated and impartial and without bias as between the parties to such arbitration. Should, however, the Board name an arbitrator or arbitrators not so disinterested and impartial, then, upon proper investigation and presentation of the facts, the Board shall promptly remove such arbitrator.

If an arbitrator named by the Board of Mediation, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be removed by such Board as provided by this Act, or if such an arbitrator refuses or is unable to serve, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation, promptly, to select another arbitrator, in the same manner as provided in this Act for an original appointment by the Board of Mediation.

(b) Any member of the Board of Mediation is authorized to take the acknowledgment of an agreement of arbitration under this Act. When so knowledged, or when acknowledged by the parties before a notary public or the clerk of a district court or a circuit court of appeals of the United States, such agreement to arbitrate shall be delivered to a member of said Board, or transmitted to said Board, to be filed in its office.

(c) When an agreement to arbitrate has been filed with the Board of Mediation, or with one of its members, as provided by this section, and when the said Board, or a member thereof, has been furnished the names of the arbitrators chosen by the parties to the controversy, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation to cause a notice in writing to be served upon said arbitrators, notifying them of their appointment, requesting them to meet promptly to name the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board of arbitration, and advising them of the period within which, as provided by the agreement to arbitrate, they are empowered to name such arbitrator or arbitrators.

(d) Either party to an arbitration desiring the reconvening of a board of arbitration to pass upon any controversy arising over the meaning or application of an award may so notify the Board of Mediation in writing, stating in such notice the question or questions to be submitted to such reconvened board. The Board of Mediation shall thereupon promptly communicate with the members of the board of arbitration, or a subcommittee of such board appointed for such purpose pursuant to a provision in the agreement to arbitrate, and arrange for the reconvening of said board or subcommittee, and shall notify the respective parties to the controversy of the time and place at which the board, or the subcommittee, will meet for hearings upon the matters in controversy to be submitted to it. No evidence other than that contained in the record filed with the original award shall be received or considered by such reconvened board or subcommittee, except such evidence as may be necessary to illustrate the interpretations suggested by the parties. If any member of the original board is unable or unwilling to serve on such reconvened board or subcommittee thereof, another arbitrator shall be named in the same manner and with the same powers and duties as such original arbitrator.

(e) The Inter-State Commerce Commission, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and the custodian of the records, respectively, of the Railroad Labor Board, of the mediators designated in the Act approved June 1 1898, providing for mediation and arbitration, known as the Erdman Act, and of the Board of Mediation and Conciliation created by the Act approved July 15 1913, providing for mediation, conciliation, and arbitration, known as the Newlands Act, are hereby authorized and directed to transfer and deliver to the Board of Mediation created by this Act any and all papers and documents heretofore filed with or transferred to them, respectively, bearing upon the settlement, adjustment, or determination of disputes between carriers and their employees or upon mediation or arbitration proceedings held under or pursuant to the provisions of any Act of Congress in respect to such disputes; and the President is authorized to require the transfer and delivery to the Board of Mediation, created by this Act, of any and all such papers and documents filed with or in the possession of any agency of the Government. The President is authorized to designate a custodian of the records and property of the Railroad Labor Board, until the transfer and delivery of such records to the Board of Mediation and the disposition of such property in such manner as the President may direct.

Procedure in Changing Rates of Pay, Rules, and Working Conditions.

Sec. 6. Carriers and the representatives of the employees shall give at least thirty days' written notice of an intended change affecting rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, and the time and place for conference between the representatives of the parties interested in such intended changes shall be agreed upon within ten days after the receipt of said notice, and said time shall be within the thirty days provided in the notice. Should changes be requested from more than one class or associated classes at approximately the same time, this date for the conference shall be understood to apply only to the first conference for each class; it being the intent that subsequent conferences in respect to each request shall be held in the order of its receipt and shall follow each other with reasonable promptness. In every case where such notice of intended change has been given, or conferences are being held with reference thereto, or the services of the Board of Mediation have been requested by either party, or said Board has proffered its services, rates of pay, rules, or working conditions shall not be altered by the carrier until the controversy has been finally acted upon, as required by Section 5 of this Act, by the Board of Mediation, unless a period of ten days has elapsed after termination of conferences without request for or proffer of the services of the Board of Mediation.

Arbitration.

Sec. 7. First. Whenever a controversy shall arise between a carrier or carriers and its or their employees which is not settled either in conference between representatives of the parties or by the appropriate adjustment board or through mediation, in the manner provided in the preceding sections, such controversy may, by agreement of the parties to such controversy, be submitted to the arbitration of a board of three (or, if the parties to the controversy so stipulate, of six) persons: Provided, however, That the failure or refusal of either party to submit a controversy to arbitration shall not be construed as a violation of any legal obligation imposed upon such party by the terms of this Act or otherwise.

Second. Such board of arbitration shall be chosen in the following manner:

(a) In the case of a board of three the carrier or carriers and the representatives of the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name one arbitrator; the two arbitrators thus chosen shall select a third arbitrator. If the arbitrators chosen by the parties shall fail to name the third arbitrator within five days after their first meeting, such third arbitrator shall be named by the Board of Mediation.

(b) In the case of a board of six, the carrier or carriers and the representatives of the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name two arbitrators; the four arbitrators thus chosen shall, by a majority vote, select the remaining two arbitrators. If the arbitrators chosen by the parties shall fail to name the two arbitrators within fifteen days after their first meeting, the said two arbitrators, or as many of them as have not been named, shall be named by the Board of Mediation.

Third. (a) When the arbitrators selected by the respective parties have agreed upon the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators, they shall notify the Board of Mediation; and, in the event of their failure to agree upon any or upon all of the necessary arbitrators within the period fixed by this Act, they shall, at the expiration of such period, notify the Board of Mediation of the arbitrators selected, if any, or of their failure to make or to complete such selection.

(b) The board of arbitration shall organize and select its own chairman and make all necessary rules for conducting its hearings: Provided, however, That the board of arbitration shall be bound to give the parties to the controversy a full and fair hearing, which shall include an opportunity to present evidence in support of their claims, and an opportunity to present their case in person, by counsel, or by other representative as they may respectively elect.

(c) Upon notice from the Board of Mediation that the parties, or either party, to an arbitration desire the reconvening of the board of arbitration (or a subcommittee of such board of arbitration appointed for such purpose pursuant to the agreement to arbitrate) to pass upon any controversy over the meaning or application of their award, the board, or its subcommittee, shall at once reconvene. No question other than, or in addition to, the questions relating to the meaning or application of the award, submitted by the party or parties in writing, shall be considered by the reconvened board of arbitration or its subcommittee.

Such rulings shall be acknowledged by such board or subcommittee thereof in the same manner, and filed in the same district court clerk's office, as the original award and become a part thereof.

(d) No arbitrator, except those chosen by the Board of Mediation, shall be incompetent to act as an arbitrator because of his interest in the controversy to be arbitrated, or because of his connection with or partiality to either of the parties to the arbitration.

(e) Each member of any board of arbitration created under the provisions of this Act named by either party to the arbitration shall be compensated by the party naming him. Each arbitrator selected by the arbitrators or named by the Board of Mediation shall receive from the Board of Mediation such compensation as the Board of Mediation may fix, together with his necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, while serving as an arbitrator.

(f) The board of arbitration shall furnish a certified copy of its award to the respective parties to the controversy, and shall transmit the original, together with the papers and proceedings and a transcript of the evidence taken at the hearings, certified under the hands of at least a majority of the arbitrators, to the clerk of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arose or the arbitration is entered into, to be filed in said clerk's office as hereinafter provided. The said board shall also furnish a certified copy of its award, and the papers and proceedings, including testimony relating thereto, to the Board of Mediation, to be filed in its office; and in addition a certified copy of its award shall be filed in the office of the Inter-State Commerce Commission: Provided, however, That such award shall not be construed to diminish or extinguish any of the powers or duties of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, under the Inter-State Commerce Act, as amended.

(g) A board of arbitration may, subject to the approval of the Board of Mediation, employ and fix the compensation of such assistants as it deems necessary in carrying on the arbitration proceedings. The compensation of such employees, together with their necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, while so employed, and the necessary expenses of board of arbitration, shall be paid by the Board of Mediation.

Whenever practicable, the board shall be supplied with suitable quarters in any Federal building located at its place of meeting or at any place where the board may conduct its proceedings or deliberations.

(h) All testimony before said board shall be given under oath or affirmation, and any member of the board shall have the power to administer oaths or affirmations. The board of arbitration, or any member thereof, shall have the power to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the board of arbitration material to a just determination of the matters submitted to its arbitration, and may for that purpose request the clerk of the district court of the United States for the district wherein said arbitration is being conducted to issue the necessary subpoenas, and upon such request the said clerk or his duly authorized deputy shall be, and he hereby is, authorized, and it shall be his duty, to issue such subsubpoenas. In the event of the failure of any person to comply with any such subpoena, or in the event of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the board of arbitration, the board may invoke the aid of the United States courts to compel witnesses to attend and testify and to produce such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents to the same extent and under the same conditions and penalties as provided for in the Act to regulate commerce approved Feb. 4 1887, and the amendments thereto.

Any witness appearing before a board of arbitration shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in courts of the United States, to be paid by the party securing the subpoena.

Sec. 8. The agreement to arbitrate—

(a) Shall be in writing;

(b) Shall stipulate that the arbitration is had under the provisions of this Act;

(c) Shall state whether the board of arbitration is to consist of three or of six members;

(d) Shall be signed by the duly accredited representatives of the carrier or carriers and the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, and shall be acknowledged by said parties before a notary public, the clerk of a district court or circuit court of appeals of the United States, or before a member of the Board of Mediation, and, when so acknowledged, shall be filed in the office of the Board of Mediation;

(e) Shall state specifically the questions to be submitted to the said board for decision; and that, in its award or awards, the said board shall confine itself strictly to decisions as to the questions so specifically submitted to it;

(f) Shall provide that the questions, or any one or more of them, submitted by the parties to the board of arbitration may be withdrawn from arbitration on notice to that effect signed by the duly accredited representatives of all the parties and served on the board of arbitration;

(g) Shall stipulate that the signatures of a majority of said board of arbitration affixed to their award shall be competent to constitute a valid and binding award;

(h) Shall fix a period from the date of the appointment of the arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board (as provided for in the agreement) within which the said board shall commence its hearings;

(i) Shall fix a period from the beginning of the hearings within which the said board shall make and file its award: Provided, That the parties may agree at any time upon an extension of this period;

(j) Shall provide for the date from which the award shall become effective and shall fix the period during which the award shall continue in force;

(k) Shall provide that the award of the board of arbitration and the evidence of the proceedings before the board relating thereto, when certified under the hands of at least a majority of the arbitrators, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arose or the arbitration was entered into, which district shall be designated in the agreement; and, when so filed, such award and proceedings shall constitute the full and complete record of the arbitration;

(l) Shall provide that the award, when so filed, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties as to the facts determined by said award and as to the merits of the controversy decided;

(m) Shall provide that any difference arising as to the meaning, or the application of the provisions, of an award made by a board of arbitration shall be referred back for a ruling to the same board, or, by agreement, to a subcommittee of such board; and that such ruling, when acknowledged in the same manner, and filed in the same district court clerk's office, as the original award, shall be a part of and shall have the same force and effect as such original award; and

(n) Shall provide that the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same.

The said agreement to arbitrate, when properly signed and acknowledged as herein provided, shall not be revoked by a party to such agreement: Provided, however, That such agreement to arbitrate may at any time be revoked and canceled by the written agreement of both parties, signed by their duly accredited representatives, and (if no board of arbitration has yet been constituted under the agreement) delivered to the Board of Mediation or any member thereof; or, if the board of arbitration has been constituted as provided by this Act, delivered to such board of arbitration.

Sec. 9. First. The award of a board of arbitration, having been acknowledged as herein provided, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court designated in the agreement to arbitrate.

Second. An award acknowledged and filed as herein provided shall be conclusive on the parties as to the merits and facts of the controversy submitted to arbitration, and unless, within ten days after the filing of the award, a petition to impeach the award, on the grounds hereinafter set forth, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the court in which the award has been filed, the court shall enter judgment on the award, which judgment shall be final and conclusive on the parties.

Third. Such petition for the impeachment or contesting of any award so filed shall be entertained by the court only on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) That the award plainly does not conform to the substantive requirements laid down by this Act for such awards, or that the proceedings were not substantially in conformity with this Act;

(b) That the award does not conform, nor confine itself, to the stipulations of the agreement to arbitrate; or

(c) That a member of the board of arbitration rendering the award was guilty of fraud or corruption; or that a party to the arbitration practiced fraud or corruption, which fraud or corruption affected the result of the arbitration: Provided, however, That no court shall entertain any such petition on the ground that an award is invalid for uncertainty; in such case the proper remedy shall be a submission of such award to a reconvened board, or subcommittee thereof, for interpretation, as provided by this Act: Provided, further, That an award contested as herein provided shall be construed liberally by the court, with a view to favoring its validity, and that no award shall be set aside for trivial irregularity or clerical error, going only to form and not to substance.

Fourth. If the court shall determine that a part of the award is invalid on some ground or grounds designated in this section as a ground of invalidity, but shall determine that a part of the award is valid, the court shall set aside the entire award: Provided, however, That, if the parties shall agree thereto, and if such valid and invalid parts are separable, the court shall set aside the invalid part, and order judgment to stand as to the valid part.

Fifth. At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court upon the petition filed as aforesaid, final judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the circuit court of appeals. In such case only such portion of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said petition and to be decided.

Sixth. The determination of said circuit court of appeals upon said questions shall be final, and, being certified by the clerk thereof to said district court, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court.

Seventh. If the petitioner's contentions are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award in whole or, if the parties so agree, in part; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment when entered shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award.

Eighth. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require an individual employee to render labor or service without his consent, nor shall anything in this Act be construed to make the quitting of his labor or service by an individual employee an illegal act; nor shall any court issue any process to compel the performance by an individual employee of such labor or service, without his consent.

Emergency Board.

Sec. 10. If a dispute between a carrier and its employees be not adjusted under the foregoing provisions of this Act and should in the judgment of the Board of Mediation, threaten substantially to interrupt inter-State commerce to a degree such as to deprive any section of the country of essential transportation service, the Board of Mediation shall notify the President, who may thereupon, in his discretion, create a board to investigate and report respecting such dispute. Such board shall be composed of such number of persons as to the President may seem desirable: Provided, however, That no member appointed shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of employees or any carrier. The compensation of the members of any such board shall be fixed by the President. Such board shall be created separately in each instance and it shall investigate promptly the facts as to the dispute and make a report thereon to the President within thirty days from the date of its creation.

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for the expenses of such board, including the compensation and the necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, of the members of the board. All expenditures of the board shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman.

After the creation of such board and for thirty days after such board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the parties to the controversy in the conditions out of which the dispute arose.

General Provisions.

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 12. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for expenditure by the Board of Mediation in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 13. (a) Paragraph "Second" of subdivision (b) of Section 128 of the Judicial Code, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Section 2 of the Act entitled "An Act to amend the Judicial Code, and to further define the jurisdiction of the circuit court of appeals and of the Supreme Court, and for other purposes," approved Feb. 13 1925, is amended to read as follows:

That cases in a circuit court of appeals under Section 9 of the Railway Labor Act; under Section 5 of 'An act to create a Federal Trade Commission, to define its powers and duties, and for other purposes,' approved Sept. 26 1914; and under Section 11 of 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved Oct. 15 1914, are included among the cases to which Sections 239 and 240 of the Judicial Code shall apply."

Sec. 14. Title III of the Transportation Act, 1920, and the Act approved July 15 1913, providing for mediation, conciliation, and arbitration, and all Act and parts of Act in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, except that the members, secretary, officers, employees, and agents of the Railroad Labor Board, in office upon the date of the passage of this Act, shall receive their salaries for a period of 30 days from such date, in the same manner as though this Act had not been passed.

The acquisition by the Fidelity Union Trust Co. of Newark of the majority of the shares of stock of the Ironbound Trust Co. of Newark is announced by Uzah H. McCarter and J. Henry Bacheller, Presidents of the two institutions. The purchase by the Fidelity Union is said to be in accordance with a long established policy of acquiring the stock control of several financial institutions in Newark, to be ultimately converted into branches of the Fidelity Union Trust Co. when such conversions may be lawfully made. The Fidelity Union Trust Co. now owns the North End Trust Co. in the northern section of Newark, the Citizens National Bank & Trust Co. in the southern section and the Essex County Trust Co. in East Orange. The Ironbound Trust Co. is located in the eastern section of Newark, which contains many of Newark's large industries. In its last statement as of April 12th the Fidelity Union Trust Co. reported total assets of $90,328,873, deposits of $79,225,288, and capital and surplus of $10,284,873. The Ironbound Trust Co. in its last statement reported resources of $17,145,316, deposits of $14,603,255, and capital and surplus of $1,325,709. If the two institutions were combined immediately their total assets would be $107,474,190, total deposits would be $93,828,543, and the total capital and surplus would be $11,610,582. With the resources of the other institutions now controlled by the Fidelity Union this would give total resources to the combined institution well over $110,000,000. Assets of $110,000,000 will bring the Fidelity Union Trust Co. into forty-fourth place, it is stated, among the largest banks in the United States, and eighth place among the largest banks in the East outside of New York City.

Pending the securing of necessary legislation permitting the establishment of branches, the Ironbound Trust Co. will be continued as a separate institution under the same management and personnel. When its conversion into a branch of the Fidelity Union Trust Co. shall be completed, Mr. Bacheller will become a senior vice-president of the combined institution with a permanent supervision over the operation of the Ironbound branches. The terms of the purchase are $600 per share for the Ironbound stock in cash with the privilege on the part of the Ironbound stockholders to receive 50% of their holdings in stock of the Fidelity Union Trust Co. share for share with the balance in cash.

The Burlington City Loan & Trust Co., Burlington, N. J., holds the distinction among New Jersey banks of having its Chief Executive, Walter E. Robb, President of the New Jersey Bankers' Association and at the same time its Vice-President and Treasurer, W. Edward Ridgway, President of the Burlington County Bankers' Association. Both elections took place recently at the respective annual conventions of these organizations at Atlantic City. Other officers chosen by the State Bankers' Association were F. Morse Archer of Camden, Vice-President and William J. Crouse of Asbury Park, Treasurer. Upon his election to the Presidency of the New Jersey Bankers' Association, Mr. Robb was presented with a handsome gavel by the Burlington County Bankers' Association of which body he was the organizer and first president. Mr. Robb is a native of Burlington. He started his business career as a lad with the Philadelphia shipping firm of Peter Wright & Sons and eventually became Auditor of the International Mercantile Marine Co. of New York. In 1908, upon the request of financial interests in Burlington, he returned to that city and entered the service of the Burlington City Loan & Trust Co. which he now heads. W. Edward Ridgway, the newly elected President of the Burlington County Bankers' Association, has been connected with the Burlington City Loan & Trust Co. since 1907 when he entered its service as a clerk and rose gradually to his present position of Second Vice-President and Treasurer. The Burlington City Loan & Trust Co. has combined capital, surplus and undivided profits of $460,000; deposits of $2,099,289 and resources of $2,809,843. In addition, its trust funds, including estates in process of settlement, amount to $1,637,285.

Proposed consolidation of the Citizens' Trust & Savings Co. of Marion, Ind., and the Grant Trust & Savings Co. of that city was announced following a joint meeting of the stockholders of the institutions on May 18, according to a dispatch from Marion to the Indianapolis "News" on May 19. The Citizens' Trust & Savings Co. will move into the building of the Grant Trust & Savings Bank on June 1, it was stated, and the consolidated bank will have a capital of $250,000 with surplus of $125,000. The officers will be as follows: Robert J. Spencer Sr., the present head of the Grant Trust & Savings Co., Chairman of the Board; Robert J. Spencer Jr., President; Willard Elkins, active Vice-President; Robert P. Kiley, Cashier and Treasurer; Marshall Williams, Secretary, and Harry Sellers, Trust Officer.

J. F. Conley, a realty operator of Detroit, has been elected a director of the American State Bank of that city, according to the Detroit "Free Press" of May 23. Mr. Conley is a member of the Detroit Board of Commerce and the Detroit Real Estate Board.

The Fourth National Bank of Grand Rapids, Mich., capitalized at $300,000, has been absorbed by the Grand Rapids National Bank of that city, and is now in voluntary liquidation.

The Comptroller of the Currency granted the First National Bank in Raton, N. Mex., a charter on April 29. The new institution commenced business on May 1 with a capital of $100,000 and surplus of $150,000, the shares of a par value of $100 having been subscribed for at $250 per share. The officers of the new bank are as follows: J. Van Houten, President; A. H. Officer and H. Erle Hoke, Vice-Presidents and Arthur Johnson, Cashier. The old First National Bank of Raton, of which the above institution is succesor, went into voluntary liquidation on April 30.

Proposed acquisition of the Italian-American Bank of San Francisco by the Bank of Italy of that city, subject to ratification by the stockholders of the former, was made public on May 19. It was stated that a majority of the shareholders of the Italian-American Bank had already given their consent to the sale. The following in regard to the proposed consolidation is taken from the Los Angeles "Times" of May 20:

For every two shares of stock of the Italian-American Bank, the Bank of Italy will give one share of its own securities. At the current quotation of $456 for the Bank of Italy, the latter institution is paying $228 a share for the stock of the Italian-American. Italian-American Bank stock has been currently quoted at $220.

The Italian-American Bank was organized March 16 1899 as a commercial and savings institution. In November 1923 it merged with the Columbus Savings & Loan Society, the latter having been organized in 1893 by leaders of the San Francisco Italian colony. The head office of the bank has been at the corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, adjoining what was originally the head office of the Bank of Italy, but is now a branch of the latter.

Two branches are operated by the Italian-American Bank, one at 700 Montgomery Street, and the other at Broadway and Columbus Avenue. The bank's resources at the close of business Dec. 31 last were approximately $24,155,000. A. E. Sharboro, for years, has been President of the bank, and the following have been Vice-Presidents: C. H. Crocker, G. J. Panario and Max F. Roesti.

According to recent newspaper advices from San Francisco, the Bank of Italy of that city, through its subsidiary, the Bancitaly Corp., is offering to shareholders of the Americommercial Corp. of Los Angeles (which, it is understood, is practically owned and controlled by the Bancitaly Corp.) an exchange of shares on the basis of one share of Bank of Italy stock for 2¼ shares of Americommercial Corp. stock. The offer is open, it is stated, until June 10. The Americommercial Corp. owns the Bank of America and the Commercial National Trust & Savings Bank, both of Los Angeles, and the Liberty Bank of San Francisco.

The Semi-Annual Statement of the Bank of Montreal, for the six months to April 30, appears the present week. At the last Annual Meeting Sir Vincent Meredith, the President, stated that there were then indications of better business conditions. This has proved to be the case, and as a result, many customers of the Bank have been able to profitably use increased accommodation. This tendency is reflected in the substantial growth in current loans and in a reduction in holdings of investment securities. Equally satisfactory is the increase in savings deposits, a particularly gratifying feature in a bank which has such a complete chain of branches across the entire country.

The general statement of assets and liabilities shows total assets of $749,132,357 up from $718,194,797 at the corresponding period a year ago. Of this amount liquid assets are $406,780,203 equal to 60.33% of liabilities to the public while holdings of gold and cash of $89,520,656 are equivalent to 13.27% of public liabilities. It is in current loans that the more active business conditions are reflected, and they now total $312,336,824, as against $263,397,582 a year ago. Of this amount current loans and discounts in Canada have gained to $227,325,605 from $211,096,700 and loans to cities, towns and municipalities are $25,982,091 as against $22,123,338. This increase in loans has been taken care of by a reduction in holdings of securities. The principal accounts in this section are Dominion and Provincial Government securities, $93,456,444, compared with $99,911,141, Canadian Municipal securities and British, Foreign and Colonial Public securities $33,599,867 as against $45,756,338.

It is the large gain in savings deposits which has brought total deposits up to $632,412,154 from $604,851,114. Of this amount savings deposits represent $489,464,334, and show an increase from $475,504,734. With the improved trade conditions and the larger business handled, profits have also shown a tendency to increase. Profits for the six months amounted to $2,469,326—8.25% on the capital or 4.06% upon the capital, rest and profit accounts of the bank, as against $2,414,012 for the corresponding period in the previous year. This, added to the balance of profit and loss at the end of the last fiscal year, brought the total amount available for distribution to $3,066,144. This was distributed as follows: Dividends, $1,795,002; provision for taxes, Dominion Government, $194,583; reservation for bank premises, $150,000; leaving a balance to be carried forward of $926,529, as against $596,788 at the end of the fiscal year.

The New York Agency of the Standard Bank of South Africa, Ltd., announces the receipt of the following advices by cablegram from its head office in London, regarding the operations of the bank for the year ended March 31 1926:

The board of directors have resolved, subject to audit, to recommend to the shareholders a dividend for the half year ending 31st March last at the rate of 14% per annum, together with a bonus of 2 shillings 6 pence per share, both subject to income tax, making a total distribution of 16½% for the year: to appropriate £75,000 to writing down bank premises, and to add £125,000 to the officers' pension fund, carrying forward a balance of about £112,300. The bank's investments stand in our books at less than market value as at 31st March, and all other usual and necessary provisions have been made. The general meeting will be held on July 21st next.

THE CURB MARKET.

While there was some irregularity to price movements in the Curb Market this week, values on the whole inclined to higher levels. The oil shares were an active feature in an otherwise dull market. Humble Oil & Refg. sold up from 65¼ to 68¼ and reacted finally to 66⅞. Illinois Pipe Line dropped from 141½ to 132 and closed to-day at 133. Ohio Oil gained 2½ points to 60½ and ends the week at 60. Prairie Oil & Gas improved from 54 to 55½ and sold finally at 55. Standard Oil (Indiana) was conspicuous for activity and strength with a gain of over two points to 65⅜, though it reacted finally to 64¾. Standard Oil (Kentucky) rose from 117½ to 121¼ and finished to-day at 121. Standard Oil (Nebraska) sold up from 45½ to 51⅛ and at 50 finally. Standard Oil (New York) was up from 31 to 33⅜. Vacuum Oil advanced from 100½ to 105½ and reacted finally to 103½. Gulf Oil moved up from 85 to 87¾ and sold finally at 87¼. Industrials were very quiet with changes small. The volume of business was small. Continental Baking, Class A, advanced from 74 to 76¾, reacted to 72⅛ and moved upward again, resting finally at 74½. General Baking, Class A, improved from 47⅝ to 51⅞ and closed to-day at 50⅝. Public utilities were quiet with gains for the most part within narrow limits.

A complete record of Curb Market transactions for the week will be found on page 3068.

THE WEEK ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

Trading on the New York Stock Exchange the present week has been steadily growing in activity, with the drift strongly upward. Oil shares were unusually prominent during the first half of the week, but later on the week railroad shares and motor issues took the lead. Railroad shares of the higher grade moved to the front in the speculation during the two-hour session of the stock market on Saturday. Atchison was particularly prominent and advanced 4 points to 138⅜, New York Central made a further gain of a point or more to 126, and Atlantic Coast Line surged forward 1 point to 197. Motor shares were weak, Hudson Motors and General Motors each yielding a point or more. The tone of the market was strong on Monday, though trading was quiet and declines of a point or more were numerous in the first hour. As the day advanced the market strengthened and some of the specialties and oil shares were bid up sharply. The outstanding feature of the trading was the brisk forward movement in Atlantic Refining, which made a net gain of more than 5 points. Motor stocks improved, several issues in this group closing at higher levels. Oil stocks swung into the foreground on Tuesday and for a brief period were in strong demand at advancing prices. In the final hour the list became unsettled and many stocks that had displayed moderate strength in the early trading yielded from 1 to 2 points. Growing interest was manifested in railroad stocks. Atlantic Coast Line moved forward 3 points, followed by Baltimore & Ohio, Union Pacific and Chesapeake & Ohio. Interest in oil shares continued to dominate the stock market on Wednesday, Pan American B, Standard Oil of California and Colorado Fuel & Iron leading the forward movement. Railroad stocks also made further progress, New York Central reaching a new high for recent rrading at 127. Specialties were in strong demand at advancing prices, Texas Gulf Sulphur crossing 137 and New York Canners moving forward 2 points to 37⅜. The market was moderately strong on Thursday, though there was a brief period of irregularity in the latter part of the day. Food stocks were unusually active and recorded substantial advances. Motor shares under the leadership of Mack Trucks moved briskly forward, followed by Nash Motors and Hudson to new high levels for recent trading. Railroad shares were in strong demand at steadily improving prices and oil stocks were firm throughout the session. The strong stocks included General Electric, Fleischmann, Postum Cereal and United States Cast Iron Pipe & Foundry preferred. Under the leadership of United States Steel, common, practically the entire list swung upward on Friday. Independent steels, including Crucible, Sloss-Sheffield, Gulf States and Republic Iron & Steel, also joined the forward movement and many substantial advances in this group were recorded at the close of the session. Railway stocks were prominent throughout the day, Atchison crossing 140 and Canadian Pacific reaching a new high at 162¼. In the late trading new highs for the movement were recorded by Mack Trucks at 114½, American Ice at 133 and Pullman at 171¾. The final tone was good.

THE ENGLISH GOLD AND SILVER MARKETS.

We reprint the following from the weekly circular of Samuel Montagu & Co. of London, written under date of May 12 1925:

GOLD.

The Bank of England gold reserve against notes on the 5th inst. amounted to £146,200,440, as compared with £145,060,235 on the previous Wednesday.

Gold to the value of about £1,400,000 came into the open market this week. The greater portion was acquired by the Bank of England; about £500,000 was secured for the Continent, and the remainder was divided between India and the trade.

During the week £853,000 bar gold has been received by the Bank of England, while £5,000 sovereigns and £30,000 bar gold have been withdrawn. The destination of the sovereigns was given as Holland. The net influx since the 1st January 1926 is now £3,892,000.

During the week ending the 5th inst. United Kingdom imports of gold totaled £2,708 and exports £89,546.

SILVER.

The silver market continues to be in a highly speculative condition, having been swung to and fro in correspondence with the depreciation or appreciation of the yen—the price of silver moving in the reverse way to the value of the yen. The political position here naturally adds to the sensitiveness of the market.

In the meantime, as the price of silver has been moved above the anticipated, and what perhaps may be described justifiably as the natural level, speculative forces are able to sway the quotations to a degree unusual of late. Hence the substantial rises and falls that have been recorded during the week. There seems no need, however, to regard the higher prices recorded as other than a temporary phase.

Owing to the cessation of the great strike to-night, consignment of silver in time to catch the P. & O. SS. "Kaiser-i-Hind" leaving for Bombay this week, becomes feasible. Hence Indian buying orders for prompt shipment, which would have been impracticable in strike conditions, strengthened the market to-day, so that, though China exchanges were distinctly easier, the price of silver improved.

During the week ending the 5th inst., United Kingdom imports of silver totaled £150,611 (U. S. A. £72,675, Mexico £67,256, and other countries £10,680), and exports £32,113 (India £25,173 and other countries £5,940).

The stock in Shanghai on the 8th inst. consisted of about 58,800,000 ounces in sycee, 66,500,000 dollars and 9,820 silver bars, as compared with about 57,700,000 ounces in sycee, 66,500,000 dollars and 8,480 silver bars on the 30th ult.

COURSE OF BANK CLEARINGS.

Bank clearings the present week will show a considerable increase compared with a year ago, but this is due mainly to the fact that Decoration Day came in this week last year, while the present year it falls in the following week. Preliminary figures compiled by us, based upon telegraphic advices from the chief cities of the country, indicate that for the week ending to-day (Saturday, May 29) bank exchanges for all the cities of the United States from which it is possible to obtain weekly returns will aggregate 16.2% more than for the corresponding week last year. The total stands at $8,911,468,782, against $7,672,214,139 for the same week in 1925. At this centre there is a decrease for the five days of 4.9%. Our comparative summary for the week is as follows:

Complete and exact details for the week covered by the foregoing will appear in our issue of next week. We cannot furnish them to-day, inasmuch as the week ends to-day (Saturday), and the Saturday figures will not be available until noon to-day. Accordingly, in the above the last day of the week has in all cases had to be estimated.

In the elaborate detailed statement, however, which we present further below, we are able to give final and complete results for the previous week—the week ended May 22. For that week there is an increase of 3.5%, the 1926 aggregate of the clearings being $9,684,000,525 and the 1925 aggregate $9,352,003,784. Outside of New York City the increase is 5.1%, the bank exchanges at this centre recording a gain of 2.3%. We group the cities now according to the Federal Reserve districts in which they are located, and from this it appears that in the Boston Reserve District there is an improvement of 16.8% and in the New York Reserve District (including this city) of 2.3%, while for the Philadelphia Reserve District there is a loss of 4.7%. In the Cleveland Reserve District the totals are larger by

2.5%, and in the Richmond Reserve District by 7.0%, but in the Atlanta Reserve District the totals are smaller by 2.2%. The Chicago Reserve District has a gain of 8.2%, the St. Louis Reserve District of 8.7%, but the Minneapolis Reserve District of only 0.5%. The Kansas City Reserve District has an increase of 2.8%, the Dallas Reserve District of 15.4%, and the San Francisco Reserve District of 4.8%.

In the following we furnish a summary by Federal Reserve districts:

NOTE.—Beginning with the statement of Oct. 7 1925 two new items were added in order to show separately the amount of balances held abroad and amounts due to foreign correspondents. In addition, the caption, "All other earning assets", now made up of Federal Intermediate Credit Bank debentures, has been changed to "Other securities," and the caption, "Total earning assets" to "Total bills and securities." The latter term has been adopted as a more accurate description of the total of the discounts, acceptances and securities acquired under the provisions of Sections 13 and 14 of the Federal Reserve Act, which are the only items included therein.

Central Railroad Co. of New Jersey.

(Annual Report—Year Ended Dec. 31 1925.)

Pres. W. G. Besler reports in substance:

Additions and Betterments.—The investment account was increased by $8,095,881 for additions and betterments during the year.

Capital Stock.—Of the $30,000,000 authorized capital stock there are now outstanding $27,436,800; none issued during the year.

Funded Debt.—Total funded indebtedness of the company at the close of the year was $62,816,000 ($2,875,000 held in treasury) as against $62,993,500 at the close of the prior year, a decrease of $177,500.

Of the $50,000,000 gen. mtge. 5% bonds, $45,091,000 have been issued of which $1,167,000 are held in the treasury, leaving a balance unissued of $4,909,000.

Gross Operating Revenue for the year, aggregated $55,092,099, a decrease of $374,863 as compared with the previous year.

Anthracite revenue decreased $3,305,787; merchandise revenue increased $1,489,246; bituminous revenue increased $1,020,550; the combined passenger, mail, express and other operating revenue increased $421,127.

The decrease of $3,305,787 in anthracite revenue was caused by the anthracite coal strike, which commenced on Sept. 1, and continued until after the close of the year. Except for this depletion of revenues by reason of suspension of mining in the anthracite district, the gross operating revenue for the year would have exceeded that of any previous year in the history of the company.

Operating expenses decreased $1,732,029, as compared with the actual expenditures of the previous year, when there was a net credit of $3,467,517 on account of adjustment of maintenance of equipment expenses pertaining to prior years the annual report for the year 1924.

Predicated upon that adjustment, actual expenditures for maintenance of equipment decreased $1,174,024; transportation expenses decreased $845,635; maintenance of way and structures expenses increased $242,029; and other operating expenses increased $45,600 as compared with the year 1924.

Taxes.—The aggregate taxes levied by local, State and Federal taxing authorities, on company for 1925, amounted to $4,857,921, which absorbed .088c. of each dollar of gross operating revenues, or .355c. of each dollar of revenue remaining after the payment of operating expenses.

Or, stated in another way, the combined railway tax accruals, and miscellaneous taxes, assessed against the company amounted to $9 24 per minute, during the year 1925

During the past 10 years, taxes incresed from $1,699,271 in 1915 to $4,857,921 in 1925, an increase of $3,158,649 or 186%.

Taxes assessed by public authority represent an expenditure which is beyond the control of the management of railroads. In this respect it becomes increasingly important that those interested in the railroads should insist that railroad taxation shall not be further increased and that it shall be reduced where it is now excessive.

Newark Bay Bridge.—During the year there were expended for further payments on account of the new bridge in process of construction across Newark Bay, $4,123,596. The bridge, with its approaches, will be completed during 1926, and the total cost of the project will be approximately $14,000,000.

Grade Crossing Elimination.—For account of grade crossing elimination through the town of Somerville, with the new passenger terminal at Raritan, there were expended $723,757—the total cost of this improvement will aggregate $2,500,000 and the work should be completed during 1926.

Actual work in connection with grade corssing elimination in the City of Perth Amboy was begun during the year, and there were expended $438,984. The total cost will approximate $3,000,000, and should be completed in 1927.

Automatic Train Control.—For account of automatic train control between Red Bank and Winslow Junction, there were expended $491,896.

Sale of the Stock of the Lehigh and Wilkes Barre Coal Co.—With reference to the sale of this company's stock in 1921—Of the amount realized, there remain in the treasury as of Dec. 31 1925, $10,250,000 invested in U. S. Government bonds.

Capital Expenditures.—The total amount of capital expenditures for additions and betterments to the property, since the date of the sale of the stock of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Co. in 1921, aggregates $29,233,012.

For completion of the improvements referred to above; also for grade crossing eliminations through Cranford and Elizabethport; a further installation of automatic train control, and other projects now under consideration, it will require further capital expenditures in excess of $16,000,000.

Chicago & Eastern Illinois Ry. Co.

Pres. Thomas C. Powell, May 12, wrote in substance:

General Remarks.—The improvement in freight earnings was due to an increase in traffic of a general character, offsetting in part the loss of revenue on coal from mines in Indiana and Illinois.

The decrease in passenger revenue is explained by the loss of local traffic to the automobiles and by less travel in the coal districts account of decreased coal operations in those sections.

The decrease in operating expenses resulted from economies and the reduced price of fuel coal.

The decrease of $151,617 in "joint facility rents" is accounted for principally by a distribution among the five proprietary tenants of the Chicago & Western Indiana RR., of aggregate payments made by them, since March 1 1918, as "additional rental," to cover sinking fund requirements of Chicago & Western Indiana oblizations. The I.-S. C. Commission, by its order of Feb. 12 1925, required that such payments should thereafter be accounted for as "investment in affiliated companies," and the sum so distributed has been transferred to the latter account, and will so appear hereafter. For purposes of comparison, the "joint facility rents" account will be abnormal until after the year 1926.

The decrease in taxes accrued is based on a readjustment of previous years' figures.

The reduction in interest came principally from the reduced payments account of equipment trusts paid off during the year 1925.

The result for the year after making provision for operating expenses, taxes, fixed charges and appropriations from income account of sinking fund, shows a deficit of $53,285, as compared with the deficit for 1924 of $777,551, or a decrease in deficit of $724,266.

Business conditions throughout the Eastern territory during 1925 were generally satisfactory, except as to the situation in the anthracite region and in the bituminous unionized territory in Illinois, Indiana and other States.

Coal.—The strike in the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania did not materially affect the revenues of the company, although resulting in an increased production of bituminous coal in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky. In the meantime, owing to the high wage scale under the "Jacksonville agreement" referred to in the previous annual report and which does not expire until March 31 1927, the situation in the bituminous coal fields served by the rails of the company in Indiana and Illinois did not improve.

Notwithstanding the demand in the East for bituminous coal and coke to take the place of anthracite coal, the movement of non-union bituminous coal from mines south of the Ohio River to the territory formerly served by the mines located on or adjacent to the rails of company, continued to increase, for the reason that the low cost of production in the mines of West Virginia and Kentucky, as compared with the high cost of production in Indiana and Illinois under the "Jacksonville" scale of wages, overcomes the factor of distance and higher freight rates. No change of this condition can be expected until there is a closer parity in the cost of production.

The net result is shown by the falling off of over 20,000 cars of coal produced locally on the line of company, as compared with the increase of about 15,000 cars coming from connecting lines, principally at Evansville, Ind.

The change in the origin of the coal transported is further shown by comparing the average distance coal freight was carried in 1925, namely 168.5 miles, as compared with 158.4 miles in 1924, and the average revenue per ton of coal handled, which decreased from 97 cents in 1924 to 93 cents in 1925. This reduced the average revenue per ton per mile on coal from 6.1 mills to 5.5 mills, while the average revenue per ton per mile of freight other than coal remained at 11.3 mills.

These factors resulted in reducing the average rate per ton per mile on all traffic from .0088 cents to .0085 cents, and account in part for the increase of 7.9 miles in the average haul per ton of revenue freight, because in spite of the reduction in coal tonnage and the increase in other classes of freight, the percentage of bituminous coal to total freight traffic was 50% as compared with 52.3% for 1924.

Freight Traffic Other Than Coal.—The condition as to the coal had been foreseen, making it necessary to seek compensating revenue in other directions and, therefore, the policy to extend the personnel and activities of the traffic department adopted in 1923 and continued in 1294 was carried out to a still greater extent in 1925, and particularly during the latter months. As the result of this, company is now represented at practically all of the important business centres and is in touch with the producing and consuming sections of the country.

The greater volume of traffic other than coal is already indicated in the reports showing the tonnage and revenue on general traffic.

With the exception of bituminous coal, the only important items showing reductions in tonnage were road-building materials and cross ties. Certain highway projects have been held up pending settlement of financial questions. The reduction in the number of cross ties handled is the result of smaller shipments of cross ties to foreign lines from the territory served by company. In all other important items of traffic there was an increase as compared with the preceding year.

There have been no radical changes during 1925, but there is a constant effort being made to bring about reductions in individual rates, and many cases are now before the I.-S. C. C. for settlement by that body.

An important change in the location of the fruit and vegetable market district in Chicago made during 1925 places company in a position to handle fruit and vegetable traffic from the South and Southwest not only on a parity with competing lines, but in many respects it is believed that the facilities of company are preferred, as shown by the increasing volume of that class of tonnage.

The increased use of fuel oil as a substitute for coal and the larger consumption of gasoline used in automotive vehicles and other internal combustion engines, is indicated by the increased number of oil tank stations located on company's rails.

During the year 26 new industries, including such oil tank stations, were located and it is estimated that the additional in and outbound traffic will amount to 3,000 cars annually.

Passenger Traffic.—The competition for passenger traffic between St. Louis and Chicago proper and through those gateways has always been very keen, but it was not until April 1925, to meet the competition of the three other lines between Chicago and St. Louis already in effect, that company began the operation of a 6½-hour train. A comparison of the out-of-pocket operating expenses with the revenue from April to December shows a net return on this service.

The reduction of mining operations in the coal districts on and adjacent to the rails of company has reduced the travel to and from those sections by train and has also reduced the number of miners' trains operated.

In common with all other railroads in this section, company has felt the competition of automotive vehicles, both public and private, which continues to increase with the increase in the mileage of the hard-surfaced highways constructed at national and State expense, and which parallel the rails of company between all the important cities. The loss of local passenger traffic is shown by the decrease of 3.1% in passenger traffic earnings for the year. Study is being given to ways and means of constructively dealing with this situation.

The larger use of motor trucks in handling milk has had the effect of reducing company's revenue on that commodity, which is a net loss, as the milk is usually handled on passenger trains.

No important changes occurred in the general scale of passenger fares during 1925.

Highway Crossings.—After careful investigation, company has adopted as a standard device for highway crossing protection, the flashlight warning which has been approved by many public service commissions and has already been adopted by a number of the leading railroads. One set of these crossings was installed in April 1925.

Maintenance and Operation.—Property has been fully maintained during the year and many of the comparisons of operating details are favorable. The "net operating revenue" for 1925 was $4,490,898, exceeding that of 1924 by $875,365 and exceeding any previous year since 1917. The percentage of operating expenses to total operating revenues was 83.13, compared with 86.13 for 1924, and was lower than any year since 1917.

The average load of revenue freight in tons per train was 795.4 tons, which exceeded 1924 by 35.1 tons, and exceeded any previous year since 1918. The "net operating revenue per mile of road" was $4,752, the maximum for a period of ten years. The transportation ratio to operating expenses decreased 6.7%.

The cost of handling coal for company fuel purposes decreased from 14.3 cents to 13.2 cents per ton, or a decrease of 8%. The gross tons per train, excluding engine and tender, were 1,662 tons, as compared with 1,570 for 1924. The gross tons per train hour were 21,441, as compared with 18,314 tons for 1924. The per cent of loaded to total car miles was 64%, the same as for 1924.

The average distance per revenue ton transported was 173.1 miles, which exceeded 1924 by 7.9 miles, and exceeds any previous year for a period of ten years. This is an indication of the falling off in the local traffic based on the reduction in local coal, of the competition of the motor truck for short haul merchandise business, and the larger volume of through traffic to and from connecting lines.

Pounds of coal consumed per thousand gross ton miles, including engine and tender, were 145, as compared with 167 in 1924. Pounds of coal consumed per passenger car mile in 1925 were 18.1, as compared with 20.1 in 1924. The price of fuel coal per ton was $2 40, as compared with $2 66 in 1924.

Motive Power.—The locomotives have been maintained in satisfactory condition, although handling a largely augmented tonnage of fast freight traffic and also an expedited passenger train service. 92% of the locomotives were in good order, while the average cost of maintaining the motive power owned was $6,880, as compared with $7,545 in 1924, as the result of a more efficient force of mechanics.

Freight Train Cars. Freight train cars were in good order to the extent of 80.4%. Total number of cars out of service Dec. 31, 3,514. Of this number, 1,164 coal cars will be rebuilt into new cars of modern design and greater capacity, utilizing part of the salvaged material from such cars for this purpose.

Throughout the year the policy of limiting the expenditure per unit for repairs to equipment was continued, and during the latter part of the year these limits per unit were reduced, as some of the cars affected were becoming obsolete for the service required.

Passenger Train Equipment.—The passenger train equipment has been well maintained. The increase in the passenger train service to Florida necessitated leasing two additional dining cars, which were maintained in service throughout the remainder of the year.

Loss and Damage Claims.—The loss and damage payments on freight have been substantially reduced so that the ratio of said claims to freight revenue in 1925 was less than 98-100 of 1%, a reduction as compared with 1924 and 1923.

Automatic Train Control.—The automatic train control installed in 1914 on the double track main line between Dolton and Danville, Ill. (106 miles), was inspected, tested and approved by the I.-S. C. Commission in Jan. 1925. From the date of the original experiments and the original installation until June 1925, the Miller Train Control Corp. remained in charge of all the tests, but in that month the equipment was acquired by the Railway co.

A second order has been issued by the Commission requiring a further extension of this system south of Danville. After prolonged negotiations, the additional territory has been limited to the double track main line between Danville, Ill., and Clinton, Ind. This amended order will be complied with at an estimated expenditure of $48,000.

Valuation.—During the year, the I.-S. C. Commission held another hearing on the valuation of this company's property, but it was adjourned indefinitely, without completing the presentation of the company's evidence. On the completion of the company's evidence, the Commission will introduce its evidence, and there is little probability that the final value of this company's property will be determined by the Commission in the near future.

Financial.—During the year the outstanding long term debt of the company was reduced $425,400 by the purchase of $50,000 of gen. mtge. bonds through the operation of the sinking fund, the payment of $326,000 of equipment trust certificates, series H, and $49,400 of equipment trust notes, series No. 15.

The payment of the series H equip. obligations was completed during the year. The balance due on series 15 equipment obligations, as of Dec. 31 1925, was $494,000.

Western Pacific Railroad Co.

(10*th Annual Report—Year Ended Dec.* 31 1925.)

Pres. Charles M. Levey says in substance:

Year Generally Satisfactory.—The year ended Dec. 31 1925 marked a period in the development and operation of the property, which was generally quite satisfactory, the net operating revenue per mile of road showing a substantial increase over previous years.

The increased revenues were derived mainly from freight transportation which was 12.42% in excess of the year 1924, and were reflected in all classes of traffic except products of mines, which show a slight decrease, the principal increase appearing in manufactured and miscellaneous products.

Passenger revenues decreased 4.92% compared with 1924, due to a decline in demand for passenger service experienced generally by middle-western and transcontinental lines.

A decrease of 20.97% in express revenue was due in part to a 10% reduction in express rates effective March 1 1925 and a decrease in volume of express business moving in western territory.

Operating expenses for the year were less than in 1924 due to extraordinary maintenance expenditures in 1924 necessary to prepare the paired track in Nevada for operation jointly with the Southern Pacific Co. The ratio of transportation costs to operating revenue was 33.68 compared with 33.89 in 1924. This decrease was accomplished notwithstanding increases which prevailed throughout the year in wages of several classes of employees and an increase extending over the last six months of the year in the price of fuel oil, which is the largest single item of transportation cost.

Dividends.—Dividends aggregating $4,453,420 were declared and paid during the year out of net corporate surplus, as follows:

On common stock—
x One dividend of $5 each on 474,994 shares	$2,374,970
On preferred stock—
Four dividends of $1.50 each on 275,000 shares	1,650,000
y One dividend of $1.558 each on 275,000 shares	428,450

x This special dividend of $5 on common stock was paid out of profit and loss surplus applicable to dividends on common stock of this company.

there being added to the profit and loss surplus during the year $1,500,000 distributed to this company by the Western Pacific RR. Corp. (the holding company) under a plan adopted by the stockholders of that corporation. y This special dividend of $1.558 represents all arrears on pref. stock.

Taxes.—Railway tax accruals increased $102,823 compared with previous year, and were general t the t ree States in which the line is located. Increase in California where taxes are assessed on basis of earnings, was due to greater volume of business; in Nevada on account of higher valuation placed on physical property, and in Utah on account of applying an increased rate. The ratio of taxes to operating revenue was 6.29%, compared with 6.10% for the year 1924.

Funded Debt.—July 7 1925, $4,000,000 5% 30-year gold bonds maturing March 1 1946, were sold at 94.25 and int. from March 1 1925. The purpose of this issue was to reimburse the company's treasury for expenditures made for capital purposes which had not been capitalized and for estimated cost of certain construction, completion, extension, and improvement of facilities.

Acquisition.—On Nov. 5 company acquired ownership and control of Sacramento Northern Ry. through purchase of its capital stock and bonds of the Sacramento Northern RR.

Alameda Belt Line.—Authorization has been obtained from the I.-S. C. Commission and the California Railroad Commission under which this company, in conjunction with the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe Ry., can now proceed with its plans for the extension of its service to the City of Alameda, Calif.

In accord with these plans the existing railroad of the City of Alameda has been acquired by Alameda Belt Line, a corporation organized by and the capital stock of which is to be held in equal shares by this company and the Santa Fe. An extension of this line of railroad is to be constructed by Alameda Belt Line, thus giving to that company an industrial belt switching railway which will serve the industrial area and water front of the City of Alameda, having connection with the Western Pacific, the Santa Fe, and the Southern Pacific.

The carrying out of these plans will give to both the Western Pacific and Santa Fe direct access to that portion of the City of Alameda fronting on Oakland Estuary and on the Bay of San Francisco, which is suitable for industrial purposes. This territory comprising some 6,000 acres is already partially devoted to such purposes and promises further great development in the near future.

Road & Equipment.—Expenditures aggregating $1,443,102 were charged to road and equipment during the year.

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp. & Subsids.

(Annual Report—Year Ending Dec. 31 1925.)

President W. J. Richards, Philadelphia, May 6, wrote in substance:

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp.—Pursuant to provisions of decree of U. S. District Court filed June 28 1923, and agreement with Reading Co. et al., dated Dec. 28 1923, Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corp. during 1925 issued to Wilmington Trust Co., trustee, 64,005 no par shares in the manner provided in the decree. The amount of $256,020 received in payment therefor was paid to Reading Co. on account of purchase price of the capital stock of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co.

Of the total of 1,400,000 no par shares authorized, there have, therefore, been issued to Wilmington Trust Co., trustee, as of Dec. 31 1925 659,867 shares. Wilmington Trust Co., trustee, advise that as of Dec. 31 1925 of the above 659,867 shares, there have been issued 574,665 shares to holders of certificates of interest who have filed affidavits as required by the decree.

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. General Mortgage.—During 1925 Reading Co. and Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. gen. mtge. 4% bonds were exchanged, in conformity with offer of Reading Co. and Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co., dated Jan. 10 1924, to such extent that on Dec. 31 1925 of the liability of Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. under the general mortgage, fixed by decree of U. S. District Court at $31,542,333 1-3, only $319,666 2-3 remains on unexchanged gen. mtge. bonds.

Refunding 5% Sinking Fund Mtge.—Refunding mtge. 5% sinking fund gold bonds have been issued to Dec. 31 1925 in conformity with U. S. District Court decree and in accordance with offer of Jan. 10 1924, to the amount of $31,222,666 66 2-3, which, with the amount of $319,666 2-3, the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co.'s obligation on Dec. 31 1925, on the unexchanged general mortgage bonds, gives the total of $31,542,333 1-3, the amount of the liability of this company as fixed by the U. S. District Court.

During the year this company mined 6,693,612 tons and sold 7,899,797 tons as compared with 9,421,957 tons mined, and 8,707,598 tons sold the previous year.

The agreement with the United Mine Workers of America, covering wages and working conditions of employees, expired Aug. 31 1925. A series of demands consisting of approximately 40 separate items were presented to the operators in July. These demands either increased the rates paid under the expiring agreement or provided new and more onerous conditions under which the mines would thereafter have to be operated. Mining operations ceased on Sept. 1 and though earnest efforts were made to negotiate a new agreement, all endeavors were unsuccessful and at the close of the year the suspension was still in effect. [For new settlement and end of coal strike, see "Chronicle" Feb. 20, p. 959.]

The sales tonnage given above for the year 1925 includes coal accumulated in storage yards during periods previous to the suspension of operations.

Reduction in Funded Debt.—The Coal & Iron Co.'s funded debt has been reduced by the following payments: $410,000 of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Co. ref. mtge. 5% sinking fund gold bonds were canceled during the year under the provisions of the Refunding sinking fund mortgage dated Jan. 2 1924. $30,000 of the Philadelphia & Reading collateral sinking fund mortgage bonds were canceled during the year under the provisions of the Philadelphia & Reading collateral sinking fund mortgage dated Feb. 1 1892.

Reading Iron Company.

The Reading Iron Co. operated its several departments to approximately 60% of their capacity during 1925.

The products of the company are genuine wrought iron manufactured into pipe, bar iron, &c.; charcoal iron boiler tubes; heavy machinery; cut nails; and in addition it markets pig iron and iron ore.

Great efforts are being made to increase the volume of sales by more intensive advertising and sales activities as well as by increasing the number of iron products manufactured.

The ore mines of its subsidiary, the Thomas Iron Co., operated throughout the year, supplying ore for the blast furnaces of the Reading Iron Co. as well as for the market. The blast furnace of this subsidiary did not operate on account of the depression in the pig iron business, which was largely due to the competition of foreign pig iron in the Eastern territory. In conjunction with other pig iron manufacturers, the officers of the Thomas Iron Co. have been working to bring about an increase in the tariff on pig iron sufficient to protect the American manufacturers of iron.

United Shoe Machinery Corporation.

(Annual Report—Year Ended Feb. 27 1926.)

President E. P. Brown, May 21, wrote in brief:

The volume of the year's business was slightly in excess of that of the preceding year, and this increase is reflected in the year's earnings. These earnings were further increased by substantially greater dividends received from foreign subsidiary companies.

Surplus account shows an increase of $622,291 after deducting dividends paid.

Merchandise inventories are, as usual, conservatively valued, and it is gratifying that a reduction of more than $1,000,000 has been made within the year.

During the year the corporation has acquired an interest in the Hoague-Sprague Corp., of Lynn, Mass., manufacturers of boxes and cartons largely used in the shoe industry.

In foreign countries conditions have been rather more satisfactory than in recent years, but are still far from stable.

The number of stockholders of the corporation at the close of the business year was 18,051, including employees of the corporation and subsidiary companies holding warrants for stock subscribed for under the employees' stock plan.

Repair of Locomotives.—Locomotives in need of repair on May 1 totaled 9,836, or 15.6% of the number on line, according to reports filed by the carriers with the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association. This was a decrease of 746 locomotives compared with the number in need of repair on April 15, at which time there were 10,582, or 16.8%. It also was a decrease of 1,265 locomotives compared with the number in need of repair on the same date last year, at which time there were 11,101, or 17.3%. Of the total number in need of repair, 5,329, or 8.5%, were in need of classified repairs on May 1, a decrease of 364 compared with April 15, while 4,507, or 7.1%, were in need of running repairs, a decrease of 382 within the same period. Class I railroads on May 1 had 5,918 serviceable locomotives in storage, an increase of 267 locomotives compared with the number on April 15.

Freight Car Repairs.—Freight cars in need of repair on May 1 totaled 159,845, or 6.9% of the number on line, an increase of 202 cars over the number reported on April 15, at which time there were 159,643, or 6.9%. It was, however, a decrease of 29,669 cars compared with the same date last year. Freight cars in need of heavy repair on May 1 totaled 117,709, or 5.1%, an increase of 728 compared with April 15. Freight cars in need of light repair totaled 42,136, or 1.8%, a decrease of 526 compared with April 15.

New Equipment.—Class I railroads during the month of April placed in service 10,617 freight cars, according to reports filed by the carriers with the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association. This brought the total number of cars placed in service during the first four months this year to 31,980, compared with 57,926 during the corresponding period last year and 46,421 during the same period in 1924. Of the 10,617 placed in service during the month of April, 5,791 were box cars, 3,541 were coal cars and 855 were refrigerator cars. Freight cars on order on May 1 1926 totaled 48,762 compared with 43,301 on the same date last year and 68,019 on the same date in 1924. Of the cars on order on May 1 1926, 21,259 were box cars, 19,987 were coal cars and 5,230 were refrigerator cars. Class I railroads during the month of April also installed in service 189 locomotives, which brought the total number placed in service up to 759. During the first four months last year 601 locomotives were installed in service and during the same period in 1924 there were 758. Locomotives on order on May 1 this year amounted to 654, compared with 340 on the same date last year and 552 on the same date two years ago.

These figures as to freight cars and locomotives include new and leased equipment.

Car Surplus.—Class I railroads on May 15 had 259,699 surplus freight cars in good repair and immediately available for service, according to reports filed by the carriers with the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association, a decrease of 10,686 cars under the number reported on May 8. Surplus coal cars in good repair on May 15 totaled 90,295, a decrease of 14,813 within approximately a week, while surplus box cars in good repair totaled 123,453, an increase of 2,923 during the same period. Reports also showed 24,669 surplus stock cars, an increase of 1,196 over the number reported on May 8, while surplus refrigerator cars totaled 14,632, an increase of 455 compared with the same previous period.

Car Shortage.—Practically no car shortage is being reported.

Coverdale & Colpitts, engineers, in a report to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and the National City Co., reorganization managers for the road, show that the road failed to earn its interest charges last year by nearly $4,000,000.

The actual amount available for interest was $17,838,000, which is very close to the estimate of $17,650,000 made by the engineers in the spring of 1925. This falls short of interest requirements by $3,935,000. The gross income of the road was $24,470,000, as against the engineers' estimate of $25,560,000, and the operating ratio of 80.5% was only 1-10 of 1% above the estimate.—V. 122, p. 2488.

Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Ry.—Notes and Bonds.—
The I.-S. C. Commission on May 17 authorized the company (1) to issue $6,000,000 2-year 4½% secured gold notes at not less than 98.32% and int., the proceeds to be used for retiring a like amount of outstanding notes; and (2) to pledge $8,700,000 of first & ref. mtge. 4% gold bonds as security therefor, and such additional amount of bonds as may be necessary to maintain the value of the securities pledged equal at all times at market price to not less than 120% of the aggregate face value of the notes outstanding.—V. 122, p. 2943.

Cincinnati New Orleans & Texas Pacific Ry.—Common Stock Placed on an 8% Annual Dividend Basis.—The directors on May 22 declared a semi-annual dividend of 4% on the outstanding $8,970,000 common stock, par $100, payable June 25 to holders of record June 7. This dividend is at the rate of 24% per annum on the old capitalization, which was outstanding prior to the payment on April 29 last of a 200% stock dividend. From Dec. 1 1921 to Dec. 1925 incl. extra dividends of 3½% each were paid semi-annually on the common stock in addition to the regular dividends of 3% each. —V. 122, p. 2640.

Colorado & Southern Ry.—Order for Abandonment of Railway Upheld in Supreme Court Decision—State of Colorado Fails in Appeal to Set Aside Ruling of Inter-State Commerce Commission.—The State of Colorado failed in its appeal in the U. S. Supreme Court against the United States and the I.-S. C. Commission to set aside an order of the Commission issued on Feb. 11 1924, to permit the company to abandon a branch line operated entirely within the State. The Supreme Court on May 3 affirmed the decision of the Federal Court for the District of Colorado sustaining the order.

The State of Colorado, through its Attorney-General, took the position that the order of the Commission violated its right because the railroad company was a Colorado corporation and also because the branch line was entirely within the State of Colorado. On Aug. 19 1924 the District Court for Colorado dismissed the bill filed by the State of Colorado without an opinion. This decision was affirmed by the U. S. Supreme Court.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States written by Associate Justice Brandeis contains a discussion of the conditions under which abandonment of branch lines is permissible under the Transportation Act of 1920. The text of the decision follows, in part:

This suit was brought by Colorado against the United States, in the Federal Court for that State, to enjoin and set aside, in part, an order of the I.-S. C. Commission issued Feb. 11 1924. The order is a certificate that present and future public convenience and necessity permit the abandonment by the Colorado & Southern Ry. six months thereafter, of a branch line located wholly in that State.

The company is a Colorado corporation. It owns and operates in intra-State and inter-State commerce a railroad system located partly in Colorado and partly in other States. The branch was constructed under authority of Colorado and was acquired by the company under its authority. The line is narrow gauge. It is now physically detached from other lines of the company; but it is operated in both intra-State and inter-State commerce as a part of the system by means of connections with other railroads. The certificate was granted on the ground that the local conditions are such that public convenience and necessity do not require continued operation; that for years operation of the branch had resulted in large deficits; that future operation would likewise result in large deficits; that the operating results of the branch are reflected in the company's accounts; that it would have to make good the deficits incurred in operating the branch; and that thus continued operation would constitute an undue burden upon inter-State commerce.

The application for the certificate was filed Sept. 1 1921. Before any hearing thereon, the State moved that the proceeding be dismissed on the ground, among others, that, as the branch was wholly intra-State, the Commission was without jurisdiction of the application. This objection was overruled. Thereafter, the State opposed, on the merits, the granting of the certificate.

The argument rests upon a misconception of the nature of the power exercised by the Commission in authorizing abandonment under paragraphs 18-20. The certificate issues not primarily to protect the railroad, but to protect inter-State commerce from undue burdens or discrimination. The Commission by its order removes an obstruction which would otherwise prevent the railroad from performing its Federal duty. Prejudice to inter-State commerce may be effected in many ways. One way is by excessive expenditures from the common fund in the local interest, thereby lessening the ability of the carrier properly to serve inter-State commerce. Expenditures in the local interest may be so large as to compel the carrier to raise reasonable inter-State rates, or to abstain from making an appropriate reduction of such rates, or to curtail inter-State service or to forego facilities needed in inter-State commerce. Likewise, excessive local expenditures may so weaken the financial condition of the carrier as to raise the cost of securing capital required for providing transportation facilities used in the service, and thus compel an increase of rates. Such depletion of the common resources in the local interest may conceivably be effected by continued operation of an intra-State branch in intra-State commerce at a large loss.

The sole objective of paragraph 18-20 is the regulation of inter-State commerce. Control is exerted over inter-State commerce only because such control is a necessary incident of freeing inter-State commerce from the unreasonable burdens, obstruction or unjust discrimination which is found to result from operating a branch at a large loss. Congress has power to authorize abandonment, because the State's power to regulate and promote intra-State commerce may not be exercised in such a way as to prejudice inter-State commerce. The exertion of the Federal power to prevent prejudice to inter-State commerce so arising from the operation of a branch in intra-State commerce is similar to that exerted when a State establishes rates so low that intra-State traffic does not bear its fair share rof the cost of the service, or when the State authorities seek to compel the erection of a union station so expensive as unduly to deplete the financial resources of the carriers; or when one railroad seeks to construct an intra-State branch line which will deplete its own financial resources or those of another inter-State carrier.

The exercise of Federal power in authorizing abandonment is not an invasion of a field reserved to the State. The obligation assumed by the corporation under its charter of providing intra-State service on every part of its line within the State is subordinate to the performance by it of its Federal duty, also assumed, efficiently to render transportation services in inter-State commerce. There is no contention here that the railroad by its charter agreed in terms to continue to operate this branch regardless of loss. But even explicit charter provisions must yield to the paramount power of Congress to regulate inter-State commerce.

Because the same instrumentality serves both. Congress has power to assume not only some control but paramount control insofar as inter-State commerce is involved. It may determine to what extent and in what manner intra-State service must be subordinate in order that inter-State service may adequately rendered. The power to make the determination inheres in the United States as an incident of its power over inter-State commerce. The making of this determination involves an exercise of judgment upon the facts of the particular case. The authority to find the facts and to exercise thereon the judgment whether abandonment is consistent with public convenience and necessity, Congress conferred upon the Commission.

The State contends further that the order is void, so far as it relates to intra-State traffic, because essential findings were not made and, also, because essential findings made were not supported by evidence. The findings alleged to be essential and lacking are that by continued operation of the branch interstate or foreign commerce will be discriminated against or that the company will be prevented from earning a fair return on the value of its properties as a whole, or that the entire intra-State business in Colorado will not earn such a return upon the property used in conducting that business.

The other objections urged are that the evidence of past operating deficits on the branch, which include both inter-State and intra-State traffic, does not support the finding that operation in intra-State traffic alone will result in like deficits; and that the decision of the commission was improperly influenced by an offer to lease the line to the protestants at a nominal rental. All the evidence before the commission was introduced below and is, in substance, incorporated in the record on appeal. Both classes of objections must, therefore, be considered.

Before examining the specific objections, the nature of the determination to be made by the Commission upon an application for leave to abandon should be further considered. As every projected abandonment of any part of a railroad engaged in both inter-State and intra-State commerce may conceivably involve a conflict between State and national interests. the consent of the Commission must be obtained by the railroad in every case. To ensure due consideration of the local interests, Congress provided that a copy of every application must be promptly filed with the Governor of the State directly affected, that notice of the application must be published in some local newspaper, and that the appropriate State authorities should have "the right to make before the Commission such representations as they may deem just and proper for preserving the rights and interests of their people and the States, respectively, involved in such proceedings." In practice, representatives of State regulatory bodies sit, sometimes, with the representatives of the Commission at hearings upon the application for a certificate. Occasionally, the Commission leaves the preliminary enquiry to the State body. And always consideration is given by the Commission to the representations of the State authorities.

While the constitutional basis of authority to issue the certificate of abandonment is the power of Congress to regulate inter-State commerce, the Act does not make issuance of the certificate conditional upon a finding that continued operation will result in discrimination against inter-State commerce, or that it will result in a denial of just compensation for the use in intra-State commerce of the property of the carrier within the State, or that it will result in a denial of such compensation for the property within the State used in commerce intra-State and inter-State.

The sole test prescribed is that abandonment be consistent with public necessity and convenience. In determining whether it is, the Commission must have regard to the needs of both intra-State and inter-State commerce. For it was a purpose of Transportation Act, 1920, to establish and maintain adequate service for both.

The benefit to one of the abandonment must be weighed against the inconvenience and loss to which the other will thereby be subjected. Conversely, the benefits to particular communities and commerce of continued operation must be weighed against the burden thereby imposed upon other commerce. The result of this weighing—the judgment of the Commission—is expressed by its order granting or depriving the certificate.

It is rare that the application for leave to abandon actually involves a conflict between the needs of inter-State and of intra-State commerce. In many cases it is clear that the extent of the whole traffic, the degree of dependence of the communities directly affected upon the particular means of transportation, and other attendant conditions, are such that the carrier may not justly be required to continue to bear the financial loss necessarily entailed by operation. In some cases, although the volume of the whole traffic is small, the question is whether abandonment would subject the communities directly affected to serious injury while continued operation would impose a relatively light burden upon a prosperous carrier.

The problem and the process are substantially the same in these cases as where the conflict is between the needs of intra-State commerce. Whatever the precise nature of these conflicting needs, the determination is made upon a balancing of the respective interests—the effort being to decide what fairness to all concerned demands. In that balancing the fact of demonstrated prejudice to inter-State commerce and the absence of earnings adequate to afford reasonable compensation are, of course, relevant and may often be controlling. But the Act does not make issuance of the certificate dependent upon a specific finding to that effect.

An examination of the extensive record and of the three opinions of the Commission convinces us that no relevant fact was ignored, that there was ample evidence to support the facts founded, and that the judgment of the Commission was not improperly influenced by the offer to lease the line to the protestants at a nominal rental. The case at bar is unlike Texas vs. Eastern Texas RR. Co., 258 U. S., 204. There, the railroad was permitted to be relieved only from continuing operations in inter-State commerce. It was being operated independently, and not as a branch of any railroad engaged in inter-State commerce. Losses incurred in its operation would not be reflected in the accounts of any inter-State carrier, and no inter-State carrier would have had to make good deficits so incurred. Its continued operation could not burden or prejudice inter-State commerce, for the Commission in issuing its certificate had adjudged that public necessity and convenience did not demand the continuance of its inter-State services. —V. 122, p. 2641.

Coudersport & Port Alleganv RR.—Final Valuation.—
The I.-S. C. Commission has placed a final valuation of $601,435 on the total owned, and $5,463 on the used but not owned property of the company, as of June 30 1917.—V. 121, p. 194.

Houston & Texas Central RR.—Holders in Old Railroad Bring Suit Against Southern Pacific—Want Company to Allot Shares in Present Road—Valuation.—

A suit by 16 stockholders of the old Houston & Texas Central Ry. to compel the Southern Pacific, which obtained control of that road when it was reorganized in 1888, to allot them stock in the present Houston & Texas Central RR. on the basis of their old shares, was filed in the New York Supreme Court May 25. The action is based on a decree of the Federal Court handed down in 1916, later affirmed by the U. S. Supreme Court, and finally signed in Dec. 1924 by which the Southern Pacific was directed, to allot to minority stockholders 129.4 shares of stock in the present road for each 100 shares of the old stock, after paying a sum found by the Court to be the share of the expenses of reorganization.

The plaintiffs allege that the Southern Pacific holds all the stock in trust for minority stockholders who did not join in a reorganization, and that in the decree signed Dec. 20 1924, in a suit of the estate of Walter B. Lawrence against the Southern Pacific, the United States Court decided that the defendant must make a pro rata distribution to the minority stockholders "upon equal terms with itself." By the terms of this decree 24,219 shares were ordered delivered to the Lawrence estate and this stock later was acquired by the Southern Pacific.

The I.-S. C. Commission has placed a tentative valuation of $31,846,800 on the owned and used property of the company as of June 30 1918.—V. 122, p. 345.

Illinois Central RR.—Equipment Trust.—
The I.-S. C. Commission on May 18 authorized the company to assume obligation and liability in respect of $5,018,000 4½% equipment trust certificates, series M, to be issued by the Bank of North America & Trust Co. under an agreement dated May 1 1926, and sold at 97.2% of par and dividends, in connection with the procurement of certain equipment.

The company proposes to sell the certificates to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. at 97.2% of par and dividends. Upon that basis the average annual cost to the company will be approximately 4.9%.

Chairman Eastman, dissenting, said: "I am unable to join in the conclusions of the majority for the reasons stated in my separate expressions in New York Central Lines equipment trust of 1925, and in Pennsylvania RR. general equipment trust, series D, decided May 14 1926." New York Central RR.—April Shows Highest Passenger Revenue in Road's History.—In its report of operating revenues and expenses to the I.-S. C. Commission for the month of April and the four months ended April 30 1926, the company shows the highest passenger revenues for April and for the four months in its history, and its total operating revenues for April and the four months were only exceeded in 1923.

The operating ratio for April was 76.20%, as against 74.51% for April 1925. This increase in operating ratio over last year was occasioned by an increase of $937,000 in expenditures for maintenance of way and structures and maintenance of equipment. The transportation ratio for the month of April was 33.75%, the lowest achieved in the month of April since 1916, and compares with 35.02% in April 1925.

The operating ratio for the four months ended April 30 was 77.65%, as against 77.50% for the corresponding period of last year. Expenditures for maintenance of way and structures and for maintenance of equipment in the four months increased $4,143,800 as compared with last year. The transportation ratio for the four months, on the other hand, was 35.80%, as against 38.33% for the first four months of 1925. In condensed form the figures are as follows:

Toledo Peoria & Western Ry.—Opposes Sale.—
George P. McNear Jr., 111 Broadway, N. Y., who owns 7% of the outstanding bonds, in a circular letter, May 27, to the holders of certificates of deposit and undeposited bonds, July 1 1917, urges that all who favor a postponement of the sale of the road communicate with him. He says in part:

The recommendations follow only after continued but unsuccessful efforts to persuade the bondholders' protective committee to take the steps which obviously should be taken, for the proection of the minority bondholders, in view of what has already transpired and what is about to transpire.

T. P. & W. operates a line of strategic importance extending from Keokuk and Burlington on the Mississippi River through Peoria and thence directly eastward to connections with the Pennsylania and Big Four systems and other lines in the eastern part of Illinois. It owns directly about 232 miles of road and valuable terminal property in Peoria, and operates about 248 miles. It is admirably located to serve as a short cut connecting line between certain of the western roads and eastern trunk lines, avoiding the sometimes congested terminals at Chicago and St. Louis.

The only mortgage debt on this property is an issue of $4,895,000 first mortgage 4% bonds which matured on July 1 1917. Thus the mortgage debt is only about $21,000 per mile of road owned.

Since 1893 practically all of the stock of T. P. & W. has been jointly owned by the Pennsylvania and Burlington systems, which roads have also advanced substantial sums to it and now own approximately 51% of this issue of bonds.

Approximately 82% of the minority bonds, or 40% of the entire issue, are deposited with a committee consisting of Thomas Denny, Chairman, Henry K. McHarg and Adrian Iselin Jr., leaving 9% undeposited bodns in the hands of the general public.

The two controlling railroads have their own lines into Peoria, as well as to Chicago; they have no real use for T. P. & W., have never fully developed it, and in view of their sole ownership of these other lines, they would be failing in their duty to their own stockholders if they did push this jointly owned and competitive property.

Earnings since 1893, under Pennsylvania and Burlington control, have not been satisfactory, it being quite evident that T. P. & W. has not adequately participated in the increasing business moving in the territory served or available to it as an intermediate carrier. Prior to July 1 1917, when these bonds matured, earnings were almost sufficient to meet interest charges, but on that date default was made in principal and interest, the road was placed in receivership and its earnings since then have been very poor. Net available for interest in 1925 was a deficit of about $220,000. Current revenues are substantially below those of the corresponding period last year although railroads generally are experiencing increased business this year.

Last summer steps were instituted to terminate the receivership and the property was offered on Dec. 9 1925 as an entirety at an upset price of $2,100,000, or at the rate of only about $9,000 per mile owned. No bids were received, however, and the property was not sold. It has been stated that the reason why the bondholders' committee did not bid was because they expected the railroads to purchase the property at that figure.

Early this year the two railroads suggested that the property be sold in parcels, claiming that T. P. & W. could not possibly be operated at a profit as an entirety, and they further suggested that the portion west of Peoria, constituting half of the total mileage, be abandoned and scrapped. They were disinclined to set any prices which they would be willing to pay for the parcels they recommended, but vaguely suggested that the aggregate of the parcel bids might exceed $1,000,000, which was the price Mr. McHarg was willing to pay for the road as an entirety. No reorganization plan was submitted, nor did Mr. McHarg say anything about reorganizing the property for the benefit of the bondholders if he did purchase it.

Under such circumstances the Court very properly held that, in view of the merely nominal cash bid as an entirety and the indefinite situation with respect to the parcels recommended by the two railroads, the bidding should thrown open and various parcels arranged which might be of interest to other railroads in that territory.

The present decree provides for an upset price of $1,000,000, free and clear of debt to the purchaser. Inasmuch as the net liabilities of the receiver and receivership expenses may aggregate about $500,000 (aside from any possible loss incident to operating unsold portions, or to litigation arising from overlapping contracts), if the property is sold for the upset price the net amount to be realized by the bondholders may be no more than about 10 cents on the dollar.

Efforts over a long period to purchase the majority bonds owned by the Pennsylvania and Burlington in order to facilitate reorganization of the property have been fruitless. Likewise, efforts to have the bondholders' committee agree on a plan for reorganizing and rehabilitating the property have been without avail.

It is perfectly obvious that these two large railroads, with 51% of the bonds and all of their resources, could afford to bid more in pracels to get rid of a competitor than any one with a constructive plan could afford.

There is no foundation for the claims that T. P. & W. cannot be made to operate at a profit. Its poor earnings record is believed to be due to the conflict of interest in the present Pennsylvania and Burlington control. Aside from further improvement which it is believed can be effected with respect to local business, T. P. & W.'s great opportunity lies in its participation, as an intermediate carrier, in the vast amount of through traffic daily passing between the western and eastern lines.

Unfortunately, the bondholders' committee is unwilling to act. The conclusion is regretfully reached that the committee, in its position of trust, has not done and is unwilling to do what obviously should be done for the aggressive protection of the depositing minority bondholders.

The short time remaining until June 11, the date set for the sale, necessitates prompt action if the interests of the minority bondholders in this potentially valuable property are not to be sacrificed. A petition for presentation to the Court is in the course of preparation.—V. 122, p. 2796.

Venice Englewood & Southern Ry.—Stock.—

The I.-S. C. Commission on May 14 authorized the company to issue $2,500 capital stock (par $100) said stock to be delivered to subscribers at par for cash and the proceeds used for capital purposes.

The report of the Commission says in part:

"The applicant was incorporated in Feb. 1926 in Florida, for the purpose, among others, of constructing and operating certain lines of railroad in that State. On April 19 1926 we authorized the applicant to construct a line in Sarasota County, Fla., which is to extend from Venice to Englewood, a distance of approximately 13 miles. The cost of constructing this line is estimated at $547,427. Necessary funds are to be advanced by the Seaboard Air Line Ry., which was instrumental in bringing about the organization of the applicant.

"The applicant's authorized capital stock is $5,000 (par $100). Authority is now sought for the issue of 25 shares, which have been subscribed at par by three individuals. It is represented that the Seaboard will shortly apply for authority to acquire control of the applicant by purchase of this stock from the subscribers. It appears that issue of the stock is necessary to complete organization of the applicant and to provide part of the funds required for its corporate purposes."

American States Securities Corp.—Hulswit Seeking to Regain Lost Post—Wants Presidency Back.—

The following is taken from the New York "Times" May 28: "The first move by Frank T. Hulswit to retrieve the position in Wall Street he held before the United Light & Power stock pool collapsed in February became known yesterday through the announcement that he was a candidate for re-election to the board of the American States Securities Corp. This is an investment company, formed by Mr. Hulswit in December, which he reimbursed in part for losses in respect to investment by cancelling holdings with an offering value of $3,500,000 [see 'Chronicle' May 22, p. 2946].

"Mr. Hulswit's resignation from the presidency of American States and his cancellation of stock in the corporation were announced May 12 by Alfred A. Cook, special counsel in negotiations centring about a contract for American States to purchase United Light stock. Since that time the leadership of American States has been in doubt.

"Two brokerage houses which dealt in American States are prominent in the move to re-elect Mr. Hulswit as an executive of the corporation. The move takes the form of an appeal to American States shareholders for proxies to be used at a meeting on June 8 for the election to the board of Clayton E. Platt of Philadelphia, H. L. Nason of Boston, Howard F. McConnell of New York, Russell J. Boyle of Grand Rapids and Detroit, and Mr. Hulswit.

The letter to stockholders is signed by Ernest Uehlinger, who is connected with the Fitkin utility interests, by H. M. Pleune of Grand Rapids and by Mr. Nason. The firms of H. L. Nason & Co., and H. F. McConnell & Co., have dealt in American States stock since formation of the company.

The letter says that its signers represent large holdings of American States class A and class B stock, of which there are now respectively 698,409 shares and 392,890 shares outstanding.

"'The proxy committee has conferred with Frank T. Hulswit, who, since the organization of the corporation, has been one of its directors,' the letter says, 'and has been advised by him that he welcomes an opportunity to serve the corporation and that, if the board should elect him as president, he will do so without salary until the affairs of the corporation have advanced to such a stage as will warrant appropriate recognition. The proxy committee is of the opinion that Mr. Hulswit's experience in public utility affairs, extending over a period of many years, can be utilized to the distinct advantage of the shareholders of the corporation, who, as we have been reliably informed, desire that his knowledge and experience be availed of by the corporation'."—V. 122, p. 2946.

Fifth Avenue Coach Co.—Arranges to Purchase Control of New York Railways Corporation.—

The board of directors of the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. has ratified an agreement to purchase the common stock of the New York Railways Corp. The consummation of the deal awaits only the approval of the Transit Commission.

Both companies now have applications before the Board of Estimate for franchises permitting them to establish extensive bus systems throughout Manhattan. Elmer Schlesinger, of the law firm of Chadbourne, Stanchfield & Levy, counsel for the Coach Co., said that after the Transit Commission has approved the deal the new company would place any part or all of the trolley car system at the disposal of the city and would substitute motor buses for trolley cars on any lines chosen and give up its perpetual franchises.

Hugh J. Sheeran is now President of the New York Railways Corp., and Mr. Schlesinger said that he would continue in that post after the deal has been put through. The Fifth Avenue Coach Co. was formerly controlled by a group of Chicago financiers, but in recent weeks this control has passed to New Yorkers.

A statement issued by Mr. Sheeran, who will continue to be President of the New York Railways Corp., under its new ownership, follows:

When, last Wednesday (May 19), the board of directors of the Fifth Avenue Coach Co., subject to the approval of the Transit Commission, ratified an agreement for the purchase of the common stock of the New York Railways Corp., it was the first important step in a new policy due to the passing of control of the Fifth Avenue Co. from the Chicago group, which acquired it nearly two years ago, to various New York men.

These interests are represented, among others, by David A. Schulte, W. A. Harriman & Co., J. & W. Seligman, Grayson M.-P. Murphy, Charles H. Sabin of the Guaranty Trust Co., Elmer Schlesinger, of Chadbourne, Stanchfield & Levy, and John A. Ritchie, President of the Yellow Trusk & Coach Manufacturing Co.

These interests are now in control of the Omnibus Corp., which owns control of the New York Transportation Co., which in turn owns all the stock of the Fifth Avenue Coach Co.

If the Transit Commission shall approve of the proposed purchase the initial step will have been completed in a plan which contemplates complete and fully modernized motor coach service for the Island of Manhattan.

In developing such a plan there are certain local problems peculiar to this city which are both of a legal and an operating character. The principal north and south streets on Manhattan are for the most part already occupied by street car tracks which were laid and are now operated under the terms of perpetual franchises. No comprehensive omnibus system can be operated which does not involve the use of streets where street car companies are now operating.

The New York Railways Corp. has such franchises on Broadway, Sixth Ave., Seventh Ave., Columbus Ave., Lexington Ave. and Lenox Ave., as well as on Spring St., Eighth St., 14th St., 23d St., 34th St., 116th St. and other streets. It, therefore, has franchises for street car operation on thoroughfares which would be indispensable to any comprehensive motor coach system.

The New York Railways Corp., by reason of the above facts, is in a peculiarly favorable position to co-operate with the city in extending and improving the city's motor coach service. It can promptly install an efficient service, operated by a thoroughly trained and expert transportation management and personnel. Its official and executive staff are expected to remain as at present.

Since it is already equipped with buildings suitable for garage purposes, shops, &c., it will be in a position, because of the additional facilities at its disposal, to furnish the service in the shortest time possible, much of it at once and all of it within a period of, say, 120 days after getting a legal franchise. This applies to the lines laid out by the city authorities for Manhattan and for which the Manhattan Surface Coach Co. has filed the necessary application.

In all of these proposed operations of the Manhattan Surface Coach Co., the plan contemplates an arrangement by which the company will have the benefit of the experience and knowledge of the Fifth Avenue Coach Co., and will receive active co-operation of the management of that company, which already has large manufacturing and maintenance shops in the city.

It has been pointed out that because of the city's desire to avoid uneconomic competition with the existing transit facilities, and also to obviate unnecessary street traffic congestion, the proposed motor coach lines called for in the city plans do not provide any north and south motor coach transportation in the territories south of 49th St. and west of Madison Ave.

The plan of the Manhattan Surface Coach Co. provides for a temporary service at once in this important territory of Manhattan lying west of Madison Ave. by making provision that until motor coach service can be operated in that section of the city, the motor coach lines of the Manhattan Surface Coach Co. will transfer passengers to Sixth Ave., Seventh Ave. or Broadway street car lines.

The company is prepared also, in the event the city authorities so desire, to enter into an agreement involving the substitution of motor coach operation for street car operation on Sixth and Seventh avenues. In this way, whatever plan would seem to the city authorities to be in the public interest, the New York Railway Corp. is prepared to co-operate in bringing about.

Furthermore, the New York Railways Corp. is ready at once to substitute motor coaches for street cars not only on Sixth and Seventh avenues, but also on Columbus Ave. and on the 8th and 116th street crosstown lines. If it be the desire of the city that all of the street car tracks in the New York Railways system shall be removed and the company be given the right to operate motor buses on these thoroughfares the New York Railways Corp. is ready to enter into negotiations to bring this about.

Thus the plan provides for the inauguration of a comprehensive motor coach system without incurring vexatious and prolonged litigation which would necessarily arise were any attempt to be made to set up an omnibus service on the same streets where street car lines are now operating under conditions which do not give the owners of such property a fair return on their investment.

It would also mean the setting up of a complete and comprehensive system which the city could take over for municipal ownership and operation, if such a policy were at some future time determined to be wise.—V. 122, p. 2798.

a From the commencement of operations under contract No. 3 and the related certificates, respectively, it has been the practice to include in all reports of operating expenses 14% of the gross operating revenue upon the Manhattan division and 17% of the Subway Division to cover maintenance and depreciation. These are the percentages fixed for the first year of operation in each case. Negotiations have been pending between the company and the Commission ever since the end of the first year to determine what, if any, changes in these percentages should be made for subsequent years. Prior to July 1 1923 the amount expended in excess of 14% upon the Manhattan Division was approximately offset by the amount under 17% expended upon the Subway Division. The net expenditures for maintenance in excess of the amounts therefor, included in "operating expenses, taxes and rental paid city for old subway," are shown hereinabove as "maintenance in excess of contractual provisions."—V. 122, p. 2495, 2190.

Data from Letter of H. L. Clarke, President of the Company.

Company.—Directly or through its subsidiary and controlled companies, furnishes electric light and power to 316 cities and communities located in the States of Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska, and to one each in Oklahoma and Illinois, and in addition supplies gas to 6 cities and steam heat to one, and also operates a street railway and bus service in Dubuque and adjacent territory. Total population of territory served by the system is approximately 420,000 and the customers total over 66,000. Combined annual electric output is about 84,000,000 k. w. h. Over 88% of the net earnings of the system is derived from the sale of electric light and power.

The subsidiary and controlled companies comprise the Interstate Power Co. of Wisconsin, which is controlled through ownership of all outstanding stock and bonds; the Dubuque Electric Co., controlled through ownership of all outstanding common stock and approximately 12% of the preferred stock; the Tri-State Utilities Co., controlled through ownership of all outstanding common stock, and the Minnesota Electric Distributing Co., controlled through ownership of substantially all of its common stock.

Property.—Practically all the properties of the Interstate Power Co. system, with the exception of those of the Minnesota Electric Distributing Co. and Tri-State Utilities Co., control of which companies was recently acquired, have been physically connected, and it is proposed that ultimately practically the whole system will be interconnected so as to permit a more efficient operation of the steam plants and a more complete utilization of electric energy generated by the hydro-electric plants. Company and its subsidiary and controlled companies, including those recently acquired, own 23 steam electric generating plants, 14 hydro-electric generating plants, 6 gas plants and 1 steam-heating plant; as well as the street railway and bus system in Dubuque. The combined properties have 184 substations and 3,908 miles of transmission lines and a complete system of distributing lines.

Purpose.—Proceeds of this issue will be used to reimburse the treasury of the company for expenditures heretofore made for additions and improvements to physical properties and for other corporate purposes.

Security.—Secured by a direct first mortgage on all of the real estate, plants, transmission lines and other fixed properties and franchises owned by the company (located in Minnesota and Iowa) and by the pledge of all first mortgage bonds and the entire outstanding stock of Interstate Power Co. of Wisconsin, which owns the Wisconsin properties.

The properties which thus constitute the security for the first mortgage bonds have a value of approximately $18,700,000, based upon appraisals by Day & Zimmermann, Inc., engineers, as of July 1 1924 and Jan. 1 1925, plus subsequent additions and improvements aggregating approximately $3,700,000. The foregoing does not include the properties owned or controlled by Dubuque Electric Co., Tri-State Utilities Co., and Minnesota Electric Distributing Co

All fixed assets hereafter acquired will, as provided in the mortgage, be subjected to the lien thereof. According to an appraisal as of Jan. 31 1926 by Stone & Webster, Inc., the depreciated replacement value of the mortgaged property is $5,357,800, equivalent to $2,678 per $1,000 bond.

Company.—Incorp. in Ohio in 1905. Has supplied water for more than 20 years to industrial users in Youngstown, O., and the surrounding territory and to domestic and public consumers in East Youngstown, Struthers and vicinity. The present yield of the company's reservoirs averages about 8,000,000 gallons per day. Upon the completion of a new dam, for which contracts have already been let, this yield will be increased to about 13,000,000 gallons per day. This new dam will enable the company to deliver water to all consumers entirely by gravity. So far as is known the company's rates to domestic consumers are below the average and the rates to industrial users are the lowest in Ohio.

Security and Valuation.—Bonds are secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage covering all the property now and hereafter owned except that there are now outstanding $126,000 first mortgage bonds the retirement of which on Sept. 1 1926 has been provided for by the sale of this issue. The property now owned and covered by the mortgage includes over 1,500 acres of land in Mahoning and Columbiana counties, Ohio and about 50,000 ft. of water mains, together with the dams, filtration plant, pump stations and smaller pipe lines. Recent valuations by independent appraisers show this property to have a value in excess of $1,500,000.

New York Railways Corp.—Control by Fifth Avenue Coach Co.—New Bus Plan—Bondholders to Oppose Scrapping of Lines.—Control of the company is being acquired by Fifth Avenue Coach Co. (see that company above).

The New York "Times," May 26, had the following:

The New York Railways Corp. has made a bid for operation of buses in Manhattan on a 5-cent fare zone system basis, as an alternative to its plan for bus and surface car operation. The new offer is similar to one made by the Third Avenue Ry. through its subsidiary, the Surface Transportation Corp.

The new proposal was disclosed by Elmer Schlesinger of counsel for the Fifth Avenue Coach Co., which seeks to purchase control of the railways corporation. Mr. Schlesinger also said the settlement of claims by bondholders affected by the proposed dismantling of certain New York Railways Corp. lines would probably be based on a fair valuation of the properties involved. Mr. Schlesinger made the announcement in commenting on plans to block dismantling of surface lines outlined by a spokesman for Broadway & Seventh Avenue Ry. bondholders. These bonds are in part secured by the Seventh Avenue street car line, which it is proposed to abandon.

As outlined by Mr. Schlesinger, the reasons for the New York Railways Corp.'s submission of the 5-cent zone plan bid were substantially those described by S. W. Huff, President of the Surface Transportation Co. Both interests feel that a unified bus and street car system operated on a 10-cent fare basis is most suitable for the needs of New York City, but that the zone system provides a method of establishing a 5-cent fare should this be considered indispensable.

"Caring for bondholders has seemed a question so much of the future that we have not given it much consideration," Mr. Schlesinger said. "I have not even looked into the terms of the mortgage on which the Broadway & Seventh Avenue Ry. bonds were issued. We intend, of course, to meet all legitimate claims of bondholders.

"In previous plans for the substitution of buses for street car lines it was proposed to determine the actual value of the street car property and then to amortize bondholders' claims through payments extending over the suggested period of the bus franchises, which was for 25 years. This plan provided a means of discharging bond obligations without the need of a large initial cash payment.

"Abandonment of street car lines under the plan of the New York Railways Corp. would not take place immediately, even if the plan were to meet with official approval. If and when the time comes for satisfying the claims of bondholders they would likely be met on the basis of a fair valuation of the property involved rather than on the face value of the bonds."

At the time of reorganization of the New York Railways some years ago a committee for the protection of Broadway & Seventh Avenue bondholders was formed. This committee was never dissolved. William Greenough of counsel for the Broadway & Seventh Avenue bondholders' committee said that the members of the committee were watching developments, but were awaiting definite information before taking action.

"The application of the New York Railways Co. has not been approved and in any case it cannot be put into effect for some time," he said. "The bondholders' committee is watching the situation and is prepared to take action if need should arise. In view of the state of negotiations, if any action were taken now it would be premature. In fact, excitement over the situation might be said to be premature."—V. 122, p. 2192, 348.

New York Telephone Co.—Granted Increase in Rates.—The New York P. S. Commission on May 27 handed down an order which holds that the company is entitled to $9,111,378 additional revenue to allow it a return of 7% in New York City, while the rates now in effect outside of New York City are sufficient to meet the cost of service and yield a fair return at 7%, with a margin in the company's favor. The Commission in its announcement further says in part:

No rates are fixed under the Commission's determination. The majority memorandum points out that because of the large number of classes and types of service a horizontal increase would not be equitable.

The majority memorandum fixed a State valuation for rate-making purposes of $427,069,375, including $309,233,977 in New York City and $117,835,398 in the balance of the State. It held that the telephone company was entitled to a 7% return upon this valuation.

The dissenting memorandum allowed an 8% return on a State rate base of $472,889,788, including a valuation of $351,811,008 in New York City and $121,078,780 in the balance of the State. The dissenting memorandum also held that the present rates outside New York City are fair and reasonable and that there should be no changes at the present time.

The two memoranda were practically agreed in the various factors entering into the final determination reached except in the matter of rate base, depreciation and the rate of return to which the company was entitled. This summary shows:

The company in presentation of its case contended that it was entitled to a rate of return of 8%, but the Commission has allowed 7%. The memorandum points out that the New York Telephone Co. stock and securities are subject to small investment risk. It points out, also, that the average return upon its investment and advances to system corporations combined is less than 6%.

Reference is made to the contract between the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. and the New York Telephone Co., whereby for certain services the New York company had until Jan. 1 1926 paid the American company 4½% of its gross revenues. The memorandum says that in view of the decisions of the courts the license, revenue contract should not be disturbed, but it believed that a better and fairer method of charging for this service should be worked out. It says: "Recently, and since the conclusion of the hearing in this investigation, the Commission has been informed that the charge of the American company has been reduced from 4½ to 4%."

President J. S. McCulloh on May 27 made the following statement:

We have just received the two opinions rendered by the Commission, consisting of 139 printed pages, which set forth the opinions of the majority commissioners and those of the two dissenting commissioners. With these opinions there was given out by the Commission a publicity statement or digest, consisting of some 14 pages. These documents are so voluminous that we have not had an opportunity to examine them, so that we can comment in detail. The order of the Commission, based on the majority opinion, has not been served upon the company nor has the company seen a copy of it.

From the Commission's statement it appears that the additional revenue to be allowed is approximately but $2,000,000 over present revenue, after including the existing 10% surcharges in the City of New York. It also appears that the company is denied relief in the portion of the State outside of the city.

In the company's opinion, neither of these conclusions is in accord with the facts or the law, and, as the allowance made is wholly inadequate, we shall be compelled to resist the enforcement of the order.

The company has elected to redeem on Aug. 1 next, at 110 and int., $242,000 of 30-year sinking fund 6% gold debenture bonds, due Feb. 1 1949. Payment will be made at the Guaranty Trust Co., trustee. 140 Broadway, N. Y. City.—V. 122, p. 2652.

North American Co.—Common Dividend of 2½%. Payable in Stock.—The directors on May 24 declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1-40 of a share of common stock on the common stock and of 1½% in cash on the preferred stock, both payable July 1 to holders of record June 5. The company upon request of any stockholder, will arrange for either the sale of dividend stock, the purchase of fractional scrip to complete a full share or the sale of fractional scrip. The common dividend is at the same rate as paid quarterly since Oct. 1 1923.

Alba Hotel (Southern Florida Realty Co.).—Receiver.

Palm Beach's new $7,000,000 hotel, the Alba, which was opened to the public in February last, has gone into voluntary receivership. The structure which is one of the largest and finest in Florida, was built by the Southern Florida Realty Co., of which G. Maurice Heckscher is President. The structure was partially financed with a first mortgage loan of $4,200,000 by S. W. Straus & Co. of New York.

With regard to the first mortgage bond issue underwritten by S. W. Straus & Co. at the time of the erection of the hotel, Nicholas Roberts, Vice-President of that company, said: "The Alba receivership does not affect the security of the bond issue of $4,200,000, which is a first lien on this property and which cost over $7,000,000. The property is amply able to meet all charges of amortization and interest under our mortgage figured on a conservative basis."

Company.—Has been incorporated under the Dominion Companies Act to carry on the business of warehousing, shipping, and dealing in grain, &c. Company has agreed to acquire from Royal Securities Corp., Ltd., the assets and undertaking of Alberta Pacific Grain Co., Ltd., paying in part consideration therefor the securities now being issued and has also acquired an agreement to purchase a modern reinforced concrete terminal elevator of 2,000,000 bushel capacity situated at tidewater at Vancouver, B. C., now owned by Vancouver Terminal Grain Co., Ltd.

The predecessor company (which with its predecessors has carried on a general grain business throughout western Canada since 1902) was incorp. in 1912. Business then required only 113 country elevators and a relatively small amount of interior terminal elevator space. The business has been one of the most uniformly successful in western Canada, and is growing steadily. Its properties now include 319 country elevators, 166 country dwelling houses, 226 coal sheds and an interior terminal elevator at Calgary, Alta., with a capacity of 250,000 bushels. Its elevators are unusually well located at strategic points throughout the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. Total storage capacity of its elevators is about 11,505,000 bushels.

Included in the assets being acquired are substantial investments in the shares of several terminal elevator companies at Port Arthur and Fort William, Ont., having an aggregate storage capacity of over 14,000,000 bushels. These facilities effectively provide for the storage of grain forwarded through its country elevators, for export from Great Lakes port.

On the conclusion of this transaction, the new company will be one of the largest factors in western Canada in the storage and shipment of grain through country and terminal elevators.

Value of Company's Assets.

Harper Construction Co., Ltd., of Winnipeg, has certified under date of April 12 1926 the replacement value of the country elevators, coal sheds, cottages, &c., to be acquired, as	$4,467,285

Total	$7,367,285

Earnings.—Based on annual earnings of Alberta Pacific Grain Co., Ltd., for the three years ended June 30 1925, after deduction of operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation and taxes including income tax, average net earnings were at the annual rate of $795,745. After allowance for interest on 1st mtge. bonds now being issued, net earnings were at the annual rate of $585,745, equivalent to over 2½ times pref. div. requirement of $210,000, and leaving earnings equivalent to over $3 75 per share on the common shares.

For the year ended June 30 1925 net earnings of the Alberta Pacific Grain Co., Ltd., after deduction of operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation and taxes, including income tax, were $1,776,156, which, after allowance for interest on 1st mtge. bonds now being issued, leaves net earnings of $1,566,156, as against pref. div. requirement of $210,000, and after allowing for such divs. leaves approximately $13 56 per share on the common shares now being issued.

Based on earnings of Alberta Pacific Grain Co. for the six months ended Dec. 31 1925, and including a reasonable estimate of profits from the operation of the Vancouver terminal, it is conservatively estimated that profits for the 12 months ended June 30 1926 will not be less than the average of the preceding three years.

Directors will include James Stewart, Pres., Winnipeg, Man.; Charles W. Band; D. A. Campbell, Toronto, Ont.; J. C. Gage; A. C. Michael, Winnipeg, Man.; Fred W. Riddell, Calgary, Alta.

Armour & Co. (Ill.).—Omits Dividend on Class "A" Common Stock.—

The directors on May 21, after receiving a report from President F. Edson White on the status of the company's business, declared regular quarterly dividends on the 7% preferred stocks, but omitted the quarterly dividend on the class "A" common stock, which had been paying 8% annual dividends since and incl. April 1 1925. Dividends on the preferred stock of Armour & Co. of Ill., and of Armour & Co. of Del., and of the North American Provision Co., are payable July 1 to holders of record June 10. In his report, Mr. White said:

It is proper for us to pay dividends to the owners of this business when we can do so without impairment of financial resources. When we inaugurated dividends on the class "A" common stock our earnings, as shown in our yearly financial statements were in excess of dividend requirements on both the preferred and class "A" common. More important than the payment of dividends on the common stock is the preservation of the company's sound financial position, and even though our current earnings might seem to justify continuation of the dividends on the common stock, nevertheless the smallness of earnings during the forepart of the year and the unsettled condition of our foreign business warrant the omission of a quarterly dividend.

Our stockholders are probably well aware that the South American business has not been productive of earnings such as we normally expect from that source. Our investment there is large and when we run into an unprofitable period, as is inevitable now and then, it is merely the part of wisdom to let that fact be reflected in our common stock dividends.

Probably the greatest sin of big business is its habit of concealing its losses when they occur—and they do occur in every industry with which I am familiar. Concealment of them leads to the belief that big business controls instead of being controlled by the law of supply and demand. I am aware that we have something to lose in the way of prestige through omission of a quarterly dividend on our common stock, but I believe that we will make a commensurate gain through the frank statement that while our business is now on a profitable basis the losses which we sustained earlier in the year call for a conservation of resources through the passing of dividends on our common stock.

[Quarterly dividends of 50 cents per share had been paid on the class "A" stock since April 1 1925.].—V. 122, p. 2655, 2333.

Atlantic Gulf & West Indies S. S. Lines.—Preferred Stockholder Seeks Better Treatment for that Class of Stock.—

E. Clarence Jones a preferred stockholder, under date of May 20 in a communication to the board of directors, says: "The preferred stockholders of A. G. W. I. have in my opinion, been treated badly. In the 17 years of the company's existence 1909 to 1925 inclusive, the earnings for the preferred stock have been about $222 per share.

While in these 17 years the preferred stock was entitled to receive $85 per share in dividends, it has received only $25, leaving about $197 per share, and after the payment of $46 in common stock dividends, over $21,000,000 has gone back into the property.

The annual report for 1925 shows a surplus of $15,805,756. The common stock would appear to have been the favored issue having received between 1916 and 1921 $46 in dividends while the preferred received only $25.

Is it not possible to compensate the preferred stockholders for the $60 per share between the $85 to which the preferred was entitled and the $25 that has been paid, either through the payment of a dividend in low rate debenture bonds, or from the collateral trust bonds, preferred stock, and common stock in the company's treasury.

The unpaid dividends on the preferred, and which may be held to be cumulative, are about $8,400,000. There is in the treasury $6,257,100 preferred stock, $2,000,000 5% collateral trust bonds and something over 100,000 shares of common stock of no par value.

As from the formation of the company I have been one of the largest individual preferred stockholders of record, I trust you will give this suggestion your early and careful consideration.

Baldwin Locomotive Works.—Operations—Outlook.—

Pres. Samuel M. Vauclain, on his return from Europe, said: "From the outlook, I expect Baldwin Locomotive Works to run at about 50% of capacity throughout the rest of the year. There is no grass growing in our plant now, but I have seen the time when it was 6 inches high.

"I did not close any business while abroad. I have come to the conclusion the only way to do business with Europe to-day is by lending money and doing business on a credit basis; we do not intend to do that any longer. We are not worried about the Polish situation, and we expect to get our money from Poland.

"A great deal of experimental work must be done on the Diesel engine before it will be a success. Hundreds of millions of dollars will have to be spent before it becomes a practical force on the railroads. I do not think railroads are quite ready for the Diesel engine.

"We have not sold our Philadelphia real estate, which we value at around $30,000,000 and have no intention of selling it in the immediate future.

"We expect to have a better year than we had in 1925. On Jan. 1 contingent reserves were set up out of surplus to pay the common and preferred dividends for 1926."—V. 122, p. 1921, 1019.

Divs. are not subject to Federal income tax when received by a domestic corporation.

Company.—Organized in Delaware to acquire the entire capital stock and funded debt of Buffalo Lithia Springs Corp. of Virginia, which for many years has owned the Buffalo Lithia Springs and has operated the business of selling the waters therefrom.

The curative properties of the waters of the Buffalo Lithia Springs were made known by the Indians in 1728, when Colonel Wm. Byrd (founder of the city of Richmond, Va.) had their location disclosed to him by his Indian guide while serving on the Virginia-North Carolina Boundary Commission. The Springs were named Buffalo Springs by Colonel Byrd because of the fact that herds of buffalo, at the time of his visit, were using the creek below the Springs as a "lick."

The springs have been used locally because of the medicinal value of the waters virtually continuously since Colonel Byrd's "discovery." It was not until 1872, however, that the present business of bottling and shipping the water to all parts of the world was begun. The business founded at that time has been in successful operation ever since.

The business of the Buffalo Lithia Springs Corp. is the bottling and shipping of the well known "Buffalo Mineral" waters from its inhexuastible springs. The product of the company is handled by over 20,000 highest grade druggists, grocers, &c., and is sold through the best drug houses in America. The company is now installing a carbonating and ginger ale plant.

6% non-cum. pref. stock (par $25)	200,000	200,000
Common stock (no par)	200,000 shs.	200,000 shs.

Earnings.—Business has operated profitably for over 50 years and this is in spite of the fact that practically no advertising has been done in the last 20 years. A thorough market survey throughout the United States shows a wide and insistent demand for the company's products.

It is estimated the earnings on the production planned from the proceeds of the present financing will be about $1,189,000 per year. This amounts to about $37 per share, per year, on the prior preference stock to be presently outstanding or about 20 times dividend requirements on this issue, and after preferred dividends on both the prior preference and the 6% preferred to over $5 50 per share on the common stock.

Purpose.—As a result of this financing the Delaware corporation will acquire the entire capital stock of the Virginia company, the funded indebtedness of the Virginia company will be liquidated and working capital will be provided for an advertising campaign and other corporate purposes.

The figure for the preferred stock should be 218,668 shares.—V. 122, p. 2803.

City Investing Co., N. Y.—2½% Common Dividend.—The directors have declared a dividend of 2½% on the outstanding $6,000,000 common stock, payable July 1 to holders of record June 25. Clayton Mark & Anson Mark, Chicago.—Bonds Offered.—Baker, Fentress & Co., Chicago, are offering at 99¾ and int., to yield over 6.05%, $500,000 1st mtge. 6% sinking fund gold bonds the joint and several obligations of Clayton Mark & Anson Mark guaranteed principal and interest by, Clayton Mark & Co., Chicago.

Total issue, $625,000. Unissued bonds can be issued only with the approval of the bankers, to provide funds to retire $125,000 purchase money notes. Dated May 1 1926, due May 1 1931. Denom. $5,000, $1,000, $500, $100 c*. Callable at 100 and int. plus a premium of ½% for each year or part of year the bonds called have to run before their fixed maturity. Bonds and coupons (M. & N.) payable at the National Bank of the Republic, Chicago, or may be collected through any bank. National Bank of the Republic, of Chicago, and Calvin Fentress, Chicago, trustees. The makers of these bonds have agreed to pay, to such holders of coupons as may so request in writing at the time of presentation thereof, an amount equal to 2% of such coupons.

Makers & Guarantors.—These bonds are the joint and several obligations of Clayton Mark & Anson Mark, of Chicago, and unconditionally guaranteed principal and interest by Clayton Mark & Co. Clayton Mark & Co. is engaged in the manufacture of wrought steel pipe and water-well supplies. Over 90% of its capital stock is owned by Clayton and Anson Mark, who incorporated the company in July 1924, shortly after they sold their interest in the Steel & Tube Co. of America to the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. The location, design and equipment of the company's plant embody experience gained through operations in this field, extending over the past 30 years.

Security.—The property specifically covered by mortgage securing these bonds comprises 24,369 acres of timber lands all lying in Curry County, Ore., and carries approximately 1,000,000,000 ft. of timber. It all lies within 10 miles of the coast and constitutes one of the largest individual holdings on the Pacific Coast of tan bark oak and Port Orford cedar, the latter wood commanding, with possibly one exception, the highest price of any timber in the United States, due to its exceedingly limited quantity and its special qualities.

Value of Security.—A conservative valuation of the 24,369 acres of timber and lands covered by the lien of the mortgage securing these bonds, is $2,385,000, or over 4 times this issue.

Income.—Clayton and Anson Mark have, in accordance with their filed statement, a combined net worth in excess of $5,000,000, or 10 times the principal of these bonds. Considering only income available from that portion of their assets represented by their ownership in Clayton Mark & Co. and which, through that company's guarantee, is pledged for the payment of principal and interest of these bonds, it will appear that these earnings should be adequate to provide readily for payment of interest and principal of these bonds.

Sinking Fund.—Mortgage securing this issue provides for sinking fund payments which must be paid to the corporate trustee, for timber cut. These payments would be capable of producing a minimum of $1,500,000 for the retirement of principal of these bonds.

Folmer-Graflex Corp.—Organized in Delaware—Innovations in Photographic Industry to Mark Production of New Company—Offering of Stock Next Week.—

This company was incorporated in Delaware May 24 1926 with an authorized stated capital of $7,000,000. Introduction of new products in several different branches of photography will constitute the immediate policy of the new corporation, which has acquired one of the major divisions of the Eastman Kodak Co., according to a statement of Mr. William F. Folmer in his first interview since assuming direction of the new concern as Pres. and Gen. Mgr. Mr. Folmer was manager of the Folmer-Century Division of the Eastman Company before this division was acquired by the new company. Mr. Folmer says:

"While continuing the production of the 670 different complete units made at this factory in the past, we are prepared to introduce several innovations in the photographic industry in launching the Folmer-Graflex Corp. as a separate entity from the Eastman Company. These new products include instruments in general commercial fields and others adapted to special uses.

"The Factograph, or meter reading camera, which heretofore has been in a process of development, is ready for commercial exploitation, and promises to be a major product of the new company. Its purpose is to record with photographic speed and accuracy the readings of light, gas, telephones, water and other meters, and we believe it will become an important part of the operating equipment of Public Utility companies throughout the country.

"New products from the general commercial viewpoint are based on further development of the Graflex principle. One model is the smallest folding camera ever made embodying the Graflex features. Another model extends the use of the camera greatly beyond present limits. This instrument, to be known as the 3¼-4½ R. B. Graflex, equipped with F.2.5 Cooke lens photographs well in early morning, later afternoon, or even indoors where flash lights now are required.

Public offering of securities of the corporation will be made next week, it is announced by Clark Williams & Co. The financing will consist of trust receipts combining as a unit one share of 7% cumulative convertible preferred stock and one share of common stock. This financing will conclude the capitalization of the new corporation as a separate entity from the Eastman company.—V. 122, p. 2955.

General Electric Co.—75 Cents in Cash and $1 in Special 6% Stock Payable on Common Shares.—The directors on May 28 declared a quarterly cash dividend of 75 cents per share on the new common stock and an annual dividend of $1 per share in special 6% stock (such stock dividend taking the place of the stock dividend paid in October of each of the last four years). Both dividends are payable July 15 to holders of record July 7. This is equivalent to $12 a share per annum in cash and $4 a share in special 6% stock on the old $100 par value common stock on which dividends at the annual rate of $8 a share in cash and 5% in special 6% stock were paid.

The New York Stock Exchange has authorized the listing on or after May 27 of 7,211,484 shares of common stock, without par value (auth. 7,400,000 shares), on official notice of issuance in exchange for present outstanding and listed stock, par $100, on the basis of 4 shares of common stock without par value for one share of common stock, par $100.—V. 122, p. 2804, 2337.

General Motors Corp.—Sales Overseas.—The expansion in the export of motor cars is an important contributing factor in the continued increase of sales by General Motors, according to President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., who further says:

Sales to our overseas dealers in the first quarter of this year totaled 31,936 cars, compared with 15,577 in the same period last year. Our exports approximate 12% of our total number of cars sold and at the rate they are running will total approximately $100,000,000 wholesale value for 1926. Last year the wholesale value of General Motors cars sold overseas was $77,109,696, compared with $50,929,322 in 1924; $39,193,869 in 1923 and $19,875,015 in 1922. By wholesale value I mean the amount of money the corporation receives for the cars from its dealers. Of course, the retail value or what the buyers abroad pay would swell this amount materially.

In 1925 General Motors total sales to dealers for the whole world were 835,902, of which 100,894 were overseas sales. Following is a comparison of the past 4 years of total sales by General Motors for the whole world, the overseas sales and the percentage of overseas sales to the totals:

1924	587,341	64,845	11.04%
1925	835,902	100,894	12.07%
1926 (1st. Quar.)	280,986	31,936	11.37%

*These figures are the sales to dealers of Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Oakland, Buick and Cadillac in all countries of the world except the United States and Dominion of Canada.

Part of the cars sold overseas have been built in the General Motors plants in the United States and Canada and the balance built in overseas assembly plants. It is the policy of General Motors to make itself part of the business activity of each particular country as far as possible and for that reason we establish at strategic points throughout the world assembly plants and subsidiary corporations for more economic distribution and for the purpose of better meeting local overseas conditions. Merchandising or assembly operations are being conducted in London, England; Copenhagen, Denmark; Antwerp, Belgium; Buenos Aires, Argentina; Sao Paulo, Brazil; Malaga and Bilbao, Spain; Hamburg, Germany; Le Havre, France; Port Elizabeth, South Africa and Wellington, New Zealand. This plant expansion overseas has been in progress during the past three years or more and has not been spectacular because it was necessary to given considerable time to study and analysis before taking action.

Data from Letter of C. S. Hutchinson, Vice Pres. of the Company.

Company and its predecessor, the Hutchinson's Purity Ice Cream Co., have been in successful operation in Des Moines since 1908. From an original investment of $15,000, the company has grown steadily to its present commanding position in the ice cream business in the territory served. It now operates manufacturing and distributing plants in Des Moines, Oskaloosa, Newton, Atlantic, Winterset, Chariton, Perry, Leon, Centerville and Albia.

Earnings.—Consolidated net earnings of all the plants, after all operating expenses and depreciation, but before Federal taxes, have averaged for the 3-year period 1923-24-25 over 9 times the maximum interest requirements. The net earnings for 1925 were the largest in the history of the company and were approximately 12½ times the maximum interest requirements of this loan.

Purpose.—Proceeds will be used to reimburse company for capital expenditures made in the last 12 months in the acquisition of plants and properties, and for additional equipment purchased.

Guaranty.—Bonds will be unconditionally guaranteed by C. S. Hutchinson and J. R. Hutchinson by endorsement on each bond.

For the first two weeks of May owners took delivery of 17,100 Hudson and Essex cars. This brings the total since April 1 to 52,100, which is over 16,000 in excess of the number of cars delivered to buyers in the same period of last year.—V. 122, p. 2956.

Indiana Limestone Co.—Debentures Offered.—Otis & Co., West & Co., Fletcher American Co. and E. W. Clucas & Co. are offering at 99 and int., to yield about 7.12%, $5,000,000 10-year 7% sinking fund gold debentures.

Dated May 1 1926; due May 1 1936. Prin. and int. (M. & N.) payable at Guardian Trust Co., Cleveland, Ohio, trustee. Interest also payable at Bankers Trust Co., New York, or Boulevard Bridge Bank, Chicago, without deduction for Federal normal income tax not exceeding 2%. Company will refund any Penn., Conn., Calif. or Kansas personal property tax not in excess of 4 mills; any Maryland securities tax not in excess of 4½ mills; any Kentucky or District of Columbia personal property tax not in excess of 5 mills; the Mich. exemption tax not in excess of 5 mills; any Virginia personal property tax not in excess of 5½ mills, and any Mass. income tax not to exceed 6% per annum. Denom. $1,000 and $500 c*. Red., all or part, or for the sinking fund, on any int. date on 30 days' notice at 107½ and int. up to and incl. May 1 1928; thereafter to and incl. May 1 1929 at 106½ and int.; thereafter to and incl. May 1 1930 at 105½ and int.; thereafter to and incl. May 1 1931 at 104½ and int.; thereafter to and incl. May 1 1932 at 103½ and int., and at 102½ and int. thereafter prior to maturity.

Stock Purchase Warrants.—Debentures in $1,000 denomination will carry stock purchase warrants (detachable after May 1 1927) entitling the holders thereof to purchase common stock without par value of the company at any time from date of issue up to and including May 1 1936, in the ratio of 20 shares for each $1,000 debenture at $10 per share. Debentures in $500 denom. will carry corresponding warrants for 10 shares.

Earnings.—The consolidated net earnings of the companies, properties and assets of which are to be acquired, available for interest, after adjustment for salaries now to be eliminated, but before depreciation, depletion and Federal taxes, have averaged $3,504,747 annually for the 3 years ended Dec. 31 1925, which is equivalent to 2.8 times the combined annual interest requirements on the 1st mtge. bonds and debentures to be presently outstanding, and 2.26 times combined maximum annual interest charges and minimum fixed sinking funds on both issues. For the year ended Dec. 31 1925 such earnings were $3,108,016, or 2.48 times combined maximum interest requirements and over twice such combined interest and sinking fund charges.

After deducting interest and minimum fixed sinking fund charges on the 1st mtge. bonds, annual average net earnings for the 3-year period ended Dec. 31 1925 were $2,404,747, or 6.87 times maximum annual interest requirements on the debentures, or 5.34 times combined maximum interest and fixed sinking fund charges thereon. Such net earnings for the year ended Dec. 31 1925 were $2,008,016, or 5.73 times such interest requirements, and 4.46 times such combined interest and sinking fund requirements.

The consolidation of the properties is expected to result in material economies in the cost of production and the expense of management.

Sinking Fund.—Indenture under which these debentures are to be issued will provide for fixed sinking fund payments and additional sinking fund payments based on earnings, which, calculated at the present rate should retire approximately 80% of these debentures by maturity. Further details regarding consolidation of properties, capitalization, earnings and balance sheet were published in V. 122, p. 2805.

Industrial Acceptance Corp.—Annual Report.—

President Arthur J. Morris in the report for the year ended Dec. 31 1925 says: The volume of Studebaker dealers' paper purchased during the year amounted to $68,194,000, as compared with a volume of $65,479,000 for the automobile division of the Industrial Finance Corp. in the preceding year. To date the credit losses on the company's first year's business have been negligible, with every indication that they will be below the ample reserves set aside for such losses.

In the corporation's initial year, earnings have permitted the payment of preferred dividends, a dividend of $1 per share on the common stock, ample provision for estimated credit losses, and the carrying forward of the sum of $300,977 in undivided profits.—V. 122, p. 1618.

Industrial Finance Corp.—Report.—

The annual report for 1925 shows net earnings of $587,092 and accrued earnings in companies in which the corporation has holdings of $551,327, for a total net and accrued earnings for the year of $1,138,419. After paying dividends of $304,021 on its debenture and preferred stocks, the net value of the corporation's assets in excess of liabilities increased by $834,398, or over 66 2-3% of the common stock outstanding.—V. 122, p. 2339.

International Mercantile Marine Co.—To Vote on Sale of White Star Line.—The stockholders will vote June 17 on approving the sale of the White Star Line properties to Furness, Withy & Co., Ltd., of England. The directors have agreed upon the fundamental details of the sale, at a price of between £7,000,000 and £7,500,000, depending upon the amount and nature of deferred payments, if any. President P. A. S. Franklin in a letter dated May 24 says:

The stockholders will vote June 17 on conferring upon the board of directors authority to sell on the terms and with the conditions set forth all of the shares of the Oceanic Steam Navigation Co., Ltd. (White Star Line), £5,000,000 par value.

Statements have recently appeared in the public press, both in this country and in England, to the effect that negotiations have been pending for the sale of the Oceanic shares.

It is a fact that for some time past your board of directors has been considering the question of the possible sale of these shares. Conditions which have prevailed in the shipping situation throughout the world, and particularly in connection with the North Atlantic trade, have forced upon your board the necessity of giving all matters pertaining to this trade and its development most careful consideration, and the directors have realized that unless some disposition of the Oceanic shares were made they would soon be faced with the necessity of financing an extensive building program which doubtless would involve the issuing of securities that would take precedence over the shares of your company.

Early in April the President of the company was authorized to proceed to London, with the object of negotiating a sale of the shares on terms which appealed to the board as being for the best interest of the shareholders of this company. The conclusion reached by the board as to the desirability of the sale, it may be said, was concurred in by holders of a large number of shares of both classes of stock of the company.

When the President arrived in London he was able to institute negotiations looking toward the proposed sale, and these negotiations were proceeding when, by reason of the occurrence of the general strike in England on May 3, they, as well as most other matters of business that were pending in England, were for the time being suspended.

These negotiations were based on terms and conditions which if completed will result in a sale for between £7,000,000 and £7,500,000 British sterling, the amount being somewhat dependent upon the amount and nature of the deferred payments, if any. In addition, the terms of sale will provide that your company shall for the present act as general passenger and freight agent of the White Star Line in this country.

If the pending or other similar negotiations for the sale of these shares are consummated, the proceeds which would result therefrom would be available to your company for the acquisition of other property or for the reduction of the bonded indebtedness, as the board should determine when occasion arose.

The official call, sent out by Emerson E. Parvin, Secretary, sets the meeting for 12 o'clock noon, June 17, at the offices of the company, 51 Newark Street, Hoboken, N. J. It is stated that the terms of sale will contain "provision limiting our competition in the trade routes operated by the ships of the said Oceanic Company at the present time for such a period of time and on such terms as the directors shall deem necessary in order to consummate the transaction."—V. 122, p. 2806.

International Paper Co.—Progress of the Gatineau Construction Work.—An official announcement, dated May 20, says:

The development program of the company on the Gatineau River, in the western part of the Province of Quebec, includes the construction at the present time of hydro-electric plants at Farmers Rapids, Chelsea and Paugan Falls, a storage dam at Bitobi, and a newsprint paper mill at Gatineau.

At Chelsea, about 6 miles above the confluence of the Gatineau and Ottawa Rivers, near Ottawa, the construction of a dam and powerhouse is well under way. The powerhouse has been designed for 5 turbines of 34,000 h.p. each at 95 ft. head. The generators will produce current at 6,600 volts which will be stepped up to 110,000 volts for distribution.

At Farmers Rapids, about 7,000 feet below the Chelsea plant, the company is building a hydro-electric plant designed for 5 turbines of 24,000 h.p. each. Each turbine will be directly connected to a generator.

On account of the proximity of these two plants, they will be run in synchronism, each plant using the same amount of water at the same time.

These plants will not only supply the power required to operate the newsprint paper mill of the company now building at Gatineau, on the Quebec side of the Ottawa River about 2 miles below the confluence with the Gatineau, but will be also a source of supply for such industries as may be attracted to the district. It is also expected that a large quantity of power from these plants will be sold to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.—V. 122, p. 2662, 2510.

Guaranteed principal, sinking fund and interest by S. S. Kresge, the founder of the Kresge Foundation.

Sinking Fund.—A fixed yearly sinking fund equivalent to 2% of the largest principal amount of notes at any time outstanding will be provided, commencing in 1928, for the retirement of notes at not exceeding the current redemption price. In addition thereto a sum equivalent to one-half of the amount of dividends received in cash in any calendar year by the Foundation on S. S. Kresge Co. stock in excess of $600,000 will be paid to the sinking fund and used in the same manner to retire notes.

Data From Letter of S. S. Kresge, Treas. of the Kresge Foundation.

History.—The Kresge Foundation was formed in 1924 under the laws of Michigan, as a trustee corporation, for charitable, educational and philanthropic purposes. Since that time I have donated to the Foundation real estate, leaseholds and securities valued at approximately $2,000,000. I am presently donating to the Foundation 500,000 shares of common stock of the S. S. Kresge Co., having a present market value of approximately $22,500,000. The Foundation is purchasing the land, leaseholds and buildings occupied by the L. S. Plaut & Co. department store in Newark, N. J., and also the land and buildings occupied by the Palais Royal, Inc., department store in Washington, D. C. This purchase is being financed through a loan from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. for $5 500,000 for 20 years at an average interest rate of 5¼%, secured by a first mortgage on the Newark property, and by the issue of $8,000,000 10-year collateral trust 6% gold notes to be purchased by the Bankers.

Security.—The notes will be the direct obligation of the Kresge Foundation, and will be secured by the pledge of 500,000 shares of the common stock of the S. S. Kresge Co. The Foundation, upon the completion of this financing, will have other assets, including equities in real estate and investments, amounting to over $9,000,000, carried at cost in respect to real estate holdings and at market for securites.

Earnings.—The income of the Kresge Foundation from dividends on securities and rentals from improved real estate, for the 10-year period ending June 1 1936, after deducting interest payable on mortgage indebtedness, should average $1,132,000 per annum. This income includes cash dividends on the common stock of the S. S. Kresge Co. at the current rate, making no allowance for an increased disbursement based upon present earnings or anticipated growth. Dividends now being paid on this common stock are at the rate of $1.20 per share. Earnings of the S. S. Kresge Co. for 1925, however, were at the rate of $3.17 per share, equivalent to $1,586,000 on the shares to be owned by the Foundation. All of the Foundation's properties will be leased for long periods to responsible tenants and in most instances will be on terms which will provide an increased return each year.

Guaranty.—Notes will bear my guaranty, by endorsement, of the payment of the principal, sinking fund and interest. After giving effect to my donation of 500,000 shares of S. S. Kresge Co. common stock to the Kresge Foundation, my personal unpledged holdings in the S. S. Kresge Co. will presently be not less than 1,000,000 shares of such common stock, having a current market value of approximately $45,000,000.

Listing.—It is contemplated that the Kresge Foundation will make application to list these notes on the New York Stock Exchange.

Lamson & Sessions Co.—Merger.—

Merger of the Lamson & Sessions Co. and Kirk-Latty Mfg. Co., bolt, nut and rivet makers, has been completed. Consolidation was effected to broaden the lines of products, and to increase economies in manufacturing and distribution. For the present the companies will be operated as separate units. Combined resources of the two companies will approximate $6,000,000. Two plants at Cleveland and one at Kent, O., having a daily capacity of 9,000,000 pieces, will be operated ("Iron Trade Review"). —V. 113, p. 1894.

Lord's Court Building (Lord's Court-Exchange Place Corporation).—Bonds Offered.—Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., G. L. Ohrstrom & Co., Inc., New York are offering at 98½ and interest (to yield about 5.65%), $2,500,000 first mortgage 5½% sinking fund gold loan.

Dated June 1 1926; due Dec. 1 1942. Principal and interest (J. & D.) payable at New York Trust Co., New York, trustee. Denom. $1,000 and $500 c*. Redeemable in part for sinking fund purposes on any interest date upon 30 days' notice, to and including June 1 1930, at 103 and int.; thereafter, to and incl. June 1 1935, at 102 and int.; thereafter, to and incl. June 1 1942 at 101 and int. Redeemable as a whole, but not in part, on any interest date upon 30 days' notice, at 101 and int. Interest payable without deduction of any Federal income tax not in excess of 2%. Refund of Penna., Conn., Calif. and Kansas tax not to exceed 4 mills, Mich. 5 mills exemption tax, Maryland 4½ mills tax, Kentucky and Dist. of Colum. 5 mills tax, Virginia 5½ mills tax, and Mass. income tax not to exceed 6%, to resident holders upon proper and timely application.

Location.—The Lord's Court Building, with entrances at 40 Exchange Place and 27 William St., occupies the southwest corner of Exchange Place and William St., New York City, in the heart of the financial district, one of the most important and desirable sections of the metropolitan area. The building is diagonally opposite the National City Bank, directly opposite the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., and adjacent to the Corn Exchange Bank.

Building.—The building, consisting of 20 stories and a basement, is of limestone, brick, steel and fireproof construction, and has been maintained in excellent condition. The building is served by nine high-speed elevators and has its own power and light plant. Charles F. Noyes Co., Inc., has just assumed the operation of the building.

Security.—This loan will be secured by a closed first mortgage on the land and building owned in fee. The plot extends approximately 70.4 ft. on William St. and 107 ft. on Exchange Place, being an irregular plot containing a total ground area of approximately 14,554 sq. ft. The land has been independently appraised by Geo. R. Read & Co. at $2,183,600; H. Craig Severance, architect, has appraised the building at $2,300,000, making a total appraised value of $4,483,000. The land value alone is over 87% of the amount of the loan and based on the total appraisal of land and building, this loan represents less than a 56% mortgage.

Earnings.—The building contains approximately 200,000 sq. ft. of net rentable area and has been practically entirely rented for a period of years. The tenants are for the most part investment banking houses and admiralty and corporation lawyers.

The earnings of the building for the year ended Dec. 31 1925, after giving effect to the new managerial charge contracted for, are reported as follows:

Gross earnings	$512,9
Operating expenses, maintenance, insurance and taxes	222,51
Balance	$290,399
Maximum annual interest charges on this loan	$137,390

Sinking Fund.—Indenture will provide for a sinking fund payable quarterly to the trustee, beginning Sept. 1 1926, and continuing during the life of this issue. The operation of this sinking fund, through purchase in the open market or by redemption, will reduce this loan to less than $1,900,000 by maturity, an amount substantially below the present value of the land alone.

Legal for Trust Funds.—These certificates, in the opinion of counsel, will be legal for the investment of trust funds under the laws of the State of New York.

Data from Letter of H. K. Corbin, President of the Corporation.

Corporation.—Organized by the present management in July 1921 with a paid-in capital of $71,000. Present capital, surplus and reserves are in excess of $1,500,000. It is doing the largest business in New Jersey of any motor finance corporation incorporated in that State. The principal business consists of financing partial payments on medium priced standard makes of automobiles. Through its wholly owned subsidiary, the Eastern Acceptance Corp., the corporation finances time sales of various types of other equipment. Such financing of other equipment amounts to about 25% of the total volume of business of both corporations.

Security.—Notes will be direct obligations of the corporation and, together with all other co.lateral trust notes of the corporation now or hereafter issued, will be equally secured under a collateral trust agreement, by installment paper, including notes, drafts or contracts, deposited with or assigned to the trustee, at the rate of $120 for such installment paper, or by $100 of cash for each $100 of the total of all collateral trust notes outstanding. None of such notes when on automobiles, less finance charges, shall represent an amount in excess of two-thirds of the purchase price of the automobile.

Liquidity.—The corporation's assets consist almost entirely of cash and receivables which are constantly liquidating into cash. In practically every month that the corporation has been in business, collections on receivables have exceeded the amount of its own maturities. The business has been so conducted that at practically any time cash on hand plus collections on receivables for a period of four months would have entirely liquidated the company's indebtedness.

Restrictions.—Corporation will covenant to limit its total indebtedness, including this issue, to an amount not in excess of three times its net quick assets, to be substantiat d quarterly by audit by certified pub.ic accountants and filed with the trustee and bankers. The term net quick assets shall mean the excess of current assets over current liabilities including this issue. Corporation will also covenant to furnish and maintain the security for the notes as set forth above. The automobile installment notes shall respectively mature in equal monthly installments of one to 12 months, except that at any time the total of payments coming due in over 12 months thereafter shall not exceed 10% of the total of amounts outstanding unpaid on the automobile notes in the hands of the trustee. But the corporation shall not include any automobile notes the final payment on which shall mature in over 18 months from the date of making.

Earnings.—Since the inception of the business in July 1921 not an unprofitable year has been experienced. Consolidated net earnings, after taxes and all other charges have been as follows:

Year End. Dec. 31—	Paper, Notes & Obligations Purchased.	Net Avail. for Int. Charges Prior to Fed. Taxes.	Int. & Discount.	Net Available for Common.

8% cum. preferred stock.....	1,000,000	750,000
Common stock (no par).....	90,000 shs.	80,000 shs.

Dividends.—Dividends on the preferred stock have been paid every year since its organization in 1921 without interruption. On the basis of dividends at the rate of $1 per annum on each share of the 80,000 shares of common stock to be presently outstanding (the last dividend declared by the directors having been at said rate) such common stock at the warrant price would yield 10% on the investment. The added volume of business which recent financing will permit should result in increased earnings.

Purpose.—Proceeds will be used to provide funds to take care of the increased volume of desirable business and for other corporate purposes.

Company.—The business now conducted by the corporation originated in 1885 and has been in successful operation 40 years. Company is now one of the largest as well as the oldest organization specializing in the manufacture of gas ranges. Starting with a capital of less than $25,000, the present assets have been largely built up through the re-investment of net earnings. Company's business consists primarily of the manufacture of the most modern types of gas ranges which are distributed through a large number of leading public utility companies and independent dealers throughout the United States. In addition to its large business in gas ranges, the company also manufactures electric ranges of its own design, which are considered among the best on the market.

In 1919 the business of the Trahern Pump Co. was acquired and the manufacture of a comprehensive line of hand and power pumps for agricultural and commercial purposes has been continued, the products being sold under the well-known trade name "Trahern." This pump business is a desirable adjunct and aids materially in increasing the profit from the operation of the company's foundry.

The manufacture of gas ranges constitutes about 80% of the company's business and miscellaneous products about 20%.

Sinking Fund.—Trust agreement provides for a sinking fund of $44,000 beginning April 1 1928; thereafter each year's saving in interest will be added. The total payments will be sufficient to retire $450,000 of the $700,000 convertible notes prior to or at maturity.

Purpose.—To provide funds for the retirement of the bonds heretofore outstanding and to provide additional working capital made necessary by the growth of the business.

Convertibility.—Preferred stock is convertible at any time at par into common stock at $40 per share, i. e., each share of preferred stock is exchangeable at the holder's option for 2½ shares of common stock; protection against dilution of the conversion privilege is provided in the charter. In case any preferred stock is called, the right to convert extends up to 10 days prior to the redemption date.

Sinking Fund.—Beginning Sept. 1 1930 the new corporation must apply 20% of its annual net earnings after preferred dividend requirements to the purchase or retirement of preferred stock, but there is to be credited on this sinking fund the par amount of all preferred stock converted into common stock.

Data from Letter of Joseph M. Schenck, Chairman, Dated May 25 '26.

Circuit of Theatres.—Company has been organized in Maryland by Joseph M. Schenck, Sidney Grauman, Lee Shubert, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks to acquire, directly or through subsidiaries, motion picture theatres and interests therein in important cities of the United States.

The present financing, supplemented by real estate mortgages, leasing and other local arrangements, should be sufficient to complete the circuit as contemplated.

Contract with United Artists Corporation.—New corporation will enter into a contract with United Artists Corp. (of Del.) to run for 10 years, whereby: (a) The theatres of the new circuit have a preferential right to exhibit important United Artists pictures by way of "pre-release" or "first run"s before they are shown in other motion picture theatres in the same localities. (b) United Artists pictures will, except in unusual cases, be exhibited in the theatres of the new circuit on a percentage basis, i. e., box office receipts will be first applied to the cost of operating the theatres, including depreciation and an investment return to provide for 7% dividends on the preferred stock as its proceeds are employed in new theatres, and net profits thereafter will be divided in agreed percentages between United Artists Corp. (in full payment for the pictures) and the new corporation (for its own profit)

United Artists Corp. has contracts pursuant to which it now is, or in the course of the next theatrical season will be, "distributing" to theatres throughout the world the new motion pictures featuring Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Norma Talmadge, Rudolph Valentino, Gloria Swanson, John Barrymore, Charles Chaplin and Buster Keaton, as well as motion pictures produced by well-established independent producers, including Joseph M. Schenck. All of these artists or their producers, except Charles Chaplin, have already approved the 10-year contract above mentioned in so far as it affects their individual contracts with United Artists Corp.

United Artists Corp. was organized in 1919 as a co-operative enterprise. Its contracts with its artist-and-producer stockholders require them to deliver pictures to it at stated intervals.

Management and Policy.—The management of the circuit will be under Sidney Grauman, manager of the Egyptian Theatre at Hollywood, Calif.

Throughout the circuit Mr. Grauman expects to give each picture a novel presentation and artistic surroundings such as have led to an unparalleled record of picture runs in his Hollywood theatre (8 pictures only in 3½ years), and have made for him his great reputation on the Pacific Coast.

So far as practicable he expects to run each picture (a) simultaneously in all the theatres of the circuit, (b) for a run of four weeks, (c) "continuously" during the day and (d) with a box office price of $1 top.

Messrs. J. & W. Seligman & Co. will be represented on the board of directors.

Estimated Earnings.—Mr. Schenck estimates that the first full year's operations of the completed circuit will show $2,000,000 earned on the common stock, equivalent to $4 per share. This estimate would indicate preferred dividends earned not merely about 8 times over, but considerably more times over, due to the fact that they rank ahead of the "picture's share" as well as the "theatre's share" of profits divided on a percentage basis.

The new corporation proposes shortly to lease, or otherwise take over, certain existing theatres. Earnings from this source and from temporary employment of cash should be ample to cover preferred dividend requirements pending completion of the circuit.

(of Va.) under the terms of the plan of reorganization. The stocks and voting trust certificates for stocks of the new company to be delivered in exchange for the bonds, obligations and stocks of the old company to be adjusted under the reorganization plan will be ready for delivery on and after May 28.—V. 122, p. 1929.

Willys Overland Company.—Earnings, &c.—

The company reports for the month of April 1926, earnings, before taxes, of $2,112,185.

Pres. John N. Willys announces that production and sales of Willys Knight and Overland Six cars for May are making new high records. Retail sales of Overland Six, as shown by dealers' reports on May 20, exceeded total sales for the entire month of April. He stated that Willys Knight production exceeded 400 cars per day and total production was more than 1,000 cars and that retail sales continue ahead of production and May earnings will exceed $2,500,000.—V. 122, p. 2816, 2184.

Wilson & Co., Inc.—Financing Rumor Denied.—

President Thomas E. Wilson denied emphatically on May 25 a report that the company was about to do some financing. The report, he said, was entirely without foundation. Mr. Wilson added that the reorganization had been completed in accordance with the plan of April 2 1925, issued by the reorganization committee, which provided for financing only in the amount of $2,500,000 of 5-year notes; that such notes had been sold as a part of the plan; and that the company was in a very strong financial position which made it entirely unnecessary for it to consider further financing.—V. 122, p. 2514.

The Gross Earnings, Operating Expenses, Fixed Charges, Surplus, etc., are shown in the following condensed statement:

Fixed Charges, Taxes, etc.	7,703,032.58	5,039,911.09	12,742,943.67	12,237,697.48

Freight Revenue for the System during 1925 was $39,419,-822 34, an increase of $2,070,717 58, or 5.54%, compared with the previous year. The 1924 grain crop amounted to 64,943,-053 bushels, of which 70.5% moved during the year 1924. It is estimated that the 1925 grain crop amounted to 58,619,-454 bushels, of which only 65.5% was moved during the year 1925. This resulted in a decrease of $440,000 00 in revenue as compared with the previous year. There were increases in revenue from shipments of the following commodities: Iron ore, $421,000 00; stone, sand and gravel, $118,000 00; farm implements and automobiles, $453,000 00; L. C. L. freight, $431,000 00; miscellaneous carloads, $780,000 00. These, together with other smaller increases, resulted in a total net increase in freight revenue of $2,071,000 00.

Passenger Revenue was $6,292,051 69, a decrease of $283,-854 37, or 4.3%, as compared with the previous year. The decrease in local ticket sales was $263,711 00, which accounts for practically all of the decrease in passenger earnings. Train service was curtailed everywhere possible, in line with the decrease in local travel, resulting in a decrease of 4% in passenger train miles. Long distance and tourist travel showed a continued improvement; the through service via the Canadian Rockies becoming more popular each year.

Milk Revenue was $632,132 94, a decrease of $41,375 41, or 6.14%, compared with the previous year. Increased diversification of farming west of Minneapolis was indicated by an increase in milk revenue of $30,641 59 in Soo Line territory proper. This increase, however, was more than offset by the decrease in milk revenue on the Wisconsin Central, amounting to $72,017 00, due to the fact that most of the short haul milk is now being handled by trucks.

Maintenance of Way and Structures Expenses decreased $450,971 95 as compared with the previous year. There was an unusual amount of ballasting and bridge filling work done during the year 1924.

Maintenance of Equipment Expenses increased $219,-770 18, or 2.54%, compared with the previous year. This was entirely due to a change in accounting required by Interstate Commerce Commission rules. Effective August 1 1925, certain costs of rebuilding cars were charged to this account, instead of to Additions and Betterments.

Transportation Expenses decreased $593,485 98, or 3.1%. Freight revenue increased 5.5%; gross ton miles (which includes weight of cars as well as freight) increased 2.9%. Decrease in transportation expenses was accomplished by an increase in train tonnage from 1,253 tons in 1924 to 1,295 tons in 1925. This reduced freight train miles .4% in the face of increased business. A decrease in the amount of coal burned per unit of business moved resulted in a saving of $157,788 45. Ratio of transportation expenses to revenue was 37.00, compared with 39.56 in 1924. This was the lowest ratio since 1916.

There was an increase of $153,762 10 in payments for "Hire of Equipment," as compared with 1924, caused by the increased business handled.

Minneapolis St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company:
First Consolidated Mortgage 5% Bonds	$8,136,000.00
Series "L" Equipment Notes	400,000.00
Twenty-five Year Gold Notes, issued in exchange for Wisconsin Central Railway Company Common Stock	20,600.00
Total Increase		$8,556,600.00

Decrease of outstanding indebtedness was effected or provided for during the year as follows:

Minneapolis St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company:
M. S. S. M. & A. Ry. Co. First Mortgage Bonds	$250,000.00
Funds deposited with Trustee for retirement on January 1 1926 of M. S. S. M. & A. Ry. Co. First Mortgage Bonds	7,886,000.00
First Refunding Mortgage Bonds, Series "A"	35,000.00
Equipment Trust Obligations	549,266.46
Two-Year 5% Gold Notes	45,000.00
Wisconsin Central Railway Company:
First General Mortgage Bonds	141,000.00
Marshfield & Southeastern Division P. M. Bonds	6,000.00
Equipment Trust Obligations	156,733.54
Total Decrease		$9,069,000.00
Net Decrease		$512,400.00

There were outstanding $8,136,000 Minneapolis, Sault Ste. Marie & Atlantic Railway Company First Mortgage bonds maturing on January 1 1926. For the purpose of retiring these the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company issued a like amount of bonds under its First Consolidated Mortgage. These were sold as 5% bonds with interest guaranteed by the Canadian Pacific Company. The proceeds, together with the necessary additional amount of cash, were deposited with the Trustee to be used in retiring the bonds maturing on January 1 1926.

There were issued $400,000 00 Series "L" Equipment Notes in the acquirement of 250 steel body and underframe ore cars.

During the year there was expended for Additions and Betterments to Road a net amount of $1,083,556 25. There was also expended for Additions and Betterments to Equipment (including 250 new ore cars acquired under provisions of Series "L" Equipment Notes) $1,171,383 08. Equipment valued at $831,616 80 was retired. This made a net increase in Additions and Betterments to Equipment of $339,766 28. The Company has purchased 500 box cars, 100 gondola cars and 2 Cafe Parlor cars for delivery during 1926.

There has been no important change in the situation affecting the Interstate Commerce Commission tentative valuation of the property and assets of the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company, Wisconsin Central Railway Company and the Central Terminal Railway Company, except that the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing of the protest of these Companies began on May 3 and is now going on. The aggregate cost of these Companies of the valuation work up to December 31 1925 amounted to $453,935 56.

Subsequent to Federal Control, this Company, as Trustee, handled certain accounts for the United States Railroad Administration. During the year, final settlement of these accounts was made. There are now no unadjusted items between this Company and the United States Railroad Administration.

The foregoing figures indicate that the results obtained for 1925 were a great improvement over 1924.

Conditions in the agricultural communities of the Northwest are improving rapidly. Farmers have been able to pay up past due interest, taxes, and current debts; diversification is growing as fast as is wise; and the buying power of the farmer is increasing; so we can look forward with confidence to the future. An average crop during 1926 at prices near what they are to-day will surely put the Northwest in a good condition. This will further stimulate the growing interest in farm lands, which is now developing, and will mean that emigration from the older farming sections of this country will again turn toward the Northwest. The importance of this cannot be overestimated, for to bring back again into production the farms which were abandoned during the farm crisis of the years 1920 to 1924 will be the greatest factor in enabling our property to again show satisfactory results.

During 1925 our property was well maintained and many improvements were made which will effect economies in operation.

Various statements covering the operations of the property during the period January 1 to December 31 1925 will be found on the following pages [of the pamphlet report].

Respectfully submitted,

C. T. JAFFRAY, President.

Friday Night, May 28 1926.

COFFEE on the spot was in moderate demand. Rio's stock was 189,000 bags, against 144,000 a year ago; Santos 1,353,000, against 2,274,000 a year ago. Total in sight for the United States was 677,882 bags, against 403,407 a year ago. Cost and freight offers from Brazil were quiet on the 25th inst. Sales of Bourbon 4s were reported at 21.40c., Santos 4s were quoted 21.30 to 21.70c.; genuine Bourbon 4s, 21.90c.; part Bourbon 3-5s at 21.60 to 22c.; part Bourbon 4-5s at 21.50c.; Bourbon 7-8s grinders, ranged from 19.15 to 19.65c.; Victoria 7-8s, 18.80c.; Rio 7s, 19.20c.; peaberry 4s, 22.10 to 22.30c. On the 27th inst. prompt shipment Santos 3-4s at 22.30c. to 22.45c.; 3-5s at 21¾c.; 4-5s at 20.85 to 21.65c.; 5-6s at 20¼ to 21.35c.; Bourbon grinders 7-8s at 18¾c. to 19¼c.; part Bourbon 2s, highly described at 24c. to 24.35c.; 2-3s at 23c.; 3-4s at 22½c.; 3-5s at 21.15c. to 21⅝c.; 5s at 21.15c.; 5-6s at 21.20c.; Santos peaberry 3-5s at 21.70c.; Rio 7s at 18.80c.; Victoria 7-8s at 18.40c. to 18½c. To-day spot coffee was quiet; Bourbon 3s sailing to-morrow 22¼c.; 4-5s July-August, 21c.; part Bourbon 3-5s, 25½c.; Victoria 7s, 18.70c. shipment on La Sell. Deliveries up to May 26 were 428,845 bags, against 327,168 for the same time last year.

Futures advanced early in the week 10 to 17 points with Brazilian holders firmer. Trade here was not large. On the 24th inst. the sales were only 18,000 bags. On that day Santos term prices were 25 reis lower to 100 reis higher, with exhcnage 1-16d. net higher at 7 17-32d. with the dollar rate at 30 reis higher. Rio opening terme prices were unchanged to 200 reis higher with exchange up ⅛d. to 7⅝d. and the dollar rate off 40 reis to 6$470. Private Santos cables were firm with offerings of the better grades small. It is said that the government holdings amount to about 500,000 bags. Some think the market acts tired. It is declared to need something more than the artificial methods or downright manipulation now noticeable if it is to make a permanent advance, in Brazil. Business halts. It is in a sceptical mood. Some Brazil reports from up-country state that weather conditions have been very good for the growing crop with plants showing abundant foliage and the 1926-27 crop should average it is contended 9,500,000 bags with a better bean. A banking syndicate headed by Dillon, Read & Co. last Saturday placed a $35,000,000 loan in 6½% bonds of the United States of Brizil, the largest loan ever negotiated by Brazil here. Today futures closed 2 to 8 points lower with sales of 21,000 bags. Yet the cables were up. Santos was 150 to 250 reis higher. Santos Exchange was 7 9-16 a rise of 1-32d. The dollar rate was down 30 reis to 6$520. Rio futures were 1,000 reis higher on May while June was unchanged and July 75 reis lower. Final prices were practically the same as a week ago only March was down about 10 points. Prices follow:

SUGAR.—Raws sold to the amount of 30,000 bags of Porto Rican at 2⅜c. c. & f. Cuban 96 degrees, duty paid, was quoted at 4.14c. In Cuba seven more centrals finished grinding on the 24th inst., leaving only 135 in operation. They have a total output of some 23,500,000 bags as against estimates of 25,462,000 bags. On Whit Monday, May 24, business in Hamburg, London and Paris was suspended. One refiner here raised the price of granulated 5 points. The range was 5.35 to 5.60c. A better demand is expected soon. Futures were dull on the 24th inst. and unchanged to 1 point net lower, with European markets dull or closed. The transactions here were only 6,300 tons. There were switches from July to March at 23 points and from July to September at 13 points. For the time being the market for sugar futures, it is contended, will be a matter of weather in this country. If it should become warmer, better demand for refined will at once necessitate refiners' buying raws. This, it is assumed, would cause higher prices in futures.

It is pointed out that Cuba for some weeks has refused to offer sugars on weak markets when nearby duty free sugars were being pressed for sale. This policy some assume will be maintained now that Cuba is on the eve of its best trade. Havana cabled: "General rains, forecast cloudy." The Cuban crop is rapidly drawing to a close as is plainly shown by the smallness of the number of centrals now grinding compared with last year. Receipts at Cuban ports for the week were 76,922 tons against 82,837 in the previous week, 113,596 in the same week last year and 52,155 two years ago; exports 72,880 against 85,351 in previous week, 102,290 last year and 69,721 two years ago; stock 1,472,670 tons against 1,468,628 in the previous week, 1,299,490 last year and 942,918 two years ago; centrals grinding 34 against 54 in the previous week, 69 in the same week last year and 35 two years ago. Stocks at Atlantic ports were 76,972 tons against 90,106 last week and 93,264 last year; meltings 69,000 against 65,000 last week and 68,000 last year; stocks 306,196 tons against 358,224 last week and 237,786 last year. The Cuban Trading Co. estimated the production in Cuba to May 15th at 4,730,-641 tons. Three more centrals have finished grinding with an outturn of 1,130,548 bags compared with an estimate of 1,225,000 bags.

Liquidation of July was rather large on the 27th inst. Some took September. On the same day 50,000 bags of Cubas June sold at 2 7-16c. and 1,600 of St. Croix first half July shipment at 4.27c. Of late prices have been rather weaker. Today prompt or nearby sugar was freely offered at 2 7-16c. with forward deliveries 2½c. There was little demand for prompt. Trading was light on the eve of the holidays. London reported Cuba equal to 2.38c. f. o. b., with bids around 2.32c. Refined was quiet, as a rule, at 5.50 to 5.70c. Withdrawals continued to be liberal. Futures closed 2 to 4 points lower, with sales of 49,550 tons. Final changes show a net decline for the week of 1 to 4 points. Prompt raws at 2 7-16c. end ng 1-16c. higher than a week ago. Prices follow:

LARD on the spot was steady with a moderate trade. Prime Western, 16.30 to 16.40c.; Middle Western, 16.15 to 16.25c.; city in tierces, 16c.; city in tubs, 16½c.; compound carlots in tierces, 16 to 16¼c.; refined pure lard, Continent, 16⅝ to 16¾c.; South America, 17½c.; Brazil, 18½c. Prime Western of late has been 16.35c. to 16.45c.; refined Continent, 16⅞c.; South America, 17½c.; Brazil, 18½c. Futures declined early in the week with large receipts of hogs, lower prices for them and more or less liquidation. Ra lying later with a sharp rise in cottonseed oil, the price ran into renewed selling on a decline in corn and reacted. Deliveries on May lard on the 27th inst. were 200,000 lbs. Cables advanced 3d. to 6d. Cottonseed oil interests bought. Prices fell, however, with grain. To-day futures were 8 to 13 points net higher, the latter on May. The opening was inclined to be a trifle weak. Scattered selling had some effect. Also there was some liquidation with hogs lower and corn for a time rather weak. Later on it was a different story. Commission houses took hold. Offerings fell off. Hog products closed firm. They were braced by a stronger market for cottonseed oil. All this counted for more than dulness of cash trade and the fact that hogs closed 5 to 15 cents lower with the top $14 35. Western hog receipts were 78,000, against 100,000 a year ago. For the week prices show a net rise of 3 to 8 points.

PETROLEUM has been tending higher. While most producers were quoting 14c. for U. S. Motor in tank cars, refinery and 15c. delivered to the trade in tank cars, one refinery advanced the price ½c. a gallon to 14½c. refinery. There was a good jobbing demand despite the unusually cool weather. On the 26th inst. Urania crude oil was cut 15c. by the Louisiana Oil & Refining Co. to $1 15 a barrel, because of overproduction. Kerosene has been firm at 11½ to 12c. for water white in tank cars at local refineries and 12½ to 13c. in tank cars delivered to trade. There was a fair jobbing demand. In the Gulf water white was held at 9½c. and prime white at 8¼c. in bulk. Pennsylvania lubricating oils were in rather better demand; 600 s. r. in bbls., 22½c. A better demand was also reported for paraffin oils. Export demand for lubricants in the Gulf section was said to have improved a little. Gas oil steady at 6½c. for 36-40 at local refineries while 28-34 was held at 5¾c. Latterly gasoline has been firmer with a better export inquiry. Leading refiners were asking 14 to 14½c.; in tank cars to trade 15 to 15½c. Cased gasoline was in rather better demand. Cased kerosene was steady but quiet. Bunker oil was rather firmer. New York refined export prices: Gasoline, cases, cargo lots, U. S. Motor specifications, dedorized 29.40c.; bulk refiner, 14c.; Kerosene, cargo lots, cases, 19.15c.; W. RUBBER on the 24th inst. was dull and weaker here, with London closed for the Whit-Monday holiday. At the New York Rubber Exchange June was 46 to 46.30c., closing at 46.20c.; July, 42.80 to 43.20c., closing at 43.20c.; December, 42 to 42.30c., closing at 42c. First latex crepe, spot, 47 to 48c.; May, 47 to 47½c.; June, 46 to 47c.; July-September, 43½c.; October-December, 43c.; ribbed smoked sheets, spot and May, 46 to 47c.; June, 46 to 46½c.; July-September and October-December, 42 to 42½c.; brown, crepe, thin, clean, 41c.; specky, 37c.; No. 1 rolled, 38c. Some think that London dealers have withdrawn their support and are willing to see the price go below the 21d. mark during the present quarter in order that the plan for reducing shipments from the East to 80% can be executed. There was big selling here on the 25th inst., following declines in London and Singapore, and prices touched new low records for the movement. The trade seems to expect an increase of at least 1,000 tons in London stocks for the week, and the statistical position was considered bearish. New York will be closed Saturday and Monday. Prices recently have had a sharp break.

On the 26th inst., after opening dull and weak, the market became more active and closed at the high of the day. June was 44.40 to 45c., closing at 45c.; July was 41.10 to 42.20c., closing at 42.20c.; August was 39.70 to 41.20c., closing at 41.20c.; December was 39.70 to 41c., closing at 41.10c. First latex crepe, spot and May, 46 to 46½c.; June, 45 to 45½c.; July-September, 42c.; October-December, 41½c. Ribbed smoked sheets, spot and May, 45 to 45½c.; June, 44 to 45c.; July-September, 41 to 41½c.; October-December, 41 to 41½c. Brown crepe, thin, clean, 39c.; specky, 35c.; No. 1 rolled, 36½c.; Amber No. 2, 40c.; No. 3, 39c.; No. 4, 38c. Caucho balls, Upper, 28c.; Lower, 22c.; Cameta, 26c.; Para, Up-river, fine spot 40c.; coarse 30c.; Island fine 38c.; Centrals Corinto scrap 28c.; Esmeraldas 28c.; Mexican scrap 27c.; Guayule washed and dried 34 to 36c. In London on May 26 prices fell ¼d.; spot June 20¾d.@21d.; July-September 20½d. to 20¾d.; October-December, 20¾ to 21d.; January-March, 21 to 21½d. Singapore on May 26 was quiet but steady; spot to July-September, 19½d.

New York was firmer but quiet on the 27th inst. At the Exchange July was 41.30 to 42.60c. closing at 41.40c., August 40.60 to 41.96c. closing at 40.80c. Outside prices: First latex crepe spot and May 46 to 46½c.; June 45 to 45½c.; July-Sept. 42½c.; Oct.-Dec. 42c.; Ribbed smoked sheets, spot and May 45 to 45½c.; June 44 to 44½c.; July-Sept. and Oct.-Dec. 41 to 42c.; Brown, crepe thin clean 39c.; specky 35c.; No. 1 rolled 36½c. At times during the week trading has been very active but latterly it has fallen off, on the eve of three holidays, when the exchange will be closed. The opening today was irregular with prices 60 points lower to 10 higher. July sold at 41.50 to 41.60c. London was ¼d. higher at 2 p. m., July-Sept. 20¾. Other deliveries 21d. Singapore closed unchanged to 1d. lower, May and June 19d.; July-Sept. 19¼d.

HIDES.—River Plate have been rather more active and 10,500 frigorifico cows sold to the United States at $30 50, or 13⅝c. c. & f. They are said to be quoted now at 13⅞c. Of Wilson steers, 4,000 are said to have sold at $33 12½, or 14 13-16c. c. & f. Butt brands are said to have sold at as high as 12½c. and Colorado at 12c., but some quotations are 12 and 11½c., respectively. Country hides have been quiet but steady. Common hides have been quiet with Antioquias 22½c.; Orinocos, 20c. New York City calfskins are said to be well sold up and all weights have been quoted at $1 60 to $1 70, $2 to $2 05 and $2 65 for 5-7s to 9-12s.

OCEAN FREIGHTS.—Rates have been steady coincident with the continuance of the coal strike in Great Britain. Coal rates, however, have been kept so high as to hurt business in coal tonnage. That is the very general testimony. Later, coal tonnage to England was in better demand.

Charters included grain from Columbia River to United Kingdom-Continent, 31s., option Vancouver, 30s. 6d., August-September; coal from Hampton Roads to United Kingdom, $3, option French Atlantic, $2 75, early June; lumber from Gulf to River Plate, 152s. 6d., June; grain from North Pacific to United Kingdom-Continent, 31s. 3d., May 25-June 15 canceling; 30,000 qrs. from Montreal to Antwerp or Rotterdam, 14c., option Hamburg, 14½c., May 31 canceling; coal from Hampton Roads to United Kingdom, $3, option French Atlantic, $2 75, first half June; from Hampton Roads to Rio de Janeiro, $4, option River Plate, $4 25, May-June; from Hampton Roads to United Kingdom, $3, option French Atlantic, $2 75, June; from Hampton Roads to Mediterranean, with all options, $3, May-June; time charter, 7,610 tons, 7 to 9 months in Pacific trade, delivery San Pedro, redelivery China-Japan-Australia, $1, June 15-July 25 canceling; 8,400 tons transpacific voyage, delivery British Columbia, redelivery China-Japan, $1 90, June-July; tankers, 7,000 tons, clean from Gulf to United Kingdom-Continent, 27s. 6d., June-July; 5,500 tons from Gulf to Continent, 30s., June-July; from Gulf to United Kingdom-Continent, 27s. 6d., May-June; from Gulf to French Atlantic, 27s. 6d., June; grain from Montreal to Rotterdam, 12c., May 28-June 8 canceling; 30,000 qrs. from Montreal to Antwerp-Hamburg range, 12½c. one, 13c. two ports, May 31-June 12 canceling; 32,000 qrs. from Montreal to Mediterranean, 15½c., option Antwerp or Rotterdam, 15c., Hamburg 12½c., June 15-25 canceling; 27,000 qrs. from Montreal to Genoa, 3s. 3d., June 5-20 canceling; from Montreal to Antwerp or Rotterdam 12½c., option United Kingdom 3s., two ports 3s. 3d., June 5-15 canceling; from Montreal to Southampton, 3s. 3d., prompt; from San Lorenzo to Montreal, 18s. 3d., option United-Kingdom-Continent 19s. 3d., May; sugar from Santo Domingo to United Kingdom-Continent, 18s., June; coal from Hampton Roads to Rio de Janeiro, $3 75, prompt; from Hampton Roads to United Kingdom, $2 90, free discharge, prompt; from Hampton Roads to Las Palmas, 14s., prompt; from Sydney, C. COAL.—Though large sales have been made to England, prices have been tending downward. The sales in a week to England are estimated at 100,000 tons of bituminous. Great Britain will send American coal to South America and fill up their Atlantic bunkers with it. Exports of coal from England were stopped on the day of the strike. Great Britain is being rationed. The "Coal Age" spot index for bituminous coal declined 4 cents in the past week to $1 89. And production keeps up; it has not dropped below 9,000,000 tons weekly. There is a recession from the recent rather remarkable total Lake dumpings of 600,000 tons. They are still much larger, however, than those of last year. That may yet prove of no small moment to the trade.

TOBACCO has remained quiet. There is only the ordinary routine demand for this or that description of leaf tobacco. Sumatra meets with a fair demand, even at current high prices, the sequel of the inscription sales at which high quotations were the outstanding feature. As to the cigar business in this country the reports are in the main favorable. Prices in general for leaf tobacco are considered steady. Wisconsin, binders, 23c.; Northern, 38 to 50c.; Southern, 25 to 35c.; New York State, seconds, 30 to 35c.; Ohio, Gebhardt binders, 20c.; Little Dutch, 20 to 25c.; Zimmer Spanish, 25 to 28c.; Havana, 1st Remedios, 90 to 95c.; Pennsylvania, broad leaf filler, 8 to 13c.; broadleaf binder, 15 to 20c.; Porto Rico, 75c. to $1 10; Connecticut, top leaf, 18 to 20c.; No. 1 seconds, 60 to 70c.; seed fillers, 15c.; medium wrappers, 70c.; dark wrappers, 35 to 45c.; light wrappers, 90 to $1 20.

COPPER was weaker. Producers who were quoting 13⅞c. at one time during the week were said later to be offering freely at 13.82½c. delivered in the valley. And there were rumors that in small lots 13.75c. was done. Demand is small. Export prices ranged from 13.72½ to 13.77½c. with business light. Conditions in the Lake district are reported satisfactory. Middle Western consumers are taking smaller tonnages but automobile manufacturers are purchasing rather large quantities. In London standard spot on the 26th inst. sold at £56 5s. and futures at £57 2s. 6d.; electrolytic was £64 5s. for spot and £64 10s. for futures. Latterly trade has been dull at 13.82½c. London to-day was £56 7s. 6d. spot, and £57 5s. futures; electrolytic, spot, £64 10s.

TIN of late has been easier with trade rather small. Spot and May here on the 26th inst. closed at 61c.; June 60¼c. and July, August and Sept., 59½c. While the tin plate production for the first half of the year is probably equal to the record of 1925, there is much scepticism as to the 1926 consumption. A large quantity of canned food is reported to be held over from the 1925 packing season.

Spot standard in London on the 26th inst. declined 15s. to £268 and futures fell 5s to £268; on sales of 580 tons of futures; spot Straits declined £1 15s. to £276; eastern c. i. f. London advanced £3 to £273 on sales of 250 tons. Latterly tin has been weak with London down 5s. on standard. New York on the 27th inst. dropped ¼c. Some 400 tons sold on Thursday. Spot and May, 60¾ to 61c.; June, 60¼ to 60⅜c.; later deliveries 59¼ to 59½c. London to-day, £268 12s. 6d. spot and £267 12s. 6d. futures.

LEAD was in good demand in the West but quiet in the East. Prices are steady at 7.65c. New York and 7.45c. East St. Louis. London on the 26th inst. fell 2s. 6d. on the spot to £28 8s. 9d. and futures fell 3s. 9d. to £28 17s. 6d. on sales of 1,000 tons of futures. Here trade has latterly been at best only fair. The Central West is in better shape as to business. New York is 7.65c. from the leading producer. East St. Louis was 7.40 to 7.45c. London rose 1s. 3d. on the 27th inst., touching £28 10s. on the spot and £28 18s. 9d. on futures. London today spot, £28 12s. 6d. futures, £28 15s.

ZINC has been quiet at 6.80 to 6.85c. East St. Louis. The Belgian production of zinc in April was reported at 23,040 tons or 7,000 tons more than in the previous month. A. J. M. Sharpe of the International Metal Service, London, put world stocks of zinc on May 1st at 43,100 tons. London on the 26th inst. declined 1s 3d. on the spot to £32 1s 3d. and futures fell 2s 6d. to £32 8s 9d. on sales of 100 tons of spot and 200 tons of futures. Latterly prices have declined in London. Spot there was 3s 9d. off on the 27th inst. to £31 17s 6d. and futures 1s 3d. lower to £32 7s 6d. At East St. Louis 6.85 to 6.87½c. was quoted with the demand somewhat better. London today £32 spot and £32 7s 6d. futures.

STEEL.—Bars were quoted by the United States Steel Corporation at 2c. or $2 a ton higher. Line pipe has advanced. Not a few pipe mills are said to be working at capacity. The American Iron and Steel Institute declares that steel prices are too low. Lowering bars to 1.90c. recently did no good. It did not stimulate trade. Whether makers will stick to 2c. or go through the old experience, time must determine. Last week, it appears, the awards of fabricated structural steel were 51,000 tons, the second best week of the year. It is said about 50,000 tons of fabricated steel will be required for a proposed elevated motor roadway at New York. Nominal prices were as follows: Semi-finished (gross tons) billets, re-rolling, $35 to $36; billets, forging, $41 to $42; sheet bars, $36 to $37; slabs, $36; wire rods, $45 to $46; skelp, 1.85 to 1.90c. per lb.; sheets, &c., blue annealed, 2.40 to 2.50c.; black, 3.15 to 3.20c.; galvanized, 4.30 to 4.40c.; auto body, 4.30 to 4.40c.; strips, hot rolled, 2.30 to 2.40c.; strips, cold rolled, 3.90 to 4c.; hoops, 2.50 to 2.60c.; bands, 2.40 to 2.50c.; tin plate, $5 50 per base box. At Celveland bars are generally quoted at 2 to 2.10c. Chicago soft steel bars advanced from 2.10c. to 2.20c. to-day. Plates and shapes are expected to rise before long. It is pointed out that a countervailing duty against German steel is relatively unimportant. German steel shipped to the United States last year amounted to only 30,000 tons of finished steel as against 150,000 tons from Belgium. Importers of German steel are in ignorance as to what the duty will be. Some may try to substitute Belgian or French steel.

PIG IRON has been quiet and rather weaker. Eastern Penn. is nominally $21 50 to $22 and Buffalo $21, but it is intimated that Buffalo might be shaded. Recent sales in the East are the smallest for many weeks past. New duties are to be imposed on foreign iron. What the rates are to be had not been announced, but German and East Indian rates are to be raised. Washington has been gathering data prepatatory to imposing the new rates. Collectors of the ports have been notified not to clear entry until the government has decided upon the countervailing duty which will become retroactive from the time this notice was issued. The Treasury Department from the time this notice was issued. The Treasury Department has stated that there will be a countervailing duty against German pig iron as well as various forms of German iron and steel, not to become effective before June 13.

WOOL has been dull and rather weak, pending the resumption of the sales in London or the resumption of domestic buying. Dulness still dominates the situation. In the meantime prices are largely nominal as follows:

Ohio and Penn. fine delaine, 44 to 45c.; Territory, clean basis, fine staple, $1 10 to $1 15; Texs, clean basis, fine 12 months, $1 12 to $1 15; pulled, scoured basis, A super, 92 to 97c.; Australian, clean basis, in bond, 64-70s combing, $1 to $1 02; 64-70s clothing, 96 to $1; New Zealand, clean basis, in bond, 58-60s, 80 to 82c.; 56-58s, 71 to 73c. Montevideo, grease basis, in bond, 58-60s, 44 to 45c.; I (56s), 41 to 42c.; II (50s), 37 to 38c.; Buenos Aires, grease basis, in bond, IV (54s), 28 to 30c.; average longs, 91 to 93c.; V Lincoln (40s), 26 to 28c.; Cape, clean basis, in bond, best combings, 95 to 98c.; III (46-48s), 32 to 33c.

In Boston trade has been dull with prices tending downward. English mills are curtailing output. The coal strike hit them rather hard. Continental mills are fairly busy; nothing more. The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from Jan. 1 1926 to May 20, inclusive, were 79,994,000 pounds, against 61,104,000 for the same period last year. The receipts from Jan. 1 1926 to May 20, inclusive, were 155,193,837 pounds, against 119,460,200 pounds in the same period last year. Boston prices were as follows:

Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces: Delaine unwashed, 44c.; ½ blook combing, 43c.; ¾ blood combing, 42 to 43c.; fine unwashed, 38 to 40c. Michigan and New York fleeces: Delaine unwashed, 43c.; ½ blood combing, 42c.; ¾ blood combing, 42 to 43c.; ¼ blood combing, 41 to 42c.; fine unwashed, 36 to 37c. Wisconsin, Missouri and average New England: ½ blood, 40 to 42c.; ¾ blood, 40 to 41c.; ¼ blood, 39 to 40c.; scoured basis, Texas fine 12 months (selected), $1 10 to $1 12; fine 8 months, 98c. to $1; California: Northern, $1 05 to $1 08; middle county, 95c. to $1; southern, 85c. to 90c.; Oregon: Eastern fine staple, $1 10 to $1 12; fine and fine medium clothing, 95c. to $1; Valley No. 1, 93c. to 95c. Territory: Montana and similar: fine staple choice, $1 10 to $1 15; ½ blood combing, 98c. to $1; ¾ blood combing, 85c. to 87c.; ¼ blood combing, 73c. to 75c. Pulled: Delaine, $1 15 to $1 17; AA, $1 12 to $1 15; fine A supers, $1 to $1 05; A supers, 90c. to 95c.; Mohair, best combing, 65c. to 70c.; best carding, 50c. to 55c.

At Brisbane, Australia, on May 24, prices were firm; 23,000 bales were to be offered in three days, closing Thursday. Japan was the largest buyer. In Liverpool the quantity declared for the East India wool auction commencing June 8 to 11 is 17,500 bales.

COTTON.

Friday Night, May 28 1926.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE CROP, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening the total receipts have reached 65,277 bales, against 73,225 bales last week and 87,891 bales the previous week, making the total receipts since the 1st of August, 1925, 9,132,946 bales, against 8,951,795 bales for the same period of 1924-25, showing an increase since Aug. 1 1925 of 181,151 bales.

NOTE.—Exports to Canada.—It has never been our practice to include in the above tables exports of cotton to Canada, the reason being that virtually all the cotton destined to the Dominion comes overland and it is impossible to get returns concerning the same from week to week, while reports from the customs districts on the Canadian border are always very slow in coming to hand. In view, however, of the numerous inquiries we are receiving regarding the matter, we will say that for the month of April the exports to the Dominion the present season have been 18,224 bales. In the corresponding month of the preceding season the exports were 18,713 bales. For the nine months ended April 30 1926, there were 208,617 bales exported, as against 167,260 bales for the corresponding nine months of 1925.

In addition to above exports, our telegrams to-night also give us the following amounts of cotton on shipboard, not cleared, at the ports named:

* Estimated.

Speculation in cotton for future delivery has been quiet at some slight advance in prices. That was due mostly to drought in the Carolinas and Georgia. Maximum temperatures there have latterly been 100 to 101 in North Carolina and Georgia and as high as 103 in South Carolina. It has at times been as high as 100 to 102 in parts of the Western belt, including Texas. At the same time the nights have, strangely enough, been too cool, that is, in the 40's at times, though more generally in the 50's and 60's; in any case, they were abnormally low temperatures. Private crop condition reports have ranged from 68 to 72%, against 76.6 in the Government report a year ago and a ten-year average for this time of 71.6%. The acreage estimates point to a decrease of 2 to 2½%. Rains have fallen in Texas, though they were not so heavy as recently. The weekly report again said that the weevil was active in Southern Texas. It added that the nights were generally too cool for rapid growth. In Tennessee and Alabama there were also complaints of low temperatures at night. In Mississippi conditions are poor to pair. Western and central Arkansas needs rain. On the whole, the weekly report had no particular effect. Speculation was so dull that the market was heedless of features for or against the price. The dulness was partly attributable to the fact that the exchange was to adjourn over Saturday and Monday, while on those two days the New Orleans Exchange will be in session, and on Monday the Liverpool Board will be in session. Naturally, there was a tendency to even up transactions. Meanwhile, the spot markets were generally steady and in parts of Texas there was said to be a good demand for the better grades at firm prices. Memphis reported a fair business in the lower grades. There was some inquiry also for the better descriptions. New Orleans and Little Rock at one time reported a better spot business. Worth Street reports a better inquiry. In Liverpool the tone of late has been steady, partly, it is assumed, because of the drought in the Atlantic States and the fact that Texas continues to have more or less rain. The firmness of Liverpool cables was not without a certain effect on Thursday. There was a fair amount of trade calling across the water. The Continent was also buying in Liverpool. There was enough covering there in the absence of selling pressure to have a steadying effect, despite the contiuance of the coal strike in Great Britain. Worth Street has reported a somewhat better business. Here the undertone was steady because of the cheapness of the price in comparison with recent years and the lateness of the crop, the lower condition as compared with a year ago—lower by some 4.6 to 8.6%— and estimates that the acreage will show at least 2 to 2½% decrease. Nobody made much of the acreage talk, because even a decrease of 2 to 2½% would not alter the fact that the area is something unheard of in the previous history of cotton growing in this country, or anywhere else in the world. But there was no pressure to sell here. Liverpool has been buying here and also, at times, Wall Street. The trade and New Orleans have bought daily. The big acreage and the expected big carryover, according to the bulls, have been discounted in the price. Moreover, over large tracts of the belt May has been cold and wet. Such conditions are usually regarded as unfavorable. And latterly where it has not been cold and wet it has been hot and dry, for instance, in the Carolinas and Georgia. There was no rain at all in those States on Thursday and nothing more was promised in the next 24 hours but showers. There was also, for that matter, a low barometer in the Southwest, with frosts just to the west of Texas. In Texas itself the rainfall reported on Thursday was ½ to 1½ inches. That was taken to be prejudicial rather than otherwise for the crop in that State. Possibly these things might have had more or less influence but for the imminence of three holidays here and a growing interest in the New York Cotton Exchange election. For the first time in many years there will be a contest in the annual election for Exchange officers, not only for President and Vice-President, but for the Board of Managers. The issue involved is Southern warehouse deliveries for New York or a rejection of this plan.

July has been steady, with a premium over October of 74 to 76 points.

On the other hand, if the market would not decline, neither would it advance. The South keeps selling. The weekly report in regard to Texas was in the main favorable, although admittedly, higher night temperatures are needed there, as well as in other parts of the belt. The weevil emergence is reported to be smaller than last year. Several reports have appeard thus far this year to that effect. The acreage, aside from that of last year, is something entirely beyond precedent. A period of warm weather in the Western and Central belts, and also in the Eastern Gulf sections, would, it is believed, do wonders in promoting germination. Texas has an excellent supply of subsoil moisture. That is one of the outstanding features of the spring. Give Texas the temperatures it needs and the common belief is that the crop there may surprise everybody. It is believed that needed rains are not far off in the Atlantic States. Cotton goods as a rule have been quiet. Worth Street says bids are often too low. North Carolina talks of extending curtailment. Liverpool at times has been a seller as well as some of the spot firms. Spot houses have been selling July, if they bought the later months. Exports have fallen off. Everybody predicts a big carryover. The average of estimates on this point is 5,500,000 bales, one of the largest on record. That and the big acreage are the chief bear points, in conjunction with the dulness of the cotton manufacturing business throughout the world, with the exception of France, Italy and Japan. Another drawback is the stagnation of speculation.

To-day prices were practically unchanged. At one time they were 2 to 3 points lower and at another 3 to 8 points higher. The ending was at 1 point lower on July, October and December and 4 higher on March, with January unchanged. The Atlantic States had some rain, but the indications were for fair weather over Saturday. Temperatures seem likely to be cooler there. Texas on the other hand, had a little rain and the forecast pointed to cloudy conditions there. Liverpool was closed, but it sent some buying orders here; so did New Orleans. The trade bought to some extent. On the other hand, the South sold. Trade on the whole was very light, however, on the eve of the holidays, with New Orleans open on Saturday and Monday and Liverpool on Monday. Final prices show a rise for the week of 9 to 14 points. Spot cotton ended at 18.90c., a rise for the week of 15 points.

CENSUS REPORT ON COTTONSEED OIL PRODUCTION DURING APRIL.—Persons interested in this report will find it in our department headed "Indications of Business Activity" on earlier pages.

NEW YORK COTTON EXCHANGE INDEPENDENTS SELECT TICKET.—For the first time in many years the regular nomination of officers of the New York Cotton Exchange is opposed by an independent ticket. The opposition arises out of differences of opinion as to whether or not the Exchange should adopt Southern deliveries. Edward M. Weld, of S. M. Weld & Co., and a former President of the Exchange, is the nominee for President on the independent ticket.

Associated with Mr. Weld on the independent ticket are Edward E. Bartlett Jr., of A. A. Housman-Gwathmey & Co., who was President 1923-25, and who is named for Vice-President, and Walter L. Johnson, of Shearson, Hammill & Co., Vice-President of the New York Stock Exchange who was President of the New York Cotton Exchange from 19.8 to 1920. Mr. Johnson is named for member of the board of managers of the independent ticket.

Other former Presidents of the Exchange nominated for the board are George M. Shutt, President 1922-23, and Henry H. Royce, President 1915-17. James F. Maury, Treasurer since 1906, is nominated for Treasurer. Other nominees for the board on the independent ticket are:

John H. McFadden Jr., of George H. McFadden Brothers; Elwood P. McEnany, of Bond, McEnany & Co.; William F. Dowdell, of Weil Brothers; Dr. Herman B. Baruch, of H. Hentz & Co.; J. C. Botts, of Jenks, Gwynne & Co.; Benjamin H. Ettleson, of Thomson & McKinnon; Marshall Geer, of Williams & Geer; Frank A. Kimball, of Corn, Schwartz & Co.; Clayton E. Rich, of Rodgers, Rich & Co.; J. Chester Cuppia, of J. C. Cuppia & Co.; Adolph E. Norden, of A. Norden & Co., and Harry L. Goss.

The announcement of the independent ticket was accompanied by a signed statement by Norrie Sellars and William Mitchell, the members of the Exchange, who proposed the list, setting out that "it is desired to emphasize the fact that this independent ticket is not placed in nomination because of any personal objection to the nominees on the regular ticket, but solely because it is felt that the Southern delivery is now the paramount issue before the members of the Exchange, and it is desirable that a decisive majority of the Exchange board as well as the officers heading the ticket be unqualifiedly in favor of the principle of Southern deliveries."

William Mitchell, of A. A. Housman-Gwathmey & Co., also issued the following statement:

For some time past the members of the New York Cotton Exchange have felt that some definite step was necessary to modernize the method of handling spot cotton, which in turn would also necessitate changes in the forward delivery contract itself. Recently a proposal to limit the number of contracts any member or firm could hold in any one month was brought forward by the Board of Managers, and after lengthy discussion by the members a vote was taken, with the result that the proposal was lost. Mr. Jardine, Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, had previously urged the need of some action that would additionally strengthen the market for cotton contracts, not only in New York, but at other points in the country where there were contract markets as well.

For several years efforts have been made by a number of committees appointed by the Board of Managers of the New York Cotton Exchange to learn all of the advantages and disadvantages of a system of Southern warehouse deliveries on contracts traded in on a New York exchange. These committees have reported favorably, but their findings met with more or less opposition, largely based on fear that an actual trial of this system might not work out as hoped for and thereby place the Exchange in a very disadvantageous position, for it would be exceedingly difficult to retreat once the steps were taken.

A close study of the nominations of officers and board members named, as given on the regular ticket, posted by the nominating committee, seemed to indicate that the majority, at least, were anti-Southern warehouse delivery. This meant, at least, another year of delay in carrying out the wishes of Secretary Jardine to modernize trading in cotton futures, and many prominent members of the exchange felt that something definite should be done and a forward step taken at the earliest possible moment. It was with considerable regret that a group of leading cotton men got together early in the week to consider the advisability of bringing forth an opposition ticket, for there was no personal objection to the members regularly nominated, and the self-appointed committee to consider an opposition ticket were loath to hurt the feelings of those already nominated to govern the affairs of the exchange during the coming year.

Believing, however, that the best interests of the exchange warranted heroic action, they decided to select the strongest men obtainable, and who were inclined to view that a system of delivery at Southern warehouses would immensely enhance the value of the New York contract.

FAIRCHILD COTTON ESTIMATE.—The Fairchild News Service of this city estimates the acreage planted to cotton for the 1926-1927 season at 47,310,000 acres, a decrease of 1.7% from last year. The condition is placed at 68.5% as compared with the 10-year average on May 25 of 72%. On this basis they calculate the crop will be 14,563,000 bales, providing the weather proves to be about average the rest of the season. Below is the report in full by States:

In estimating the crop we have used a par based on a 10-year average condition, and on a 10-year yield per acre. The par, or yield per acre if the condition were 100% we have placed at 214 pounds to the acre. The Crop Reporting Board use a par based on a sliding relation between 3, 5 and 10-year trends, but when it is realized that last year a par figure based on trends proved so erroneous, we believe one is justified in adopting a par that disregards trends. This is clearly illustrated in Mississippi last year. The 3-year average trend has been downward consistently, yet Mississippi last year made 275 pounds to the acre, the highest yield per acre

COTTON ACREAGE ESTIMATE OF SOUTHERN COTTON CO.—The Southern Cotton Co. in their report issued yesterday (Friday), places the condition of the cotton crop as of May 22 at 68.7% and the decrease in acreage at 1.9%.

ACTIVITY IN THE COTTON SPINNING INDUSTRY FOR APRIL.—Persons interested in this report will find it in our department headed "Indications of Business Activity" on earlier pages.

WEATHER REPORTS BY TELEGRAPH.—Reports to us by telegraph this evening denote that with the exception of a few localities in the eastern section of the cotton belt, the weather during the week has been generally favorable throughout the cotton belt. Very little rain has fallen during the week and precipitation has as a rule been light. In some sections of the eastern part of the belt there is need of rain.

Texas.—The weather during the week has been generally dry and warm and planting and replanting made satisfactory progress. The dry warm weather the last few days has been a boon to cotton farmers, allowing them to make up for lost time. The crop, however, is from one to four weeks late.

Mobile, Ala.—The weather has been more favorable and good progress has been made with farm work. Crops are clean and condition is improving.

The above statement shows: (1) That the total receipts from the plantations since Aug. 1 1925 are 10,204,240 bales; in 1924 were 9,129,724 bales, and in 1923 were 6,438,620 bales. (2) That although the receipts at the outports the past week were 65,277 bales, the actual movement from plantations was 20,880 bales, stocks at interior towns having decreased 44,397 bales during the week. Last year receipts from the plantations for the week were 4,739 bales and for 1924 they were 24,888 bales.

BREADSTUFFS.

Friday Night, May 28 1926.

The flour trade has been in much the same condition as previously. One week is about the same, if not exactly the same, as another. The best that can be said is that at most trade was only moderately active, where it was not dull. Consumers still buy as they need supplies and never for any great length of time ahead. The Northwestern mills have, it is said, sold a fair quantity of rye flour for export to Germany, and, it is understood, other parts of Europe. But no activity has appeared. The clearances from New York last week dropped to 64,344 sacks, against 95,401 sacks in the previous week. New York clearances on the 26th inst. were 65,528 sacks, mostly to England and Greece.

Wheat advanced for a time, then reacted, though there were complaints of hot, dry weather. Oklahoma was dry and the temperatures were high. This excited comment. The crop at the Southwest is approaching the critical stage. In northern Kansas the crop was said to be deteriorating. In parts of Nebraska there were complaints. Minnesota and the Dakotas needed, it was said, soaking rains, and at once. On the 24th inst. it was 102 degrees in the Dakotas. That was, of course, abnormal for May 24 in that relatively high latitude. May transactions must be settled before the 29th. May shorts were nervous, as the offerings were small. The United States visible supply last week, moreover, decreased 2,315,000 bushels. That brought the total down to 18,951,000 bushels, against 37,173,000 a year ago. Northwestern mills sold considerable rye flour to Europe, supposedly to Germany. On the other hand, St. Louis and Kansas City sold wheat on the 24th inst. for shipment to Chicago. The arrivals, too, at Chicago on that day reached a total, larger than any recent one, of 156 cars. Also, world's shipments were 13,818,000 bushels, which was larger than expected. Export business was small on the 24th inst., with leading European markets closed for Whit-Monday. The near maturity of the May option was expected to direct the trend of prices to some extent. The weather and crop news in the belt will be the paramount feature. The world's visible supply on May 1 was 225,530,000 bushels, against 278,020,000 last year and 311,590,000 two years ago. In Argentina heavy rains were reported generally; seeding is completed and these will be found very beneficial to farmers in the North. There is said to be a good-sized short interest in July, only a portion of which was covered on the 24th inst., and the market is in shape, it is declared, to advance rapidly should any serious attempt to be made to cover. The outlook of the European wheat crop is better than the average this year, according to a survey made by the International Institute of Agriculture. Italy has a prospective crop above the average, despite heavy rains in the north and dryness in the south. The prospects in Hungary and Czechoslovakia are good, but low temperatures delay the crop. Bulgaria needs rain. Rumania expects a better harvest than last year for wheat, rye, barley and oats. Russian winter cereals are better than last year and above the general average. The prospects in England are poor. Later May was more than ever the feature. On the 26th inst. it advanced 2c. on old style and 6c. on the new. This helped other options. Also, the export demand was better. Dry weather prevailed in the Northwest and Southwest. Missouri needs copious rains. The world's stock fell off 7,750,000 bushels. But on the 27th inst. May suddenly fell 9c. on large shipments to Chicago from Kansas City, with more coming from Kansas City and Omaha. General rains also told on prices for the later deliveries. Liquidation was heavy. Chicago wired that some 600,000 to 700,000 bushels of cash wheat would be delivered on May contracts Saturday, including a cargo of 227,000 bushels of spring wheat, which arrived from Duluth. The boat is now discharging at a local house, the grain going into cars. To-day prices closed 1 to 2½c. higher at Chicago, but were irregular at Winnipeg. There they ended ⅛c. lower to 1c. higher. The cables were disappointing, and this caused an irregular opening, although prices were inclined to advance from the start. For a time, however, there was a certain amount of liquidation in May, particularly in the old May. That showed greater weakness than the new. Also, there were rains in the Dakotas, in some cases copious. They could not fail to be beneficial. Moreover, the export demand fell off. The sales did not go beyond 250,000 bushels in all positions, and perhaps did not reach that quantity. Some 80,000 bushels of new winter sold from July 20 to Aug. 5 at 11 to 11¼c. over September, f. o. b. Galveston. But on the other hand, some Kansas and Nebraska reports were unfavorable. Wheat was said to be heading short. Some of the fields, it was added, were being plowed up. May, after weakening, suddenly turned upward, as a natural rally after the recent marked decline. Argentine exports this week were 1,328,000 bushels, against 1,799,000 in the same week last year. On the other hand, however, the indications seem to point to world shipments for the week of nearly 14,000,000 bushels. The on passage stocks will apparently show a fair increase. The decrease in the American visible supply next Tuesday will probably be only moderate. Some of the Canadian crop reports were favorable. The Chicago Board of Trade will be open tomorrow. Irregular fluctuations in the May delivery are expected. Last prices show a decline of 8¾c. on old May for the week, while new May is up 4c. July and September show an advance for the week of 1 to 1½c. Delivery of May wheat through the Clearing House at Chicago can be made on Saturday up to 1.30 p. m. The Manager of the Clearing House may extend the time for filing original delivery notices for the sole purpose of permitting deliveries on straddels between round and job lots.

Indian corn declined ½ to ¾c. last Monday owing to unexpectedly large deliveries on May contracts. They reached nearly half a million bushels, or to be exact, 483,000 bushels. As if this were not enough, country offerings increased. The demand was not large enough to cope with these factors. The decline, after all, was not severe. But it dampened the desire to buy. Liquidation, on the contrary, was the order of the day. The United States visible supply last week decreased 1,318,000 bushels, against a decrease in the same week last year of 2,199,000 bushels last year. The total is now 27,397,000 bushels, against 17,383,000 last year. Des Moines, Ia., wired on the 24th: "Clear and warm this morning; no rain over the week-end; a little more than usual moving, mostly to industries at Cedar Rapids; new crop grains are reported doing well, but could not use more moisture." It continues more of a weather market as regards the start of the crop than anything else. Large offerings to arrive from Illinois points caused some decline on the 26th inst. On the 27th, again, came lower prices, as wheat broke 9c. July and September corn touched a new low. Des Moines wired: "Warm and partly cloudy this morning. Looks like possible thunder showers. Small grains in immediate vicinity reported looking fine. Corn is doing well. Hear a few reports of farmers getting tired of renewing corn notes and are going to let corn go soon." To-day prices showed little net change. At one time they were ⅛ to ¼c. higher. They closed unchanged to ⅛c. net advance. New low levels for the season were again reached. That was due more to good weather and the dulness of the cash trade than to anything else. There was liquidation, however, in sufficient volume to tell on prices. Also, there was scattered selling for short account. But on the decline it was noticed that commission houses took hold on a very fair scale and prices rallied ¼ to ½c. from the low of the day. Profit taking on the short side assisted the rally. Besides, the later upward turn in wheat was not without its effect on corn. And while country offerings were of fair size, they were mostly above current bids. The country showed no anxiety to sell. Last prices show a decline for the week, however, of 1¾ to 3c.

Oats declined slightly at one time early in the week but became steadier on unfavorable crop news from Ohio. In Illinois the crop is growing slowly, with temperatures now and then in the 40's. The United States visible supply decreased last week 2,618,000 bushels. The total is now 39,400,000 bushels, against 37,356,000 a year ago. Trading has not been active and the fluctuations have kept within very narrow bounds. For instance, on the 24th prices ended ⅛c. lower to ⅛c. higher. Nobody seemed to take any great interest in the trading. Deliveries on the 24th were 82,000 bushels. Later oats were firmer than corn, as oats States needed rain. Deliveries on May contracts on the 26th inst. were 46,000 bushels. On the 27th inst. prices were affected by the downward plunge of May wheat, though the net decline in oats was small. To-day prices showed little net change. At one time they were some ½c. lower. The ending was unchanged to ⅛c. lower. Liquidation was a feature. That accounted largely for the decline at one time. Early in the day there was quite a little selling of May. Also, weather conditions had become favorable. Rains where they were needed had their effect. But on the decline shorts recovered. That and the firmness in other grain checked any downward turn. Cash demand, however, was only moderate. That offset the fact that receipts were only fair. But there was some export demand. It was not large, but it made some talk. What the market needs is greater outside interest. It is too much of a mere professional affair. Last prices show little net change on May and July for the week. They are ⅛c. higher on May and ⅛c. lower on July. September ended ¼c. lower.

Rye declined ¼ to ½c. on the 24th inst. with some liquidation and no sign of renewed export buying. A reaction in wheat had some effect. The American visible supply decreased 408,000 bushels. The total now is 11,812,000 bushels, against 10,261,000 a year ago. Speculative interest seemed absent and the business in cash rye was not large enough to brace prices. Deliveries on the 24th were 16,000 bushels. A good export business was reported later and on the 26th inst. prices advanced 2⅜c. On the 27th, with May wheat lower, rye became weak and fell 2¼ to 2⅜c. The demand on the 25th inst. was said to be better. It is believed that a fair business with Germany and Poland will be done in the next month or six weeks. To-day prices closed 1¾c. to 2c. net higher. Complaints about the condition of the crop accounted for the rise. They caused quite a little covering. But there was very little export business. In the end the firmness of wheat was not without considerable effect in lifting rye. Many were evening up before the holiday. Final prices show a rise for the week of 2½ to 3½c.

WEATHER BULLETIN FOR THE WEEK ENDED MAY 25.—The general summary of the weather bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture, indicating the influence of the weather for the week ended May 25, follows:

At the beginning of the week warm weather prevailed in the more eastern States, but it had become considerably cooler in the Northwest, and during the following few days lower temperatures overspread the eastern half of the country. The middle of the week was warmer in the North, but there was a rather sharp reaction to cooler the latter part in the area from the Ohio Valley northward and eastward. At the same time, it had become much warmer in the Mississippi and Missouri Valley States. Freezing temperatures were confined to the more northeastern interior districts, the western upper Lake region, a few central-northern localities, and locally in some higher western localities.

The temperature, for the week as a whole, averaged near normal in most of the Atlantic Coast States and above normal in nearly all sections west of the Mississippi Valley. It was especially warm in the central Plains, central Rocky Mountains, and western Plateau sections, where the weekly mean temperatures over considerable areas were from 6 degrees to as much as 10 degrees above normal. They were from 2 degrees to 4 degrees below normal in most of the South, and 3 degrees to 10 degrees below from the Ohio Valley and West Virginia northward.

The first half of the week had unsettled and showery weather over most of the eastern half of the country, with some moderately heavy local rains in the Ohio Valley and in the South. Thereafter showers, though mostly of a local character, were rather frequent from the middle Mississippi and Ohio Valleys northward, and, at the same time, there were scattered rains over the northern half of the trans-Rocky Mountain area.

Moderate to generous rainfall occurred during the week in the upper Mississippi Valley and over the areas north of the Ohio River and central Appalachian Mountain sections, with some portions of the western Lake region receiving more than 2 inches. In most of the Atlantic coast area the amounts were light, except that some fairly generous rains occurred in districts near the coast from North Carolina southward; in the interior the amounts were again light and in many places inappreciable. Rainfall was fairly heavy in some Gulf districts and parts of Texas, but generally over the western half of the country the falls for the week were inappreciable or mostly light, except for some fairly good showers in the Northwest. There was an abundance of sunshine in nearly all sections of the country, with the amounts ranging generally from 75 to as much as 90% of that possible throughout the regions west of the Mississippi River.

The lack of moisture is becoming rather urgent in much of the interior of the country, including the southern portions of Indiana and Illinois, much of Kentucky and Tennessee, parts of Ohio, and in most sections in the trans-Mississippi States from Missouri and south-central Oklahoma northward. Rain is also still needed in parts of the Northwest, especially in eastern Montana and in some dry-farming districts in the Pacific Northwest. The drought is still severe in the interior of the South Atlantic States.

Rainfall during the week, however, materially improved soil moisture conditions in the Lake region, extending south over much of the several States bordering on the north bank of the Ohio River. The increased moisture was also very beneficial in immediate south Atlantic sections from central North Carolina southward, including most of Florida. Mostly fair weather, after the first day of the week, facilitated farm work in the Gulf area west of the Mississippi River where field operations made much better progress than during recent weeks.

Temperatures were favorable in the western half of the country, except that in some dry sections they tended to rapid depletion of the already scanty soil moisture. In the Southwest the warmer weather was very favorable, particularly where moisture was ample in the west Gulf States, but in central and northern districts east of the Mississippi River it continued much too cool for good germination and growth of vegetation. Farm work made generally good advance, but is still considerbaly late in many sections, especially in the northeastern quarter of the country.

SMALL GRAINS.—The weather was mostly favorable over the central and eastern portions of the winter wheat belt, but the need for more moisture is becoming acute in the western Plains area and rain is needed in the Pacific Northwest. There has been some damage by drought in extreme western Kansas, some harm by rust in southwest Oklahoma and Texas, and late-seeded is still poor in the central valley States. In general this crop is in fair to very good condition.

Winter wheat has begun to head north to Nebraska and north of the Ohio River, but on short straw in some localities. Spring wheat grew rapidly in North Dakota, but in Minnesota progress was poor from lack of moisture, and drought caused some damage in eastern Montana. Elsewhere the crop is looking well.

Oats generally made good advance, but need rain in many localities, particularly in the Plains States. Some rust is reported in Oklahoma, Texas and California, and some are being cut for hay in the latter State. Oat harvest is progressing favorably in Texas under good weather conditions, with good yields. Flax seeding made excellent progress in the Dakotas, but the crop was injured by frost in some localities in Minnesota. Much rice was planted in Louisiana.

CORN.—The mostly fair and sunny weather in the Corn Belt permitted rapid progress in planting, and this work is now well along in the eastern portion to the central parts of the northern Ohio Valley States. In the West planting is largely completed, except in the extreme east-central and northeastern portions of Iowa. In the trans-Mississippi States the weather has been fairly favorable for germination and stands are reported as mostly satisfactory, though, in most cases, only fair in Iowa. Rain is needed for corn in the immediate Ohio Valley and in most of the area west of the Mississippi, except in the Southwest, and moisture is also too scanty in the interior of the Southeast. The crop made very good progress in the Southwest, except poor to only fair in the extreme southern Plains.

COTTON.—The temperature averaged moderately below normal in the central and southwestern portions of the Cotton Belt, about normal in the east, and somewhat above in the northwest. Rainfall was generally light to moderate, except for generous amounts in parts of the extreme east and in local areas of the west. The showers in the Atlantic coast section were helpful, and the generally fair weather in the southwest durirg the middle and latter parts of the week was beneficial, but the drought was still unrelieved in the interior of the Atlantic Coast States.

In most of the Carolinas and Virginia the dry weather and cool nights were unfavorable for cotton and progress of the crop was slow, with germination generally poor and irregular. In Florida and southern Georgia the increased moisture was helpful and advance was fair to good, but in northern Georgia much of the crop is not yet up and progress was generally poor. In Tennessee the nights were too cool, but in Alabama progress was mostly fair, though stands are rather spotted, ranging from poor to good, because of the cool nights. In Mississippi, conditions are indicated as ranging from poor to fair.

In Louisiana and Arkansas the weather of the week was generally favorable, except for need of moisture for germination in most central and western portions of Arkansas, and very good progress was reported. The mostly fair and warmer weather improved conditions materially in Texas, where planting and replanting made very good advance, with the late planted coming generally to satisfactory stands, though the nights were mostly too cool for rapid growth. In Oklahoma, condition varies from very poor to very good, but is mostly fair; rain is needed, except in the south. With favorable weather, chopping made good advance in the southern half of the belt. Weevil are reported as active in southern Texas.

The Weather Bureau also furnishes the following resume of the conditions in the different States:

Virginia.—Richmond: Temperature below normal most of the week; rainfall too light generally to relelve droughty conditions. Cultivation of early corn made fair progress. Fields mostly prepared for tobacco, but setting out delayed. Growth of cotton slow account cool weather. Wheat and oats in goods condition.

North Carolina.—Raleigh: Truck, corn, tobacco, potatoes, and other crops improved by rain over most of lower half of coastal plain, but drought having serious effect over much of State. Cotton deteriorated generally, except fair advance in small areas; germination very poor; much not up and two or three weeks late; germination also retarded in southwest where crust soil hard, following rains of previous week. Streams low for this time of year.

South Carolina.—Columbia: Good showers along the coast and in some eastern sections improved crops accordingly, but the drought in the interior and west was intensified. Corn and cotton germination poor and irregular with much replanting. Chopping early cotton in east and south where condition and progress fairly good. Wheat harvest has begun and oat harvest is general. Tobacco improved generally, but considerable water still necessary. Sweet potato transplanting very backward and minor crops in interior and west deteriorating or at a standstill.

Georgia.—Atlanta: Rains very beneficial in south, but drought not broken in much of central and north. Progress of cotton fair in south, but poor in north where many seeds not up; germination poor and some replanting necessary; chopping continues; some cotton lousy; cultivation generally good. Stands of corn mostly fair, except in north; poor advance and cutworms doing much damage. Transplanting sweet potato and tobacco plants more active in south. Minor crops late, but improving in south; rather poor in north.

Florida.—Jacksonville: Progress and condition of cotton very good; chopping about finished and much worked first time. Melons, cane, peanuts, tobacco, corn, truck, and citrus improved by rains 19th to 21st, but more needed on uplands in central division where citrus dropping badly. Oat harvest active. First shipment of peaches. Large area planted to sweet potatoes.

Alabama.—Montgomery: General beneficial rain, but more would be helpful; cool latter part. Farm work in progress. Corn, potatoes, truck, vegetables, oats, and pastures improved since rain; condition mostly fair to good. Cotton made fair advance; condition mostly fair to good; chopping general and nearly completed in south; stands spotted, account cool nights, and vary from poor to good; some replanting necessary in north.

Mississippi.—Vicksburg: Rainfall mostly light; two nights cool. Cotton progress poor to fair; good advance in chopping and largely completed in south. Progress of truck and pastures fair to good; of corn fair.

Louisiana.—New Orleans: Light rains in north; moderate in south. Cold first part; warm latter. Progress of corn and cotton very good; condition and stands poor to fair; chopping and cultivation progressing rapidly, but considerable grass. Much rice planted. Sugar cane and truck improving.

Texas.—Houston: Light to moderate showers first day; generally dry thereafter. Favorable for field work, which made rapid progress. Progress and condition of pastures, wheat, and oats good to very good. Condition of corn poor to fair; advance satisfactory. Progress of planting and replanting cotton good and late-planted stands mostly very good, but the early-planted poor; condition fair to very good; progress satisfactory, although nights too cool for rapid growth; fair advance in chopping and cultivation; weevil rather active in extreme south; crop late, except in extreme south.

Oklahoma.—Oklahoma City: Warm, with local showers in south; rain needed, except in extreme south. Progress of wheat poor to fair, but condition generally fair to very good; rust caused slight damage in southwest. Progress and condition of corn poor to fair; fields clean. Condition of cotton varies from very poor to very good, but averages fair; some replanting necessary; seeding completed in some central and southern counties; chopping continues.

Arkansas.—Little Rock: Weather very favorable for cotton, except soil too dry for germination of recently-planted in most central and western portions; otherwise stands fair to very good; excellent progress in chopping and cultivation, and crop clean. General condition of corn very good: Rather dry for minor crops, but still very good condition.

Tennessee.—Nashville: Cool and unfavorable for cotton. Early-planted corn under cultivation. Ample moisture for wheat, which is excellent. Spring oats leading; some tobacco plants set, but too dry for planting and growth. Considerable transplanting of sweet potatoes. More rain needed. Truch and vegetables backward.

Kentucky.—Louisville: Mostly cool, with light showers: soil moisture sufficient in southeast, but much depleted elsewhere where rain needed badly. Corn planting nearly completed; early up to good stand; germination of last becoming irregular. Oats growing slowly. Progress and condition of winter wheat fair to very good: beginning to head in north. Tobacco plants delayed. Cultivation of cotton commenced; some not up.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

Friday Night, May 28 1926.

Sentiment in most sections of the textile markets showed a decided improvement during the past week. This was induced principally by the large number of retailers in the markets attending pre-inventory sales. Claflins, Inc., held their first sale in the history of the company, and elsewhere sales offerings by second hands were numerous, as most of the latter close their half-year on June 1. These sales were said to have succeeded in forcing retailers to the realization that prices are exceptionally low and making them consider the wisdom of buying more, despite the slow consumer demand. Their operations were most encouraging and some observers went so far as to say that a turn for the better was at hand. While they do not look for any broad activity in the near future, they claim that it will not be long before there will be a check to the declines that have been prevalent for some time past. In the meantime, reports from some of the Western sections were particularly encouraging, while those from the larger Eastern centres showed that retail trade was becoming more active. This has succeeded in prompting a more confident feeling concerning the probable consumption of summer merchandise. However, current retail business has continued to be confined to small lots, and the fact that prices were considered cheap failed to induce the placing of larger orders. Curtailment of production has continued in the various divisions of the textile markets. This is true of silks where demand showed but slight improvement. In regard to the floor covering division, interest has centred in the fall openings, which are scheduled for June 1.

DOMESTIC COTTON GOODS: Warmth, sunshine and pre-inventory sales resulted in a larger movement of seasonal merchandise in the markets for domestic cotton goods during the week. This in turn prompted a better feeling among factors. Although buying was still confined to small lots for immediate delivery, prices were firmer on a number of lines. The volume of inquiries was quite large, which was taken to indicate either a need for merchandise or very light stocks. Although a number of the bids were lower than mills cared to accept at this time, quite a satisfactory business was placed in various fabrics. These included such items as bleached muslins, the best known brands of sheets and pillow cases, wash goods, printed specialties and white goods. An improvement was also noted in the call for ginghams for immediate delivery, and quite a large volume of duplicate orders has been received. In view of the small stocks of ginghams available, a more cheerful undertone has prevailed in regard to the fall season. As to the gray goods division, a broader inquiry was reported, especially for osnaburgs. Denims were also said to have received their share of the increased business. The immediate outlook was said to be brighter than it has been for some time, owing to the small stocks of both unmanufactured and finished goods in cutters' and jobbers' hands. The call for white cotton dress goods, which is essentially a summer fabric, has also increased of late. Despite this improvement in demand, however, mills have furthered their plans for curtailment of production. Print cloths, 28-inch, 64 x 64's construction, are quoted at 5½c., and 27-inch, 64 x 60's, at 5⅛c. Gray goods in the 39-inch, 68 x 72's construction, are quoted at 8½c., and 39-inch, 80 x 80's, at 10¾c.

WOOLEN GOODS: Markets for woolens and worsteds ruled irregular. While conditions in the men's wear division continued quiet, women's wear was a little more active. Buyers of men's fabrics have placed little additional business, apparently lacking any confidence in prices. They have done considerable price shopping, and while there have been frequent reports of price shading among the smaller factors to get the business, larger mills have continued firm at their opening prices. Although warm weather has stimulated some buying of summer merchandise, such as tropical worsteds, summer cloth suits, four-piece golf suits and flanel knickers, demand was said to have been below normal. In regard to the women's wear division, attention has centred in the call for coatings. It was said that not in over 25 years had interest converged so completely in fancies.

FOREIGN DRY GOODS: Sentiment in regard to the linen market continued to improve during the past week. Reports indicated that owing to their cheapness, linens were regaining a market lost during the war, when their popularity was supplanted by various kinds of cotton goods. A goodly number of small lot orders continued to be received. This was particularly noticeable in handkerchiefs, dress linens and the better class of bleached linen tablings, with napkins to match. All of the aforementioned have been favored with a steadily increasing patronage. Burlap prices were steady. Buying, however, continued of a filling in character, as jute acreage estimates are 12½% larger than last year. Light weights are quoted at 6.30c. and heavies at 8.60c.

Massachusetts (State of).—An Act Authorizing Investments by Savings Banks in Bonds of Certain Public Service Companies.—The following is the full text of the Act passed by the 1926 session of the Legislature permitting savings banks to invest in bonds of certain public service companies:

AN ACT authorizing investment by savings banks in bonds of certain public service companies in addition to those already authorized.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Section 1. Section 54 of Chapter 168 of the General Laws, as amended, is hereby further amended by inserting after clause sixth, as amended, the following new clause: Sixth A. In the bonds, maturing not later than thirty years subsequent to such investment, issued or assumed by any corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any State thereof which is operating under the supervision of a public service or other similar commission of the United States or of any State thereof exercising regulatory jurisdiction therein and is engaged in the sale and distribution of electricity, or in such sale and distribution and also in some other form of public service enterprise, or in the manufacture and distribution of artificial gas, and is doing at least 80% of its business within the territorial limits of the United States; provided, that—

(1) The gross operating revenue of the corporation issuing or assuming such bonds shall be not less than one million dollars for its fiscal year immediately preceding the time of making such investment, and of such revenue at least 75% shall be derived from the sale and distribution of electricity or artificial gas, or both, and not exceeding 20% from the operation of a transportation system.

(2) Such corporation shall operate under a franchise or franchises under which at least 75% of its gross operating revenue is earned and extending at least three years beyond the maturity of any such bond, or under an indeterminate franchise or permit from, or agreement with, a public service commission or other competent public authority, which franchise, permit or agreement equally protects the security of the bondholders.

(3) The capital stock of such corporation shall be equal to at least two-thirds the total funded debt thereof; provided, that, in the case of a corporation having shares without par value, the value of its property as shown by its books shall exceed by at least two-thirds its total mortgage indebtedness.

(4) For the period of five years immediately preceding the time of making any investment authorized by this clause, the officially reported net earnings available for interest charges of such corporation, as shown by its annual reports or other sworn statements to the municipal, State or Federal authorities shall have been equal to at least twice the interest charges for the same period of the corporation's total outstanding funded debt.

(5) Such bonds, plus the total amount of any underlying bonds, shall be outstanding in an amount not exceeding 60% of the actual value of the fixed property securing such bonds, as shown by the books of the corporation.

(6) Such bonds shall be (a) a closed underlying mortgage bond secured by property owned and operated by the corporation issuing or assuming such bonds; provided, that such bond is to be refunded by a junior mortgage providing for the retirement of such bond, and that such underlying mortgage may remain open solely for the purpose of issuing additional bonds to be pledged under such junior mortgage or for refunding at par prior lien bonds; or

(b) a first mortgage bond constituting the only mortgage debt of such corporation. If such mortgage is not closed it shall by its terms prevent the issuance of additional bonds for extensions, improvements and property acquisitions, unless such additional bonds are issued either (1) for an amount not exceeding 75% of the actual cost of such extensions, improvements and property acquisitions, when net earnings, available for interest charges, for twelve months out of the fifteen months preceding the application to the trustee under such mortgage for authentication of such additional bonds have been equal to at least one and three-quarters times the interest charges for one year on the total amount of bonds outstanding under such mortgage and the proposed additional bonds, or (2) for an amount not exceeding 80% of the actual cost of such extensions, improvements and property acquisitions, when net earnings, available for interest charges, for twelve months out of the fifteen months preceding the application to the trustee under such mortgage for authentication of such additional bonds have been equal to at least twice the interest charges for one year on the total amount of bonds outstanding under such mortgage and the proposed additional bonds; or

(c) a refunding mortgage bond providing for the retirement of all prior lien or divisional mortgage bonds of such corporation outstanding at the time of making the investment, such bond being secured by a lien on property owned and operated by such corporation; provided, that any mortgage prior in lien to such refunding mortgage shall be closed unless such prior mortgage remains open solely for the purpose of issuing additional bonds to be pledged under such refunding mortgage; and provided, further, that if a mortgage junior in lien to such refunding mortgage bond exists, such refunding mortgage bond shall by its terms be refunded by such junior mortgage; and provided, further, that in case such refunding mortgage is not closed it shall by its terms prohibit the issue of additional bonds for extensions, improvements and property acquisitions by said corporation unless such additional bonds are issued in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (1) or (2) of paragraph (b) thereof, and shall further provide that the net earnings available for interest charges as therein stated shall respectively equal at least one and three-quarters times or at least twice the interest charges for one year on the total amount of bonds outstanding under such mortgage, of bonds secured by equal or prior liens, and of the proposed additional bonds.

(7) In this clause, unless the context otherwise requires, "funded debt" shall be construed to mean all interest-bearing debt maturing more than one year from its date of issue, but excluding bonds of the company held simply as collateral to secure other of its outstanding obligations, and "net earnings" shall be construed to mean the amount available for interest charges after deduction has been made for all operating expenses, including current maintenance, all taxes except income taxes, and all rentals and guaranteed interest or dividends.

(8) If, during any of the periods mentioned in this clause, such corporation has been consolidated by purchase or otherwise, the aggregate operating figures of the corporations so consolidated, exclusive of intercompany charges, shall be sufficient for the purpose of this clause.

(9) Not more than 15% of the deposits of any such bank shall be invested in bonds under this clause, nor shall more than 2% of such deposits be invested in the bonds of any such corporation.

Section 2. Clause ninth of said Section 54, as amended in subdivision (c) by Section 2 of Chapter 159 of the Acts of 1922, is hereby further amended by inserting, at the beginning at said subdivision, after the letter "(c)" the figure:—(1)—and by adding at the end of said subdivision the following new paragraph:—(2) Other bonds or notes issued, assumed or guaranteed by endorsement as to both principal and interest by a public utility corporation whose securities are authorized for investment by clause Sixth A,—so that said subdivision will read as follows:—(c) (1) A bond or note of a gas, electric light, telephone or street railway corporation incorporated or doing business in this Commonwealth and subject to the control and supervision thereof; provided, that the net earnings of said corporation, after payment of all operating expenses, taxes and interest as reported to, and according to the requirements of, the proper authorities of the Commonwealth, have been in each of the three fiscal years preceding the making or renewing of such loan equal to not less than 4% on all its capital stock outstanding in each of said years; and provided, that the gross earnings of said corporation in the fiscal year preceding the making or renewing of said loan have been not less than one hundred thousand dollars. A list of the companies whose securities prima facie comply with the requirements of this subdivision shall be furnished to the Commissioner annually, at such time after June 16 in any year as he shall designate, by the proper authorities of the Commonwealth having supervision over such companies.

(2) Other bonds or notes issued, assumed or guaranteed by endorsement as to both principal and interest by a public utility corporation whose securities are authorized for investment by clause Sixth A.

Section 3. Clause Fifteenth of said Section 54, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "Fifth" in the third line of said clause the words:—Sixth A,—and by adding at the end thereof the following:—In the preparation of any list which the Commissioner is required to furnish, he may employ such expert assistance as he deems proper or may rely upon information contained in publications which he deems authoritative in reference to such matters; and he shall be in no way held responsible for the omission from such list of the name of any State, municipality or corporation the bonds of which conform to the provisions of this section, or of any bonds which so conform, nor shall he be held responsible for the inclusion in such list of any such names or bonds which do not so conform,—so that said clause will read as follows:—Fifteenth, Annually, not later than February 1 the Commissioner shall prepare a list of all the bonds and notes which are then legal investments under the provisions of clause Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth A or Seventeenth. Said list shall at all times be open to public inspection and a copy thereof shall be sent to every savings bank. In the preparation of any list which the Commission is required to furnish, he may employ such expert assistance as he deems proper or may rely upon information contained in publications which he deems authoritative in reference to such matters; and he shall be in no way held responsible for the omission from such list of the name of any State, municipality or corporation the bonds of which conform to the provisions of this section, or of any bonds which so conform, nor shall he be held responsible for the inclusion in such list of any such names or bonds which do not so conform.

The National City Co. of New York has prepared a list of certain gas and electric securities which, in their opinion, meet the provisions of this new enactment. Care is taken, however, to point out that inasmuch as some of the provisions of the new law may be subject to differing interpretations, the National City Co. cannot guarantee that all the securities listed will fall definitely within the legal limitations. The list is as follows:

THE TRANSPORTATION ACT OF 1920.

The railroads of the United States are now operated under the Transportation Act of 1920. On March 1 1920 these railroads, which had on Jan. 1 1918, as a war measure, been taken over for operation as one system by the United States Railroad Administration, were, in so far as still under its control (the short lines having previously been surrendered), restored to their owners. Federal control was terminated pursuant to a proclamation issued on Dec. 24 1919 by the President of the United States and subject to the terms of the Transportation Act of 1920, approved by the President on Feb. 28 1920. The complete text of the Act was printed in the "Chronicle" of Feb. 21 1920, pages 715 to 732, with an amendment in V. 110, p. 2250.

On Sept. 1 1920 the Government guaranty of income which had been granted to assenting roads for the six months following the end of Federal control expired by limitation.

On March 1 1922, two further provisions of the Transportation Act expired by limitation, namely: (1) The provision of Section 15 (a) making it incumbent on the Inter-State Commerce Commission when adjusting freight and passenger rates during the two years beginning March 1 1920, to aim at establishing such rates for the railroads of the country as a whole or in districts as should afford "as a fair return" on the tentative valuation which was fixed by the Commission in July 1920, at $18,900,000,000 (against a book value of $20,040,572,611), a sum equal to 5½% per annum and in addition at the discretion of the Commission an additional ½ of 1% to make provision for improvements, betterments or equipment; (2) The provision in Section 210 (a) permitting the carriers to apply for loans from the Federal Revolving Fund, within two years from the termination of Federal control.

Rate of Return Allowed by Commission.

On May 24 1922 the Inter-State Commerce Commission, as required by the Act, made known its decision as to what would be a new reasonable rate of return on the investment of the roads, for use when fixing rates for passenger and freight transportation. The decision of the Commission was reached in considering the question of rate reductions, and the full text of the Commission's report and opinion in that case, in which a horizontal cut of 10% in freight rates was made, was given in the "Chronicle" of May 27 1922, pages 2317 to 2329; the conclusions as to the rate of return will be found on page 2327. The Commission ruled: "That on and after March 1 1922 a fair return on the aggregate value of the railway property of the carriers defined in Section 15a of the Inter-State Commerce Act, determined as therein provided, will be 5.75% of such aggregate property value as a uniform percentage for all rate groups or territories designated by this Commission." The Commission in July 1920, as already stated, fixed the tentative values of the properties at $18,900,000,000.

Following a decision handed down March 17 1923 by the Federal Court at New Orleans upholding the constitutionality of the provision in the Transportation Act generally known as the "recapture" clause, which was regarded as a test case (see V. 116, p. 1723), the Inter-State Commerce Commission on Mar. 23 1923 issued an order requiring all railroads to report by May 1 1923 as to their earnings during the year 1922 and to pay over to the Government under the Transportation Act one-half of the amount by which such earnings exceeded a 6% return on the value of the investment (V. 116, p. 1243). On Jan. 7 1924 (V. 118, p. 163) the United States Supreme Court also upheld the constitutionality of the "recapture" clause. The proceedings attacking the constitutionality of this clause were brought by the Dayton-Goose Creek Ry. of Texas, but when the action reached the U. S. Supreme Court, nineteen trunk lines had become parties to the brief filed in behalf of the road. (See V. 117, pages 2176-2179.)

The Inter-State Commerce Commission on April 4 1924 issued an order requiring all railroads whose net railway operating income exceeds 6% of the value of the property for the calendar year 1923 to file with the Commission, before May 1 1924, a report in the matter. This requirement is now a regular one each year. The Commission also announced that pursuant to a ruling of the Comptroller-General of the United States, interest on amounts of excess railway operating income payable to the United States under the Transportation Act will be required at the rate of 6%, beginning four months after the termination of the period for which the excess income is computed. The railroads, however, claim much higher valuations than those fixed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, and in most of the cases where income has been large enough to lay the basis for an apparent claim to excess payments the right of the Government to the money is in dispute. The annual report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, issued in Dec. 1925, in referring to this matter, said:

It should be borne in mind that the excess income reported has not been computed upon values fixed by us. For that reason the number of carriers finally determined to have earned excess income, as well as the amount of such excess income, may differ from the results shown by the carriers' reports.

During the year (from Nov. 1 1924 to Oct. 31 1925, inclusive), 33 carriers paid to us the total sum of $732,448 34 on account of one-half of their excess income as preliminarily computed for the various recapture periods. This sum, added to the $4,955,197 27 paid prior to Nov. 1 1924, makes the total of such payments $5,687,645 61. As the bulk of these payments has been made under formal protests and reservations, the general railroad contingent fund, composed principally of such payments, has not been available for the purposes contemplated by the statute.

Changes in Wages and in Transportation Rates.

The Transportation Act of 1920 was designed to enable the railroads as a whole to meet their financial problems caused by the war and Federal operation, and to assist them in their future financing by giving them a reasonable, though extremely moderate, return on their investment. Operating costs had enormously increased under Federal control and big advances in transportation rates were necessary to place the roads on a solvent footing. Furthermore, on July 20 1920 the U. S. Railroad Labor Board awarded wage increases aggregating over $625,000,000 a year. Accordingly, on July 31 1920 the Inter-State Commerce Commission authorized advances in rates calculated to add $1,500,000,000 to the yearly revenues of the roads. The immediate effect was most disappointing, owing to a precipitate decline in railroad traffic (V. 113, p. 1732 to 1734). The railroads were therefore obliged as one of their first steps to curtail their expenses drastically and to seek a reduction in the wages of their employees. Subsequent wage decisions made by the Board, until the latter part of 1922, resulted in decreases in rates of pay. Comparative statistics show the following results for Class I railroads (those with annual operating revenues above $1,000,000), exclusive of switching and terminal companies (see also nine-year statement, appearing on another page of this compendium, containing property investment, revenues, expenses, fixed charges, dividends, train, traffic and wage statistics in more detailed form). The following figures have been compiled from the records of the Inter-State Commerce Commission:

Calendar Year.	Average Yearly Wage.	Total Labor Cost.	Gross Operating Revenue.	Net Operating Income.	Return on Prop. Value.
1917	1,004	1,739,482,142	4,014,142,747	934,068,770	5.26%
1918	1,419	2,613,813,351	4,880,953,480	638,568,603	3.51%

1924	1,614	2,826,925,230	5,921,490,100	973,870 978	4 54%
1925	1,638	2,860,353,098	6,123,103,179	1,121,248,047	5.10%

These figures show the return on the investment in road and equipment without any reference to materials and supplies on hand or to working capital.

In April 1921 the Railroad Labor Board ordered the abolition on July 1 1921 of some of the provisions of the "National Agreements" which the railroad managers claimed had cost the railroads of the United States $300,000,000 per annum, but laid down 16 cardinal principles that must be maintained (V. 112, p. 1580, 1581; V. 113, p. 34, 805, 893, 915, 916, 1326, 1429, 1644, 1731, 1732).

Subsequently, in 1921-22, the national agreements were revised by the Labor Board, removing some of their most burdensome features in the case of railroad labor other than trainmen's brotherhoods. See below.

In May and June 1921 the Labor Board announced its decision that the exigencies of the situation demanded a substantial decrease in railroad expenses, and for that reason railroad wages on the larger roads should be reduced on the average 12%. A strike against this decrease and to forestall any further changes in wages and working conditions was ordered by the four trainmen's brotherhoods and the switchmen's union; but on Oct. 27 1921, on the eve of its becoming effective, was declared off, as below stated.

In Nov. 1921, after many reductions in freight rates had been made (since Aug. 1920), the railway executives, in order to be able to further decrease these rates as demanded by the public, posted notices of a proposed additional wage cut of about 10% with the intent of wiping out the remainder of the wage advance of 1920. The railroads agreed to pass on all benefit from this further wage cut to the public, and in anticipation of same put in effect on Jan. 7 1922 an experimental reduction of 10% on agricultural products for all parts of the country, this reduction to stand during the six months in which the plan to reduce wages would come before the Labor Board. See also V. 113, p. 2153, 2470, 2876. It was not until May 1922 that the Labor Board announced its decision as to further wage reductions, and it then promulgated decreases in the pay of the shop craft employees, maintenance of way men, freight car men, signal men, clerks, &c., effective July 1 1922, which it was computed would effect a saving to the carriers of $135,000,000 per year. This led to a prolonged strike, as noted further on in the article on Railroad Wages. V. 114, p. 2432, 2541, 2784. The maintenance of way men, who did not join in the strike, had a portion of the decrease remitted to them on a rehearing, the remission amounting to 2 cents an hour. In 1923 and 1924 wage increases of one kind or another again became common, not as a result of orders of the Railroad Labor Board (with few exceptions), but as a result of the action of many different roads.

An increase in freight rates, amounting to 5%, is now being sought by the Western railroads. Hearings on the application were opened before the Inter-State Commerce Commission on Sept. 8 1925 (V. 121, p. 36, 292, 802). Briefs in support of the urgency for 5% increase in freight rates, were filed with the Commission in March 1926 (V. 122, p. 1715). A supplemental brief was filed on April 24 1926 in which it is recited that "a 5% increase in freight revenues spread over the entire Western district will be so thin as to be scarcely noticed, yet this slight measure of relief may mean the salvation of many Western railroads." This brief was filed in answer to arguments opposing the increase sought (V. 122, p. 2449). Oral arguments in support of the increase are now being heard by the I.-S. C. Commission and a decision is expected to be handed down in the near future.

Watson Parker Act Abolishing Labor Board.

On May 20 1926, President Coolidge signed the Watson-Parker railroad labor bill, which was passed by the House on March 1 and by the Senate on May 11 last. This new act abolishes Railroad Labor Board, as established under the Transportation Act of 1920, and provides for the creation of boards of adjustment, a board of mediation to be appointed by the President, methods of submitting railroad labor disputes to arbitration, and when occasion demands, for the appointment of an emergency board by the President (see V. 122, p. 2749, 2905). The text of the Watson-Parker bill will be found in to-day's issue (May 29) of the "Commercial & Financial Chronicle."

The bill was agreed upon last year by most of the railway executives and heads of the four brotherhoods. The bill provides in brief as follows:

1. That the railroads and employees shall establish adjustment boards to arrange disputes.
2. That the President shall appoint, with the consent of the Senate, a board of mediation of five persons, none of whom has a pecuniary interest on either side, to intervene when the adjustment boards fail.
3. That boards of arbitration shall be created when both parties consent to arbitration.
4. That when the above methods fail the Board of Mediation shall notify the President, who may appoint an emergency board to investigate any report to him within thirty days. For thirty days after the report has been made there shall be no change in the conditions of the dispute except by agreement of the two parties concerned.

A comparison of the labor provisions of the Transportation Act with those of the Watson-Parker bill was given in the "Chronicle" of March 6 1926, page 1259. (See also V. 122, p. 2749 and 2905.)

Government Holdings of Equipment Trusts.

Late in 1921 and early in 1922 the Federal Government sold a large amount of its holdings of equipment trusts (see below), and used the proceeds to settle its accounts with the railroads.

The sale of these equipment trusts and the improved financial outlook later in 1921 led the Federal Administration to withdraw their support of the so-called Funding Bill, which, as an amendment to the Transportation Act of 1920, would have permitted the settlement of the large amounts due by the Government to the railroads on account of compensation, guaranty, &c., and the funding of $500,000,000 of indebtedness due by them to the Government for expenditures made during Federal control on additions and improvement account. Compare V. 113, p. 2371, 2043, 2042, 1730, 1115, 910 to 914, 805, 696, 488, 487, 149.

Valuation of Properties by Commerce Commission.

For tentative valuations of 150 roads filed in 1921, see V. 113, p. 1008, 1011, 1539. Further tentative valuations have been noted in subsequent issues of the "Chronicle" in our "General Investment News" department. See also V. 115, p. 1798. To date the I.-S. C. Commission has set final valuations on 279 carriers, as in the table below. A petition presented by the National Conference on Valuation of American Railroads, of which the late Senator La Follette was the head, to have the proceedings of the I.-S. C. Commission in the physical valuation of the railroads of the country recommitted to the Bureau of Valuation, was denied by the Commission on Dec. 3 1923 (V. 117, p. 2617). The Conference sought to have the Commission establish the original cost of property investment and labor in railroads, as well as other data. All the existing valuation work of the Commission was attacked as unsound. The Commission held that its procedure in ascertaining information with respect to aids, gifts, grants or donations, was in substantial compliance with the Valuation Act, and that analysis of method of arriving at final value was not required by the law.

Oral argument will be heard by the Inter-State Commerce Commission on June 23 1926 on ways and means by which the data collected by the Commission in its appraisal of railroad property may be brought up to date.

a The U. S. Supreme Court on Oct. 19 1925 refused to review the case of the Kansas City Southern et al. against the I.-S. C. Commission involving the question of the valuation of the road. The carrier sought to have the Supreme Court review a decision of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia affirming the decision of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia in which court the railroad endeavored to compel the I.-S. C. Commission to increase its valuation (V. 121, p. 2035).

b The United States District Court for the Southern District of California on Dec. 7 1925 handed down a decision annulling the orders of the Commission fixing the valuations of this road (now known as the Los Angeles & Salt Lake RR.), and enjoining the Commission from in any wise enforcing them (see V. 121, p. 2871).

T. P. Artaud of the Valuation Bureau of the Inter-State Commerce Commission on Dec. 18 1925 delivered an address before the Engineers Club of Hampton Roads on the subject of the Federal Valuation of Railroads, its Origin, Scope and Utility, which was reproduced in full in the "Chronicle" of Dec. 26 1925, page 3083.

Proposed Plans of Consolidation.

The Transportation Act of 1920 contemplates the ultimate consolidation of all the railroads of the United States into a limited number of competing systems, and under one of the provisions of the Act the Inter-State Commerce Commission is directed to prepare a plan to that end. The provision is not compulsory as far as the roads are concerned. In the process of carrying out the requirement, the Commerce Commission directed Prof. William Z. Ripley of Harvard University to prepare a plan of consolidation, and with that as a basis, the Commission prepared a tentative plan which was put forward in September 1921 "in order to elicit a full record upon which the plan to be ultimately adopted can rest." The plan was outlined in V. 113, p. 1429 to 1431, 1950 to 1952. A table showing the grouping of roads in the plans of consolidation under consideration by the I.-S. C. Commission was given in V. 119, p. 628 and 629. Hearings were held on the different systems proposed, principally the Northern Pacific-Burlington, the Great Northern-St. Paul, the Union Pacific-Northwestern, the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt, the Baltimore & Ohio-Reading, the New England-Great Lakes, the Pennsylvania and the New York Central Systems, but a final determination has not yet been made. The hearings terminated Dec. 4 1923. Oral arguments on the proposed consolidations were concluded Jan. 12 1924. (See also V. 120, p. 540.)

On March 2 last the I.-S. C. Commission handed down its decision denying, by a 7 to 1 vote, the application of the Van Sweringen interests for authority to unify under control of the New York Chicago & St. Louis Ry. (the proposed new company) the present New York Chicago & St. Louis RR., the Erie RR., the Pere Marquette Ry., the Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. and the Hocking Valley Ry. The rejection by the Commission was based chiefly on the proposed financial structure which denied voting control to the preferred stockholders and placed control in the hands of a "powerful few." The full text of the Commissions findings was given in V. 122, p. 1249-1255.

Early in 1925 the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Ry. purchased the stock holdings of Edwin Gould in the St. Louis Southwestern Ry. This acquisition, supplementing holdings purchased in the open market, together with the shares owned by interests friendly to the Rock Island, gave the latter control of the St. Louis Southwestern Ry. On May 4 1925 the Rock Island applied to the I.-S. C. Commission for authority to acquire control of the St. Louis Southwestern Ry. C. V. Burnside, Assistant Director, Bureau of Finance, of the Commission, in a report in August 1925 (V. 121, p. 800), recommended that the application be denied. The objections of Mr. Burnside were based on the fact that the Commission's tentative plan for the consolidation of the railroads of the country into 19 systems provided for the merger of the St. Louis Southwestern with the St. Louis-San Francisco system. The Rock Island under the Commission's plan would be a part of the Southern Pacific Co. In October 1925, before the Commission acted on the report of Mr. Burnside, the Rock Island announced that it had sold its holdings in the St. Louis Southwestern to the Kansas City Southern Ry. This announcement was further supplemented by a statement of Chairman L. F. Loree of the Kansas City Southern, which said that "this step was contemplated when the company a few months before acquired an interest in the Missouri-Kansas-Texas RR." Mr. Loree further stated that "it is hoped that the three properties, with certain possible additions, will constitute a system acceptable to the I.-S. C. Commission under the Transportation Act." (V. 121, p. 1904.)

On April 13 1926, the bill of Senator Cummins, introduced on Dec. 21 1925, providing for the voluntary consolidation of roads, subject to the approval of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, was favorably reported to the Senate. This proposed bill also provides that where a consolidation has not been voluntarily effected within five years' the Commission would be authorized to proceed to unify the roads into a limited number of systems. This bill would also use the recapture of excess earnings as an inducement to the carriers to consolidate by forcing a distribution of earnings over 6% among carriers earning less than 5% on an approved valuation. The committee's report on the bill said:

It is submitted as an inevitable conclusion that if a process of wise consolidation is not soon entered upon and rapidly carried forward, not less than 60,000 miles of our rail transporation system must be either abandoned or, at the best, will be rendering the most unsatisfactory and inefficient service.

It has been estimated that with the service now being rendered, from $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 annually could be saved, all of which could be utilized in a reduction of freight and passenger rates.

Another bill providing for the voluntary unification of all the railroads of the country was made public May 1 1926. This bill, introduced into the House by Representative Parker of New York, unlike the Cummins bill, has no compulsory features. The Parker bill provides that a period of 7 years be allowed in which the railroads would be permitted to form voluntary unions subject to the approval of the Inter-State Commerce Commission. At the end of the 7 years, the bill says, "it shall be the duty of the Commission to report to Congress the extent to which unification has taken place in accordance with such act, and in the light of the conditions then existing, its recommendations as to further proceedings."

The repeal of the law requiring the I.-S. C. Commission to formulate a plan for the consolidation of the railroads of the country into a score or more systems was asked of Congress by the Commission in its 39th annual report submitted on Dec. 10 1925. At the same time it was suggested that the Transportation Act be so changed as to expedite the natural grouping of the carriers into a smaller number of systems, the Commission retaining the power to approve or disapprove the mergers undertaken. The majority of the members of the Commission, according to the report, believe that "results as good and perhaps better are likely to be accomplished with less loss of time if the process of consolidation is permitted to develop under guidance of the Commission" in a normal way. The Commission's recommendations with respect to consolidation follow:

That paragraphs (2) to (6) inclusive, of Section 5 of the Inter-State Act be amended (a) by omitting therefrom the existing requirement that we adopt and publish a complete plan of consolidation; (b) by making unlawful any consolidation or acquisition of the control of one carrier by another in any manner whatsoever, except with our specific approval and authorization; (c) by giving us broad powers upon application and after hearings to approve or disapprove such consolidations, acquisitions of control, mergers, or unifications in any appropriate manner; (d) by giving us specific authority to disapprove a consolidation or acquisition upon the ground that it does not include a carrier or all or any part of its property which ought to be included in the public interest and which it is possible to include upon reasonable terms; (e) by modifying sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (6) so that the value of the properties proposed to be consolidated can be more expeditiously determined; and (f) by providing that in the hearing and determination of applications under Section 5, the results of our investigation in the proceeding of our docket known as No. 12964, Consolidation of Railroads, may be utilized in so far as deemed by us advisable.

Outline of Transportation Act.

The following outlines the Transportation Act of 1920, which was published in full in the "Chronicle" of Feb. 21 1920, p. 715 to 732, with an amendment in V. 110, p. 2250:

RATES MUST BE ADJUSTED SO AS TO YIELD A FAIR RETURN.—The Commission is from time to time to determine and make public what percentage of the aggregate property value constitutes a fair return thereon. Such percentage must be uniform for all rate groups or territories which may be designated by the Commission. In making such determination it shall give due consideration, among other things, to the transportation needs of the country and the necessity (under honest, efficient and economical management of existing transportation facilities), of enlarging such facilities in order to provide the people of the United States with adequate transportation: Provided, That during the two years beginning March 1 1920 the Commission shall take as such fair return a sum equal to 5½% of such aggregate value, but may, in its discretion, add thereto a sum not exceeding ½ of 1% of such aggregate value to make provision in whole or in part for improvements, betterments or equipment, which, according to the accounting system prescribed by the Commission, are chargeable to capital account.

The Commission in a decision handed down in May 1922, as noted on page 3 (inside of second column) stated "that on and after March 1 1922 a fair return upon the aggregate value of the railway property will be 5¾%."

Pending the completion of its valuation of the railway properties in the United States, the Commission is required to make tentative valuations of the several roads as a basis for rate-making. In July 1920 the Commission placed a tentative value on all the railroads in the United States of $18,900,000,000 as against a book value of $20,040,572,611.

DISTRIBUTION OF EARNINGS IN EXCESS OF 6%.—Net railway operating income in any year in excess of 6% of the value of the property shall be utilized as follows: (a) One-half of such excess shall be placed in a Reserve Fund maintained by the railroad; (b) the remaining one-half shall go into a General Railroad Contingent Fund (see also page 3 of this publication).

REFUNDING OF CARRIERS' INDEBTEDNESS TO THE UNITED STATES.—The net indebtedness of each carrier to the United States for additions or betterments may be funded for a period of ten years (or less at option of company) from the termination of Federal control, with interest at 6% per annum subject to the right o the carrier to anticipate the payment of the whole or any part of the indebtedness. Any remaining debt to U. S. to be evidenced by 6% notes running one year or less.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROAD PROPERTIES—STOCK CONTROL, &c.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission is directed to prepare and adopt a plan for the consolidation of railroad properties into a limited number of competing systems, and consolidations are authorized when in harmony with the plan as adopted and approved by the Comission. See remarks above and plans as proposed in 1921, V. 113, p. 1429 to 1431, and 1950.

The Commission shall also pass on any proposed measures for the control of one road by another by consolidation, lease, stock ownership or otherwise. In any consolidation the total amount of outstanding stock and bonds of the consolidating company shall not exceed the value of the consolidated properties as determined by the Commission.

JOINT USE OF TERMINALS.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission whenever in its opinion there exists an emergnecy may require such joint or common use of termina s, including main-line tracks for a reasonable distance outside of such terminals, as in its opinion will best meet the emergency and serve the public interest.

INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION MAY INITIATE RATES.—In the exercise of its power to prescribe just and reasonable rates, the Commission can initiate as well as modify and establish rates.

CONTROL OVER SECURITY ISSUES.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission is given exclusive control over the issuance of all railroad securities, except notes maturing in less than two years when the total issues of said notes of the railroad amounts to less than 5% of its capitalization. See regulations, V. 111, p. 1814, 1049, 587.

Federal Control—Standard Return.

The proclamation of President Wilson assuming control of the roads was dated Dec. 26 1917. See V. 105, p. 2509; V. 106, p. 35; V. 108, p. 2081.

CONTRACTS FOR GOVERNMENT CONTROL—RENTAL PAYMENTS.—The form of contract which the Government executed, with slight variations, with the railroads, will be found in V. 107, p. 1157, 956.

The Act of Congress approved March 21 1918 (cited in V. 106, p. 1421) authorized the President "to agree with and to guarantee' to any carrier "that during the period of such Federal control it shall receive as just compensation an annual sum (herein called standard return) for each year . . . not exceeding a sum equivalent as nearly as may be to its average annual railway operating income for the three years ended June 30 1917." In a few cases for special reasons extra compensation was granted. Disputes however, arose, and when Federal control was terminated Feb. 29 1920 there still remained a number of roads concerning which the question of compensation, whether the standard return or a larger sum, was still to be determined.

Out of the aforesaid compensation as supplemented by the company s non-operating income, including interest and dividends on any bonds or stock owned, and other outside items each company was required to pay all Federal (war) taxes, interest and other fixed charges, and also any dividends allowed on their capital stock.

A list of the compensation contracts finally executed up to Sept. 15 1920 will be found, with the amounts of the compensation agreed upon, on pages 6, 7 and 252 of the issue of this publication for Nov. 27 1920. Others have been noted from week to week in later issues of the "Chronicle."

United States Railroad Administration.

Director-General of Railroads and Agent of the President, Andrew W. Mellon; Chief Clerk, A. W. Stoll; Comptroller, L. J. Tracy; General Solicitor, A. A. McLaughlin; Treasurer, R. C. Dunlap. Short Line Section: Sidney F. Andrews, Chairman; W. G. Goodrich, Secretary. Headquarters, Hurley-Wright Bldg., 18th and Pennsylvania Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Increases and Decreases in Railroad Rates.

During the period of Government control operating costs had been so enormously increased that the roads fell far short of meeting their expenses and charges, leaving a heavy deficit for the Government to make good. With the return of the roads to private control, therefore, it hence became necessary to arrange for increasing rates for the transportation of both passengers and freight. The extension of the guaranty period for six months after the roads had been turned back to their owners was for the purpose of allowing time in which to make the adjustment. Just as the Inter-State Commerce Commission was ready to announce its decision, there came the decision of the RR. Labor Board on July 20 1920 awarding increases in wages aggregating $625,000,000 or more per year. The roads had asked for increases in rates to yield additional revenue of $1,017,766,000 per annum. Following the award of the Labor Board the roads petitioned the Commission for further additions to revenue in the amount of the increase. On July 31 1920 the Commission having placed a valuation of $18,900,000,000 upon the railroad properties, against a book value of $20,040,572,611, undertook to allow them 6% upon the property investment, which would mean a total of $1,134,000,000 with which to cover the increased cost of wages and supplies and to pay for improvements, &c. (compare V. 111, p. 653, 549, 459, 347 to 350, 329). The decision of July 1920 increased:

ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THIS COMPENDIUM

EXPLANATORY.—This Compendium is expressly intended for use in connection with the investment news and official reports published from week to week in the "Chronicle." Frequent reference is made, therefore, to the volume and page of the "Chronicle" (as V. 122, p. 000), where fuller information may be found. Following each statement also is given a reference to the latest news item in the "Chronicle" respecting the company. As every such item has appended a reference to the last preceding item, the reader can run back at pleasure.

Dividends.—The dividends ("divs.") in the text are in general those actually paid during the calendar years named, irrespective of when earned.

Net Earnings are given after deducting operating expenses and frequently taxes, but not interest or other fixed charges.

Increases and Decreases in Railroad Rates.

(a) Freight Rates.—40% in the East, 25% in the South, 35% in the West and 25% in Mountain-Pacific territory. (b) Passenger Rates—20%, the amount asked by the railroads, or about ½ of 1 cent additional per mile. (c) Pullman Rates—A surcharge to the roads of 50% on rates. (d) Excess Baggage Rates—20% advance. (e) Milk Tariffs—20% advance. (f) Coastwise and inland steamship lines and electric railway companies were permitted to increase their freight rates in proportion to the increases of the railroads in the same territory. (V. 111, p. 848.)

These increases in rates were expected to add $1,500,000,000 to the yearly revenues of the roads. But, unfortunately, a sudden decline in traffic caused an alarming falling off in railway operating income, notwithstanding the higher rates received. (V. 113, p. 2155.) It then became necessary to reduce both rates and wages.

On Nov. 17 1921 the Railroad Executives, in anticipation of a wage cut of 10%, announced a 10% reduction in rates on farm products for all parts of the country, except New England (and in New England also it was voluntarily accepted by most of the railroads), the old rates to be restored at the end of six months in case the expected lowering of railroad wages had not been accomplished. (V. 113, p. 2154, 2470, 2786.) This move followed numerous and important rate reductions on many products since Aug. 26 1920, when the general advance mentioned above was ordered. The 10% reduction in rates on farm products it was estimated would save shippers about $55,000,000.

In May 1922 the Inter-State Commerce Commission ordered a horizontal reduction of 10% in rates, effective July 1 1922. For full text of decision see "Chronicle" of May 27 1922, pages 2317 to 2329. In the case of grain, grain products and hay in Western territory the Commission had the previous autumn ordered a freight rate reduction of 16½%, which went into effect Jan. 1 1922. That reduction was allowed to stand without change, the 10% cut not in any way affecting it.

On April 17 1923 reductions were permitted in freight rates to meet Panama Canal competition on certain heavy commodities to Pacific Coast and intermediate points. The reductions apply to all Western lines, including those like the Atchison and Southern Pacific, that reach the coast by the Southern route, and the Union Pacific that goes by the Central route, as well as the Northwestern roads. Some time before the Inter-State Commerce Commission had refused to permit those lines to charge a higher rate to intermediate than to Pacific Coast points. Further reductions by the same nes were ordered to become effective June 1 1923. The latter ran as high as 50%. t was stated, on some commodities. (V. 116, p. 2089, 1014.)

The Inter-State Commerce Commission, for the second time in five years, denied on March 13 1926 the application of Western transcontinental railroads for authority to depart from the long-and-short-haul provision of the Inter-State Commerce Act. The carriers had sought permission to reduce freight rates on long hauls without applying the cuts to intermediate movements. The roads' petition involved reductions on 47 commodities, moving from origin territory west of the Indiana State line to Pacific Coast terminals, the lower rates having been sought to cope with Eastern manufacturers who can ship through the Panama Canal. (V. 122, p. 1558.)

Railroads operating through the Southwest and the lower Mississippi Valley were ordered by the Inter-State Commerce Commission on March 15 1923 to make a general revision of commodity freight rate schedules, effective June 30 1923. (V. 116, p. 1138.)

H. C. Hall, formerly Chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, in a letter dated May 28 1924 to Senator Smith, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce, answering an inquiry made by the latter as to rate reductions, stated that "it has been estimated that from July 1 1922 to the end of 1923 the shippers and consumers of the country have paid nearly $800,000,000 less in charges for transportation of property than would have accrued if no reductions had been made below the basis established on Aug. 26 1920." "Of this," said Mr. Hall, "it has been roughly estimated that more than $175,000,000, or about 22% of the total, represents a decrease in freight charges on livestock and the products of agriculture." The following is taken from Chairman Hall's letter:

Excerpts from Letter of Chairman H. C. Hall of the Inter-State Commerce Commission to Senator Smith, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce, Dated May 28 1924.

Since July 1 1922 there have been no general reductions over the country as a whole or throughout any of the major rate groups. Many reductions have been made in individual cases, but they have been relatively unimportant as compared with those made previous to and including the general reduction of July 1 1922. Readjustments of rates on some 30 commodities in the Southwest, involving both increases and reductions, but not designed to affect the carriers' aggregate revenues, became effective Nov. 27 1923. Other commodity rates in that territory are now in the course of similar revision.

It has been estimated that from July 1 1922 to the end of 1923 the shippers and consumers of the country have paid nearly $800,000,000 less in

The pref. dividend has been regularly paid to and including June 1926, but owing to delay in the signing of the contract for Government operation the common dividend due Sept. 1 1918 was not paid until Feb. 1 1919, when only 2% was distributed. On Mar. 1 1919 the common again received 2% then none until Dec. 1 1923, when 1¼% quarterly was paid: same amount paid quarterly to June 1 1926.

BONDS.—First M. 4% Bonds, due July 1 1948: Covers about 1,686 miles of first track and about 2,684 miles of second, third and fourth tracks and sidings; also on the properties covered by the B. & O. Term. mtge. of 1894, all owned by the B. & O. and Baltimore Belt RR.

Total authorized amount of the First Mortgage is limited by the terms of the Ref. & Gen. Mtge. to $157,000,000, of which there are outstanding $81,995,100 of 4% bonds and $75,000,000 of 5% bonds (issued in Aug. 1924; V. 119, p. 809). The 5% bonds are not subject to redemption before Apr. 1 1945. All or any part of the 5% bonds may be repurchased by company on April 1 1945, or any int. date thereafter, on 3 months' notice and upon payment of a premium of ¼% for each three months from the date of repurchase to the date of maturity. The prior lien 3½% bonds due July 1 1925 were accepted at 100% and int. in payment for the 5% bonds.

Southwestern Division First Mortgage 5s.

These bonds were issued under the Southwest Division 1st mtge. of Baltimore & Ohio RR., dated Jan. 1 1899, in extension of the 3½% bonds for a like amount maturing on July 1 1925 (which were accepted in payment for new bonds at 100 and interest) and the principal and interest at the rate of 3½% per annum are secured by the lien thereof. Because of the provisions of the refunding and general mortgage, the additional interest on these bonds will not be secured under the Southwestern Division first mortgage, but the company will agree in a supplemental indenture that in the event that it should hereafter place any new mortgage upon the property on which these bonds are a first lien, and on which the ref. & gen. mtge. bonds are also a lien, the additional 1½% int. which these bonds bear is to be secured thereon by a lien prior to any bonds issued under such new mtge.

These $45,000,000 bonds are secured through the deposit and pledge with the trustee of the mortgage of $45,000,000 first mtge. bonds and all the other funded indebtedness and all the stock of Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern RR., which owns the properties. The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Division bonds are thus in effect secured by a first lien on 910 miles of first main track, extending from the western approach of the bridge of Baltimore & Ohio RR. across the Ohio River at Belpre, Ohio, to and through the city of Cincinnati and through the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to the City of East St. Louis, Ill., a distance of 528 miles, together with branches or divisions connecting with the main line, comprising an additional 154 miles, and 228 miles comprising the Springfield Division extending from Shawneetown, Ill., to Beardstown, Ill., together with all extensions, lands, buildings, appurtenances and other property, franchises, &c., all as described in the mortgage. This issue of bonds, constituting a closed mortgage, is thus outstanding at the rate of $49,450 per mile of first main track.

The bonds are not subject to redemption before July 1 1945. All or any part of the bonds may be redeemed on July 1 1945 or any interest date thereafter on not less then three months' previous notice, upon payment of their principal amount plus a premium of ½% for each 6 months from the date of redemption to the date of maturity. V. 120, p. 1743.

Pittsburgh Lake Erie & West Virginia System mtge. refunding 4% gold bonds (authorized amount $75,000,000) are a lien on 1,629 miles (all tracks, 2,866 miles), forming a direct connection with Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Fairport, Lorain and Sandusky, subject to underlying bonds outstanding thereon (see table above). The unissued bonds are reserved to retire underlying bonds. V. 74, p. 266; V. 79, p. 2793; V. 80, p. 1423; V. 86, p. 479, 1528; V. 87, p. 36; V. 88, p. 451, 685; V. 105, p. 715.

Convertible 20-year 4½s $63,250,000, dated March 1 1913, were convertible into common stock up to Feb. 28 1923 at $110 per share and redeemable beginning March 1 1923 at 102½. These 4½s are secured by the new blanket mortgage below described pari passu with the new bonds. See V. 96, p. 134, 200, 651, 715, 1088, 1421; V. 97, p. 727.

Refunding & General Mortgage of 1915 due Dec. 1 1995 (V. 101, p. 1884). The initial $60,000,000 5% bonds of this issue was brought out in Dec. 1915. See below; also V. 101, p. 1884; V. 102, p. 975; V. 103, p. 1989. On Dec. 31 1925 $10,000,000 Series "A", $24,250,000 Series "B," and $7,500,000 Series "C" bonds were pledged as collateral for long-term debt and $3,360,000 Series "C" bonds were in treasury, insurance and sinking funds. In June 1924 $35,000,000 Series "C" bonds were sold. V. 118, p. 2703. In Jan 1926, $30,000,000 Series "D" bonds were sold. V. 122, p. 606.

Security.—Secured on practically entire system, 5,084 miles of first track, 5,267 m. of 2d track and sidings, and equipment or interest therein, having in 1924 a net value of over $149,069,544. Also covers the passenger and freight terminals in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago and the freight terminals on Staten Island, N. Y., in Cincinnati and Washington, as well as one-half stock interest in the Washington Term. Co. and one-half ownership of joint yards at Washington. A direct lien upon about 2,289 m. of first track, and a lien, through deposit of bonds, and in most cases all, and in no case less than 96% of stock, of the co. owning remaining mileage.

Reservation of Bonds.—The mortgage reserves bonds to retire about $282,000,000 prior liens on various parts of the system and the $63,250,000 convertible gold bonds [these last being secured by the new mortgage pari passu with the bonds issued thereunder] and provides for the reservation o bonds for construction, improvements, new equipment and the acquisition, directly or indirectly, of properties and securities. The right is reserved to refund the Prior Lien 3½s into 1st M. 4s of 1898 due 1948, and to extend the due date of the S. W. Div. 3½s to date not later than July 1 1950.

The authorized issue is limited to an amount which, together with all the prior debts of the Railroad Co., after deducting therefrom the bonds reserved under the provisions of the mortgage to retire prior debts at maturity, shall not exceed 3 times the then outstanding capital stock, with the additional limitation that when the aggregate amount of the bonds outstanding and the bonds reserved to retire prior debts shall be $600,000,000, no additional amount of bonds shall thereafter be issued, except the bonds so reserved to retire prior debt, without the further consent of the stockholders of the railroad company, and such additional bonds may be issued only to an amount not exceeding 80% of cost of work done or property acquired.

Toledo-Cincinnati Div. Bonds.—In July 1917, following foreclosure sales, 391 miles of the former Cincinnati Hamilton & Dayton Ry. System was reorganized per plan in V. 102, p. 1059; V. 105, p. 715, 908, as the Toledo & Cincinnati RR. Co., whose outstanding securities ($5,000,000 capital stock, $16,250,500 First & Ref. Mtge. bonds and $20,000,000 Adjustment & Improvement bonds) were then acquired by the B. & O. RR. The bonds are a first collateral lien on 36 miles (Hamilton to Middletown, Ohio, 13 m.; Tontogany to North Baltimore, Ohio, 19 m.; Hamilton to West Hamilton, Ohio, 3 m.); second collateral lien on 12 miles (Troy to Piqua, Ohio, 9 m.; West Dayton to National Soldiers Home, Ohio, 3 m.); third collateral lien on 205 miles (Cincinnati to Dayton and Wellston, Ohio, 187 m.; Deshler to Findlay, Ohio, 18 m.); a fourth collateral lien on 141 miles, Dayton to Toledo, Ohio. Total, 394 miles.

The B. & O. RR. having acquired all the securities issued by the Toledo & Cincinnati RR., made a deed of trust covering the same to secure not exceeding $35,000,000 collateral bonds, which are intended ultimately to be made as far as possible a direct lien on this division. Of these new B. & O. bonds, $11,250,500 of 4% and $5,000,000 of 5% were issued forthwith under the plan. In addition, $2,447,000 Series "C" bonds have been issued for capital expenditures. The remainder were reserved to retire at maturity or earlier the bonds undisturbed by the plan as shown in table above, or for acquisition of underlying stocks, branch lines, branch line bonds, aid for refunding additions and betterments, or to acquire First & Ref. Mtge. bonds of new company issued therefor. V. 105, p. 2364.

The $35,000,000 6% Secured Bonds dated July 1 1919 have as security: $6,065,000 Reading Co. First Pref. stock; $14,265,000 Reading Co. Second Pref. stock; $10,002,500 Reading Co. Common stock; $15,000,000 B. & O. Ref. & Gen. Mtge. 6% bonds, Series "B," $2,000,000, Series "A" and $7,500,000 Series "C" due Dec. 1 1995. The trust indenture provides that the aggregate value of the collateral deposited shall always be maintained at least equal to 125% of bonds outstanding. V. 108, p. 2628; V. 109, p. 71.

The trust indenture provides that the company in each year, beginning July 1 1919, after providing for its fixed charges, will set aside out of net income accruing after that date, not less than $3,500,000 p. ann. until a total of $17,500,000 has been set aside, such sums to be used, from time to time, solely for capital expenditures theretofore made, to pay loans incurred or maturing funded obligations. Moneys set aside in any year in excess of $3,500,000 may be credited against moneys required to be set aside in subsequent years. Balance of total set aside in 1923. V. 108, p. 2628.

It has since constructed as extension or by separate organization with later acquisition: Fish River RR., Ashland to Fort Kent (1902); Northern Maine Seaport RR., South Lagrange to Searsport (1904); Schoodic Stream RR., to the paper mills at East Millinocket (1906); Medford Extension, South Lagrange to Packard via Medford (1907); St. John River Extension, Van Buren to St. Francis (1909-1910); Washburn Extension, Squa Pan to Stockholm, via Washburn with branch, Mapleton to Presque Isle (1909-1910), and extension to Van Buren Bridge (1915).

The Boston & Maine Transportation Co. was organized in June 1925 for the purpose of operating motor coach routes. Compare V. 120, p. 3308; V. 121, p. 702, 2151.

On Aug. 29 1916 the Boston & Maine RR. was placed in temporary receivership on account of inability to pay its maturing obligation of nearly $20,000,000. Pres. James H. Hustis was appointed temporary receiver and continued in this position until reorganization and consolidation of the system on Dec. 1 1919. The reorganization plan (V. 107, p. 1918, 2375, 2475), which became effective Jan 1 1919, provided for the consolidation of the Boston & Maine RR. with its seven directly leased lines and the assumption by the consolidated company of all sub-leases and other obligations.

The final valuation of the Boston & Maine RR. as of June 30 1914 was found by the I.-S. C. Commission to be $234,189,816 for all properties owned or used. The value of properties owned and used was found to be $101,712,971, and of properties used but not owned, $132,476,845.

The Commission found that the investment in road and equipment including land, was $90,653,840 on the valuation date. The cost of reproduction new of total properties used was found to be $223,317,897 and the cost, less depreciation, $170,629,869.

Reorganization Plan (as Amended), Dated Sept. 1 1925.

Principal Features Contemplated by the Plan.

The plan contemplates the creation of a new 7% prior preference stock having priority over all existing stock and the sale of $13,000,000 of this new stock to provide funds for additions and improvements; the surrender of certain percentages of their present holdings by existing stockholders who elect not to purchase their allotments of this new stock; the extension to later dates of maturity of $43,522,000 of bonds maturing in the years 1925 to 1932, inclusive, or the refunding of said bonds under the terms of the railroad's existing mortgage dated Dec. 1 1919, with an agreement on the part of the railroad to convert these extended or refunded bonds into the new 7% prior preference stock; and the readjustment of the rights of the holders of the various classes of stock now outstanding.

New 7% Prior Preference Stock (par $100).

Shall have voting powers and it shall have priority over the present 1st pref., pref. and common stock as to divs., which shall be cumulative, and also in liquidation at par and accumulated divs. It shall be callable as a whole but not in part on any div. payment date after Jan. 1 1930 at the price of $110 per share and accumulated divs. but in case of any such call made on or before Jan. 1 1940 a period of at least 90 days shall intervene between the first publication of the call and the date fixed for redemption, and during said period any bonds which are convertible may be converted into prior preference stock without regard to the limitation upon the amount of bonds convertible in any calendar year, and the stock to be called and redeemed shall include all shares issued in exchange for bonds so converted, but in this event the conversion privilege on all bonds not so converted within the period of 90 days shall terminate at the end of the period.

$13,000,000 of this stock is to be sold at the present time to provide funds for improvements and additions to the property of the railroad and shall be paid for in semi-ann. installments, the first of which shall be 10% of the purchase price and the others of which shall each be 15% of the purchase price.

In order to comply with statutory provisions this stock must be first offered to stockholders proportionately at par, and the balance not taken by stockholders under this offering must then be offered for sale at public auction at not less than par.

The plan involves, however, the election by each stockholder either (1) to purchase at par a certain amount of prior preference stock (which amount is not based on the proportionate allotment of said stock among all stockholders), or (2) to surrender a portion of his old stock.

For the different classes of stock the election to purchase new stock or to surrender old stock is as follows:

(a) Holders of 1st Pref. Stock, Classes "A" and "E": Will either purchase at par $12 par value of prior pref. stock for each share of old stock held, or surrender 12% of old stock, retaining 88%.

(b) Holders of 1st Pref. Stock, Classes "B" and "C": Will either purchase at par $12 par value of prior pref. stock for each share of old stock held, or surrender 8% of old stock, retaining 92%.

(c) Holders of 1st Pref. Stock, Class "D": Will either purchase at par $12 par value of prior pref. stock for each share of old stock held, or surrender 6½% of old stock, retaining 93½%.

(d) Holders of Pref. Stock: Will either purchase at par $15 par value of prior pref. stock for each share of old stock held, or surrender 12%of old stock, retaining 88%.

(e) Holders of Common Stock: Will either purchase at par $20 par value of prior pref. stock for each share of old stock held, or surrender 32% of old stock, retaining 68%.

The sale of the new prior preference stock is to be underwritten by a syndicate formed by Kidder, Peabody & Co., Lee, Higginson & Co. and Harris, Forbes & Co., Inc.

Extension or Refunding of Bonds.

The present funded debt of the railroad (excl. of bonds of leased roads amounting to $2,750,000, which fall due from 1941 to 1944, and excl. also of equip. trust notes) amounts to $124,123,479. Of this amount $48,685,479 are held by the United States of America and $75,438,000 are outstanding in the hands of the general public. Of this last amount $43,522,000 fall due in the years 1925 to 1932 incl., and these are the bonds to be extended or refunded. Their due dates are to be severally extended for a period of 15 years; they are to bear int. as at present until their present due dates and thereafter during the extended period at 5% per annum, and are to be callable in whole or in part at 102 and int. on any int. date after Jan. 1 1930, but not before their present maturities. On the bonds, which are now overdue or which shall hereafter fall due before their extension or refunding, int. will be paid at the rate of 5% per annum from their respective maturities.

It is intended that in addition the extended or refunded bonds shall, in so far as may be permitted by State or Federal legislation now or hereafter in force, be made convertible at par at the option of the holders thereof into shares of the 7% prior pref. stock at any time on or after Jan. 1 1930, and before Jan. 1 1940, or if any of the bonds are called for redemption between said dates, then before the date fixed for redemption which shall be not less than 60 days after the date of the call, subject to the limitation, however, that if in any calendar year from 1930 to 1933 incl. $7,500,000 of said bonds shall have been so converted, then no further bonds shall be so converted during the same calendar year except such as have been or shall be thereafter called for redemption during that year, and subject to the further limitation that said conversion privilege shall terminate after 90 days if the prior pref. stock as a whole shall be called for redemption.

Stock Readjustment.

The rights of the various classes of stock are to be readjusted as follows:

The preferential rates of dividend upon the 1st pref. stock, classes "A," "B," "C," "D" and "E," and upon the pref. stock are to remain unchanged. The holders of 1st pref. stock are to surrender the divs. already accumulated and unpaid on this stock, and also divs. accruing thereon after July 1 1925, and on or before July 1 1927, except so far as said last named divs. may be declared and paid on or before July 1 1927 and said holders shall remain entitled to cumulative divs. after July 1 1927. The 1st pref. stock shall be given priority in liquidation over the pref. and the common stock, not only for all divs. accruing after July 1 1927 and unpaid, but also for the par value of the shares, but shall receive nothing further in liquidation. The 1st pref. stock shall also be entitled to further limited payments after the common stock has received divs. of 6% in any year, as explained in the following paragraph:

If in any calendar year the holders of the common stock shall have received divs. equal in all to 6%, then out of any further divs. declared and payable on the common stock in the same calendar year one-half in amount shall be distributed among the then holders of the 1st pref. stock upon which the accumulated divs. are surrendered, such distribution to be in proportion to the annual rates of the preferential divs. to which said holders respectively are entitled, but in respect to each share of said 1st pref. stock this provision shall cease to apply or be operative when the aggregate of the amounts so distributed from time to time upon said share is equal to one-half of the amounts so distributed from time to time upon said share is equal to one-half of the amount of the accumulated divs. on said share which have been surrendered as herein provided.

The accumulated divs. upon the 1st pref. stock which are to be surrendered shall be kept alive and subject to the disposition of the committee, which may deal with or utilize said divs. in such manner as seems to it best calculated to carry out the plan and accomplish the results contemplated. V. 121, p. 1223.

CAPITAL STOCK.—The Boston RR. Holding Co. held $21,918,900 common and $654,300 preferred stock, and this was ordered by the Court to be sold by Oct. 1 1923. V. 108, p. 2122. The Court, on June 4 1923, modified the decree of Oct. 17 1914, the modification restoring to the New Haven its investment in the B. & M. V. 116, p. 2635. Voting trust agreement, V. 116, p. 1176, 2515. Suit by Stockholders' Protective Association, V. 119, p. 692.

BONDS.—In exchange for the $19,879,000 advanced by the Government the company issued $17,606,000 5% bonds payable July 1 1920 and $2,273,000 6% bonds payable Jan. 1 1929. The 5% bonds due July 1 1920 were refunded by a like amount of 6% bonds payable Jan. 1 1929, purchased by the Director General of Railroads.

The new 1st & ref. mtge secures all of the consolidated company's bonds equally with the bonds given to the Government, and will cover all the property owned or hereafter acquired, subject only to the following divisional mortgage bonds: Portsmouth Great Falls & Conway RR., due June 1 1937, $1,000,000; Worcester Nashua & Rochester RR., $1,265,000

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS.—(See Map.)—In 1919 a company under the name of "Canadian National Railway Company" was incorporated by the Dominion Government with the intention of having that company take over or operate the railways owned or controlled by the Government. This company was organized in October 1922.

In Jan. 1923 an amalgamation was effected between the above company and the Grand Trunk Ry. of Canada, the result being a new company with the name "Canadian National Ry. Co." and which new company became vested with the properties of the two amalgamating companies and became liable for the obligations of said companies. Pursuant to the agreement between the Dominion of Canada and the Grand Trunk Ry. Co. all the capital stock of the Grand Trunk Co. became vested in His Majesty the King on behalf of the Dominion of Canada and as a result of this and of the above amalgamation there was issued in favor of the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada in trust for His Majesty as above $180,424,327 70 of capital stock of the new Canadian National Ry. Co. This amount represented the previously outstanding capital stock of the Grand Trunk Co., there being no capital stock outstanding of the previous Canadian National Rys. Co. The Canadian National Rys. now operates 22,192 miles of railway all under control of the same directors and the same general and executive officers, whether acting respectively as directors or officers of one or another of the companies included in the Canadian National Rys.
